F³2 Directions under s. 1.

- (1) A direction under section 1 above requiring the publication of information shall—
 - (a) identify the financial year or years^[F⁴] or other periods] in relation to which the information is to be published;
 - (b) specify or describe the activities to which the information is to relate; and
 - (c) make provision as to the matters to be contained in the information and as to the form in which it is to be published.
- (2) A direction under section 1 above—
 - (a) may be given so as to apply either to all the relevant bodies with which the Commission giving the direction is concerned or to all such bodies as are of a description specified in the direction; and
 - (b) may be varied or revoked by any subsequent direction under that section.
- (3) Before giving a direction under section 1 above which imposes a new requirement on any relevant body as to the publication of any information the Audit Commission or Scottish Accounts Commission shall consult such associations of relevant bodies and such other persons as it thinks fit.
- (4) A direction under section 1 above imposing a new requirement on any relevant body as to the publication of any information shall not be given any later than the 31st December in the financial year which precedes that in relation to which the information is to be published^[F⁵] or, where another period has, under section 1(1) above, been specified in the direction, than such date as is there specified for the purposes of this subsection.]
- (5) Where the Audit Commission or the Scottish Accounts Commission gives a direction under section 1 above, it shall—
 - (a) publish the direction in such manner as it considers appropriate for bringing it to the attention of members of the public; and
 - (b) send a copy of the direction to every relevant body on whom duties are imposed by virtue of the direction.
- (6) References in this section to the imposition of a new requirement on a relevant body as to the publication of information are references to—

PART II

LOCAL GOVERNMENT CHANGES FOR ENGLAND

The Local Government Commission

12 The Local Government Commission for England.

(1) There shall be a body corporate to be known as the Local Government Commission for England (in this Part referred to as “the Local Government Commission”) for the purpose of carrying out the functions assigned to it by section 13 below.

Status: Point in time view as at 10/11/2004. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

*Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects
for the Local Government Act 1992. (See end of Document for details)*

- (2) Schedule 2 to this Act shall have effect with respect to the Local Government Commission.

Functions of the Local Government Commission

[^{F12}13 Reviews and Recommendations

- (1) The Secretary of State may request the Electoral Commission to recommend in respect of a specified area in England—
 - (a) whether a structural change should be made;
 - (b) whether a boundary change should be made.
- (2) Where the Electoral Commission receive a request in respect of an area under subsection (1), they may direct the Boundary Committee for England—
 - (a) to conduct a review of the area, and
 - (b) to recommend whether a change of the kind specified in the request should be made.
- (3) The Electoral Commission may direct the Boundary Committee for England—
 - (a) to conduct a review of a specified area in England, and
 - (b) to recommend whether an electoral change should be made in respect of that area.
- (4) The Electoral Commission shall from time to time direct the Boundary Committee for England—
 - (a) to conduct a review of each principal area in England, and
 - (b) to recommend whether an electoral change should be made in respect of that area.
- (5) In carrying out a function under this section the Electoral Commission or the Boundary Committee for England shall have regard to—
 - (a) the need to reflect the identities and interests of local communities,
 - (b) the need to secure effective and convenient local government,
 - (c) the need to secure the matters mentioned in paragraphs 1(2)(a) and 3(2)(a) of Schedule 11 to the Local Government Act 1972 ^{F13} (equality of representation), and
 - (d) any scheme for elections specified by order under section 86 of the Local Government Act 2000 ^{F14} (power to specify a scheme for elections).
- (6) The Electoral Commission may give a direction to the Boundary Committee for England about the exercise of a function under this section.
- (7) A direction may, in particular, require the Boundary Committee for England to have regard to—
 - (a) guidance given by the Secretary of State as to matters to be taken into account in considering structural or boundary changes;
 - (b) guidance given by the Electoral Commission as to matters to be taken into account in considering electoral changes.]

Status: Point in time view as at 10/11/2004. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

14 Changes that may be recommended.

(1) For the purposes of this Part—

- (a) a structural change is the replacement, in any non-metropolitan area, of the two principal tiers of local government with a single tier;
- (b) a boundary change is any of the changes specified in subsection (3) below, whether made for the purpose of facilitating a structural change or independently of any such change; and
- (c) an electoral change is a change of electoral arrangements for any local government area, whether made in consequence of any structural or boundary change or independently of any such change; and recommendations by the [^{F15}Electoral Commission] for any structural or boundary changes shall include such recommendations as to the matters mentioned in subsection (5) below as the Commission thinks appropriate in connection with the recommended changes.

