INTRODUCTORY

Textual Amendments

F1 Cross-headings before ss. 180, 181 omitted (1.2.2006) and ss. 180, 181 become Pt. 2 Ch. 1 by virtue of The Performances \(Moral Rights, etc.\) Regulations 2006 (S.I. 2006/18), reg. 4(1)-(3) (with reg. 8)

^{x1}180 Rights conferred on performers and persons having recording rights.

(1) [^{F2}Chapter 2 of this Part (economic rights)] confers rights—

- (a) on a performer, by requiring his consent to the exploitation of his performances (see sections 181 to 184), and
- (b) on a person having recording rights in relation to a performance, in relation to recordings made without his consent or that of the performer (see sections 185 to 188), and creates offences in relation to dealing with or using illicit recordings and certain other related acts (see sections 198 and 201).

[Rights are also conferred on a performer by the following provisions of Chapter 3 of ^{F3}(1A) this Part (moral rights)—

- (a) section 205C (right to be identified);
- (b) section 205F (right to object to derogatory treatment of performance).]

(2) In this Part — “performance” means —

- (a) a dramatic performance (which includes dance and mime),
- (b) a musical performance,
- (c) a reading or recitation of a literary work, or
- (d) a performance of a variety act or any similar presentation, which is, or so far as it is, a live performance given by one or more individuals; and “recording”, in relation to a performance, means a film or sound recording—

- (a) made directly from the live performance,
- (b) made from a broadcast of ^{F4}. . . the performance, or
- (c) made, directly or indirectly, from another recording of the performance.

(3) The rights conferred by this Part apply in relation to performances taking place before the commencement of this Part; but no act done before commencement, or in pursuance of arrangements made before commencement, shall be regarded as infringing those rights.

(4) The rights conferred by this Part are independent of—

- (a) any copyright in, or moral rights relating to, any work performed or any film or sound recording of, or broadcast ^{F5}. . . the performance, and
- (b) any other right or obligation arising otherwise than under this Part.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988, Part II. (See end of Document for details)

Editorial Information

- X1 The insertion of the new headings "Chapter 1 Introductory", "Chapter 2 Economic Rights", "Chapter 3 Moral Rights" and "Chapter 4 Qualification for Protection, Extent and Interpretation" in Pt. Consent required for rental or lending of copies to public.

182C

- (1) A performer's rights are infringed by a person who, without his consent, rents or lends to the public copies of a recording of the whole or any substantial part of a qualifying performance.
- (2) In [^{F23}this Chapter], subject to the following provisions of this section—
 - (a) “rental” means making a copy of a recording available for use, on terms that it will or may be returned, for direct or indirect economic or commercial advantage, and
 - (b) “lending” means making a copy of a recording available for use, on terms that it will or may be returned, otherwise than for direct or indirect economic or commercial advantage, through an establishment which is accessible to the public.
- (3) The expressions “rental” and “lending” do not include—
 - (a) making available for the purpose of public performance, playing or showing in public [^{F24}or communication to the public];
 - (b) making available for the purpose of exhibition in public; or
 - (c) making available for on-the-spot reference use.
- (4) The expression “lending” does not include making available between establishments which are accessible to the public.
- (5) Where lending by an establishment accessible to the public gives rise to a payment the amount of which does not go beyond what is necessary to cover the operating costs of the establishment, there is no direct or indirect economic or commercial advantage for the purposes of this section.
- (6) References in [^{F23}this Chapter] to the rental or lending of copies of a recording of a performance include the rental or lending of the original recording of the live performance.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988, Part II. (See end of Document for details)

[^{F28}(b) is communicated to the public otherwise than by its being made available to the public in the way mentioned in section 182CA(1),] the performer is entitled to equitable remuneration from the owner of the copyright in the sound recording [^{F29}or, where copyright in the sound recording has expired pursuant to section 191HA(4), from a person who plays the sound recording in public or communicates the sound recording to the public].

[In subsection (1), the reference to publication of a sound recording includes making
^{F30}(1A) it available to the public by electronic transmission in such a way that members of the public may access it from a place and at a time individually chosen by them.]

