Textual Amendments

F3 Words inserted by S.I. 1988/496, art. 2

Futures

- 8 Rights under a contract for the sale of a commodity or property of any other description under which delivery is to be made at a future date and at a price agreed upon when the contract is made.

Notes

- (1) This paragraph does not apply if the contract is made for commercial and not investment purposes.
- (2) A contract shall be regarded as made for investment purposes if it is made or traded on a recognised investment exchange or made otherwise than on a recognised investment exchange but expressed to be as traded on such an exchange or on the same terms as those on which an equivalent contract would be made on such an exchange.
- (3) A contract not falling within Note (2) above shall be regarded as made for commercial purposes if under the terms of the contract delivery is to be made within seven days.
- (4) The following are indications that any other contract is made for a commercial purpose and the absence of any of them is an indication that it is made for investment purposes—
 - (a) either or each of the parties is a producer of the commodity or other property or uses it in his business;
 - (b) the seller delivers or intends to deliver the property or the purchaser takes or intends to take delivery of it.
- (5) It is an indication that a contract is made for commercial purposes that the price, the lot, the delivery date or the other terms are determined by the parties for the purposes of the particular contract and not by reference to regularly published prices, to standard lots or delivery dates or to standard terms.
- (6) The following are also indications that a contract is made for investment purposes—
 - (a) it is expressed to be as traded on a market or on an exchange;

Status: Point in time view as at 19/06/1995.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services Act 1986 (Repealed), Part I is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 25 May 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) performance of the contract is ensured by an investment exchange or a clearing house;
 - (c) there are arrangements for the payment or provision of margin.
- (7) A price shall be taken to have been agreed upon when a contract is made—
- (a) notwithstanding that it is left to be determined by reference to the price at which a contract is to be entered into on a market or exchange or could be entered into at a time and place specified in the contract; or
 - (b) in a case where the contract is expressed to be by reference to a standard lot and quality, notwithstanding that provision is made for a variation in the price to take account of any variation in quantity or quality on delivery.

Contracts for differences etc.

- 9 Rights under a contract for differences or under any other contract the purpose or pretended purpose of which is to secure a profit or avoid a loss by reference to fluctuations in the value or price of property of any description or in an index or other factor designated for that purpose in the contract.

[^{F4}Notes] .

[^{F5}(1)] This paragraph does not apply where the parties intend that the profit is to be obtained or the loss avoided by taking delivery of any property to which the contract relates.

[^{F6}(2)] This paragraph does not apply to rights under any contract under which money is received by the Director of Savings as deposits or otherwise in connection with the business of the National Savings Bank or raised under the National Loans Act 1968 under the auspices of the Director of Savings or under which money raised is treated as having been so raised by virtue of section 11(3) of the National Debt Act 1972.]

Long term insurance contracts

- 10 Rights under a contract the effecting and carrying out of which constitutes long term business within the meaning of the ^{M1}Insurance Companies Act 1982.

Notes

- (1) This paragraph does not apply to rights under a contract of insurance if—
- (a) the benefits under the contract are payable only on death or in respect of incapacity due to injury, sickness or infirmity;
 - (b) no benefits are payable under the contract on a death (other than a death due to accident) unless it occurs within ten years of the date on which the life of the person in question was first insured under the contract or before that person attains a specified age not exceeding seventy years;

Status: Point in time view as at 19/06/1995.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services Act 1986 (Repealed), Part I is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 25 May 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (c) the contract has no surrender value or the consideration consists of a single premium and the surrender value does not exceed that premium; and
 - (d) the contract does not make provision for its conversion or extension in a manner that would result in its ceasing to comply with paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) above.
- (2) Where the provisions of a contract of insurance are such that the effecting and carrying out of the contract—
- (a) constitutes both long term business within the meaning of the ^{M2}Insurance Companies Act 1982 and general business within the meaning of that Act; or
 - (b) by virtue of section 1(3) of that Act constitutes long term business notwithstanding the inclusion of subsidiary general business provisions,
- references in this paragraph to rights and benefits under the contract are references only to such rights and benefits as are attributable to the provisions of the contract relating to long term business.
- (3) This paragraph does not apply to rights under a reinsurance contract.
- (4) Rights falling within this paragraph shall not be regarded as falling within paragraph 9 above.

Marginal Citations

- M1 1982 c. 50.
