1 Offence of transporting controlled waste without registering.

- (1) Subject to the following provisions of this section, it shall be an offence for any person who is not a registered carrier of controlled waste, in the course of any business of his or otherwise with a view to profit, to transport any controlled waste to or from any place in Great Britain.
- (2) A person shall not be guilty of an offence under this section in respect of—

Status: Point in time view as at 06/04/2006.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Control of Pollution (Amendment) Act 1989. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) the transport of controlled waste within the same premises between different places in those premises;
 - (b) the transport to a place in Great Britain of controlled waste which has been brought from a country or territory outside Great Britain and is not landed in Great Britain until it arrives at that place;
 - (c) the transport by air or sea of controlled waste from a place in Great Britain to a place outside Great Britain.
- (3) The Secretary of State may by regulations provide that a person shall not be required for the purposes of this section to be a registered carrier of controlled waste if—
- (a) he is a prescribed person or a person of such a description as may be prescribed; or
 - (b) without prejudice to paragraph (a) above, he is a person in relation to whom the prescribed requirements under the law of any other member State are satisfied.
- (4) In proceedings against any person for an offence under this section in respect of the transport of any controlled waste it shall be a defence for that person to show—
- (a) that the waste was transported in an emergency of which notice was given, as soon as practicable after it occurred, to the [^{F1}disposal authority][^{F1}regulation authority] in whose area the emergency occurred; [^{F2} or]
 - (b) that he neither knew nor had reasonable grounds for suspecting that what was being transported was controlled waste and took all such steps as it was reasonable to take for ascertaining whether it was such waste; or
 - (c) [^{F3}that he acted under instructions from his employer.]
- (5) A person guilty of an offence under this section shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale.
- (6) In this section “emergency”, in relation to the transport of any controlled waste, means any circumstances in which, in order to avoid, remove or reduce any serious danger to the public or serious risk of damage to the environment, it is necessary for the waste to be transported from one place to another without the use of a registered carrier of such waste.

maintenance by such authorities, in accordance with the regulations, of such registers as may be prescribed.

(2) Regulations under this section may—

- (a) make provision with respect to applications for registration;
- (b) impose requirements with respect to the manner in which [^{F4}disposal authorities][^{F4}regulation authorities] maintain registers of carriers of controlled waste;
- (c) provide for the issue of a certificate of registration [^{F5}free of charge] to a registered carrier of controlled waste both on his registration and on the making of any alteration of any entry relating to him in a register of such carriers;
- (d) [^{F6}provide for such a certificate to be in such form and to contain such information as may be prescribed;]
- (e) provide that the provision by a [^{F4}disposal authority][^{F4}regulation authority] to a registered carrier of such copies of a certificate of registration as are provided in addition to the certificate provided [^{F7}free of charge] in pursuance of provision made by virtue of paragraph (c) above is to be made subject to the payment of a charge imposed under the regulations.

(3) Provision contained in any regulations under this section by virtue of subsection (2)

(a) above may, in particular, include provision which—

- (a) prescribes the manner of determining the [^{F4}disposal authority][^{F4}regulation authority] to which an application is to be made;
- (b) [^{F8}prescribes the form on which and other manner in which an application is to be made;]
- (c) prescribes the period within which an application for the renewal of any registration which is due to expire is to be made;
- (d) imposes requirements with respect to the information which is to be provided by an applicant to the authority to which his application is made;
- ^{F9}(e)

[^{F10}(3A) Without prejudice to the generality of [^{F11}paragraph (d)] of subsection (3) above—

- (a) [^{F12}the power to prescribe a form under paragraph (b) of that subsection includes power to require an application to be made on any form of any description supplied for the purpose by the regulation authority to which the application is to be made; and]
- (b) the power to impose requirements with respect to information under paragraph (d) of that subsection includes power to make provision requiring an application to be accompanied by such information as may reasonably be required by the regulation authority to which it is to be made.]