(2) The right to equitable remuneration under this section may not be assigned by the performer except to a collecting society for the purpose of enabling it to enforce the right on his behalf.

The right is, however, transmissible by testamentary disposition or by operation of law as personal or moveable property; and it may be assigned or further transmitted by any person into whose hands it passes.

(3) The amount payable by way of equitable remuneration is as agreed by or on behalf of the persons by and to whom it is payable, subject to the following provisions.

(4) In default of agreement as to the amount payable by way of equitable remuneration, the person by or to whom it is payable may apply to the Copyright Tribunal to determine the amount payable.

(5) A person to or by whom equitable remuneration is payable may also apply to the Copyright Tribunal—

(a) to vary any agreement as to the amount payable, or

(b) to vary any previous determination of the Tribunal as to that matter;

but except with the special leave of the Tribunal no such application may be made within twelve months from the date of a previous determination.

An order made on an application under this subsection has effect from the date on which it is made or such later date as may be specified by the Tribunal.

(6) On an application under this section the Tribunal shall consider the matter and make such order as to the method of calculating and paying equitable remuneration as it may determine to be reasonable in the circumstances, taking into account the importance of the contribution of the performer to the sound recording.

(7) An agreement is of no effect in so far as it purports—

(a) to exclude or restrict the right to equitable remuneration under this section, or

(b) to prevent a person questioning the amount of equitable remuneration or to restrict the powers of the Copyright Tribunal under this section.

[In this section “collecting society” means a society or other organisation which has ^{F31}(8) as its main object, or one of its main objects, the exercise of the right to equitable remuneration on behalf of more than one performer.]]

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988, Part II. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) reproduction, distribution and making available rights, or
 - (b) performer's property rights.
- (2) If, at the end of the 50-year period, the producer has failed to meet one or both of the following conditions, the performer may give a notice in writing to the producer of the performer's intention to terminate the agreement—
- (a) condition 1 is to issue to the public copies of the sound recording in sufficient quantities;
 - (b) condition 2 is to make the sound recording available to the public by electronic transmission in such a way that a member of the public may access the recording from a place and at a time chosen by him or her.
- (3) If, at any time after the end of the 50-year period, the producer, having met one or both of the conditions referred to in subsection (2), fails to do so, the performer may give a notice in writing to the producer of the performer's intention to terminate the agreement.
- (4) If at the end of the period of 12 months beginning with the date of the notice, the producer has not met the conditions referred to in subsection (2), the agreement terminates and the copyright in the sound recording expires with immediate effect.

- (6) A reference in this section to the assignment of rights includes any arrangement having that effect, whether made directly between the parties or through intermediaries.
- (7) In this section—
- “50-year period” means
 - (a) where the sound recording is published during the initial period, the period of 50 years from the end of the calendar year in which the sound recording is first published, or
 - (b) where during the initial period the sound recording is not published but is made available to the public by being played in public or communicated to the public, the period of 50 years from the end of the calendar year in which it was first made available to the public, but in determining whether a sound recording has been published, played in public or communicated to the public, no account shall be taken of any unauthorised act,
 - “initial period” means the period beginning on the date the recording is made and ending 50 years from the end of the calendar year in which the sound recording is made,
 - “producer” means the person for the time being entitled to the copyright in the sound recording,
 - “sufficient quantities” means such quantity as to satisfy the reasonable requirements of the public for copies of the sound recording,
 - “unauthorised act” has the same meaning as in section 178.

