shall be construed, where a substance is to be treated as such oil, as including references to duty under this section.

- (5) The Treasury may by order provide for any substance on which duty is charged under this section to be treated for the purposes of such of the following provisions of this Act as may be specified in the order as if it fell within the description of such one or more of the following as may be so specified, that is to say—
 - (a) heavy oil or light oil;
 - (b) aviation gasoline;
 - (c) fuel oil or gas oil, as defined in section 11(2) below; and
 - (d) unleaded petrol, as defined in section 13A(2) below.
 - (6) In exercising their powers under this section, the Treasury shall so far as practicable secure—
 - (a) that a substance set aside for use or used as mentioned in subsection (2)(a) above is—
 - (i) charged with duty at the same rate as, and
 - (ii) otherwise treated for the purposes of the following provisions of this Act as if it were,
 the substance falling within the descriptions specified in subsection (5) above to which, when put to that use, it is most closely equivalent; and
 - (b) that a substance set aside for use or used as an additive or extender in any substance is—
 - (i) charged with duty at the same rate as, and
 - (ii) otherwise treated for the purposes of the following provisions of this Act as if it were,
 the substance in which it is an additive or extender.
 - (7) For the purposes of this section “liquid” does not include any substance which is gaseous at a temperature of 15°C and under a pressure of 1013.25 millibars.
 - (8) The power of the Treasury to make an order under this section shall be exercisable by statutory instrument subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of the House of Commons.
 - (9) An order under this section—
 - (a) may make different provision for different cases and for different substances;
 - (b) may prescribe the rate of duty under this section in respect of any substance by reference to the rate of duty under this Act in respect of any other substance; and
 - (c) in making different provision for different substances, may define a substance by reference to the use for which it is set aside or the use to which it is put.”

12 Measurement of volume.

- (1) In ascertaining for the purposes of the ^{M10}Hydrocarbon Oil Duties Act 1979—
- (a) the amount of any duty of excise chargeable on any liquid by virtue of that Act; or
 - (b) the amount of any rebate allowable on any such liquid by virtue of that Act, the volume of that liquid shall be taken (if it would not otherwise be so taken) to be what would be its volume, calculated in accordance with regulations under subsection (2) below, at a temperature of 15°C.

- (2) The Commissioners of Customs and Excise may by regulations make such provision as they think fit as to the method by which, in ascertaining any amount mentioned in subsection (1) above—

- (a) the volume of any liquid is to be measured; or
- (b) the volume as at a temperature of 15°C of any amount of a liquid is to be determined; and that provision may include provision made by reference to any internationally recognised conversion tables.

- (3) Any reference in sections 15 and 17 to 19A of that Act (drawback and relief) to the amount of any duty of excise which has been paid in respect of any substance, or to the amount of any rebate that has been allowed in respect of any substance, shall be construed as a reference—

- (6) For subsection (4) of section 25 (meaning of “gaming machine”) there shall be substituted the following subsections—
 - “(4) Subject to subsection (5) below, for the purposes of determining whether a machine is a gaming machine it is immaterial whether it is capable of being played by only one person at a time, or is capable of being played by more than one person.
 - (5) For the purposes of sections 21 to 24 above a machine (the actual machine) which two or more persons can play simultaneously (whether or not participating with one another in the same game) shall, instead of being treated as one machine, be treated as if it were a number of machines (accountable machines) equal to the number of persons who can play the actual machine simultaneously.
 - (6) Subsection (5) above does not apply to a machine which is a two-penny machine, or is both a small-prize machine and a five-penny machine.
 - (7) If the actual machine is a small-prize machine but not a five-penny machine, the accountable machines shall be taken to be small-prize machines which are not five-penny machines.
 - (8) If the actual machine is not a small-prize machine, the accountable machines shall be taken not to be small-prize machines, and in such a case—
 - (a) if the actual machine is a five-penny machine, the accountable machines shall be taken to be five-penny machines;
 - (b) if the actual machine is not a five-penny machine, the accountable machines shall be taken not to be five-penny machines.
 - (9) For the purposes of subsection (5) above the number of persons who can play a particular machine simultaneously shall be determined by reference to the number of individual playing positions provided on the machine.”
- (7) In section 26(2) (interpretation) the following definition shall be inserted after the definition of “two-penny machine”—

CHAPTER II

LOTTERY DUTY

The duty

24 Lottery duty.

- (1) Subject to subsections (3) and (4) below, a duty of excise called “lottery duty” is chargeable—
 - (a) on the taking in the United Kingdom of a ticket or chance in a lottery, and
 - (b) in such cases as may be determined by regulations, on the taking outside the United Kingdom of a ticket or chance in a lottery promoted in the United Kingdom.
- (2) Regulations may make provision for determining when and where the taking of a ticket or chance in a lottery is to be treated as occurring for the purposes of this Chapter.
- (3) Lottery duty is not chargeable in respect of a lottery that constitutes a game of bingo (or any version of bingo, by whatever name called).
- (4) Lottery duty is not chargeable in respect—
 - (a) of a lottery promoted as an incident of an exempt entertainment within the meaning of the ^{M13}Lotteries and Amusements Act 1976 or the ^{M14}Betting, Gaming, Lotteries and Amusements (Northern Ireland) Order 1985;

Status: Point in time view as at 01/10/2002.

Changes to legislation: Finance Act 1993 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 06 September 2023. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) of a private lottery within the meaning of that Act or Order;
 - (c) of a society's lottery within the meaning of that Act or Order in respect of which the conditions set out in section 5(3) of that Act or Article 135(1) of that Order are satisfied;
 - (d) of a local lottery within the meaning of that Act in respect of which the conditions set out in section 6(2) of that Act are satisfied;
 - (e) of a lottery promoted in accordance with the ^{M15}Art Unions Act 1846.
- (5) The Treasury may by order amend subsection (4) above so as to add to the descriptions of lottery for the time being mentioned in that subsection, so as to omit any of them or so as to substitute a different description of lottery for any of them.

25 Amount of duty.

- (1) The amount of the lottery duty chargeable on the taking of a ticket or chance in a lottery is equal to 12 per cent. of the value of the consideration given for the ticket or chance.
- (2) Subject to subsection (3) below, the aggregate of everything paid or given by (or debited to the account of) the person taking the ticket or chance for, on account of, or in connection with, the ticket or chance shall be taken to be the consideration given for it.
- (3) If a price is shown on a lottery ticket or any other document providing evidence of the taking of a ticket or chance in a lottery and—
 - (a) the consideration given for the ticket or chance is of lesser value than the price shown (or is of no value), or
 - (b) no consideration is given for the ticket or chance, consideration to the value of the price shown shall be taken to be given for the ticket or chance.

26 Time for payment.

- (1) The lottery duty chargeable on the taking of a ticket or chance in a lottery becomes due and (subject to any regulations under subsection (2) below) payable at the time the ticket or chance is taken.
- (2) Regulations may provide for the payment of any lottery duty due in respect of a lottery of a description specified in the regulations to be deferred, subject to any conditions or requirements that may be imposed by or under the regulations.
- (3) Regulations may require payments (of amounts determined by or under the regulations) to be made on account of any lottery duty that may become due in respect of a lottery of a description specified in the regulations that is being or is to be promoted.