(4) Provision contained in any regulations under this section by virtue of subsection (2)

(b) above may, in particular, include provision—

- (a) specifying or describing the information to be incorporated in any register maintained by a [^{F4}disposal authority][^{F4}regulation authority] in pursuance of any such regulations;
- (b) requiring a registered carrier of controlled waste to notify a [^{F4}disposal authority][^{F4}regulation authority] which maintains such a register of any change of circumstances affecting information contained in the entry relating to that carrier in that register;

Status: Point in time view as at 06/04/2006.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Control of Pollution (Amendment) Act 1989. (See end of Document for details)

- (c) requiring a [^{F4}disposal authority][^{F4}regulation authority], to such extent and in such manner as may be prescribed, to make the contents of any such register available for public inspection free of charge; and
- (d) requiring such an authority, on payment of such charges as may be imposed under the regulations, to provide such copies of the contents of any such register to any person applying for a copy as may be prescribed.

[^{F13}(4A) Regulations under this section may include provision for—

- (a) the registration of a person as a carrier of controlled waste to be subject to conditions relating to the vehicles used by him in transporting such waste; or
- (b) the revocation by a regulation authority of the registration of a carrier of controlled waste who has breached a condition imposed on him under paragraph (a) above.]

[^{F13}(4B) Provision contained in any regulations under this section by virtue of subsection (4A) above may, in particular, include provision—

- (a) for inspection by a regulation authority of the vehicles of registered carriers of controlled waste for the purpose of ensuring compliance with conditions imposed under subsection (4A)(a) above;
- (b) for a regulation authority to impose charges on registered carriers of controlled waste in respect of such inspections.]

(5) Subsections (2) [^{F14} to (4B)] above are without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1) above.

3 Restrictions on power under section 2.

- (1) Nothing in any regulations under section 2 above shall authorise a [^{F15}disposal authority][^{F15}regulation authority] to refuse an application for registration except where—
- (a) there has, in relation to that application, been a contravention of the requirements of any regulations made by virtue of subsection (2)(a) of that section; or
 - (b) the applicant or another relevant person has been convicted of a prescribed offence and, in the opinion of the authority, it is undesirable for the applicant to be authorised to transport controlled waste.
- (2) Nothing in any regulations under section 2 above shall authorise any [^{F15}disposal authority][^{F15}regulation authority] to revoke any person's registration as a carrier of controlled waste except^{F16} in accordance with regulations under subsection (4A) of that section or] where—
- (a) that person or another relevant person has been convicted of a prescribed offence; and
 - (b) in the opinion of the authority, it is undesirable for the registered carrier to continue to be authorised to transport controlled waste;
- but registration in accordance with any regulations under that section shall cease to have effect after such period as may be prescribed or if the registered carrier gives written notice requiring the removal of his name from the register.
- (3) Regulations under section 2 above may require every registration in respect of a business which is or is to be carried on by a partnership to be a registration of all the partners and to cease to have effect if any of the partners ceases to be registered or if any person who is not registered becomes a partner.
- (4) Nothing in any regulations under section 2 above shall have the effect of bringing the revocation of any person's registration as a carrier of controlled waste into force except—
- (a) after the end of such period as may be prescribed for appealing against the revocation under section 4 below; or
 - (b) where that person has indicated, within that period, that he does not intend to make or continue with an appeal.
- (5) In relation to any applicant for registration or registered carrier, another relevant person shall be treated for the purposes of any provision made by virtue of subsection (1) or (2) above as having been convicted of a prescribed offence if—
- (a) any person has been convicted of a prescribed offence committed by him in the course of his employment by the applicant or registered carrier or in the course of the carrying on of any business by a partnership one of the members of which was the applicant or registered carrier;
 - (b) a body corporate has been convicted of a prescribed offence committed at a time when the applicant or registered carrier was a director, manager, secretary or other similar officer of that body corporate; or
 - (c) where the applicant or registered carrier is a body corporate, a person who is a director, manager, secretary or other similar officer of that body corporate—
 - (i) has been convicted of a prescribed offence; or

Status: Point in time view as at 06/04/2006.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Control of Pollution (Amendment) Act 1989. (See end of Document for details)

- (ii) was a director, manager, secretary or other similar officer of another body corporate at a time when a prescribed offence for which that other body corporate has been convicted was committed.
- (6) In determining for the purposes of any provision made by virtue of subsection (1) or (2) above whether it is desirable for any individual to be or to continue to be authorised to transport controlled waste, a [F15 disposal authority][F15 regulation authority] shall have regard, in a case in which a person other than the individual has been convicted of a prescribed offence, to whether that individual has been a party to the carrying on of a business in a manner involving the commission of prescribed offences.

