“the register” means the register of British fishing vessels referred to in section 13(1)(a);

- (3) Where any fishing vessel is registered under any of those enactments immediately before the commencement of this Part, the registration of the vessel under that enactment shall (notwithstanding any repeals made by this Act) continue in force until—

 - (b) the end of such period beginning with the commencement of this Part as may be prescribed, whichever first occurs.

 - (c) any charterer, manager or operator of the vessel is a qualified person or company.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1)(a) a fishing vessel is British-owned if—
- (a) the legal title to the vessel is vested wholly in one or more qualified persons or companies; and
 - (b) the vessel is beneficially owned—
 - (i) as to not less than the relevant percentage of the property in the vessel, by one or more qualified persons, or

- (a) in connection with the implementation of any of the requirements specified in subsection (1)(a) to (c), or
 - (b) in addition to the requirements so specified,
- and appearing to the Secretary of State to be appropriate for securing that such a vessel has a genuine and substantial connection with the United Kingdom.
- (4) Where, in the case of any fishing vessel, the Secretary of State is satisfied that—
- (a) the vessel would be eligible to be registered as a British fishing vessel but for the fact that any particular individual, or (as the case may be) each of a number of particular individuals, is not a British citizen (and is accordingly not a qualified person), and
 - (b) it would be appropriate to dispense with the requirement of British citizenship in the case of that individual or those individuals, in view of the length of time he has or they have resided in the United Kingdom and been involved in the fishing industry of the United Kingdom, the Secretary of State may determine that that requirement should be so dispensed with; and, if he does so, the vessel shall, so long as paragraph (a) above applies to it and any such determination remains in force, be treated for the purposes of this Part as eligible to be registered as a British fishing vessel.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

- (6) For the purpose of determining whether a fishing vessel is eligible to be registered as a British fishing vessel, the Secretary of State may, if he thinks fit, appoint a person—
- (a) to investigate the eligibility of the vessel to be so registered, and
 - (b) to make a report of his conclusions to the Secretary of State;
- and any person so appointed shall, for the purpose of conducting the investigation, have the powers conferred on an inspector by the provisions of section 27 of the ^{M4}Merchant Shipping Act 1979 (other than paragraphs (d) to (h) of subsection (1) of that section).

- “qualified company” means a company which satisfies the following conditions, namely—
- (a) it is incorporated in the United Kingdom and has its principal place of business there;
 - (b) at least the relevant percentage of its shares (taken as a whole), and of each class of its shares, is legally and beneficially owned by one or more qualified persons or companies; and
 - (c) at least the relevant percentage of its directors are qualified persons;
- “qualified person” means—
- (a) a person who is a British citizen resident and domiciled in the United Kingdom, or
 - (b) a local authority in the United Kingdom; and

“the relevant percentage” means 75 per cent. or such greater percentage (which may be 100 per cent.) as may for the time being be prescribed.

- (a) the Secretary of State is satisfied that the earlier failure of the vessel to be eligible to be so registered or (as the case may be) to be presented for a survey was due to inadvertence, and (in the latter case) that the vessel has since been presented for a survey, or
 - (b) the Secretary of State consents to the vessel being so registered, or
 - (c) in the case of a vessel whose registration terminated by virtue of section 16(3), the Secretary of State is satisfied that the vessel has been disposed of by its former registered owner by means of a transaction at arm’s length and that no person who for the time being is a relevant owner of the vessel was a relevant owner of it at the time when its registration terminated.