27 Persons liable for duty.

- (1) Any lottery duty or payment on account of lottery duty that under section 26 above or regulations under that section is payable in respect of a lottery shall be paid (subject to any regulations under subsection (2) below) by the promoter of the lottery.
- (2) Regulations may require any lottery duty or payment on account of lottery duty that is payable in respect of a lottery of a description specified in the regulations to be paid by a person specified in the regulations (being a person who occupies or has occupied a position of responsibility in relation to the lottery) instead of by the promoter.
- (3) Any lottery duty that is payable in respect of a lottery may be recovered jointly and severally from—
 - (a) the promoter of the lottery,
 - (b) any other person who occupies or has occupied a position of responsibility in relation to the lottery or who has or has had any degree of control over any of its proceeds, and
 - (c) where the promoter or a person within paragraph (b) above is a body corporate, any director of that body corporate.
- (4) [^{F19}Where a person] does not make a payment that he is required to make by subsection (1) above or regulations under subsection (2) above at the time the payment becomes payable [^{F20}his failure so to make the payment shall attract a penalty under section 9 of the Finance Act 1994 (civil penalties) which shall be calculated by reference to the amount which has not been paid and shall also attract daily penalties].

29 Registration of promoters etc.

- (1) A lottery in respect of which lottery duty is chargeable (or, on the taking of a ticket or chance, will be chargeable) shall not be promoted in the United Kingdom unless the chargeable person is registered with the Commissioners under this section.
- (2) In this section “the chargeable person”, in relation to a lottery, means—
 - (a) subject to paragraph (b) below, the promoter of the lottery;
 - (b) in the case of a lottery of a description specified in regulations under section 27(2) above, the other person referred to in that subsection.
- (3) Regulations may make provision—
 - (a) as to the time at which an application for registration is to be made, as to the form and manner of such an application and as to the information to be contained in or provided with it,
 - (b) as to the requirements that must be satisfied as a condition of a person’s registration or continued registration, and
 - (c) as to other requirements that must be observed by a person while he remains registered.
- (4) The requirements imposed by virtue of subsection (3)(b) above may include requirements as to the giving of security or further security (by means of a deposit or otherwise) for any lottery duty that may become due.
- (5) Subject to regulations under subsection (3)(a) and (b) above, the Commissioners—
 - (a) shall register any person applying to them for registration who satisfies them that he will be the chargeable person in relation to a lottery that is to be promoted, and
 - (b) shall not remove any person from the register unless it appears to them that no lottery is being or is to be promoted in relation to which he is or will be the chargeable person.
- (6) Where—
 - (a) the Commissioners determine that a person should be removed from the register because any requirement imposed by regulations under subsection (3) (b) above is not (or is no longer) satisfied in relation to him, and
 - (b) a lottery in relation to which he is the chargeable person is being promoted at the time they make that determination, they shall not remove him from the register until the promotion of that lottery has come to an end.
- (7) If subsection (1) above is contravened in relation to a lottery at any time during its promotion, the chargeable person is guilty of an offence and liable—
 - (a) on summary conviction, to a penalty of the statutory maximum or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months, or to both, or
 - (b) on conviction on indictment, to a penalty of any amount or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, or to both.

- (3) Except in such cases as may be prescribed, this section does not apply to any benefit consisting in—
- (a) an interest in, or the use of, any mechanically propelled vehicle;
 - (b) an interest in, or the use of, any holiday or other overnight accommodation or any facilities which include, or are provided in association with, a right or opportunity to make use of any such accommodation;
 - (c) a facility provided on domestic premises;
 - (d) a facility provided so as to be available to, or for use by, members of the public generally;
 - (e) a facility which is used neither wholly nor mainly by persons whose right or opportunity to use it derives from employment (whether with the same employer or with different employers); or
 - (f) a right or opportunity to make use of any facility falling within any of the preceding paragraphs.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (3)(e) above a person's right or opportunity to use any facility shall be taken to derive from employment if, and only if—
- (a) it derives from his being or having been an employee of a particular employer or a member of the family or household of a person who is or has been such an employee; and
 - (b) the facility is one which is provided so as to be available generally to the employees of that employer.
- (5) The Treasury may by regulations provide—
- (a) that such benefits as may be prescribed shall not be benefits to which this section applies; and
 - (b) that such other benefits as may be prescribed shall be benefits to which this section applies only where such conditions as may be prescribed are satisfied in relation to the terms on which, and the persons to whom, they are provided.
- (6) In this section—
- “domestic premises” means any premises used wholly or mainly as a private dwelling or any land or other premises belonging to, or enjoyed with, any premises so used;
- “non-cash voucher” has the same meaning as in section 141;
- “prescribed” means prescribed by regulations made by the Treasury;
- “vehicle” includes any ship, boat or other vessel, any aircraft and any hovercraft;
- and section 168(2) and (4) shall apply for the purposes of this section as it applies for the purposes of Chapter II of this Part.”

- (2) This section shall apply for the year 1993-94 and subsequent years of assessment.

A is so much of the amount mentioned in subsection (2)(a) above as represents chargeable gains on section 212 assets which at the end of the relevant period were linked solely to the basic life assurance and general annuity business of the company in question;

B is so much of the amount so mentioned as represents chargeable gains on linked section 212 assets which at the end of that period were partially linked to that business;

C is the amount of such of the closing liabilities at the end of that period of the company's basic life assurance and general annuity business as were liabilities in respect of benefits to be determined by reference to the value of linked section 212 assets which were then partially linked to that business;

D is the amount of all the closing liabilities of the company at the end of that period which were long term business liabilities in respect of benefits to be so determined;

E is the amount of such of the closing liabilities of the company on the relevant date as were relevant linked liabilities in respect of benefits determined by reference to linked section 212 assets;

F is the amount of all the closing liabilities on the relevant date of the company's basic life assurance and general annuity business which were liabilities in respect of such benefits; and

G is the number of accounting periods in the first nine accounting periods of the company after the end of 1992 which remain after the end of the relevant period or, as the case may be, which would so remain apart from any cessation of the carrying on of any business of the company;

[^{F66}93A Use of other currency: accounts partly from statements in foreign currency

- (1) This section applies where in an accounting period a company carries on a business and either the first condition or the second condition is fulfilled.
- (2) The first condition is that—
 - (a) the accounts of the company as a whole are prepared in sterling but, so far as relating to part of the business, they are prepared, using the closing rate/net investment method, from financial statements and records prepared in a currency other than sterling; or
 - (b) in the case of a company which is not resident in the United Kingdom, the company makes a return of accounts for its branch in the United Kingdom prepared in sterling but, so far as relating to part of the business, it is prepared, using that method, from financial statements and records prepared in a currency other than sterling.
- (3) The second condition is that—
 - (a) the accounts of the company as a whole are prepared in a currency other than sterling (“the first currency”) in accordance with generally accepted accounting practice but, so far as relating to part of the business, they are prepared, using the closing rate/net investment method, from financial statements and records prepared in a currency (“the second currency”) which is neither sterling nor the first currency; or
 - (b) in the case of a company which is not resident in the United Kingdom, the company makes a return of accounts for its branch in the United Kingdom prepared in a currency other than sterling (“the first currency”) in accordance with generally accepted accounting practice, but, so far as relating to part of the business, it is prepared, using the closing rate/ net investment method, from financial statements and records prepared in a currency (“the second currency”) which is neither sterling nor the first currency.
- (4) The profits or losses of the part of the business for an accounting period shall for the purposes of corporation tax be found by—
 - (a) taking the amount of all the profits and losses of the part of the business for the period computed and expressed in the relevant foreign currency; and
 - (b) taking—
 - (i) in a case where the first condition is fulfilled, the sterling equivalent, or
 - (ii) in a case where the second condition is fulfilled, the equivalent in the first currency, of the amount found by applying paragraph (a) above.
- (5) In a case where the second condition is fulfilled, effect shall be given to subsection (4) above before effect is given to section 93(4) above.
- (6) In the application for the purposes of subsection (4)(a) above of—
 - (a) section 578A(2) or (3) of the Taxes Act 1988, or
 - (b) section 43(3), 74(2), 75(1), 76(2), (3) or (4), 99(1), (2) or (3) or 208(1) of the Capital Allowances Act, it shall be assumed that any sterling amount mentioned in any of those sections is its equivalent expressed in the relevant foreign currency.

