“113A Dissolution of certain bodies in consequence of order under section 9.

- (1) Where—
 - (a) an order under section 9 of this Act transfers to a special road authority a road for the management and maintenance of which a body other than a roads authority was, prior to the coming into force of the order, responsible under any enactment; and
 - (b) the functions of that body relate solely to that road, the Secretary of State may by order (in this section referred to as a “dissolution order”) dissolve the body.
- (2) A dissolution order may transfer or provide for the transfer to—
 - (a) the special road authority referred to in subsection (1)(a) above; or
 - (b) such other person as the Secretary of State considers appropriate, of such of the property, rights and liabilities of the body dissolved by the order as the Secretary of State considers appropriate.
- (3) A dissolution order may make provision in connection with the transfer of staff employed by or for the purposes of the body.
- (4) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (2) above, a dissolution order may make provision regarding liability for the payment of any pensions, allowances or gratuities which would otherwise have been the responsibility of the body.
- (5) A dissolution order may make incidental provision as to the interests, rights and liabilities of third parties with respect to property, rights and liabilities transferred by the order.
- (6) In subsection (5) above the reference to third parties is a reference to persons other than the body and the persons referred to in subsection (2)(a) and (b) above.
- (7) A dissolution order may repeal or amend—
 - (a) any enactment in a private Act; and
 - (b) any provision of an order made under or confirmed by a private Act, which, in consequence of the making of the order, is no longer required or, as the case may be, requires to be amended.”.

155 Rating of lands and heritages partly unoccupied for a short time.

After section 24 of the ^{M18}Local Government (Scotland) Act 1966 insert—

“24A Lands and heritages partly unoccupied for a short time.

- (1) If it appears to the rating authority that part of any lands and heritages included in the valuation roll is unoccupied but will remain so for a short time only, the authority may request the assessor to apportion the rateable value between the occupied and unoccupied parts and on being thus requested the assessor shall apportion the rateable value accordingly.
- (2) As from whichever is the later of the following—
 - (a) the date on which lands and heritages the rateable value of which has been apportioned under subsection (1) above became partly occupied;
 - (b) the commencement of the financial year in which the request under that subsection relating to those lands and heritages was made,until whichever of the events specified in subsection (3) below first occurs, the value apportioned to the occupied part of the lands and heritages shall, subject to subsection (4) below, be treated for rating purposes as if it were the rateable value ascribed to the lands and heritages in the valuation roll.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Local Government etc. (Scotland) Act 1994, Part IV. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) The events mentioned in subsection (2) above are—
- (a) the reoccupation of any of the unoccupied part;
 - (b) the end of the financial year in which the request was made;
 - (c) a further apportionment of the value of the lands and heritages taking effect under subsection (1) above;
 - (d) the lands and heritages to which the apportionment relates becoming completely unoccupied.
- (4) Where any lands and heritages fall within such class or classes of lands and heritages as may be prescribed by the Secretary of State by regulations, the value to be treated for rating purposes as if it were the rateable value ascribed to the lands and heritages in the valuation roll shall be the sum of—
- (a) the value apportioned to the occupied part of the lands and heritages; and
 - (b) one half of the value apportioned to the unoccupied part of the lands and heritages.
- (5) Notwithstanding paragraph (b) of subsection (3) above, if it appears to the rating authority that the part of the lands and heritages which was unoccupied at the date of an apportionment of the rateable value thereof under subsection (1) above has continued after the end of the financial year referred to in that paragraph to be unoccupied but will remain so for a short time only, the authority may direct that the apportionment shall continue to have effect for the next financial year; and subsections (2), (3)(a), (c) and (d) and (4) above shall have effect in relation to that year accordingly.
- (6) Any statutory instrument containing regulations made under this section shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.
- (7) In this section “financial year” has the meaning assigned to it by section 96(5) of the ^{M19}Local Government (Scotland) Act 1973.

24B Certain lands and heritages to be treated as unoccupied.

- (1) For the purposes of section 24 of this Act, lands and heritages shall be treated as unoccupied if, apart from this section, they would fall to be treated as occupied by reason only of there being kept on the lands and heritages plant, machinery or equipment—
- (a) which was last used on the lands and heritages when they were last in use; or
 - (b) which is intended for use on the lands and heritages.
- (2) Subsection (1) above applies to the unoccupied part of lands and heritages for the purposes of section 24A of this Act as it applies to unoccupied lands and heritages for the purposes of the said section 24.”.

169 Statements of support services costs.

(1) The Secretary of State may by regulations require any authority defined for the purposes of section 1(1) of the Local Government Act 1988 (“the 1988 Act”) to publish a statement, to be known as a statement of support services costs (hereinafter referred to as a “statement”), of the cost to the authority of each of the activities to which this section applies.

(2) This section applies to—

- (a) any activity which is a defined activity within the meaning of section 2(2) of the 1988 Act;
- (b) any other prescribed activity.

(3) A statement shall—

- (a) show the cost to the authority of the activity to which it applies, whether or not that activity, or any part of it, is carried out by employees of the authority; and
- (b) show how that cost is allocated amongst the public services provided by the authority.

(4) A statement shall—

- (a) be in such form;
- (b) be published on or by reference to such date;
- (c) contain such information;
- (d) be made available for inspection by the public in such manner; and
- (e) be supplied to the public on such terms as to payment, as may be prescribed, and different provision may be made in relation to the matters mentioned above in relation to different authorities.

