84 (1) ^{F3}

(4) At the end of section 70 of the Management Act (evidential certificates) there shall be inserted the following subsection—

Status: Point in time view as at 31/07/1998.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Finance (No. 2) Act 1987, Chapter V. (See end of Document for details)

“(5) Where an amount has been assessed by way of penalty under section 94 of this Act and either no appeal has been brought against that assessment or the amount assessed has been confirmed or varied on appeal,—

- (a) a certificate of an inspector or other officer of the Board that an amount is due by way of penalty under that section, and
- (b) a certificate of a collector that payment of that amount has not been made to him or, to the best of his knowledge and belief, to any other collector, or to a person acting on his behalf or on behalf of another collector, shall be sufficient evidence that the amount mentioned in the certificates is unpaid and is due to the Crown; and any document purporting to be such a certificate as is mentioned in this subsection shall be deemed to be such a certificate unless the contrary is proved.”

C1 Taxes Management Act 1970 (c. 9, SIF 63:1), s. 70(5) repealed by Finance Act 1989, s. 187, Sch. 17 Pt. VIII

85 Interest on overdue corporation tax etc.

With respect to accounting periods ending after the appointed day, after section 87 of the Management Act there shall be inserted the following section—

“87A Interest on overdue corporation tax etc.

- (1) Corporation tax shall carry interest at the [F5 rate applicable under section 178 of the Finance Act 1989] from the date when the tax becomes due and payable (in accordance with section [F6 10] of the principal Act) until payment.
- (2) Subsection (1) above applies even if the date when the tax becomes due and payable (as mentioned in that subsection) is a non-business day within the meaning of section 92 of the M1 Bills of Exchange Act 1882.
- (3) In relation to corporation tax assessed by virtue of section [F7 346(2) or 347(1) of the principal Act, section 267(3C) or 278(5) of the Income and Corporation Taxes Act 1970][F8, section 96(8) of the Finance Act 1990] or section 87(4) of the M2 Capital Gains Tax Act 1979 (which enable unpaid corporation tax assessed on a company to be assessed on other persons in certain circumstances), the reference in subsection (1) above to the date when the tax becomes due and payable is a reference to the date when it became due and payable by the company.
- (4) [F9 Subject to subsection (7) below] in any case where—

Status: Point in time view as at 31/07/1998.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Finance (No. 2) Act 1987, Chapter V. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) there is in any accounting period of a company (in this subsection referred to as “the later period”) an amount of surplus advance corporation tax, as defined in subsection (3) of section [F10]239 of the principal Act], and
- (b) pursuant to a claim under the said subsection (3), the whole or any part of that amount is treated for the purposes of the said section [F10]239] as discharging liability for an amount of corporation tax for an earlier accounting period (in this subsection referred to as “the earlier period”), and
- (c) disregarding the effect of the said subsection (3), an amount of corporation tax for the earlier period would carry interest in accordance with this section, then, in determining the amount of interest payable under this section on corporation tax unpaid for the earlier period, no account shall be taken of any reduction in the amount of that tax which results from the said subsection (3) except so far as concerns interest for any time after the date on which any corporation tax for the later period became due and payable (as mentioned in subsection (1) above).

- (5) A sum assessed on a company by such an assessment as is referred to in [F11]section 252(5) of the principal Act] (recovery of payment of tax credit or interest on such a payment) shall carry interest at the [F12]rate applicable under section 178 of the Finance Act 1989] from the date when the payment of tax credit or interest was made until the sum assessed is paid.”

F13 In any case where—

- (a) on a claim under section 393A(1) of the principal Act, the whole or any part of a loss incurred in an accounting period (“the later period”) has been set off for the purposes of corporation tax against profits of a preceding accounting period (“the earlier period”);
- (b) the earlier period does not fall wholly within the period of twelve months immediately preceding the later period; and
- (c) if the claim had not been made, there would be an amount or, as the case may be, an additional amount of corporation tax for the earlier period which would carry interest in accordance with this section, then, for the purposes of the determination at any time of whether any interest is payable under this section or of the amount of interest so payable, the amount mentioned in paragraph (c) above shall be taken to be an amount of unpaid corporation tax for the earlier period except so far as concerns interest for any time after the date on which any corporation tax for the later period became (or, as the case may be, would have become) due and payable as mentioned in subsection (1) above.

(7) Where, in a case falling within subsection (6)(a) and (b) above—

- (a) there is in the earlier period, as a result of the claim under section 393A(1) of the principal Act, an amount of surplus advance corporation tax, as defined in subsection (3) of section 239 of that Act; and
- (b) pursuant to a claim under the said subsection (3), the whole or any part of that amount is to be treated for the purposes of the said section 239 as discharging liability for an amount of corporation tax for an accounting period before the earlier period, the claim under the said subsection (3) shall be disregarded for the purposes of subsection (6) above but subsection (4) above shall have effect in relation to that

Status: Point in time view as at 31/07/1998.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Finance (No. 2) Act 1987, Chapter V. (See end of Document for details)

claim as if the reference in the words after paragraph (c) to the later period within the meaning of subsection (4) above were a reference to the period which, in relation to the claim under the said section 393A(1), would be the later period for the purposes of subsection (6) above.]

- “(1A) Where interest is payable under section 87A of this Act in respect of an amount of corporation tax for an accounting period, and relief from tax is given by a discharge of any of that corporation tax—
- (a) such adjustment shall be made of the amount of interest payable under that section in respect of corporation tax for that accounting period, and
- (b) such repayment shall be made of any amounts of interest previously paid under that section in respect of that corporation tax,
- as are necessary to secure that the total sum (if any) paid or payable under that section in respect of corporation tax for that accounting period is the same as it would have been if the tax discharged had never been charged.
- (1B) Subsection (1A) above has effect subject to section 87A(4) of this Act.”
- (6) At the beginning of subsection (2) of that section there shall be inserted the words “Subject to subsection (2A) below” and at the end of that subsection there shall be added the following subsection—
- “(2A) In any case where—
- (a) relief from corporation tax is given to any person by repayment, and
- (b) that tax was paid for an accounting period ending after the day which is the appointed day for the purposes of section [F14]10 of the principal Act],
- that person shall be entitled to require that the amount repaid shall be treated for the purposes of this section, so far as it will go, as if it were a discharge of the corporation tax charged on him for that period.”
- (7) This section has effect with respect to accounting periods ending after the appointed day.