(2) In subsection (1)(a) above—

- (a) the reference to a non-metropolitan area is a reference to any area which is or, as a result of any recommended boundary change would be, a non-metropolitan county or a non-metropolitan district; and
- (b) the reference to the replacement, in any such area, of the two principal tiers of local government with a single tier is a reference to either—
 - (i) the transfer to a council for a county consisting of that area of the functions in relation to that area of district councils; or
 - (ii) the transfer to a district council for that area of the functions in relation to that area of a county council.

(3) The changes mentioned in subsection (1)(b) above are—

- (a) the alteration of a local government area, including the alteration of so much of the boundary of any such area as lies below the high-water mark of medium tides, but excluding the extension of any local government area into Wales;
- (b) the constitution of a new local government area of any description outside Greater London by the amalgamation of two or more such areas of the like description or by the aggregation of parts of such areas of the like description or by the separation of part of any local government area;
- (c) the abolition of a principal area of any description outside Greater London, or of a metropolitan county, and its distribution among other areas of the like description;
- (d) the constitution of a new London borough by the amalgamation of two or more London boroughs or by the aggregation of parts of London boroughs or by the separation of part of a London borough;

Status: Point in time view as at 10/11/2004. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

*Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects
for the Local Government Act 1992. (See end of Document for details)*

- (e) the abolition of a London borough and the distribution of its area among other London boroughs;
 - (f) the constitution of a new parish by—
 - (i) the establishment as a parish of any area which is not a parish or part of one; or
 - (ii) the aggregation of the whole or any part of any such area with one or more parishes or parts of parishes; and
 - (g) the abolition of a parish, with or without the distribution of its area among other parishes.
- (4) In subsection (1)(c) above “electoral arrangements” means—
- (a) in relation to a principal area—
 - (i) the number of councillors of the council for that area;
 - (ii) the number and boundaries of the electoral areas into which that area is for the time being divided for the purposes of the election of councillors;
 - (iii) the number of councillors to be elected for any electoral area in that principal area ^{F16} . . . ; and
 - (iv) the name of any electoral area;
 - (b) in relation to a parish council—
 - (i) the number of councillors;
 - (ii) the question whether or not the parish or (in the case of a common parish council) any of the parishes should be divided into wards for the purposes of the election of councillors;
 - (iii) the number and boundaries of any such wards;
 - (iv) the number of councillors to be elected for any such ward or, in the case of a common parish, for each parish; and
 - (v) the name of any such ward.
- (5) The matters mentioned in subsection (1) above are—
- (a) the abolition of any local authority whose functions would all vest in another as a result of any recommended structural change or whose area would be abolished or otherwise substantially affected by any recommended boundary change;
 - (b) the establishment, as a county or district council, of a new authority for any area which would result from any recommended boundary change involving the amalgamation or aggregation of areas or parts of areas or involving other substantial alterations of areas;
 - ^{F17}[(ba) the establishment of a parish council for any new parish which would result from any recommended boundary change and the electoral arrangements (as defined in subsection (4)(b) above) for the council]
 - (c) the extent to which a structural or boundary change requires (whether because functions become vested in an authority for a smaller area or for any other reason connected with the change) that joint arrangements should be made in relation to functions affected by the change; ^{F18} . . .
 - ^{F19}(d)
 - ^{F20}[(e) whether, in connection with any recommended structural or boundary change, there should be any change in police areas (including any change resulting in a reduction or increase in the number of police areas)]

Status: Point in time view as at 10/11/2004. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Local Government Act 1992. (See end of Document for details)

- (6) For the purposes of this Part the establishment of a new authority as the county or district council for any area shall be taken to include provision, subject to any necessary electoral changes—
- (a) for an existing county council to become the district council for any area comprising a part of a county or for any two or more such areas; or
 - (b) for an existing district council to become the county council for an area comprising any one or more districts.
- (7) For the purposes of this section—
- (a) a metropolitan district and a non-metropolitan district shall be regarded as local government areas of a like description and so shall a metropolitan county and a non-metropolitan county; and
 - (b) any county or district resulting from the amalgamation or aggregation of the whole or any part of a metropolitan area with the whole or any part of a non-metropolitan area shall be regarded as a non-metropolitan county or, as the case may be, district.