191HB Payment in consideration of assignment

- (1) A performer who, under an agreement relating to the assignment of rights referred to in section 191HA(1) (an “assignment agreement”), is entitled to a non-recurring payment in consideration of the assignment, is entitled to an annual payment for each relevant period from—
 - (a) the producer, or
 - (b) where the producer has granted an exclusive licence of the copyright in the sound recording, the licensee under the exclusive licence (the “exclusive licensee”).
- (2) In this section, “relevant period” means—
 - (a) the period of 12 months beginning at the end of the 50-year period, and
 - (b) each subsequent period of 12 months beginning with the end of the previous period, until the date on which copyright in the sound recording expires.
- (3) The producer or, where relevant, the exclusive licensee gives effect to the entitlement under subsection (1) by remitting to a collecting society for distribution to the performer in accordance with its rules an amount for each relevant period equal to 20% of the gross revenue received during that period in respect of—
 - (a) the reproduction and issue to the public of copies of the sound recording, and
 - (b) the making available to the public of the sound recording by electronic transmission in such a way that members of the public may access it from a place and at a time individually chosen by them.
- (4) The amount required to be remitted under subsection (3) is payable within 6 months of the end of each relevant period and is recoverable by the collecting society as a debt.
- (5) Subsection (6) applies where—
 - (a) the performer makes a written request to the producer or, where relevant, the exclusive licensee for information in that person’s possession or under that person’s control to enable the performer—
 - (i) to ascertain the amount of the annual payment to which the performer is entitled under subsection (1), or
 - (ii) to secure its distribution by the collecting society, and
 - (b) the producer or, where relevant, the exclusive licensee does not supply the information within the period of 90 days beginning with the date of the request.
- (6) The performer may apply to the county court, or in Scotland to the sheriff, for an order requiring the producer or, where relevant, the exclusive licensee to supply the information.
- (7) An agreement is of no effect in so far as it purports to exclude or restrict the entitlement under subsection (1).
- (8) In the event of any dispute as to the amount required to be remitted under subsection (3), the performer may apply to the Copyright Tribunal to determine the amount payable.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988, Part II. (See end of Document for details)

- (9) Where a performer is entitled under an assignment agreement to recurring payments in consideration of the assignment, the payments must, from the end of the 50-year period, be made in full, regardless of any provision in the agreement which entitles the producer to withhold or deduct sums from the amounts payable.
- (10) In this section—
“producer” and “50-year period” each has the same meaning as in section 191HA, “exclusive licence” has the same meaning as in section 92, and “collecting society” has the same meaning as in section 191G.]

^{X45}196 Right to seize illicit recordings.

- (1) An illicit recording of a performance which is found exposed or otherwise immediately available for sale or hire, and in respect of which a person would be entitled to apply for an order under section 195, may be seized and detained by him or a person authorised by him.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988, Part II. (See end of Document for details)

The right to seize and detain is exercisable subject to the following conditions and is subject to any decision of the court under section 204 (order as to disposal of illicit recording).

- (2) Before anything is seized under this section notice of the time and place of the proposed seizure must be given to a local police station.
- (3) A person may for the purpose of exercising the right conferred by this section enter premises to which the public have access but may not seize anything in the possession, custody or control of a person at a permanent or regular place of business of his and may not use any force.
- (4) At the time when anything is seized under this section there shall be left at the place where it was seized a notice in the prescribed form containing the prescribed particulars as to the person by whom or on whose authority the seizure is made and the grounds on which it is made.
- (5) In this section—
 - “premises” includes land, buildings, fixed or moveable structures, vehicles, vessels, aircraft and hovercraft; and
 - “prescribed” means prescribed by order of the Secretary of State.
- (6) An order of the Secretary of State under this section shall be made by statutory instrument which shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.

^{X46}197 Meaning of “illicit recording”.

- (1) In [^{F92}this Chapter]“illicit recording”, in relation to a performance, shall be construed in accordance with this section.
- (2) For the purposes of a performer’s rights, a recording of the whole or any substantial part of a performance of his is an illicit recording if it is made, otherwise than for private purposes, without his consent.
- (3) For the purposes of the rights of a person having recording rights, a recording of the whole or any substantial part of a performance subject to the exclusive recording contract is an illicit recording if it is made, otherwise than for private purposes, without his consent or that of the performer.
- (4) For the purposes of sections 198 and 199 (offences and orders for delivery up in criminal proceedings), a recording is an illicit recording if it is an illicit recording for the purposes mentioned in subsection (2) or subsection (3).
- (5) In [^{F92}this Chapter]“illicit recording” includes a recording falling to be treated as an illicit recording by virtue of any of the following provisions of Schedule 2—

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988, Part II. (See end of Document for details)

[^{F93}paragraph 1D(3) (copies for text and data analysis for non-commercial research),]

^{X48}198 Criminal liability for making, dealing with or using illicit recordings.

