

Football Spectators Act 1989

1989 CHAPTER 37

PART I

FOOTBALL MATCHES IN ENGLAND AND WALES

Preliminary

1 Scope and interpretation of this Part.

- (1) This Part of this Act applies in relation to association football matches played in England and Wales which are designated football matches and the following provisions have effect for its interpretation.
- (2) “Designated football match” means any such match of a description for the time being designated for the purposes of this Part by order made by the Secretary of State or a particular such match so designated.
- ^{F1}(3)
- (4) An order under subsection (2) above—
 - (a) may designate descriptions of football matches wherever played or when played at descriptions of ground or in any area specified in the order; and
 - ^{F2}(b)
- ^{F3}(5)
- ^{F4}(6) A person is not to be regarded as a “spectator” in relation to a designated football match if the principal purpose of his being on the premises is to provide services in connection with the match, or to report on it.]
- (7) A “licence to admit spectators” is a licence granted in respect of any premises by the licensing authority under this Part of this Act authorising the admission to the premises of spectators for the purpose of watching any designated football match played at those premises.

Status: Point in time view as at 20/10/2009. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: There are outstanding changes not yet made by the legislation.gov.uk editorial team to Football Spectators Act 1989. Any changes that have already been made by the team appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (8) Each of the following periods is “relevant to” a designated football match, that is to say—
 - (a) the period beginning—
 - (i) two hours before the start of the match, or
 - (ii) two hours before the time at which it is advertised to start, or
 - (iii) with the time at which spectators are first admitted to the premises, whichever is the earliest, and ending one hour after the end of the match;
 - (b) where a match advertised to start at a particular time on a particular day is postponed to a later day, or does not take place, the period in the advertised day beginning two hours before and ending one hour after that time.

^{F5}(8A)

- (9) A person is a “responsible person” in relation to any designated football match at any premises if he is a person concerned in the management of the premises or in the organisation of the match.
- (10) The power to make an order under subsection (2) above is exercisable by statutory instrument which shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.
- (11) The imposition under this Part of this Act of restrictions on the persons who may attend as spectators at any designated football match does not affect any other right of any person to exclude persons from admission to the premises at which the match is played.

Licences to admit spectators

8 The Football Licensing Authority.

- (1) There shall be a body called the Football Licensing Authority (in this Part of this Act referred to as “the licensing authority”) which shall perform the functions assigned to it by this Part of this Act.
- (2) The licensing authority shall consist of a chairman and not less than 4 nor more than 8 other members.
- (3) The chairman and other members of the licensing authority shall be appointed by the Secretary of State.
- (4) Schedule 2 to this Act shall have effect with respect to the licensing authority.
- (5) The expenses of the licensing authority shall be paid by the Secretary of State.

9 Offence of admitting spectators to unlicensed premises.

- (1) Subject to subsection (2) below, if persons are admitted as spectators to, or permitted to remain as spectators on, any premises during a period relevant to a designated football match without a licence to admit spectators being in force, any responsible person commits an offence.
- (2) Where a person is charged with an offence under this section it shall be a defence to prove either that the spectators were admitted in an emergency or—
 - (a) that the spectators were admitted without his consent; and
 - (b) that he took all reasonable precautions and exercised all due diligence to avoid the commission of such an offence.

Status: Point in time view as at 20/10/2009. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: There are outstanding changes not yet made by the legislation.gov.uk editorial team to Football Spectators Act 1989. Any changes that have already been made by the team appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) A person guilty of an offence under this section shall be liable—
- (a) on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum; or
 - (b) on conviction on indictment, to a fine or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, or to both.

Commencement Information

II S. 9 wholly in force at 1.8.1993 see s. 27(2)(3) and S.I. 1993/1690, art. 2.

