- (a) where the members of the authority are divided into different political groups at the time when this section comes into force, as soon as practicable after that time; and
 - (b) as soon as practicable after any occasion on which the members of the committee are changed in consequence of a determination under this section.
- (3) Where at any time the representation of different political groups on a body to which this section applies falls to be reviewed under this section by any relevant authority or committee of a relevant authority, it shall be the duty of that authority or committee, as soon as practicable after the review, to determine the allocation to the different political groups into which the members of the authority are divided of all the seats which fall to be filled by appointments made from time to time by that authority or committee.
- (4) Subject to subsection (6) below, it shall be the duty of a relevant authority or committee of a relevant authority—
- (a) in performing their duty under subsection (3) above; and
 - (b) in exercising their power, at times not mentioned in subsection (3) above, to determine the allocation to different political groups of seats on a body to which this section applies, to make only such determinations as give effect, so far as reasonably practicable, to the principles specified in subsection (5) below.

- (5) The principles mentioned in subsection (4) above, in relation to the seats on any body which fall to be filled by appointments made by any relevant authority or committee of a relevant authority, are—
- (a) that not all the seats on the body are allocated to the same political group;

- (b) that authority or committee shall, in making that determination, disregard for all other purposes any seats which, in accordance with any such provision, the said subsection (6) or otherwise, are to be or may be so filled; and for the purposes of this subsection a seat on an advisory committee of a relevant authority or on a sub-committee appointed by such an advisory committee shall not be treated as one which may be so filled unless the authority have determined that it must be so filled.

- (b) if a vacancy subsequently occurs on that body, as soon as practicable after the occurrence of the vacancy, to such wishes about who is to be appointed to the seats on that body which are allocated to a particular political group as are expressed by that group.

- (2) Where—

- (a) any person has been appointed, otherwise than for a fixed term, to a body to which section 15 above applies; and
- (b) that appointment was made, in pursuance of subsection (1) above, in accordance with the wishes of a political group, then, so long as that person's seat continues to be allocated to that group, the authority or committee which made the appointment shall act in accordance with the wishes of that group in determining whether and when to terminate the appointment.

- (3) The proceedings of a body to which section 15 above applies shall not be invalidated by any defect by virtue of this section or that section in the appointment of any person to that body.
- (4) This section applies in relation to an allocation of seats to different political groups whether or not that allocation is made in pursuance of any duty under section 15 above.

17 Exceptions to and extensions of political balance requirements

- (1) Subject to subsection (2) below, sections 15 and 16 above shall not apply in relation to appointments by a relevant authority or committee of a relevant authority to any body in so far as different provision is made by arrangements approved by the authority or committee—

- (b) without any member of the authority or committee voting against them.