(7) Where for any accounting period—

- (a) the accounts of the company, so far as relating to a part of its business, are prepared, using the closing rate/net investment method, from financial statements and records prepared in a currency which is not sterling and, where the second condition is fulfilled, is not the first currency, or
- (b) in the case of a company which is not resident in the United Kingdom, its return of accounts for its branch in the United Kingdom, so far as relating to a part of the company's business, is prepared, using that method, from such financial statements and records, then, if different such financial statements and records are prepared in different currencies, the company shall be treated for the purposes of this section as having a separate part of a separate business for each such different currency (and this section shall accordingly apply separately in relation to each such part).

(8) In this section, “part of a business” includes any collection of assets and liabilities.

(9) In this section, unless the context otherwise requires—

“accounts” has the same meaning as in section 93 above;

“the closing rate/net investment method” means the method so called as described under the title “Foreign currency translation” in the Statement of Standard Accounting Practice issued in April 1983 by the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales;

“losses” has the same meaning as in section 92 above, except that it does not include allowable losses within the meaning of the Taxation of Chargeable Gains Act 1992;

“profits” has the same meaning as in section 92 above, except that it does not include chargeable gains within the meaning of that Act;

“the relevant foreign currency” means the currency in which the financial statements and records mentioned in subsection (2) or, as the case may be, (3) above are prepared;

“return of accounts” has the same meaning as in section 93 above.]

it shall be translated into its sterling equivalent by reference to a rate determined in accordance with subsection (4) below.

- (2) Where the amount of any receipt or expense, or the value of any asset, liability or derivative contract, of a company—
 - (a) falls to be brought into account for the purposes of the accounts mentioned in paragraph (a), or the return of accounts mentioned in paragraph (b), of subsection (2) of section 93 above,
 - (b) is denominated in a currency other than the relevant foreign currency, within the meaning of that section, and
 - (c) accordingly falls to be translated into the relevant foreign currency, the amount or value shall for the purposes of that section be translated from the currency mentioned in paragraph (b) above into the relevant foreign currency by reference to a rate determined in accordance with subsection (4) below.
- (3) Where, for any purpose of any provision of section 93A(4) or (6) above, any profit or loss denominated in one currency falls to be translated into its equivalent expressed in another currency, the translation shall be made by reference to a rate determined in accordance with subsection (4) below.
- (4) The rate is—
 - (a) the rate used in the preparation of the accounts of the company for the accounting period in question, if that rate is an arm's length exchange rate for the relevant day, or
 - (b) in any other case, the London closing exchange rate for the relevant day.
- (5) The reference in subsection (4)(a) above to the exchange rate used in the preparation of the accounts of the company includes a reference to any exchange rate implied by a derivative contract whose underlying subject matter is currency.
- (6) Nothing in this section affects the operation of Chapter 4 of Part 17 of the Taxes Act 1988 (controlled foreign companies).
- (7) Nothing in paragraph 88 of Schedule 18 to the Finance Act 1998 (company tax returns, assessments and related matters) shall be taken to prevent an amount being translated under this section for an accounting period by reference to an exchange rate which was not the exchange rate used to translate that amount for the purposes of the Corporation Tax Acts for another accounting period (whether of the same or a different company).
- (8) In this section—
 - “accounts” has the same meaning as in section 93 above;
 - “arm's length exchange rate” means such exchange rate as might reasonably be expected to be agreed between persons dealing at arm's length;
 - “derivative contract” shall be construed in accordance with Schedule 26 to the Finance Act 2002;
 - “the relevant day”—
 - (a) where the rate used in the preparation of the accounts is an exchange rate for a particular day, means that day; and
 - (b) where the rate used in the preparation of the accounts is an average rate for a number of days, means each of those days;
 - “underlying subject matter”, in relation to a derivative contract, shall be construed in accordance with Schedule 26 to the Finance Act 2002.]

- (c) paying or reimbursing any allowable travelling expenses incurred in connection with the provision of the qualifying counselling services to the employee.
- (4) No charge to tax under Schedule E shall arise in respect of—
 - (a) the provision of the qualifying counselling services to the employee,
 - (b) the payment or reimbursement of fees for the provision to the employee of the qualifying counselling services, or
 - (c) the payment or reimbursement of any allowable travelling expenses incurred in connection with the provision of the qualifying counselling services to the employee.
- (5) Where this section applies by virtue of subsection (2) above, subsection (4) above shall apply only to the extent that the expenditure incurred in providing the services or paying or reimbursing the fees or expenses is incurred on or after 16th March 1993.
- (6) Subsection (4) above shall apply whether or not the person who provides the services or pays or reimburses the fees or expenses is the person under whom the employee holds or held the office or employment mentioned in subsection (1) above.
- (7) Subsections (8) to (10) below apply where any relevant expenditure is incurred by the person under whom the employee holds or held the office or employment mentioned in subsection (1) above (the employer).
- (8) If and so far as the expenditure would not, apart from this subsection, be so deductible, it shall be deductible in computing for the purposes of Schedule D the profits or gains of the trade, profession or vocation of the employer for the purposes of which the employee is or was employed.
- (9) If the employer carries on a business and the expenses of management of the business are eligible for relief under section 75, subsection (8) above shall have effect as if for the words from “in computing” onwards there were substituted “as expenses of management for the purposes of section 75”.
- (10) Where this section applies by virtue of subsection (2) above, subsections (8) and (9) above shall apply only to the extent that the expenditure is incurred on or after 16th March 1993.

589B Qualifying counselling services etc.

- (1) Subsections (2) to (4) below apply for the purposes of section 589A.
- (2) Subject to subsection (3) below, services are qualifying counselling services if—

- (4) This section shall apply in relation to any case in which the claim for relief is made on or after 16th March 1993.