10 Licences to admit spectators: general.

- (1) The licensing authority may, on an application duly made by a responsible person, grant a licence to admit spectators to any premises for the purpose of watching any designated football match played at those premises.
- (2) An application for a licence in respect of any premises shall be made in such manner, in such form and accompanied by such fee as may be determined by the Secretary of State.
- (3) The licensing authority shall not refuse to grant a licence without—
 - (a) notifying the applicant in writing of the proposed refusal and of the grounds for it;
 - (b) giving him an opportunity to make representations about them within the period of twenty-eight days beginning with the service of the notice; and
 - (c) taking any representations so made into account in making its decision.
- (4) A licence to admit spectators to any premises may authorise the admission of spectators to watch all designated football matches or specified descriptions of designated football matches or a particular such match.
- (5) A licence to admit spectators shall be in writing and shall be granted on such terms and conditions as the licensing authority considers appropriate and, if the Secretary of State gives to the licensing authority a direction under section 11 below, the conditions may include conditions imposing requirements as respects the seating of spectators.
- (6) A licence to admit spectators may also include conditions requiring specified descriptions of spectators to be refused admittance to the premises to watch designated football matches or specified descriptions of designated football matches or a particular such match.
- (7) Where a designation order includes the provision authorised by section 1(4)(b) above as respects the admission of spectators to any ground as authorised spectators, the licensing authority may, by notice in writing to the licence holder, direct that, for the purposes of any match or description of match specified in the direction, the licence shall be treated as including such specified terms and conditions as respects the admission of spectators as authorised spectators as the licensing authority considers appropriate; and the licence shall have effect, for that purpose, subject to those terms and conditions.
- (8) It shall be a condition of every licence that any authorised person shall be entitled, on production, if so required, of his authority—

Status: Point in time view as at 20/10/2009. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: There are outstanding changes not yet made by the legislation.gov.uk editorial team to Football Spectators Act 1989. Any changes that have already been made by the team appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) to enter at any reasonable time any premises on which a designated football match is being or is to be played;
 - (b) to make such inspection of the premises and such inquiries relating to them as he considers necessary for the purposes of this Part of this Act; or
 - ^{F7}(c)
- (9) A licence to admit spectators shall, unless revoked or suspended under section 12 below or surrendered, remain in force for a specified period.
- (10) Subject to subsection (11) below, the licensing authority may at any time, by notice in writing to the licence holder, vary the terms and conditions of the licence.
- (11) The licensing authority shall not vary the terms or conditions of a licence without—
- (a) notifying the licence holder in writing of the proposed alterations or additions;
 - (b) giving him an opportunity to make representations about them within the period of twenty-one days beginning with the service of the notice; and
 - (c) taking any representations so made into account in making the decision.
- (12) In taking any decision under this section the licensing authority shall have regard, among the other relevant circumstances, to the following matters or to such of them as are applicable to the decision, that is to say—
- (a) whether the premises and the equipment provided and procedures used at the premises are such as to secure that, except (in the case of the procedures) in an emergency, only authorised spectators are admitted to designated football matches;
 - ^{F8}(b)
 - (c) whether the equipment provided, procedures used and other arrangements in force at the premises are such as are reasonably required to prevent the commission or minimise the effects of offences at designated football matches; and
 - (d) such other considerations as the Secretary of State determines from time to time and notifies to the licensing authority.
- (13) Subject to subsection (14) below, if any term or condition of a licence is contravened any responsible person commits an offence.
- (14) Where a person is charged with an offence under subsection (13) above it shall be a defence to prove—
- (a) that the contravention took place without his consent; and
 - (b) that he took all reasonable precautions and exercised all due diligence to avoid the commission of such an offence.
- (15) A person guilty of an offence under subsection (13) above shall be liable, on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale.
- (16) The fees charged on the issue of licences—
- (a) may be fixed so as to reimburse the licensing authority their expenses under this Part of this Act; and
 - (b) shall be paid by the licensing authority to the Secretary of State.
- (17) In this section—
- “authorised person” means any person authorised by the Secretary of State [^{F9}or the licensing authority] ;