- (1) A person commits an offence who without sufficient consent—
 - (a) makes for sale or hire, or
 - (b) imports into the United Kingdom otherwise than for his private and domestic use, or
 - (c) possesses in the course of a business with a view to committing any act infringing the rights conferred by [^{F102}this Chapter], or
 - (d) in the course of a business—
 - (i) sells or lets for hire, or
 - (ii) offers or exposes for sale or hire, or
 - (iii) distributes,
 a recording which is, and which he knows or has reason to believe is, an illicit recording.

[^{F103}(1A)] A person ("P") who infringes a performer's making available right in a recording commits an offence if P—

- (a) knows or has reason to believe that P is infringing the right, and

- (b) either—
 - (i) intends to make a gain for P or another person, or
 - (ii) knows or has reason to believe that infringing the right will cause loss to the owner of the right, or expose the owner of the right to a risk of loss.
- (1B) For the purposes of subsection (1A)—
 - (a) “gain” and “loss”—
 - (i) extend only to gain or loss in money, and
 - (ii) include any such gain or loss whether temporary or permanent, and
 - (b) “loss” includes a loss by not getting what one might get.]
- (2) A person commits an offence who causes a recording of a performance made without sufficient consent to be—
 - (a) shown or played in public, or
 - [^{F104}(b) communicated to the public,] thereby infringing any of the rights conferred by [^{F102}this Chapter], if he knows or has reason to believe that those rights are thereby infringed.

- (3) In subsections (1) and (2) “sufficient consent” means—
 - (a) in the case of a qualifying performance, the consent of the performer, and
 - (b) in the case of a non-qualifying performance subject to an exclusive recording contract—
 - (i) for the purposes of subsection (1)(a) (making of recording), the consent of the performer or the person having recording rights, and
 - (ii) for the purposes of subsection (1)(b), (c) and (d) and subsection (2) (dealing with or using recording), the consent of the person having recording rights.

The references in this subsection to the person having recording rights are to the person having those rights at the time the consent is given or, if there is more than one such person, to all of them.
- (4) No offence is committed under subsection (1) or (2) by the commission of an act which by virtue of any provision of Schedule 2 may be done without infringing the rights conferred by [^{F102}this Chapter].
- (5) A person guilty of an offence under subsection (1)(a), (b) or (d)(iii) is liable—
 - (a) on summary conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or [^{F105}a fine], or both;
 - (b) on conviction on indictment to a fine or imprisonment for a term not exceeding [^{F106}ten] years, or both.
- [^{F107}(5A) A person guilty of an offence under subsection (1A) is liable—
 - (a) on summary conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months or [^{F108}a fine], or both;
 - (b) on conviction on indictment to a fine or imprisonment for a term not exceeding [^{F109}ten] years, or both.]
- (6) A person guilty of any other offence under this section is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale or imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months, or both.

 - (ba) an offence under the Business Protection from Misleading Marketing Regulations 2008,
 - (bb) an offence under the Consumer Protection from Unfair Trading Regulations 2008, or]
 - (c) an offence involving dishonesty or deception.
- (3) An application under this section may be made—
 - (a) where proceedings have been brought in any court for a relevant offence relating to some or all of the illicit recordings, to that court, or
 - (b) where no application for the forfeiture of the illicit recordings has been made under paragraph (a), by way of complaint to a magistrates’ court.
- (4) On an application under this section, the court shall make an order for the forfeiture of any illicit recordings only if it is satisfied that a relevant offence has been committed in relation to the illicit recordings.
- (5) A court may infer for the purposes of this section that such an offence has been committed in relation to any illicit recordings if it is satisfied that such an offence has been committed in relation to illicit recordings which are representative of the illicit recordings in question (whether by reason of being part of the same consignment or batch or otherwise).

- (6) Any person aggrieved by an order made under this section by a magistrates' court, or by a decision of such a court not to make such an order, may appeal against that order or decision—
 - (a) in England and Wales, to the Crown Court, or
 - (b) in Northern Ireland, to the county court.
- (7) An order under this section may contain such provision as appears to the court to be appropriate for delaying the coming into force of the order pending the making and determination of any appeal (including any application under section 111 of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980 (c. 43) or Article 146 of the Magistrates' Courts (Northern Ireland) Order 1981 (S.I. 1987/1675 (N.I. 26)) (statement of case)).
- (8) Subject to subsection (9), where any illicit recordings are forfeited under this section they shall be destroyed in accordance with such directions as the court may give.
- (9) On making an order under this section the court may direct that the illicit recordings to which the order relates shall (instead of being destroyed) be forfeited to the person having the performers' rights or recording rights in question or dealt with in such other way as the court considers appropriate.]