112 Employers’ pension contributions.

- (1) In section 592(4) of the Taxes Act 1988 (employers’ contributions to exempt approved schemes), at the end there shall be inserted “ but no other sum shall for those purposes be allowed to be deducted as an expense, or expense of management, in respect of the making, or any provision for the making, of any contributions under the scheme. ”
- (2) Subsection (1) above shall have effect in the case of any employer in relation to, as the case may be—
- (a) any accounting period of that employer ending with a day after 5th April 1993; or
- (b) any year of assessment the employer’s basis period for which ends with a day after that date.
- (3) Where—
- (a) there is after 5th April 1993 an actual payment by an employer of a contribution under an exempt approved scheme,
- (b) that payment would, apart from this subsection, be allowed to be deducted as an expense, or expense of management, of the employer in relation to any chargeable period in relation to which subsection (1) above has effect, and
- (c) the total of previously allowed deductions exceeds the relevant maximum,
- the amount allowed to be so deducted in respect of the payment mentioned in paragraph (a) above and of any other actual payments of contributions under the scheme which, having been made after 5th April 1993, fall within paragraph (b) above in relation to the same chargeable period shall be reduced by whichever is the smaller of the excess and the amount which reduces the deduction to nil.
- (4) In relation to any such actual payment by an employer of a contribution under an exempt approved scheme as would be allowed to be deducted as mentioned in subsection (3) above in relation to any chargeable period-
- (a) the reference in that subsection to the total of previously allowed deductions is a reference to the aggregate of every amount in respect of the making, or any provision for the making, of that or any other contributions under the scheme, which has been allowed to be deducted as an expense, or expense of management, of that person in relation to a previous chargeable period; and
- (b) the reference to the relevant maximum is a reference to the amount which would have been that aggregate if the restriction on deductions imposed by virtue of subsection (1) above had been applied in relation to every previous chargeable period;
- and for the purposes of this subsection an amount the deduction of the whole or any part of which falls to be taken into account as allowed in relation to more than one chargeable period shall be treated as if the amount allowed were a different amount in the case of each of those periods.

(5) For the purposes of this section any payment which is treated under subsection (6) of section 592 of the Taxes Act 1988 as spread over a period of years shall be treated as actually paid at the time when it is treated as paid in accordance with that subsection.

(6) After subsection (6) of section 592 of the Taxes Act 1988 there shall be inserted the following subsection—

“(6A) Where any sum is paid to the trustees of the scheme in or towards the discharge of any liability of an employer under section 58B of the ^{M54}Social Security Pensions Act 1975 or section 144 of the Pension Schemes Act 1993 (deficiencies in the assets of a scheme) or under Article 68B of the ^{M55}Social Security Pensions (Northern Ireland) Order 1975 or section 140 of the Pension Schemes (Northern Ireland) Act 1993 (which contain corresponding provision for Northern Ireland), the payment of that sum—

(a) shall be treated for the purposes of this section as an employer’s contribution under the scheme; and

(b) notwithstanding (where it is the case) that the employer’s trade, profession, vocation or business is permanently discontinued before the making of the payment, shall be allowed, in accordance with subsection (4) above, to be deducted as such a contribution to the same extent as it would have been allowed but for the discontinuance and as if it had been made on the last day on which the trade, profession, vocation or business was carried on.”; and this subsection shall have effect in relation to any payment made on or after the day on which this Act is passed.

(7) In this section—

“basis period”, in relation to any person, means a period on the profits or gains of which income tax for any year of assessment falls to be finally computed under Case I or II of Schedule D in respect of the trade, profession or vocation of that person (being the later period in any case where the profits and gains of an earlier period are taken to be the profits and gains of a later period); and

Members’ trust funds

174 [F139Premium] trust funds.

- F140 For the purposes of the Income Tax Acts and the Gains Tax Acts—
- (a) a member shall be treated as absolutely entitled as against the trustees to the assets forming part of a [F141premium] trust fund of his; and
 - (b) where a deposit required by a regulatory authority in a country or territory outside the United Kingdom is paid out of such a fund, the money so paid shall be treated as still forming part of that fund.]
- (2) Where an asset forms part of a [F141premium] trust fund at the beginning of any underwriting year, for the purposes of the Income Tax Acts—
- (a) the trustees of the fund shall be treated as acquiring it on that day, and
 - (b) they shall be treated as paying in respect of the acquisition an amount equal to the value of the asset at the time of the acquisition.
- (3) Where an asset forms part of a [F141premium] trust fund at the end of any underwriting year, for the purposes of the Income Tax Acts—
- (a) the trustees of the fund shall be treated as disposing of it on that day, and
 - (b) they shall be treated as obtaining in respect of the disposal an amount equal to the value of the asset at the time of the disposal.
- F142
- F142
- (6) Subsections (2) to (5) above do not apply to FOTRA securities forming part of a member’s premiums trust fund at the beginning or end of any underwriting year if—
- (a) the member is not domiciled in the United Kingdom at any time in the year, and
 - (b) he is either not ordinarily resident in the United Kingdom during the year or a non-resident United Kingdom trader in the year.
- (7) In this section—
- “FOTRA securities” has the same meaning as in section 715 of the Taxes Act 1988 (exceptions from accrued income scheme);
- “non-resident United Kingdom trader” shall be construed in accordance with subsection (5) of that section;
- “underwriting year” does not include the year 1993 or any earlier underwriting year.

175 Special reserve funds.

- (1) If arrangements are made by the Council of Lloyd’s which—
 - (a) enable such a special reserve fund as is referred to in Part I of Schedule 20 to this Act to be set up in relation to each member; and
 - (b) comply with the requirements of that Part and are approved by the Board, the provisions of that Part relating to taxation shall have effect in relation to any special reserve fund of a member set up under the arrangements.
- (2) The arrangements may from time to time be varied with the consent of the Board.
- (3) If, after giving notice of their intention to do so to the Council of Lloyd’s, the Board cancel the approval which they have given with respect to the arrangements, paragraph 3 of Schedule 20 to this Act shall not apply, in the case of any member, to any year of assessment after the year of assessment in which the approval is cancelled.
- (4) The provisions of Part II of Schedule 20 to this Act shall have effect as respects the winding up of any special reserve fund which—
 - (a) was set up under the arrangements mentioned in section 452(1) of the Taxes Act 1988; and
 - (b) belongs to a member for whom a special reserve fund may be set up under the arrangements mentioned in subsection (1) above.

176 Ancillary trust funds.

- (1) A member shall be treated for the purposes of the Income Tax Acts and the Gains Tax Acts as absolutely entitled as against the trustees to the assets forming part of an ancillary trust fund of his.
- (2) The cost of acquisition and the consideration for the disposal of assets forming part of an ancillary trust fund—
 - (a) shall be left out of account in computing for the purposes of income tax the profits or losses of the member’s underwriting business; and
 - (b) accordingly, shall not be excluded for the purposes of capital gains tax under section 37 or 39 of the Gains Tax Act.
- (3) None of the following provisions (which apply where an individual entitled to securities dies), namely—
 - (a) subsections (1) to (4) of section 721 of the Taxes Act 1988 (accrued income scheme);
 - ^{F143}(b)
 - ^{F143}(c)
 - ^{F143}(d)shall apply where the individual concerned is a member and the security concerned forms part of an ancillary trust fund of his.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/10/2002.

Changes to legislation: Finance Act 1993 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 06 September 2023. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) In a case where subsection (3)(a) above applies, the deceased's personal representatives shall be treated for the purposes of sections 710 to 728 of the Taxes Act 1988 as the transferor or transferee in relation to transfers of securities as to which the deceased was the transferor or transferee (as the case may be) in the interest period in which he died.