11 Power of Secretary of State to require conditions in licences relating to seating.

- (1) The Secretary of State may, by order, direct the licensing authority to include in any licence to admit spectators to any specified premises a condition imposing requirements as respects the seating of spectators at designated football matches at the premises; and it shall be the duty of the authority to comply with the direction.
- (2) The requirements imposed by a condition in pursuance of this section may relate to the accommodation to be provided at, or the arrangements to be made as respects the spectators admitted to, the premises.
- (3) A direction may require the licensing authority to include the condition in the licence when granting it or by way of varying the conditions of a licence.
- (4) Before giving a direction under this section in relation to any premises the Secretary of State shall consult the licensing authority which may, if it thinks fit, make recommendations to him.
- (5) The licensing authority shall not make any recommendations under subsection (4) above without consulting the local authority in whose area the premises are situated.
- (6) The power to make an order containing a direction under this section is exercisable by statutory instrument which shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.
- (7) In this section “local authority” has the same meaning as in the ^{M1}Safety of Sports Grounds Act 1975.

Marginal Citations

- M1 1975 c. 52.

12 Licences to admit spectators: revocation and suspension.

- (1) The licensing authority may, subject to subsections (2), (3) and (4) below, at any time, by notice in writing to the holder of a licence to admit spectators, revoke the licence or suspend the licence indefinitely or for such period as the authority considers appropriate.

Status: Point in time view as at 20/10/2009. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: There are outstanding changes not yet made by the legislation.gov.uk editorial team to Football Spectators Act 1989. Any changes that have already been made by the team appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) The licensing authority shall not suspend or revoke a licence under this section unless satisfied that it is necessary to do so having regard to the matters which are relevant for the purposes of this section.
- (3) The matters which are relevant for the purposes of this section are—
 - (a) the matters specified in paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of section 10(12) above; and
 - (b) such other considerations as the Secretary of State determines from time to time and notifies to the licensing authority.
- (4) The licensing authority shall not revoke or suspend a licence to admit spectators without—
 - (a) notifying the licence holder of the proposed revocation or suspension and of the grounds for it;
 - (b) giving him an opportunity to make representations about the matter within the period of twenty-one days beginning with the date of the service of the notice; and
 - (c) taking any representations so made into account in making the decision.
- (5) The licensing authority may, if satisfied that the urgency of the case so requires, suspend a licence under this section without observing the requirements of subsection (4) above but the authority shall, as soon as is practicable, notify the person to whom the licence was granted of the grounds for the suspension.
- (6) A licence suspended under this section shall during the time of suspension be of no effect.
- (7) Where a licence has been suspended under this section the person to whom the licence was granted may at any time apply to the licensing authority to terminate the suspension and the licensing authority may terminate the suspension if it appears to be appropriate to do so having regard to the relevant matters and after taking into account any representations made by the applicant.

- (1) The licensing authority shall have the function of keeping under review the discharge by local authorities of their functions under the ^{M2}Safety of Sports Grounds Act 1975 in relation to sports grounds at which designated football matches are played and shall have the powers conferred in relation to those functions by the following provisions of this section.
- (2) The licensing authority may, by notice in writing to the local authority concerned, require the local authority to include in any safety certificate such terms and conditions as are specified in the notice; and it shall be the duty of the local authority to comply with the requirement.
- (3) Before exercising its power under subsection (2) above to require the inclusion of specified terms and conditions in any safety certificate, the licensing authority shall consult ^{F10}—
 - (a) the local authority;
 - (b) the chief officer of police;
 - (c) if the local authority are not the fire and rescue authority, the fire and rescue authority; and
 - (d) if the local authority are not the building authority, the building authority.]