Right to be identified as performer

205C Right to be identified as performer

- (1) Whenever a person—
 - (a) produces or puts on a qualifying performance that is given in public,
 - (b) broadcasts live a qualifying performance,
 - (c) communicates to the public a sound recording of a qualifying performance, or
 - (d) issues to the public copies of such a recording, the performer has the right to be identified as such.
- (2) The right of the performer under this section is—
 - (a) in the case of a performance that is given in public, to be identified in any programme accompanying the performance or in some other manner likely to bring his identity to the notice of a person seeing or hearing the performance,
 - (b) in the case of a performance that is broadcast, to be identified in a manner likely to bring his identity to the notice of a person seeing or hearing the broadcast,
 - (c) in the case of a sound recording that is communicated to the public, to be identified in a manner likely to bring his identity to the notice of a person hearing the communication,
 - (d) in the case of a sound recording that is issued to the public, to be identified in or on each copy or, if that is not appropriate, in some other manner likely to bring his identity to the notice of a person acquiring a copy, or (in any of the above cases) to be identified in such other manner as may be agreed between the performer and the person mentioned in subsection (1).
- (3) The right conferred by this section in relation to a performance given by a group (or so much of a performance as is given by a group) is not infringed—
 - (a) in a case falling within paragraph (a), (b) or (c) of subsection (2), or
 - (b) in a case falling within paragraph (d) of that subsection in which it is not reasonably practicable for each member of the group to be identified, if the group itself is identified as specified in subsection (2).
- (4) In this section “group” means two or more performers who have a particular name by which they may be identified collectively.
- (5) If the assertion under section 205D specifies a pseudonym, initials or some other particular form of identification, that form shall be used; otherwise any reasonable form of identification may be used.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988, Part II. (See end of Document for details)

- (6) This section has effect subject to section 205E (exceptions to right).

205D Requirement that right be asserted

- (1) A person does not infringe the right conferred by section 205C (right to be identified as performer) by doing any of the acts mentioned in that section unless the right has been asserted in accordance with the following provisions so as to bind him in relation to that act.
- (2) The right may be asserted generally, or in relation to any specified act or description of acts—
 - (a) by instrument in writing signed by or on behalf of the performer, or
 - (b) on an assignment of a performer's property rights, by including in the instrument effecting the assignment a statement that the performer asserts in relation to the performance his right to be identified.
- (3) The persons bound by an assertion of the right under subsection (2) are—
 - (a) in the case of an assertion under subsection (2)(a), anyone to whose notice the assertion is brought;
 - (b) in the case of an assertion under subsection (2)(b), the assignee and anyone claiming through him, whether or not he has notice of the assertion.
- (4) In an action for infringement of the right the court shall, in considering remedies, take into account any delay in asserting the right.

205E Exceptions to right

- (1) The right conferred by section 205C (right to be identified as performer) is subject to the following exceptions.
- (2) The right does not apply where it is not reasonably practicable to identify the performer (or, where identification of a group is permitted by virtue of section 205C(3), the group).
- (3) The right does not apply in relation to any performance given for the purposes of reporting current events.
- (4) The right does not apply in relation to any performance given for the purposes of advertising any goods or services.
- (5) The right is not infringed by an act which by virtue of any of the following provisions of Schedule 2 would not infringe any of the rights conferred by Chapter 2—
 - (a) paragraph 2(1A) (news reporting);
 - (b) paragraph 3 (incidental inclusion of a performance or recording);
 - (c) paragraph 4(2) (things done for the purposes of examination);
 - (d) paragraph 8 (parliamentary and judicial proceedings);
 - (e) paragraph 9 (Royal Commissions and statutory inquiries).