178 Stop-loss and quota share insurance.

- (1) In computing for the purposes of income tax the profits of a member's underwriting business, each of the following shall be deductible as an expense, namely—
- (a) any premium payable by him under a stop-loss insurance, and any repayment of insurance money paid to him under such an insurance;
 - (b) any amount payable by him into the High Level Stop Loss Fund, and any repayment of an amount paid to him out of that Fund; and
 - ^{F145}(c) where an amount is payable by him under a quota share contract—
 - (i) so much of that amount as exceeds the amount of transferred losses that are declared on or before the date the contract takes effect ("the declared amount"), or
 - (ii) if the contract does not take effect, the amount so payable under the contract.]
- (2) Subject to subsection (3) below, each of the following, namely—
- (a) any insurance money payable to ^{F146}a member] under a stop-loss insurance in respect of a loss in his underwriting business; and
 - (b) any amount payable to a member out of the High Level Stop Loss Fund in respect of such a loss, shall be treated as a trading receipt in computing the profits arising from that business for the year of assessment which corresponds to the underwriting year in which the loss ^{F147}was declared].

Status: Point in time view as at 01/10/2002.

Changes to legislation: Finance Act 1993 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 06 September 2023. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) Where, as respects the payment of any such insurance money or amount as is mentioned in subsection (2) above—
- (a) the inspector is not notified of the payment at least 30 days before the time after which any assessment or further assessment of profits for the year of assessment is precluded by section 34 of the Management Act (ordinary time limit of six years), and
 - (b) the inspector is not entitled, after that time, to make any such assessment or further assessment by virtue of section 36 (fraudulent or negligent conduct) or 40(2) (assessment on personal representatives) of that Act,
- that subsection shall have effect in relation to that insurance money or amount as if it referred instead to the year of assessment which corresponds to the underwriting year in which the payment is made.
- [^{F148}(3A) Where the amount payable by a member under a quota share contract is less than the declared amount, the difference between the two amounts shall be treated as a trading receipt in computing the profits arising from the member’s underwriting business in the year of assessment which corresponds to the underwriting year in which the contract takes effect.
- (3B) Where a member has entered a quota share contract, any amount paid by him to cover a cash call in respect of transferred losses that are not declared at the time the contract takes effect shall be treated—
- (a) for the purposes of subsection (1)(c)(i) and (3A) above, as an amount payable under the contract, and
 - (b) for the purposes of section 172, as a payment made at the time the contract takes effect.]

[^{F149}(4) For the purposes of this section—

 - “cash call” has the same meaning as in Part 1 of Schedule 20 to this Act;
 - “quota share contract” means any contract between a member and another person which—
 - (a) is made in accordance with the rules or practice of Lloyd’s, and
 - (b) provides for that other person to take over any rights and liabilities of the member under any of the syndicates of which he is a member;

and where the taking over of a member’s rights and liabilities is conditional upon the occurrence of any event, the contract does not take effect until that event occurs; and

“transferred loss”, in relation to such a contract, means a loss for which that other person takes over liability under the contract (disregarding, in the case of a loss that has been declared at the time it is taken over, any part of it in respect of which the member has paid a cash call before that time).]

184 Interpretation and commencement.

(1) In this Chapter, unless the context otherwise requires—

“ancillary trust fund”, in relation to a member, does not include a [^{F159}premium] trust fund of his or his special reserve fund (if any) but, subject to that, means any trust fund required or authorised by the rules of Lloyd's, or required by a members' agent of his ^{F160} . . . ;

“closing year”—

- (a) in relation to a year of assessment, means the year of assessment next but one following that year;
- (b) in relation to an underwriting year, means the underwriting year next but one following that year; and
- (c) in relation to a syndicate, means the closing year of the underwriting year for which it was formed;

“the Gains Tax Act” means the ^{M62}Taxation of Chargeable Gains Act 1992 and

“the Gains Tax Acts” means that Act and any other enactments relating to capital gains tax;

“the High Level Stop Loss Fund” means the fund of that name which, under the rules of Lloyd's, has been established for the year 1993 and subsequent underwriting years;

“inspector” includes any officer of the Board;

“the Management Act” means the ^{M63}Taxes Management Act 1970;

“managing agent”, in relation to a syndicate and a year of assessment, means—

- (a) the person registered as a managing agent at Lloyd's who was acting as such an agent for the syndicate at the end of the corresponding underwriting year, or
- (b) such other person as may be determined in accordance with regulations made by the Board;

“member” means [^{F161}an individual who is a member of Lloyd's and] is or has been an underwriting member;

“members' agent”, in relation to a member of a syndicate and a year of assessment, means—

- (a) the person registered as a members' agent at Lloyd's who was acting as such an agent for the member at the end of the corresponding underwriting year, or
- (b) if two or more such persons were so acting and one of them was appointed by the member to be responsible for complying with the requirements of Part II of Schedule 19 to this Act in relation to all of the syndicates of which he is a member, that person, or
- (c) if two or more such persons were so acting and none of them was so appointed, the person who was so acting for the member in his capacity as a member of the syndicate, or
- (d) such other person as may be determined in accordance with regulations made by the Board;

Status: Point in time view as at 01/10/2002.

Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

[^{F162}“premium trust fund” means a trust fund into which premiums receivable by members are paid in compliance with a trust deed under section 10.3 of the Lloyd’s Sourcebook made by the Financial Services Authority under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 ^{F163}];

“prescribed” means prescribed by regulations made by the Board;

“profits” includes gains;

“special reserve fund”, unless the contrary intention appears, means a special reserve fund set up under the arrangements mentioned in section 175(1) above;

“stop-loss insurance” means any insurance taken out by a member against losses in his underwriting business [^{F164}, except insurance taken out by entering a quota share contract (within the meaning of section 178 above)];

“syndicate” means a syndicate of underwriting members of Lloyd’s formed for an underwriting year;

“underwriting business”, in relation to a member, means his underwriting business as a member of Lloyd’s, whether carried on personally or through an underwriting agent, and does not include any other business carried on by him, and in particular, where he is himself an underwriting agent, does not include his business as such an agent;

(2) For the purposes of this Chapter—

- (a) an underwriting year and a year of assessment shall be deemed to correspond to each other if the underwriting year ends in the year of assessment;
- (b) the profits or losses of a member’s underwriting business include profits or losses arising to him from assets forming part of a [^{F165}premium] trust fund or an ancillary trust fund; and
- (c) any charge made on a member by the [^{F166}managing agent] of a syndicate of which he is a member, and any expense incurred on his behalf by the [^{F166}managing agent] of such a syndicate, shall be treated as expenses arising directly from his membership of that syndicate.

(3) Subject to any provision to the contrary, the provisions of this Chapter have effect for the year 1992-93 and subsequent years of assessment.