4 Appeals against refusal of registration etc.

- (1) Where a person has applied to a [F17 disposal authority][F17 regulation authority] to be registered in accordance with any regulations under section 2 above, he may appeal to the Secretary of State if—
- his application is refused; or
 - the relevant period from the making of the application has expired without his having been registered;
- and for the purposes of this subsection the relevant period is two months or, except in the case of an application for the renewal of his registration by a person who is already registered, such longer period as may be agreed between the applicant and the disposal authority in question.
- (2) A person whose registration as a carrier of controlled waste has been revoked may appeal against the revocation to the Secretary of State.
- (3) On an appeal under this section the Secretary of State may, as he thinks fit, either dismiss the appeal or give the [F17 disposal authority][F17 regulation authority] in question a direction to register the appellant or, as the case may be, to cancel the revocation.
- (4) Where on an appeal made by virtue of subsection (1)(b) above the Secretary of State dismisses an appeal, he shall direct the [F17 disposal authority][F17 regulation authority] in question not to register the appellant.
- (5) It shall be the duty of a [F17 disposal authority][F17 regulation authority] to comply with any direction under this section.
- (6) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision as to the manner in which and time within which an appeal under this section is to be made and as to the procedure to be followed on any such appeal.

Status: Point in time view as at 06/04/2006.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Control of Pollution (Amendment) Act 1989. (See end of Document for details)

- (7) Where an appeal under this section is made in accordance with regulations under this section—
- (a) by a person whose appeal is in respect of such an application for the renewal of his registration as was made, in accordance with regulations under section 2 above, at a time when he was already registered; or
 - (b) by a person whose registration has been revoked, that registration shall continue in force, notwithstanding the expiry of the prescribed period or the revocation, until the appeal is disposed of.
- (8) For the purposes of subsection (7) above an appeal is disposed of when any of the following occurs, that is to say—
- (a) the appeal is withdrawn;
 - (b) the appellant is notified by the Secretary of State or the ^[F17]disposal authority^[F17]regulation authority] in question that his appeal has been dismissed; or
 - (c) the ^[F17]disposal authority^[F17]regulation authority] comply with any direction of the Secretary of State to renew the appellant's registration or to cancel the revocation.
- ^F18 This section is subject to section 114 of the Environment Act 1995 (delegation or reference of appeals etc).]

5 Duty to produce authority to transport controlled waste. S

- (1) If it reasonably appears to any duly authorised officer of a ^[F19]disposal authority^[F19]regulation authority] or to a constable that any controlled waste is being or has been transported in contravention of section 1(1) above, he may—
- (a) stop any person appearing to him to be or to have been engaged in transporting that waste and require that person to produce his authority or, as the case may be, his employer's authority for transporting that waste; and
 - (b) search any vehicle that appears to him to be a vehicle which is being or has been used for transporting that waste, carry out tests on anything found in any such vehicle and take away for testing samples of anything so found.
- (2) Nothing in subsection (1) above shall authorise any person other than a constable in uniform to stop a vehicle on any road.

Status: Point in time view as at 06/04/2006.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Control of Pollution (Amendment) Act 1989. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) Subject to the following provisions of this section, a person who is required by virtue of this section to produce an authority for transporting controlled waste shall do so by producing it forthwith to the person making the requirement, by producing it at the prescribed place and within the prescribed period or by sending it to that place within that period.
- (4) A person shall be guilty of an offence under this section if he—
- (a) intentionally obstructs any authorised officer of a [^{F19} disposal authority][^{F19} regulation authority] or constable in the exercise of the power conferred by subsection (1) above; or
 - (b) subject to subsection (5) below, fails without reasonable excuse to comply with a requirement imposed in exercise of that power;
- and in paragraph (b) above the words “ without reasonable excuse ” shall be construed in their application to Scotland, as in their application to England and Wales, as making it a defence for a person against whom proceedings for the failure are brought to show that there was a reasonable excuse for the failure, rather than as requiring the person bringing the proceedings to show that there was no such excuse.
- (5) A person shall not be guilty of an offence by virtue of subsection (4)(b) above unless it is shown—
- (a) that the waste in question was controlled waste; and
 - (b) that that person did transport it to or from a place in Great Britain.
- (6) For the purposes of this section a person’s authority for transporting controlled waste is—
- (a) his certificate of registration as a carrier of controlled waste or such a copy of that certificate as satisfies prescribed requirements; or
 - (b) such evidence as may be prescribed that he is not required to be registered as a carrier of controlled waste.
- (7) A person guilty of an offence under this section shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale.