- (4) As respects those terms and conditions, the local authority need not consult the chief officer of police, the [^{F11}fire and rescue authority] or the building authority under section 3(3) or 4(8) of the Safety of Sports Grounds Act 1975 before issuing a safety certificate or about any proposal to amend or replace one.
- (5) A notice under subsection (2) above may require the issue under that Act of a safety certificate incorporating the specified terms or conditions or the amendment under that Act of a safety certificate so that it incorporates the specified terms or conditions.
- (6) Any inspector appointed by the licensing authority may, for the purposes of the discharge by the licensing authority of its function under subsection (1) above, on production, if so required, of his authority—
 - (a) enter at any reasonable time any sports ground at which designated football matches are played;
 - (b) make such inspection of the ground and such inquiries relating to the ground as he considers necessary; or
 - (c) examine the safety certificate and any records kept under the Safety of Sports Grounds Act 1975 or this Part of this Act, and take copies of such records.
- (7) The licensing authority may, by notice in writing to any local authority, require the local authority to furnish to the licensing authority such information relating to the discharge by the local authority of its functions under the Safety of Sports Grounds Act 1975 as is specified in the notice; and it shall be the duty of the local authority to comply with the requirement.
- (8) Section 5(3) of the Safety of Sports Grounds Act 1975 (appeals against terms and conditions of safety certificates) shall have effect with the insertion, after paragraph (ii), of the words “but not against the inclusion in a safety certificate of anything required to be included in it by the Football Licensing Authority under section 13(2) of the Football Spectators Act 1989”.
- (9) Any expression used in this section and in the Safety of Sports Grounds Act 1975 has the same meaning in this section as in that Act.

^{F16}14A [Banning orders made on conviction of an offence.]

- (1) This section applies where a person (the “offender”) is convicted of a relevant offence.
- (2) If the court is satisfied that there are reasonable grounds to believe that making a banning order would help to prevent violence or disorder at or in connection with any regulated football matches, it must make such an order in respect of the offender.
- (3) If the court is not so satisfied, it must in open court state that fact and give its reasons.

^{F17}(3A) For the purpose of deciding whether to make an order under this section the court may consider evidence led by the prosecution and the defence.

(3B) It is immaterial whether evidence led in pursuance of subsection (3A) would have been admissible in the proceedings in which the offender was convicted.]

- (4) A banning order may only be made under this section—
 - (a) in addition to a sentence imposed in respect of the relevant offence, or
 - (b) in addition to an order discharging him conditionally.

^{F18}(4A) The court may adjourn any proceedings in relation to an order under this section even after sentencing the offender.

(4B) If the offender does not appear for any adjourned proceedings, the court may further adjourn the proceedings or may issue a warrant for his arrest.

[If the court adjourns or further adjourns any proceedings under subsection (4A) or ^{F19}(4BA) (4B), the court may remand the offender.

(4BB) A person who, by virtue of subsection (4BA), is remanded on bail may be required by the conditions of his bail—

- (a) not to leave England and Wales before his appearance before the court, and

- (b) if the control period relates to a regulated football match outside the United Kingdom or to an external tournament which includes such matches, to surrender his passport to a police constable, if he has not already done so.]
- (4C)^{F20} ... the court may not issue a warrant [^{F21}under subsection (4B) above] for the offender's arrest unless it is satisfied that he has had adequate notice of the time and place of the adjourned proceedings.]
- (5) A banning order may be made as mentioned in subsection (4)(b) above in spite of anything in sections 12 and 14 of the Powers of the Criminal Courts (Sentencing) Act 2000 (which relate to orders discharging a person absolutely or conditionally and their effect).
- [^{F22}(5A) The prosecution has a right of appeal against a failure by the court to make a banning order under this section—
- (a) where the failure is by a magistrates' court, to the Crown Court; and
- (b) where it is by the Crown Court, to the Court of Appeal.
- (5B) An appeal under subsection (5A)(b) may be brought only if the Court of Appeal gives permission or the judge who decided not to make an order grants a certificate that his decision is fit for appeal.
- (5C) An order made on appeal under this section (other than one directing that an application be re-heard by the court from which the appeal was brought) is to be treated for the purposes of this Part as if it were an order of the court from which the appeal was brought.]
- (6) In this section, “the court” in relation to an offender means—
- (a) the court by or before which he is convicted of the relevant offence, or
- (b) if he is committed to the Crown Court to be dealt with for that offence, the Crown Court.