PART III

OIL TAXATION

185 Abolition of PRT for oil fields with development consents on or after 16th March 1993.

- (1) In this Part of this Act a “non-taxable field” means an oil field—
- (a) for no part of which consent for development was granted to a licensee by the Secretary of State before 16th March 1993; and
 - (b) for no part of which a programme of development was served on a licensee or approved by the Secretary of State before that date;
- and in this Part of this Act “taxable field” means an oil field which is not a non-taxable field.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1) above, no account shall be taken, in relation to an oil field, of a consent for development granted before 16th March 1993 or a programme of development served on a licensee or approved by the Secretary of State before that date if—
- (a) in whole or in part that consent or programme related to another oil field for which a determination under Schedule 1 to the principal Act was made before the determination under that Schedule for the field in question; and
 - (b) on or after 16th March 1993, a consent for development is or was granted or a programme of development is or was served on a licensee or approved by the Secretary of State and that consent or programme relates, in whole or in part, to the field in question.
- (3) Petroleum revenue tax shall not be charged in accordance with the Oil Taxation Acts in respect of—
- (a) profits from oil won from a non-taxable field under the authority of such a licence as is referred to in section 1(1) of the principal Act; or
 - (b) any receipts accruing to a participator in a non-taxable field which, in the case of a taxable field, would be tariff receipts or disposal receipts attributable to the field for any period.
- (4) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (3) above—
- (a) in section 1(2) of the principal Act (the charge to tax) after the words “oil field” there shall be inserted “ which is a taxable field ”;
 - (b) in section 3(1D) of the principal Act (apportionment of expenditure between oil field and non-oil field use) for the words “an oil field”, in both places where they occur, there shall be substituted “ a taxable field ”;

- (c) in section 5B of the principal Act (allowance of research expenditure) in subsection (6) after the words “this Act” there shall be inserted “ or for purposes relating to non-taxable fields ”;
 - (d) no computation shall be made under the Oil Taxation Acts of the assessable profit or allowable loss accruing to a participator in any period from a non-taxable field; and
 - (e) no expenditure shall be regarded as allowable (or allowed) for a non-taxable field under the Oil Taxation Acts.
- (5) In section 12(1) of the principal Act (interpretation) at the end of the definition of “oil field” there shall be added the words “ and “taxable field” and “non-taxable field” have the same meaning as in Part III of the Finance Act 1993 ”.
- (6) Subject to paragraphs (b) and (c) of subsection (4) above, where, apart from this section, expenditure incurred on or after 16th March 1993 would fall to be apportioned (as being allowable expenditure) between two or more oil fields, at least one of which is a non-taxable field, the apportionment shall be made as if all the fields were taxable fields, but subsection (4)(e) above shall then apply to any amount of expenditure apportioned to a non-taxable field.
- (7) In subsections (1) and (2) above “development”, in relation to an oil field, means—
- (a) the erection or carrying out of permanent works for the purpose of getting oil from the field or for the purpose of conveying oil won from the field to a place on land; or
 - (b) winning oil from the field otherwise than in the course of searching for oil or drilling wells;
- and consent for development does not include consent which is limited to the purpose of testing the characteristics of an oil-bearing area and does not relate to the erection or carrying out of permanent works.
- (8) In subsection (7) above “permanent works” means any structures or other works whatsoever which are intended by the licensee to be permanent and are neither designed to be moved from place to place without major dismantling nor intended by the licensee to be used only for searching for oil.

186 Reduction of rates of PRT and interest repayments for taxable oil fields.

- (1) With respect to chargeable periods ending after 30th June 1993 the rate of petroleum revenue tax (relevant only to taxable fields) shall be 50 per cent. and, accordingly, with respect to such periods, in section 1(2) of the principal Act for “75” there shall be substituted “ 50 ”.
- (2) In paragraph 17 of Schedule 2 to the principal Act (limit on interest in the case of relief for losses carried back) at the end of sub-paragraph (2) there shall be added the words “ and, in relation to the appropriate repayment, the chargeable period for which the relevant assessment or amendment is made is referred to as “the repayment period” ”.
- (3) In sub-paragraph (4) of that paragraph—
 - (a) at the beginning there shall be inserted the words “ Subject to sub-paragraph (6) below ”; and
 - (b) in paragraph (a) for the words “85 per cent.” there shall be substituted “ the relevant percentage of the amount ” and after the word “above” there shall be inserted “ which is treated as reducing the assessable profit of the repayment period ”.

(4) At the end of that paragraph there shall be added the following sub-paragraphs—

“(5) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (4)(a) above—

- (a) where the repayment period ends on or before 30th June 1993, the relevant percentage, in relation to the amount of the loss or losses which is treated as reducing the assessable profit accruing to the participator for that period is 85 per cent.; and
- (b) in relation to the amount of the loss or losses which is treated as reducing the assessable profit accruing to the participator for any later repayment period, the relevant percentage is 60 per cent.

(6) If, in order to give effect to the relief for losses carried back, a repayment of APRT falls, or will on the making of a claim fall, to be made with respect to a chargeable period which is the repayment period in relation to the appropriate repayment, the reference in sub-paragraph (4)(b) above to the appropriate repayment shall be construed as a reference to the aggregate of that repayment and the repayment of APRT.

(7) In sub-paragraph (6) above “APRT” means advance petroleum revenue tax paid under Chapter II of Part VI of the ^{M64}Finance Act 1982.”

187 Returns and information.

(1) In Schedule 2 to the principal Act (management and collection of petroleum revenue tax), other than the Table in paragraph 1 (modifications of the ^{M65}Taxes Management Act 1970),—

- (a) for the words “an oil field”, in each place where they occur, there shall be substituted “ a taxable field ”; and
- (b) for the words “the oil field”, in each place where they occur, there shall be substituted “ the taxable field ”;

- (4) Subject to subsection (5) below, a notice under subsection (3) above shall name the taxpayer with whose liability the Board is concerned; and (for the avoidance of doubt) a company which has ceased to exist may be so named.
- (5) If, on an application made by the Board, a Special Commissioner gives his consent, the Board may give such a notice as is mentioned in subsection (3) above but without naming the taxpayer to whom the notice relates; but such a consent shall not be given unless the Special Commissioner is satisfied—
- (a) that the notice relates to a taxpayer whose identity is not known to the Board or to a class of taxpayers whose individual identities are not so known;
 - (b) that there are reasonable grounds for believing that the taxpayer or any of the class of taxpayers to whom the notice relates may have failed or may fail to comply with any provision of the Oil Taxation Acts;
 - (c) that any such failure is likely to have led or to lead to serious prejudice to the proper assessment or collection of tax; and
 - (d) that the information which is likely to be contained in any documents to which the notice relates is not readily available from another source.
- (6) A person to whom a notice is given under subsection (5) above may, by notice in writing given to the Board within thirty days after the date of the notice under that subsection, object to that notice on the ground that it would be onerous for him to comply with it; and, if the matter is not resolved by agreement, it shall be referred to the Special Commissioners who may confirm, vary or cancel that notice.
- (7) Subsections (2) to (6) above (which, in relation to petroleum revenue tax, contain provisions similar to those of section 20 of the ^{M66}Taxes Management Act 1970) shall have effect subject to Part I of Schedule 21 to this Act (which contains provisions similar to those of section 20B of that Act); and the provisions of Part II of that Schedule relating to the meaning of “documents” (which are derived from provisions of sections 20 and 20D of that Act) shall have effect.
- (8) Section 98 of the Taxes Management Act 1970 (penalties, etc. in relation to special returns) shall have effect as if, in the first column of the Table in that section, there were included a reference to subsections (2) to (6) above.

188 Exploration and appraisal expenditure.

(1) In section 5A of the principal Act (allowance of exploration and appraisal expenditure), in subsection (1) (conditions for expenditure to be allowable) after paragraph (a) there shall be inserted the following paragraph—

“(aa) either is incurred before 16th March 1993 or is incurred within the period of two years beginning on that date and is expenditure to which that person or, if that person is a company, that company or a company associated with it in respect of the expenditure, is committed immediately before that date; and”.

(2) After subsection (1) of that section there shall be inserted the following subsections—

“(1A) For the purposes of subsection (1)(aa) above, in respect of expenditure incurred on or after 16th March 1993, a person is to be regarded as committed to that expenditure immediately before that date if—

- (a) he has an obligation under an exploration and appraisal contract entered into before that date to incur the expenditure; or
- (b) the expenditure is incurred wholly and exclusively for the same purpose as that for which the contract referred to in paragraph (a) above was entered into and is so incurred pursuant to an obligation under an exploration and appraisal contract entered into on or after 16th March 1993 and before 16th June 1993.

