

Further and Higher Education (Scotland) Act 1992

1992 CHAPTER 37

PART I

FURTHER EDUCATION

CHAPTER III

COLLEGES OF FURTHER EDUCATION

Miscellaneous

27 Information as to provision of further education.

- (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations require the board of management of a college of further education to publish such information as may be prescribed as to—
 - (a) the educational provision made or proposed to be made for students of the college (including students with learning difficulties);
 - (b) the educational achievements of such students while students of the college (including the results of examinations, tests and other assessments);
 - (c) the careers of such students after leaving the college; and
 - (d) the facilities provided or proposed to be provided for students of the college who have learning difficulties and disabled staff of the college.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1)(c) above, a person's career includes any education, training, employment or occupation; and the regulations may in particular require the published information to show—
 - (a) the numbers of students not undertaking any career; and
 - (b) the persons providing students with education, training or employment.