[^{F21}5B Fixed penalty notices for offences under section 5

- (1) This section applies where it appears to a regulation authority that a person has failed without reasonable excuse to comply with a requirement under section 5(2)(a) above (requirement to produce authority to transport waste).
- (2) The regulation authority may give that person a notice offering him the opportunity of discharging any liability to conviction for an offence under section 5(7)(a) above by payment of a fixed penalty.
- (3) Where a person is given a notice under this section in respect of an offence—
 - (a) no proceedings may be instituted for that offence before expiration of the period of fourteen days following the date of the notice; and
 - (b) he may not be convicted of that offence if he pays the fixed penalty before the expiration of the period.
- (4) A notice under this section must give such particulars of the circumstances alleged to constitute the offence as are necessary for giving reasonable information of the offence.
- (5) A notice under this section must also state—
 - (a) the period during which, by virtue of subsection (3) above, proceedings will not be taken for the offence;
 - (b) the amount of the fixed penalty; and
 - (c) the person to whom and the address at which the fixed penalty may be paid.
- (6) Without prejudice to payment by any other method, payment of the fixed penalty may be made by pre-paying and posting a letter containing the amount of the penalty (in

- (7) Where a letter is sent in accordance with subsection (6) above payment is to be regarded as having been made at the time at which that letter would be delivered in the ordinary course of post.
- (8) The form of a notice under this section must be such as the appropriate person may by order prescribe.
- (9) The fixed penalty payable to a regulation authority under this section is, subject to subsection (10) below, £300.
- (10) The appropriate person may by order substitute a different amount for the amount for the time being specified in subsection (9) above.
- (11) The regulation authority to which a fixed penalty is payable under this section may make provision for treating it as having been paid if a lesser amount is paid before the end of a period specified by the authority.
- (12) The appropriate person may by regulations restrict the extent to which, and the circumstances in which, a regulation authority may make provision under subsection (11) above.
- (13) In any proceedings a certificate which—
 - (a) purports to be signed on behalf of the chief finance officer of the regulation authority, and
 - (b) states that payment of a fixed penalty was or was not received by a date specified in the certificate, is evidence of the facts stated.

 - (c) that the authority have failed, after taking the prescribed steps, to ascertain the name and address of any person who is able to provide them with the prescribed information about who was using the vehicle at the time when the offence was committed.
- (2) Subject to subsections (3) and (4) below, where a warrant under this section has been issued to a [F22disposal authority][F22regulation authority] in respect of any vehicle, any duly authorised officer of the [F22disposal authority][F22regulation authority] or any constable may stop the vehicle and, on behalf of the authority, seize the vehicle and its contents.
- (3) Nothing in this section shall authorise any person other than a constable in uniform to stop a vehicle on any road; and a duly authorised officer of a [F22disposal authority][F22regulation authority] shall not be entitled to seize any property under this section unless he is accompanied by a constable.
- (4) A warrant under this section shall continue in force until its purpose is fulfilled; and any person seizing any property under this section shall, if required to do so, produce both the warrant and any authority in pursuance of which he is acting under the warrant.
- (5) Where any property has been seized under this section on behalf of a [F22disposal authority][F22regulation authority], the authority may, in accordance with regulations made by the Secretary of State, remove it to such place as the authority consider appropriate and may retain custody of it until either—
- (a) it is returned, in accordance with the regulations, to a person who establishes that he is entitled to it; or
 - (b) it is disposed of by the authority in exercise of a power conferred by the regulations to sell or destroy the property or to deposit it at any place.
- [F25(6) Regulations under this section shall not authorise a regulation authority to sell or destroy any property or to deposit any property at any place unless—
- (a) the following conditions are satisfied, that is to say—
 - (i) the authority have published such notice, and taken such other steps (if any), as may be prescribed for informing persons who may be entitled to the property that it has been seized and is available to be claimed; and
 - (ii) the prescribed period has expired without any obligation arising under the regulations for the regulation authority to return the property to any person; or
