 - (4) Service in an office or employment shall not for the purposes of subsection (3) above be treated as service to which a sponsored superannuation scheme relates by reason only of the fact that the holder of the office or employment might (though he does not) participate in the scheme by exercising or refraining from exercising an option open to him by virtue of that service.
 - (5) ^{M64}For the purposes of relief under section 619, an individual's relevant earnings are those earnings before giving effect to any capital allowances, other than deductions allowable in computing profits or gains, but after taking into account the amounts on which charges fall to be made under [^{F145}the Capital Allowances Act (including enactments which under this Act are to be treated as contained in that Act)]; and references to income in the following provisions of this section (other than references to total income) shall be construed similarly.
 - (6) Subject to the following provisions of this section "net relevant earnings" means, in relation to an individual, the amount of his relevant earnings for the year of assessment in question, less the amount of any deductions falling to be made from the relevant earnings in computing for the purposes of income tax his total income for that year, being—

- (8)^{M65}An individual's net relevant earnings for any year of assessment are to be computed without regard to any relief which falls to be given for that year under section 619^{F147} either^{F147} to that individual or to that individual's wife or husband^{F147}.
- (9) An individual's relevant earnings, in the case of partnership profits, shall be taken to be his share of the partnership income, estimated in accordance with the Income Tax Acts, but the amount to be included in respect of those earnings in arriving at his net relevant earnings shall be his share of that income after making therefrom all such deductions (if any) in respect of payments made by the partnership or of relief given to the partnership under Schedule 9 of the Finance Act 1981 (stock relief) or in respect of capital allowances falling to be made to the partnership as would be made in computing the tax payable in respect of that income.

[The Board shall not refuse to approve a personal pension scheme by reason only that ^{F204}(1A) it makes provision for arrangements under the scheme which enable a member who makes such an election as is mentioned in subsection (1) above to apply different parts of the personal pension fund at different times in the purchase of different annuities satisfying the conditions in section 634 (whether commencing on the same day or on different days).]
- (2) Income withdrawals must not be made before the member attains the age of 50, unless—
 - (a) they are available on his becoming incapable through infirmity of body or mind of carrying on his own occupation or any occupation of a similar nature for which he is trained or fitted, or
 - (b) the Board are satisfied that his occupation is one in which persons customarily retire before that age.
- (3) Income withdrawals must not be made after the member attains the age of 75.
- (4) The aggregate amount of income withdrawals by a member in each successive period of twelve months [^{F205}in each valuation period] must be not less than 35 per cent. or more than 100 per cent. of the annual amount of the annuity which would have been purchasable by him—
 - ^{F206}(a) in the case of the initial period, on the relevant reference date; and
 - (b) in the case of any subsequent valuation period,
 - ^{F207}(i) on a particular day in the period of sixty days ending with the relevant reference date^{F208}, or
 - (ii) immediately after the last qualifying annuitisation, whichever is the later]].

[For the purposes of subsection (4) above—

 - ^{F209}(4A) (a) “annuitisation” means the application of part of the personal pension fund in the purchase of an annuity satisfying the conditions in section 634; and
 - (b) an annuitisation is a “qualifying annuitisation”, in relation to any such period of twelve months as is mentioned in subsection (4) above, if it has taken place—
 - (i) in an earlier such period, but
 - (ii) since the relevant reference date.]

[^{F210}(5) For the purposes of this section, in the case of any arrangements the relevant reference date—

- (a) for the period beginning with the member’s pension date (“the initial period”), is that pension date; and
- (b) for each succeeding period, is the first day of the period;

and, subject to subsection (5D) below, any period mentioned in paragraph (a) or (b) above (a “valuation period”) is a period of three years.]

[Where—

- ^{F211}(5A) (a) a member has made an election under subsection (1) above in respect of two or more personal pension arrangements under the same personal pension scheme, and
- (b) in the case of one or more of those arrangements, the relevant reference date for any valuation period after the initial period would not, apart from this subsection, coincide with a date which is (or, but for the ending of the period of deferral, would be) the relevant reference date for a valuation period in the case of the arrangements with the earliest pension date, the relevant reference date for any valuation period other than the initial period, and the valuation period to which that date relates, shall, if the scheme or the arrangements so require, be determined in the case of all those arrangements on the assumption that the pension date is in each case the same as in the case of the arrangements with the earliest pension date.

(5B) In determining in accordance with subsection (5A) above the relevant reference date and the valuation period to which it relates, in the case of any arrangements (“the relevant arrangements”), there shall be left out of account any arrangements in whose case the period of deferral ended—

- (a) before the actual pension date in the case of the relevant arrangements; or
- (b) before the date on which the relevant arrangements first become subject to such a requirement as is mentioned in subsection (5A) above.

(5C) But where, in the case of any arrangements,—

- (a) the relevant reference date for any valuation period falls to be determined, in accordance with the assumption in subsection (5A) above, by reference to the pension date for any other arrangements, and
- (b) the period of deferral in the case of those other arrangements comes to an end, the same pension date shall continue to be assumed under that subsection for that and any subsequent valuation period, notwithstanding the coming to an end of the period of deferral in the case of those other arrangements (and references in subsection (5A) to the arrangements with the earliest pension date shall be construed accordingly).

(5D) Where, in the case of any personal pension arrangements, in consequence of subsection (5A) above the relevant reference date for any valuation period (“the later date”) falls less than three years after the relevant reference date for the previous valuation period (“the earlier date”)—

- (a) the valuation period beginning with the earlier date shall end with the day before the later date; and
- (b) [^{F212}subsections (4) and (4A)] above shall apply in relation to any portion of the period which remains after the completion of any successive periods of twelve months as if it were a period of twelve months.]

 - (ii) each election for deferral such as is mentioned in section 634A(1).
- (2) The Board shall not refuse to approve a personal pension scheme by reason only that it makes such provision as is mentioned in subsection (1) above if they are satisfied that it makes provision in conformity with the provisions of this section.
- (3) In this section—
- “income withdrawal fund” means a portion of the personal pension fund which is specified or described in an election for deferral as the portion of that fund to which the election relates;
- “qualifying lump sum” means a lump sum satisfying the conditions of section 635 (as that section has effect by virtue of and in accordance with this section);
