

SCHEDULES

SCHEDULE 4

SAVINGS

Savings relating to the Common Council of the City of London

- 3 (1) The repeal by this Act of any provision not specifically reproduced in the consolidating Acts does not affect the powers of the Common Council of the City of London.
- (2) Sub-paragraph (1) applies in particular to the repeal of the following provisions (which as regards local authorities in general are superseded by provisions of the <sup>M1</sup>Local Government Act 1972 not applying to the Common Council)—
- section 47 of the <sup>M2</sup>Housing Act 1957 (treatment of land acquired for clearance), so far as it confers powers of appropriation and disposal, and section 26(5)(a) of the <sup>M3</sup>Town and Country Planning Act 1959 (consents to disposals) so far as it relates to that section,
  - section 137 of that Act (borrowing for purposes of housing operations outside authority's area),
  - section 138 and Schedule 8 of that Act (power to issue local housing bonds), and
  - section 35 of the <sup>M4</sup>Housing Act 1969 (restriction on disposal of land at an undervalue).
- (3) Section 112(3) of the <sup>M5</sup>Housing Act 1957 (confirming authority for byelaws) continues to apply in relation to byelaws made under section 23 of the <sup>M6</sup>Housing Act 1985 by the Common Council.
- (4) Sections 166 to 169 of the Housing Act 1957 (authentication and service of documents) continue to apply in relation to the Common Council.
- (5) A reference in a provision of the consolidating Acts to the “proper officer” of a local authority shall be construed in relation to the Common Council of the City of London as a reference to any specific officer of that Council referred to the corresponding provision repealed by this Act.
