

AIDS (Control) Act 1987

1987 CHAPTER 33

An Act to make provision in relation to Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome and Human Immunodeficiency Virus. [15th May 1987]

Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

C1 Act: transfer of functions (1.7.1999) by S.I. 1999/672, art. 2, Sch. 1

1 Periodical reports on matters relating to AIDS and HIV.

- (1) Reports shall be made in accordance with this section—
- (a) to each Regional Health Authority by the District Health Authority for each district in the region; and
 - (b) to the Secretary of State by—
 - (i) each Regional Health Authority;
 - (ii) each District Health Authority in Wales; . . . ^{F1}
 - (iii) each Health Board in Scotland [^{F2}and
 - (iv) each NHS trust].
- (2) The reports made by a District Health Authority [^{F3}an NHS trust] and a Health Board shall contain the information specified in the Schedule to this Act and such other relevant information as the Secretary of State may direct; and the reports made by a Regional Health Authority shall contain the information supplied to it in the reports of the District Health Authorities in the region.
- (3) The reports made by a Regional Health Authority, District Health Authority [^{F4}NHS trust] or Health Board shall be published by the Authority [^{F4}trust] or Board by which they are made and the information contained in the reports made by District Health Authorities in Wales shall be published by the Secretary of State.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the AIDS (Control) Act 1987 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- (4) The reports shall be in such form and shall be made at such times or intervals and relate to such periods as the Secretary of State may direct but those periods shall not be more than twelve months and the first reports shall be made and published not later than the end of 1988.
- (5) The Secretary of State may by order made by statutory instrument—
- (a) make provision for requiring any special health authority specified in the order to make reports to him under this section and for that purpose modify the Schedule to this Act in its application to that authority;
 - (b) amend the Schedule to this Act.
- (6) The Schedule to this Act may be modified or amended under subsection (5) above either by altering or deleting any of the matters for the time being specified in it or by specifying additional relevant information.
- (7) An order under subsection (5) above shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.
- (8) Directions and orders under this section may make different provision for different cases and directions under subsection (4) above may require reports in respect of periods falling wholly or partly before the coming into force of this Act.
- (9) In this section “Regional Health Authority”, “District Health Authority” and “special health authority” have the same meaning as in the ^{M1}National Health Service Act 1977, “Health Board” has the same meaning as in the ^{M2}National Health Service (Scotland) Act 1978 and “relevant information” means information relating to, or to any matter connected with, AIDS or HIV.
- [^{F5}(10) In this section “NHS trust” means a National Health Service trust established under Part I of the National Health Service and Community Care Act 1990 or, as the case may be, under the National Health Service (Scotland) Act 1978.]
