

Computer Misuse Act 1990

1990 CHAPTER 18

Computer misuse offences

2 Unauthorised access with intent to commit or facilitate commission of further offences. U.K.

- (1) A person is guilty of an offence under this section if he commits an offence under section 1 above (“the unauthorised access offence”) with intent—
- (a) to commit an offence to which this section applies; or
  - (b) to facilitate the commission of such an offence (whether by himself or by any other person); and the offence he intends to commit or facilitate is referred to below in this section as the further offence.

- (2) This section applies to offences—
- (a) for which the sentence is fixed by law; or
  - (b) for which a person who has attained the age of twenty-one years (eighteen in relation to England and Wales) and has no previous convictions may be sentenced to imprisonment for a term of five years (or, in England and Wales, might be so sentenced but for the restrictions imposed by section 33 of the <sup>M1</sup>Magistrates’ Courts Act 1980).

- (3) It is immaterial for the purposes of this section whether the further offence is to be committed on the same occasion as the unauthorised access offence or on any future occasion.

- (4) A person may be guilty of an offence under this section even though the facts are such that the commission of the further offence is impossible.

- [<sup>F1</sup>(5) A person guilty of an offence under this section shall be liable—
- (a) on summary conviction in England and Wales, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum or to both;
  - (b) on summary conviction in Scotland, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding [<sup>F2</sup>12] months or to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum or to both;