Right to object to derogatory treatment

205F Right to object to derogatory treatment of performance

- (1) The performer of a qualifying performance has a right which is infringed if—
 - (a) the performance is broadcast live, or
 - (b) by means of a sound recording the performance is played in public or communicated to the public,with any distortion, mutilation or other modification that is prejudicial to the reputation of the performer.
- (2) This section has effect subject to section 205G (exceptions to right).

205G Exceptions to right

- (1) The right conferred by section 205F (right to object to derogatory treatment of performance) is subject to the following exceptions.
- (2) The right does not apply in relation to any performance given for the purposes of reporting current events.
- (3) The right is not infringed by modifications made to a performance which are consistent with normal editorial or production practice.
- (4) Subject to subsection (5), the right is not infringed by anything done for the purpose of—
 - (a) avoiding the commission of an offence,
 - (b) complying with a duty imposed by or under an enactment, or
 - (c) in the case of the British Broadcasting Corporation, avoiding the inclusion in a programme broadcast by them of anything which offends against good taste or decency or which is likely to encourage or incite crime or lead to disorder or to be offensive to public feeling.
- (5) Where—
 - (a) the performer is identified in a manner likely to bring his identity to the notice of a person seeing or hearing the performance as modified by the act in question; or
 - (b) he has previously been identified in or on copies of a sound recording issued to the public,subsection (4) applies only if there is sufficient disclaimer.
- (6) In subsection (5) “sufficient disclaimer”, in relation to an act capable of infringing the right, means a clear and reasonably prominent indication—
 - (a) given in a manner likely to bring it to the notice of a person seeing or hearing the performance as modified by the act in question, and
 - (b) if the performer is identified at the time of the act, appearing along with the identification,that the modifications were made without the performer's consent.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988, Part II. (See end of Document for details)

205H Infringement of right by possessing or dealing with infringing article

- (1) The right conferred by section 205F (right to object to derogatory treatment of performance) is also infringed by a person who—
 - (a) possesses in the course of business, or
 - (b) sells or lets for hire, or offers or exposes for sale or hire, or
 - (c) distributes,an article which is, and which he knows or has reason to believe is, an infringing article.
- (2) An “infringing article” means a sound recording of a qualifying performance with any distortion, mutilation or other modification that is prejudicial to the reputation of the performer.

Supplementary

205I Duration of rights

- (1) A performer's rights under this Chapter in relation to a performance subsist so long as that performer's rights under Chapter 2 subsist in relation to the performance.
- (2) In subsection (1) “performer's rights” includes rights of a performer that are vested in a successor of his.

205J Consent and waiver of rights

- (1) It is not an infringement of the rights conferred by this Chapter to do any act to which consent has been given by or on behalf of the person entitled to the right.
- (2) Any of those rights may be waived by instrument in writing signed by or on behalf of the person giving up the right.
- (3) A waiver—
 - (a) may relate to a specific performance, to performances of a specified description or to performances generally, and may relate to existing or future performances, and
 - (b) may be conditional or unconditional and may be expressed to be subject to revocation,and if made in favour of the owner or prospective owner of a performer's property rights in the performance or performances to which it relates, it shall be presumed to extend to his licensees and successors in title unless a contrary intention is expressed.
- (4) Nothing in this Chapter shall be construed as excluding the operation of the general law of contract or estoppel in relation to an informal waiver or other transaction in relation to either of the rights conferred by this Chapter.

205K Application of provisions to parts of performances

- (1) The right conferred by section 205C (right to be identified as performer) applies in relation to the whole or any substantial part of a performance.
- (2) The right conferred by section 205F (right to object to derogatory treatment of performance) applies in relation to the whole or any part of a performance.

205L Moral rights not assignable

The rights conferred by this Chapter are not assignable.

