

Companies Act 1985

1985 CHAPTER 6

PART XIV

INVESTIGATION OF COMPANIES AND THEIR AFFAIRS; REQUISITION OF DOCUMENTS

Requisition and seizure of books and papers

447 Secretary of State's power to require production of documents.

- (1)^{F1}
- (2) The Secretary of State may at any time, if he thinks there is good reason to do so, give directions to [^{F2}a company] requiring it, at such time and place as may be specified in the directions, to produce such [^{F3}documents] as may be so specified.
- (3) The Secretary of State may at any time, if he thinks there is good reason to do so, authorise an officer of his [^{F4}or any other competent person], on producing (if so required) evidence of his authority, to require [^{F5}a company] to produce to him (the officer [^{F4}or other person]) forthwith any [^{F6}documents] which [^{F7}he (the officer or other person)] may specify.
- (4) Where by virtue of subsection (2) or (3) the Secretary of State or an officer of his [^{F8}or other person] has power to require the production of [^{F6}documents] from [^{F9}a company], he or the officer [^{F8}or other person] has the like power to require production of those [^{F6}documents] from any person who appears to him or the officer [^{F8}or other person] to be in possession of them; but where any such person claims a lien on [^{F6}documents] produced by him, the production is without prejudice to the lien.
- (5) The power under this section to require [^{F10}a company] or other person to produce [^{F3}documents] includes power—
 - (a) if the [^{F3}documents] are produced—
 - (i) to take copies of them or extracts from them, and

- (ii) to require that person, or any other person who is a present or past officer of, or is or was at any time employed by, [^{F10}the company] in question, to provide an explanation of any of them;
- (b) if the [^{F3}documents] are not produced, to require the person who was required to produce them to state, to the best of his knowledge and belief, where they are.
- (6) If the requirement to produce [^{F3}documents] or provide an explanation or make a statement is not complied with, [^{F11}the company] or other person on whom the requirement was so imposed is guilty of an offence and liable to a fine.
- [^{F12}Sections 732 (restriction on prosecutions), 733 (liability of individuals for corporate default) and 734 (criminal proceedings against unincorporated bodies) apply to this offence.]
- (7) However, where a person is charged with an offence under subsection (6) in respect of a requirement to produce any [^{F3}documents], it is a defence to prove that they were not in his possession or under his control and that it was not reasonably practicable for him to comply with the requirement.
- (8) A statement made by a person in compliance with such a requirement may be used in evidence against him.
- [^{F13}(9) In this section “documents” includes information recorded in any form; and, in relation to information recorded otherwise than in legible form, the power to require its production includes power to require the production of a copy of it in legible form.]

[^{F15}448 Entry and search of premises.

- (1) A justice of the peace may issue a warrant under this section if satisfied on information on oath given by or on behalf of the Secretary of State, or by a person appointed or authorised to exercise powers under this Part, that there are reasonable grounds for believing that there are on any premises documents whose production has been required under this Part and which have not been produced in compliance with the requirement.
- (2) A justice of the peace may also issue a warrant under this section if satisfied on information on oath given by or on behalf of the Secretary of State, or by a person appointed or authorised to exercise powers under this Part—:
 - (a) that there are reasonable grounds for believing that an offence has been committed for which the penalty on conviction on indictment is imprisonment for a term of not less than two years and that there are on any premises documents relating to whether the offence has been committed,
 - (b) that the Secretary of State, or the person so appointed or authorised, has power to require the production of the documents under this Part, and
 - (c) that there are reasonable grounds for believing that if production was so required the documents would not be produced but would be removed from the premises, hidden, tampered with or destroyed.
- (3) A warrant under this section shall authorise a constable, together with any other person named in it and any other constables—
 - (a) to enter the premises specified in the information, using such force as is reasonably necessary for the purpose;
 - (b) to search the premises and take possession of any documents appearing to be such documents as are mentioned in subsection (1) or (2), as the case may be, or to take, in relation to any such documents, any other steps which may appear to be necessary for preserving them or preventing interference with them;

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991. This version of this cross heading contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Companies Act 1985, Cross Heading: Requisition and seizure of books and papers. (See end of Document for details)

- (c) to take copies of any such documents; and
 - (d) to require any person named in the warrant to provide an explanation of them or to state where they may be found.
- (4) If in the case of a warrant under subsection (2) the justice of the peace is satisfied on information on oath that there are reasonable grounds for believing that there are also on the premises other documents relevant to the investigation, the warrant shall also authorise the actions mentioned in subsection (3) to be taken in relation to such documents.
- (5) A warrant under this section shall continue in force until the end of the period of one month beginning with the day on which it is issued.
- (6) Any documents of which possession is taken under this section may be retained—
- (a) for a period of three months; or
 - (b) if within that period proceedings to which the documents are relevant are commenced against any person for any criminal offence, until the conclusion of those proceedings.
- (7) Any person who intentionally obstructs the exercise of any rights conferred by a warrant issued under this section or fails without reasonable excuse to comply with any requirement imposed in accordance with subsection (3)(d) is guilty of an offence and liable to a fine.
- Sections 732 (restriction on prosecutions), 733 (liability of individuals for corporate default) and 734 (criminal proceedings against unincorporated bodies) apply to this offence.
- (8) For the purposes of sections 449 and 451A (provision for security of information) documents obtained under this section shall be treated as if they had been obtained under the provision of this Part under which their production was or, as the case may be, could have been required.
- (9) In the application of this section to Scotland for the references to a justice of the peace substitute references to a justice of the peace or a sheriff, and for the references to information on oath substitute references to evidence on oath.
- (10) In this section “document” includes information recorded in any form.]