- (a) stirring up hatred against a group of persons defined by reference to colour, race, nationality (including citizenship) or ethnic or national origins, or against an individual as a member of such a group,
 - (b) using threatening, abusive or insulting words or behaviour or disorderly behaviour,
 - (c) displaying any writing or other thing which is threatening, abusive or insulting.
- (3) In this Part, “violence” and “disorder” are not limited to violence or disorder in connection with football.
- (4) The magistrates’ court may take into account the following matters (among others), so far as they consider it appropriate to do so, in determining whether to make an order under section 14B above—
- (a) any decision of a court or tribunal outside the United Kingdom,
 - (b) deportation or exclusion from a country outside the United Kingdom,
 - (c) removal or exclusion from premises used for playing football matches, whether in the United Kingdom or elsewhere,
 - (d) conduct recorded on video or by any other means.
- (5) In determining whether to make such an order—

^{F31}[14E Banning orders: general.

- (1) On making a banning order, a court must in ordinary language explain its effect to the person subject to the order.
- (2) A banning order must require the person subject to the order to report initially at a police station in England and Wales specified in the order within the period of five days beginning with the day on which the order is made.

[A banning order must require the person subject to the order to give notification of ^{F32}(2A) the events mentioned in subsection (2B) to the enforcing authority.

- (2B) The events are—
- (a) a change of any of his names;
 - (b) the first use by him after the making of the order of a name for himself that was not disclosed by him at the time of the making of the order;
 - (c) a change of his home address;
 - (d) his acquisition of a temporary address;
 - (e) a change of his temporary address or his ceasing to have one;
 - (f) his becoming aware of the loss of his travel authorisation;
 - (g) receipt by him of a new travel authorisation;
 - (h) an appeal made by him in relation to the order;
 - (i) an application made by him under section 14H(2) for termination of the order;
 - (j) an appeal made by him under section 23(3) against the making of a declaration of relevance in respect of an offence of which he has been convicted.

- (2C) A notification required by a banning order by virtue of subsection (2A) must be given before the end of the period of seven days beginning with the day on which the event in question occurs and—
- (a) in the case of a change of a name or address or the acquisition of a temporary address, must specify the new name or address;
 - (b) in the case of a first use of a previously undisclosed name, must specify that name; and
 - (c) in the case of a receipt of a new travel authorisation, must give details of that travel authorisation.]
- (3) A banning order must ^{F33}... impose a requirement as to the surrender in accordance with this Part, in connection with regulated football matches outside the United Kingdom, of the [^{F34}travel authorisation] of the person subject to the order.
- ^{F35}(4)
- (5) In the case of a person detained in legal custody—
- (a) the requirement under this section to report at a police station, and
 - (b) any requirement imposed under section 19 below,
- is suspended until his release from custody.
- (6) If—
- (a) he is released from custody more than five days before the expiry of the period for which the order has effect, and
 - (b) he was precluded by his being in custody from reporting initially,
- the order is to have effect as if it required him to report initially at the police station specified in the order within the period of five days beginning with the date of his release.]
- [^{F36}(7) A person serving a sentence of imprisonment to which an intermittent custody order under section 183 of the Criminal Justice Act 2003 relates is to be treated for the purposes of this section as having been detained in legal custody until his final release; and accordingly any reference in this section to release is, in relation to a person serving such a sentence, a reference to his final release.]
- [^{F37}(8) In this section—
- “declaration of relevance” has the same meaning as in section 23;
- “home address”, in relation to any person, means the address of his sole or main residence;
- “loss” includes theft or destruction;
- “new” includes replacement;
- “temporary address”, in relation to any person, means the address (other than his home address) of a place at which he intends to reside, or has resided, for a period of at least four weeks.]