205M Transmission of moral rights on death

- (1) On the death of a person entitled to a right conferred by this Chapter—
 - (a) the right passes to such person as he may by testamentary disposition specifically direct,
 - (b) if there is no such direction but the performer's property rights in respect of the performance in question form part of his estate, the right passes to the person to whom the property rights pass,
 - (c) if or to the extent that the right does not pass under paragraph (a) or (b) it is exercisable by his personal representatives.
- (2) Where a performer's property rights pass in part to one person and in part to another, as for example where a bequest is limited so as to apply—
 - (a) to one or more, but not all, of the things to which the owner has the right to consent, or
 - (b) to part, but not the whole, of the period for which the rights subsist,any right which by virtue of subsection (1) passes with the performer's property rights is correspondingly divided.
- (3) Where by virtue of subsection (1)(a) or (1)(b) a right becomes exercisable by more than one person—
 - (a) it is, in the case of the right conferred by section 205F (right to object to derogatory treatment of performance), a right exercisable by each of them and is satisfied in relation to any of them if he consents to the treatment or act in question, and
 - (b) any waiver of the right in accordance with section 205J by one of them does not affect the rights of the others.
- (4) A consent or waiver previously given or made binds any person to whom a right passes by virtue of subsection (1).
- (5) Any damages recovered by personal representatives by virtue of this section in respect of an infringement after a person's death shall devolve as part of his estate as if the right of action had subsisted and been vested in him immediately before his death.

205N Remedies for infringement of moral rights

- (1) An infringement of a right conferred by this Chapter is actionable as a breach of statutory duty owed to the person entitled to the right.
- (2) Where—
 - (a) there is an infringement of a right conferred by this Chapter,
 - (b) a person falsely claiming to act on behalf of a performer consented to the relevant conduct or purported to waive the right, and
 - (c) there would have been no infringement if he had been so acting,that person shall be liable, jointly and severally with any person liable in respect of the infringement by virtue of subsection (1), as if he himself had infringed the right.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988, Part II. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) Where proceedings for infringement of the right conferred on a performer by this Chapter, it shall be a defence to prove—
- (a) that a person claiming to act on behalf of the performer consented to the defendant's conduct or purported to waive the right, and
 - (b) that the defendant reasonably believed that the person was acting on behalf of the performer.
- (4) In proceedings for infringement of the right conferred by section 205F the court may, if it thinks it an adequate remedy in the circumstances, grant an injunction on terms prohibiting the doing of any act unless a disclaimer is made, in such terms and in such manner as may be approved by the court, dissociating the performer from the broadcast or sound recording of the performance.]

- (c) to the extent that an Order under section 208 so provides, a country designated under that section as enjoying reciprocal protection;
 - “qualifying individual” means a citizen or subject of, or an individual resident in, a qualifying country; and
 - “qualifying person” means a qualifying individual or a body corporate or other body having legal personality which—
 - (a) is formed under the law of a part of the United Kingdom or another qualifying country, and
 - (b) has in any qualifying country a place of business at which substantial business activity is carried on.
- (2) The reference in the definition of “qualifying individual” to a person’s being a citizen or subject of a qualifying country shall be construed—
- (a) in relation to the United Kingdom, as a reference to his being a British citizen, and
 - (b) in relation to a colony of the United Kingdom, as a reference to his being a British Dependent Territories’ citizen by connection with that colony.
- (3) In determining for the purpose of the definition of “qualifying person” whether substantial business activity is carried on at a place of business in any country, no account shall be taken of dealings in goods which are at all material times outside that country.
- [Her Majesty may by Order in Council—
- ^{F147}(4) (a) make provision for the application of this Part to a country by virtue of paragraph (bb) or (c) of the definition of “qualifying country” in subsection (1) to be subject to specified restrictions;
- (b) amend the definition of “qualifying country” in subsection (1) so as to add a country which is not a party to the Rome Convention;
 - (c) make provision for the application of this Part to a country added under paragraph (b) to be subject to specified restrictions.
- (5) A statutory instrument containing an Order in Council under this section is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.]
- [In this section, “the Rome Convention” means the International Convention for the
- ^{F148}(6) Protection of Performers, Producers of Phonograms and Broadcasting Organisations done at Rome on 26 October 1961.]

Editorial Information

- X72 The insertion of the new headings "Chapter 1 Introductory", "Chapter 2 Economic Rights", "Chapter 3 Moral Rights" and "Chapter 4 Qualification for Protection, Extent and Interpretation" in Pt. II on 1.2.2006 gives rise to a change in the structure of this legislation on SLD which breaks the continuity of historical versions of the existing provisions which are now brought under those new headings.
