

Football Spectators Act 1989

1989 CHAPTER 37

[^{F1}PART II

REGULATED FOOTBALL MATCHES]

[^{F1}Banning orders]

^{F1}[14D Banning orders made on a complaint: appeals.

- (1) An appeal lies to the Crown Court against the making by a magistrates' court of a banning order under section 14B above.

[An appeal lies to the Crown Court against the dismissal by a magistrates' court of an ^{F2}(1A) application for the making of a banning order under section 14B above.]

- (2) On [^{F3}an appeal under this section] the Crown Court—
- (a) may make any orders necessary to give effect to its determination of the appeal, and
 - (b) may also make any incidental or consequential orders which appear to it to be just.
- (3) An order of the Crown Court made on an appeal under this section (other than one directing that an application be re-heard by a magistrates' court) is to be treated for the purposes of this Part as if it were an order of the magistrates' court from which the appeal was brought.]