Reporting

19 Functions of enforcing authority and local police.

- (1) The enforcing authority and the officer responsible for the police station at which he reports initially shall have the following functions as respects any person subject to [^{F69}a banning order].
- (2) On a person reporting initially at the police station, the officer responsible for the station may make such requirements of that person as are determined by the enforcing authority to be necessary or expedient for giving effect to [^{F70}the banning order, so far as relating to regulated football matches outside England and Wales.
- (2A) If, in connection with any regulated football match outside England and Wales, the enforcing authority is of the opinion that requiring any person subject to a banning order to report is necessary or expedient in order to reduce the likelihood of violence or disorder at or in connection with the match, the authority must give him a notice in writing under subsection (2B) below.
- (2B) The notice must require that person—
 - (a) to report at a police station specified in the notice at the time, or between the times, specified in the notice,
 - (b) if the match is outside the United Kingdom ^{F71}..., to surrender his [^{F72}travel authorisation] at a police station specified in the notice at the time, or between the times, specified in the notice, and may require him to comply with any additional requirements of the order in the manner specified in the notice.

- (2C) In the case of any regulated football match, the enforcing authority may by notice in writing require any person subject to a banning order to comply with any additional requirements of the order in the manner specified in the notice.
- (2D) The enforcing authority may establish criteria for determining whether any requirement under subsection (2B) or (2C) above ought to be imposed on any person or any class of person.
- (2E) A notice under this section—
- (a) may not require the person subject to the order to report except in the control period in relation to a regulated football match outside England and Wales or an external tournament,
 - (b) may not require him to surrender his [^{F72}travel authorisation] except in the control period in relation to a regulated football match outside the United Kingdom or an external tournament which includes such matches.
 - ^{F73}(c) [must require him to notify the enforcing authority within the time period specified in the notice of each address at which he intends to stay, or has stayed, for one night or more in a period which is the control period in relation to a regulated football match.]
- (2F) Where a notice under this section requires the person subject to the order to surrender his [^{F72}travel authorisation] , the [^{F72}travel authorisation] must be returned to him as soon as reasonably practicable after the end of the control period in question.]
- (5) The enforcing authority, in exercising their functions under this section, shall have regard to any guidance issued by the Secretary of State under section 21 below.
- (6) A person who, without reasonable excuse, fails to comply with any requirement imposed on him under subsection (2) above shall be guilty of an offence.
- (7) A person guilty of an offence under subsection (6) above shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 2 on the standard scale.

- apply to the authority empowered to grant exemptions under this section (“the exempting authority”) to be exempt from [F76the requirements imposed by or under this Part, or any of them] as respects that match or matches played during that period.
- (2) The enforcing authority may grant exemptions under this section in all cases; but where the application is [F77made during the control period in relation to any match to which the application applies, the officer responsible for a police station may grant the exemption as respects that match, subject to subsection (3) below].
 - (3) The officer responsible for a police station shall not grant an exemption without referring the question of exemption to the enforcing authority, unless he considers that it is not reasonably practicable to do so.
 - (4) The exempting authority shall exempt the applicant from [F78the requirements imposed by or under this Part, or any of them, as respects any match or matches to which the application relates] if he shows to the authority’s satisfaction—
 - (a) that there are special circumstances which justify his being so exempted; and
 - (b) that, because of those circumstances, he would not attend the match or matches if he were so exempted.
 - (5) The exempting authority shall, in taking any decision under subsection (4) above, have regard to any guidance issued by the Secretary of State under section 21 below.
 - (6) Where an exemption is granted by the exempting authority to a person under subsection (4) above [F79the banning order is to have effect subject to the exemption and, accordingly, no requirement is to be imposed under section 19 which is inconsistent with the exemption].
 - (7) A person who is aggrieved by the refusal of the exempting authority to grant him an exemption under subsection (4) above may, after giving the authority notice in writing of his intention to do so, appeal to a magistrates’ court [F80
 - (8) On any appeal under subsection (7) above the court may make such order as it thinks fit.
 - (9) The court may order the appellant to pay all or any part of the costs of an appeal under subsection (7) above.
 - (10) Any person commits an offence who, in connection with an application under this section to be exempted from [F81the requirements imposed by or under this Part, or any of them]—
 - (a) makes a statement which he knows to be false or misleading in a material particular or recklessly makes a statement which is false or misleading in a material particular, or
 - (b) produces, furnishes, signs or otherwise makes use of a document which he knows to be false or misleading in a material particular or recklessly produces, furnishes, signs or otherwise makes use of a document which is false or misleading in a material particular.
 - (11) A person guilty of an offence under subsection (10) above shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale.