(1B) In considering whether a person has at any time such a contractual obligation as is referred to in paragraph (a) or paragraph (b) of subsection (1A) above in respect of any expenditure,

- (a) if the contract contains a power (however exercisable) by virtue of which the person concerned, or a company associated with him in respect of the expenditure, is able to bring any contractual obligations to an end, he shall not be regarded as committed to any expenditure which, if the power were to be exercised, would not be incurred; and
- (b) if the person concerned (or a company associated with him in respect of the expenditure) has an option (however described) which was not exercised before 16th March 1993 but the exercise of which would increase his expenditure under the contract, he shall not be regarded as committed to any expenditure which would be incurred only as a result of the exercise of the option.

(1C) For the purposes of subsection (1A) above a contract is an exploration and appraisal contract if it is a contract for the provision of any services or other business facilities or assets for any of the purposes specified in subsection (2) below.”

(3) In subsection (2) of that section for the words “subsection (1)” there shall be substituted “subsections (1) to (1C)”.

189 Transitional relief for certain exploration and appraisal expenditure.

(1) This section applies in any case where—

- (a) a participator in an oil field or an associate incurs expenditure on or after 16th March 1993 and before 1st January 1995; and

- (b) apart from this section, that expenditure would not be allowable under section 5A of the principal Act (as amended by section 188 above); and
 - (c) if section 188 above had not been enacted, the expenditure would be allowable in the case of the participator under section 5A of the principal Act; and
 - (d) on 16th March 1993 the participator or the associate was a licensee in respect of the area to which the expenditure related.
- (2) In the following provisions of this section—
- (a) expenditure falling within subsection (1) above is referred to as “transitional E and A expenditure”; and
 - (b) the participator in whose case that expenditure would be allowable as mentioned in paragraph (c) of that subsection is referred to as “the claimant”.
- (3) Subject to the following provisions of this section, so much of the transitional E and A expenditure incurred by the claimant or an associate as does not in the aggregate exceed £10 million shall be allowable in the case of the claimant under section 5A of the principal Act (as exploration and appraisal expenditure).
- (4) In subsections (1) to (3) above any reference to an associate of a participator applies only where the participator is a company and is a reference to another company—
- (a) which on 16th March 1993 was a member of the same group of companies as the participator; and
 - (b) with which the participator is associated in respect of expenditure incurred by the other company;
- and subsections (7) and (8) of section 5 of the principal Act (companies and associates etc.) apply for the purposes of this section as they apply for the purposes of that section.
- (5) Where—
- (a) the claimant is a company, and
 - (b) on 16th March 1993 the claimant was a member of a group of companies, and
 - (c) at least one other company which was a member of the group on that date was then a participator in an oil field, and
 - (d) that other company is also the claimant in relation to an amount of transitional E and A expenditure,
- subsection (3) above shall have effect as if references therein to the claimant were references to the aggregate of all those companies which on that date were members of the group and are the claimants in relation to any transitional E and A expenditure.
- (6) In this section, a group of companies means a company which is not a 51 per cent. subsidiary of any other company, together with each company which is its 51 per cent. subsidiary; and section 838 of the Taxes Act 1988 (subsidiaries) applies for the purposes of this section as it applies for the purposes of the Tax Acts (within the meaning of that Act).

190 Allowance of expenditure on certain assets limited by reference to taxable field use.

- (1) Where, in the case of expenditure incurred as mentioned in section 1(1) of the 1983 Act (expenditure incurred on non-dedicated mobile assets),—
- (a) the expenditure would, apart from this subsection, be allowable under section 4 of the principal Act for a claim period of a taxable field, and
 - (b) during that claim period, the asset becomes dedicated to a non-taxable field,

Status: Point in time view as at 01/10/2002.

that proportion of the expenditure which is equal to the proportion of the claim period during which the asset is dedicated to a non-taxable field shall not be allowable as mentioned in paragraph (a) above.

- (2) For the purpose of determining whether an asset becomes at any time dedicated to a non-taxable field, it shall be assumed that, in relation to a non-taxable field, any reference in section 2 of the 1983 Act (dedicated mobile assets) to a claim period is a reference to—
 - (a) the period ending at the end of December following the determination of the field; or
 - (b) the period of twelve months ending at the end of December in any later year.
- (3) In paragraph 7 of Schedule 1 to the 1983 Act (brought-in assets) in sub-paragraph (1) (c) (which requires that during the initial period the asset should have been used otherwise than in connection with an oil field) for the words “an oil field” there shall be substituted “ a taxable field ”.
- (4) In paragraph 8 of that Schedule (subsequent use of new asset otherwise than in connection with an oil field) in the heading and in sub-paragraphs (1) to (3) and (6) for the words “an oil field” there shall be substituted “ a taxable field ”.
- (5) In paragraph 5 of Schedule 2 to the 1983 Act (acquisition otherwise than at arm’s length: limit on tariff and disposal receipts)—
 - (a) in paragraphs (a) and (c) of sub-paragraph (1) for the words “an oil field” there shall be substituted “ a taxable field ”;
 - ^{F167}(b)
 - (c) in sub-paragraph (3)(a) for the words “an oil field” there shall be substituted “ a taxable field ”; and
 - (d) in sub-paragraph (3)(b) for the words “an oil field” there shall be substituted “ a taxable field or, if it is to a participator in a taxable field, the asset is to be used wholly or partly in connection with a non-taxable field ”.

Textual Amendments

F167 S. 190(5)(b) repealed (3.5.1994 with effect in accordance with s. 238 of the amending Act) by 1994 c. 9, ss. 238, 258, Sch. 26 Pt. VI Note 2

191 Time when expenditure is incurred.

- (1) Subject to the following provisions of this section, where a claim is made under the principal Act for the allowance of any expenditure and the claim is received by the Board after 16th March 1993, an amount of expenditure is to be taken to be incurred for the purposes of the Oil Taxation Acts on the date on which the obligation to pay that amount becomes unconditional (whether or not there is a later date on or before which the whole or any part of that amount is required to be paid).
- (2) Subject to subsection (3) below, where the amount of any expenditure incurred by any person at any time after 16th March 1993 under a contract—
 - (a) for the acquisition from any other person of, or of an interest in, an asset, or
 - (b) for the provision by any other person of services or other business facilities of whatever kind (whether in connection with the use of an asset or not), or