20 Agreements as to incidental matters.

- (1) Any public bodies affected by an order under this Part may from time to time make agreements with respect to any property, income, rights, liabilities and expenses (so far as affected by the order) of, and any financial relations between, the parties to the agreement.
- (2) Such an agreement may provide—
 - (a) for the transfer or retention of any property, rights and liabilities, with or without conditions, and for the joint use of any property;

Status: Point in time view as at 10/11/2004. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Local Government Act 1992. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) for the making of payments by either party to the agreement in respect of property, rights and liabilities so transferred or retained, or of such joint use, and in respect of the remuneration or compensation payable to any person; and
 - (c) for the making of any such payment either by way of a capital sum or of a terminable annuity.
- (3) In default of agreement as to any disputed matter, the matter shall be referred to the arbitration of a single arbitrator—
- (a) agreed on by the parties; or
 - (b) in default of agreement, appointed by the Secretary of State;
- and the award of the arbitrator may make any provision that might be contained in an agreement under this section.
- (4) In subsection (3) above “disputed matter” means any matter which—
- (a) might be the subject of provision contained in an agreement under this section; and
 - (b) is the subject of such a dispute between two or more public bodies as is not resolved by or under provision contained in any order or regulations under this Part.

21 Joint authorities.

- (1) This section applies to any functions which are to be or have become functions of any authority as a result of any structural or boundary change if the Secretary of State considers, having regard to any recommendations to that effect made by the [^{F61}Electoral Commission] by virtue of section 14(5)(c) above, that they should be carried out in accordance with joint arrangements.
- (2) Where it appears to the Secretary of State that joint arrangements, or satisfactory joint arrangements, with respect to any functions to which this section applies—
- (a) have not been made by the authorities in whom those functions are to be or have been vested;
 - (b) will not be in force when the structural or boundary change in question comes into force; or
 - (c) have ceased or will cease to be in operation,
- he may, for the areas of those authorities, by order establish a joint authority, which may be a body corporate, to carry out those functions, from a date specified in the order until such joint arrangements as appear to him to be satisfactory are brought into force.
- (3) An order under this section may make provision for enabling the Secretary of State to require the joint authority to submit to him a scheme for the winding up of the joint authority and for the transfer—
- (a) to any of the authorities for whose areas the joint authority is established; or
 - (b) to any body established in pursuance of any joint arrangements made by or in relation to those authorities, of any of the joint authority's property, rights and liabilities or of any functions which it carries out.

- (4) The Secretary of State may by order provide—
- (a) for excluding any functions, or any functions in any area, from those falling to be carried out by a joint authority; and
 - (b) for giving effect (with or without modifications) to any scheme submitted to him under a provision made by virtue of subsection (3) above and for the dissolution of a joint authority.
- (5) The power to make an order under any of the preceding provisions of this section shall include power to make such incidental, consequential, transitional or supplementary provision as the Secretary of State thinks necessary or expedient, including provision for the transfer of property, rights and liabilities.

- (a) it effects a structural change;
 - (b) it establishes a joint authority for two or more local government areas; or
 - (c) it effects only electoral changes or relates only to parishes.
- (2) No order under this Part effecting a structural change or establishing a joint authority for two or more local government areas shall be made unless a draft of the order has been laid before, and approved by resolution of, each House of Parliament; but an order effecting such a change or establishing a joint authority shall, if apart from this subsection it would be treated for the purposes of the standing orders of either House of Parliament as a hybrid instrument, proceed in that House as if it were not such an instrument.
- [^{F65}(3) Every power of the Secretary of State under this Part to make orders or regulations, and every power of the Electoral Commission to make orders or to give directions, shall include power to make different provision for different cases, including provision for different localities and for different bodies]
- (4) Any power of the Secretary of State by order or regulations under this Part to make incidental, consequential, transitional or supplementary provision shall include power for any incidental, consequential, transitional or supplementary purposes—
- (a) to apply with or without modifications;
 - (b) to extend, exclude or amend; or
 - (c) to repeal or revoke with or without savings,
- any enactment, any instrument made under any enactment or any charter, whenever granted.
- (5) Any power of the Secretary of State under this Part to make by order or regulations provision for the transfer of any functions, property, rights or liabilities or to make transitional provision in connection with any such transfer or with the establishment of any body shall include, in particular, power to provide—
- (a) for legal proceedings commenced by or against any body to be continued by or against a body to whom functions, property, rights or liabilities are transferred;
 - (b) for the transfer of staff, compensation for loss of office, pensions and other staffing matters; and
 - (c) for treating any body to whom a transfer is made for some or all purposes as the same person in law as the body from whom the transfer is made.
- (6) A direction under any provision of this Part may be varied or revoked by any subsequent direction under that provision; and where [^{F66}the Secretary of State is or the Electoral Commission are satisfied] that—
- (a) a mistake has occurred in the preparation of an order under any provision of this Part; and
 - (b) the mistake is such that it cannot be rectified by a subsequent order made under that provision by virtue of section 14 of the ^{M4}Interpretation Act 1978 (implied power to amend),
- [^{F66}he or they may] by order under this subsection make such provision as [^{F66}he thinks or they think] necessary or expedient for rectifying the mistake.