21 Functions of enforcing authority: supplementary provisions.

- (1) The Secretary of State may issue to the enforcing authority such guidance as he considers appropriate for the purposes of the exercise of their functions under sections 19 and 20 above.
- (2) The Secretary of State shall make such arrangements as he considers appropriate for publishing the guidance issued from time to time under subsection (1) above.
- (3) The Secretary of State may make regulations regulating the giving by the enforcing authority to persons subject to [^{F82}banning orders] of notices under section 19 above [^{F83} . . .]; and it shall be the duty of the enforcing authority to comply with the regulations.
- (4) Regulations under subsection (3) above may exclude the operation of section 25 below.
- (5) The power to make regulations under subsection (3) above is exercisable by statutory instrument which shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.
- (6) Where any notice is given under section 19 above by the enforcing authority in accordance with regulations under subsection (3) above, the notice shall be taken to have been received by the person to whom it was addressed unless he proves that he did not receive the notice and did not know and had no reasonable cause to believe that [^{F84}requirements had been imposed on him under section 19 above].
- (7) Where any notice is given under section 19 above by the enforcing authority in accordance with section 25 below, subsection (6) above [^{F85}(instead of section 25(1A))] shall apply as it applies to such a notice given in accordance with regulations under subsection (3) above.
- (8) The Secretary of State may pay to the enforcing authority any expenses incurred by them in exercising their functions under sections 19 and 20 above.

^{F86}21A Summary measures: detention.

(1) This section and section 21B below apply during any control period in relation to a regulated football match outside England and Wales or an external tournament if a constable in uniform—

- (a) has reasonable grounds for suspecting that the condition in section 14B(2) above is met in the case of a person present before him, and
- (b) has reasonable grounds to believe that making a banning order in his case would help to prevent violence or disorder at or in connection with any regulated football matches.

(2) The constable may detain the person in his custody (whether there or elsewhere) until he has decided whether or not to issue a notice under section 21B below, and shall give the person his reasons for detaining him in writing.

(3) A person may not be detained under subsection (2) above for more than four hours or, with the authority of an officer of at least the rank of inspector, six hours.

(4) A person who has been detained under subsection (2) above may only be further detained under that subsection in the same control period in reliance on information which was not available to the constable who previously detained him; and a person on whom a notice has been served under section 21B(2) below may not be detained under subsection (2) above in the same control period.]

PART III

GENERAL

23 Further provision about, and appeals against, declarations of relevance.

- (1) Subject to subsection (2) below, a court may not make a declaration of relevance as respects any offence unless it is satisfied that the prosecutor gave notice to the defendant, at least five days before the first day of the trial, that it was proposed to show that the offence related to football matches [^{F106}, to a particular football match or to particular football matches (as the case may be).]
- (2) A court may, in any particular case, make a declaration of relevance notwithstanding that notice to the defendant as required by subsection (1) above has not been given if he consents to waive the giving of full notice or the court is satisfied that the interests of justice do not require more notice to be given.
- (3) A person convicted of an offence as respects which the court makes a declaration of relevance may appeal against the making of the declaration of relevance as if the declaration were included in any sentence passed on him for the offence, and accordingly—
 - (a) in section 10(3) of the ^{M12}Criminal Appeal Act 1968 (appeals against sentence by Crown Court), in paragraph (c), after the sub-paragraph (iv) inserted by section 15(7) above there shall be inserted “or
 - (v) a declaration of relevance under the Football Spectators Act 1989;”;
 - (b) in section 50(1) of that Act (meaning of “sentence”), at the end there shall be inserted the words “; and a declaration of relevance under the Football Spectators Act 1989”; and