- (c) for the grant or transfer to that person by any other person of any right, licence or interest (other than an interest in an asset)
- is disproportionate to the extent to which that other person has, at or before that time, performed his obligations under the contract then, for the purposes of the Oil Taxation Acts, only so much of the expenditure shall be taken to have been incurred at that time as is proportionate to those obligations which have been so performed.
- (3) If, in the case of a contract entered into after 16th March 1993 and falling within paragraph (a) or paragraph (b) of subsection (2) above—
- (a) the expenditure referred to in that subsection is incurred before 1st July 1993, and
- (b) the other person referred to in paragraph (a) or paragraph (b) (“the contractor”) has performed his obligations by entering into one or more further contracts, the contractor shall be treated for the purposes of subsection (2) above as having at any time performed his obligations under the contract only to the extent that, at that time, the asset or interest in question has been acquired by, or, as the case may be, the services or other business facilities have been provided to, the person incurring the expenditure.
- (4) In paragraph 2 of Schedule 4 to the principal Act (limitation of allowable expenditure on transactions between connected persons or otherwise than at arm’s length) for sub-paragraph (1) there shall be substituted the following sub-paragraphs—
- “(1) Where, in a transaction to which this paragraph applies, a person has incurred expenditure in acquiring, bringing into existence or enhancing the value of an asset, he shall at any time be treated for the purposes of—
- (a) sections 3 and 4 of this Act, and
- (b) sections 3 and 4 of and Schedule 1 to the ^{M67}Oil Taxation Act 1983, as having incurred that expenditure only to the extent that it does not exceed expenditure (other than loan expenditure) incurred up to that time in a transaction to which this paragraph does not apply (or, if there has been more than one such transaction, the later or latest of them) in acquiring, bringing into existence or enhancing the value of, that asset.
- (1A) Subsections (1) to (3) of section 191 of the Finance Act 1993 apply to determine for the purposes of this paragraph what expenditure has at any time been incurred under a transaction to which this paragraph does not apply, as they apply in relation to expenditure for the allowance of which a claim is received by the Board after 16th March 1993.
- (1B) In sub-paragraph (1) above “loan expenditure” means expenditure in respect of interest or any other pecuniary obligation incurred in obtaining a loan or any other form of credit.”
- (5) For sub-paragraph (3) of paragraph 2 of Schedule 4 to the principal Act there shall be substituted the following sub-paragraphs—
- “(3) The preceding provisions of this section shall, with any necessary modification, apply in relation to expenditure incurred by any person in acquiring an interest in an asset or in bringing into existence an asset in which he is to have an interest, or in enhancing the value of an asset in which he has an interest, as those provisions apply in relation to expenditure incurred by a person in acquiring, bringing into existence, or enhancing the value of an asset, as the case may be.

- (4) The provisions of sub-paragraphs (1) to (2) above shall, with any necessary modification, apply in relation to expenditure incurred by any person in respect of—
- (a) the use of an asset (including expenditure on renting or hiring), or
 - (b) the provision of services or other business facilities of whatever kind in connection with the use, otherwise than by that person, of an asset,
- as they have effect in relation to expenditure incurred in the acquisition of, or of an interest in, an asset.”
- (6) The amendments made by subsections (4) and (5) above have effect where the transaction to which paragraph 2 of Schedule 4 to the principal Act applies takes place on or after 16th March 1993.

192 Chargeable periods in which expenditure may be brought into account.

- (1) Where a claim which—
- (a) is made under Schedule 5 or Schedule 6 to the principal Act for the allowance of any expenditure, and
 - (b) is received by the Board after 16th March 1993,
- has been allowed, the expenditure shall not be brought into account in determining the assessable profit or allowable loss of any chargeable period which ends earlier than the last day of the claim period in which the expenditure was incurred.
- (2) Where a claim has been made under Schedule 7 to the principal Act for the allowance of any expenditure incurred after 31st March 1993 and that claim has been allowed, the expenditure shall not be brought into account in determining the assessable profit or allowable loss of any chargeable period which ends before the date on which the expenditure was incurred.
- (3) The preceding provisions of this section have effect notwithstanding anything in subsection (9) of section 2 of the principal Act (under which expenditure which had been allowed might in certain cases be taken into account in earlier chargeable periods) and, accordingly, at the beginning of that subsection there shall be inserted “ Subject to section 192 of the Finance Act 1993 ”.

193 Tariff receipts etc.

- (1) In section 9 of the 1983 Act (tariff receipts allowance) in subsection (5) (definition of “user field”) in paragraph (a) after the words “other than the principal field” there shall be inserted “ or a non-taxable field ”, and at the end of that subsection there shall be inserted the following subsection—

“(5A) No order may be made under subsection (5)(b) above on or after 1st July 1993.”

- (2) Where a participator in a taxable field incurs any expenditure and,—
 - (a) apart from this subsection, the expenditure would be taken into account in determining the assessable profit or allowable loss accruing to that participator from the taxable field in any chargeable period, and
 - (b) in the hands of the recipient, the expenditure would, on the relevant assumptions, constitute tariff receipts or disposal receipts of a participator in a non-taxable field attributable to that field for any period, and
 - (c) at the time the expenditure is incurred, the participator referred to in paragraph (a) above is or is connected with a participator in the non-taxable field referred to in paragraph (b) above,the expenditure shall be disregarded in determining the assessable profit or allowable loss referred to in paragraph (a) above.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2) above, the relevant assumptions are—
 - (a) that the non-taxable field is a taxable field; and
 - (b) that the asset which gives rise to the expenditure (by virtue of its use, the provision of services or other business facilities in connection with its use or its disposal) is a qualifying asset in relation to the participator in question.
- (4) In section 12 of the 1983 Act (charge of receipts attributable to United Kingdom use of foreign field asset), in subsection (3) after the words “oil field”, in the first place where they occur, there shall be inserted “ which is a taxable field and ”.
- (5) After subsection (3) of section 12 of the 1983 Act there shall be inserted the following subsection—

“(3A) No order may be made under subsection (2)(a) above on or after 1st July 1993.”
- (6) In this section “disposal receipts”, “qualifying asset” and “tariff receipts” have the same meaning as in the 1983 Act; and section 839 of the Taxes Act 1988 (connected persons) applies for the purposes of subsection (2)(c) above.

194 Double taxation relief in relation to petroleum revenue tax.

- (1) For the purpose of giving relief from double taxation in relation to petroleum revenue tax in respect of the amount or value of consideration which is brought into charge to tax under section 12 of the 1983 Act (charge of receipts attributable to United Kingdom use of foreign field assets), section 788 of the Taxes Act 1988 (relief by agreement with other countries) shall have effect as if—
 - (a) references therein to income tax included references to petroleum revenue tax; and
 - (b) references therein to income included references to any such consideration.
- (2) Section 788 of the Taxes Act 1988, as it has effect in accordance with subsection (1) above, shall apply with respect to any arrangements which—
 - (a) are set out in an Order in Council made, or having effect as if made, under that section before as well as after the passing of this Act; and
 - (b) include petroleum revenue tax as a tax to which the arrangements apply.

- (3) In the application of section 788 of the Taxes Act 1988 in accordance with the preceding provisions of this section—
- (a) paragraphs (b) to (d) of subsection (3),
 - (b) subsections (4), (5) and (7), and
 - (c) in subsection (6) the words from “Except” to “this Part”,
- shall be omitted.
- (4) In relation to a claim for relief under section 788 of the Taxes Act 1988 which is made by virtue of this section, sections 42 and 43 of the ^{M68}Taxes Management Act 1970 shall have effect with the following modifications—
- (a) for any reference to income tax there shall be substituted a reference to petroleum revenue tax;
 - (b) any reference to income shall be construed as a reference to such consideration as is referred to in subsection (1) above;
 - (c) for any reference to a year of assessment there shall be substituted a reference to a chargeable period within the meaning of the principal Act; and
 - (d) any reference to a chargeable period shall be construed as a reference to a chargeable period within the meaning of the principal Act.
- (5) Section 816 of the Taxes Act 1988 (disclosure of information) shall apply in relation to petroleum revenue tax as it applies in relation to income tax.
