- (3) For the purposes of this section, a person has—
- (a) a “Supreme Court qualification” if he has a right of audience in relation to all proceedings in the Supreme Court;
 - (b) a “High Court qualification” if he has a right of audience in relation to all proceedings in the High Court;
 - (c) a “general qualification” if he has a right of audience in relation to any class of proceedings in any part of the Supreme Court, or all proceedings in county courts or magistrates’ courts;
 - (d) a “Crown Court qualification” if he has a right of audience in relation to all proceedings in the Crown Court;
 - (e) a “county court qualification” if he has a right of audience in relation to all proceedings in county courts;
 - (f) a “magistrates’ court qualification” if he has a right of audience in relation to all proceedings in magistrates’ courts.
- (4) References in subsection (3) to a right of audience are references to a right of audience granted by an authorised body.
- (5) Any reference in any enactment, measure or statutory instrument to a person having such a qualification of a particular number of years’ length shall be construed as a reference to a person who—
- (a) for the time being has that qualification, and
 - (b) has had it for a period (which need not be continuous) of at least that number of years.
- [^{F1}(6) Any period during which a person had a right of audience but was, as a result of disciplinary proceedings, prevented by the authorised body concerned from exercising it shall not count towards the period mentioned in subsection (5)(b).]