(5) Such of the information contained in the statement as may be prescribed shall be included within the annual abstract of accounts (or any equivalent to such an abstract) produced by an authority.

(6) For the purposes of this section the cost of any activity shall be calculated in such manner and by reference to such factors as may be prescribed.

(7) In this section—

“activity”, where it is an activity such as is mentioned in—

- (a) subsection (2)(a) above, has the meaning given to it by or under the 1988 Act; and
- (b) subsection (2)(b) above, has such meaning as may be prescribed;

*Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the 171 Functions to include promotion of economic development.

After section 171 of the 1973 Act there shall be inserted—

“PART XVIII

ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

171A Functions to include promotion of economic development.

- (1) Subject to section 171B of this Act, the functions of a local authority shall include the taking of such steps as they may from time to time consider appropriate for promoting the economic development of their area.
- (2) Subject to the said section 171B, and without prejudice to any other provision made by or under this Act, those steps may include participation in and the encouragement of, and provision of financial and other assistance for—
 - (a) the setting up or expansion of any commercial, industrial or public undertaking—
 - (i) which is to be or is situated in the authority’s area; or
 - (ii) the setting up or expansion of which appears likely to increase the opportunities for employment of persons living in that area; and
 - (b) the creation or protection of opportunities for employment with any such undertaking or with any commercial, industrial or public undertaking, opportunities for employment with which have been or appear likely to be made available to persons living in that area.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Local Government etc. (Scotland) Act 1994, Part IV. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) For the purposes of this section, the cases in which a local authority shall be treated as providing financial assistance to any person shall include the cases where they do or agree to do any of the following, that is to say—
- (a) make a grant to that person;
 - (b) make a loan to that person or provide him with any further form of credit;
 - (c) guarantee the performance of any of that person's obligations;
 - (d) indemnify that person in respect of any liability, loss or damage;
 - (e) invest in that person's undertaking, in the case of a body corporate, by acquiring share or loan capital in that body or otherwise;
 - (f) provide that person with any property, services or other financial benefit (including the remission in whole or in part of any liability or obligation) for no consideration or for a consideration which is less than the best that could reasonably be obtained;
 - (g) join with any other person in doing anything falling within paragraphs (a) to (f) above.
- (4) The power conferred on a local authority under subsection (1) above includes power for such authority to engage in activities outside their area for the purpose of promoting the economic development of their area.
- (5) Where, in any financial year, a local authority propose to engage in activities such as are mentioned in subsection (4) above outside the United Kingdom, they shall, before the beginning of that financial year—
- (a) prepare a document setting out their proposals for engagement in such activities; and
 - (b) submit that document to the Secretary of State for approval.
- (6) Where the Secretary of State approves the proposals set out in any document submitted under subsection (5) above, he may make his approval subject to such conditions as he considers necessary or expedient.
- (7) At any time during the financial year to which a document such as is mentioned in subsection (5) above relates—
- (a) a local authority may submit to the Secretary of State amendments of the proposals contained in that document; and
 - (b) subsection (6) above shall apply in relation to those amendments as it applies in relation to proposals submitted in pursuance of subsection (5) above.
- (8) The exercise by a local authority of any of their powers under this section shall be subject to the provisions of section 90 of this Act.

171B Restrictions on promotion of economic development.

- (1) The powers of a local authority by virtue of section 171A above, and their powers by virtue of any of the other provisions of this or any other enactment, shall not include power, for the promotion of the economic development of their area, to take any such steps as may be specified or described for the purposes of this section in regulations made by the Secretary of State.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Local Government etc. (Scotland) Act 1994, Part IV. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1) above, the Secretary of State may by regulations impose such conditions (including conditions requiring consultation by the local authority of such persons as may be prescribed), and such other restrictions, as may be specified in or determined under the regulations on the exercise, for the purpose of promoting the economic development of their area, of any power of a local authority by virtue of the said section 171A or any other enactment.
- (3) The Secretary of State may by order impose such a financial limit as may be specified in or determined under the order on expenditure which—
 - (a) is, or is of a description, so specified or determined; and
 - (b) is, by virtue of section 171A above or a provision of this or any other enactment, incurred in any financial year for the purpose of promoting the economic development of their area by a local authority so specified or determined.
- (4) A statutory instrument containing regulations under subsection (1) or (2) above or an order under subsection (3) above shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.
- (5) Regulations under subsection (1) or (2) above may contain such incidental provision and such supplemental, consequential and transitional provision in connection with their other provisions as the Secretary of State considers appropriate.

171C Exercise of certain powers to be subject to provisions of sections 171A and 171B.

The exercise by a local authority of any power which they have—

- (a) under section 7 of the ^{M30}Local Government (Development and Finance) (Scotland) Act 1964 (power to make advances for erection of buildings);
 - (b) under section 102 (power to acquire compulsorily certain land) or 109 (power to acquire certain land by agreement) of the ^{M31}Town and Country Planning (Scotland) Act 1972; or
 - (c) under section 70, 74 or 78 of this Act,
- is subject to the provisions of sections 171A and 171B of this Act.”.

176 Powers to carry on tourism-related activities.

For section 90 of the 1973 Act there shall be substituted the following section—

“90 Powers of local authority to carry on tourism-related activities.

- (1) A local authority may—
- (a) provide, or encourage any other person to provide, facilities for leisure, conferences, trade fairs and exhibitions or improve, or encourage any other person to improve, any existing facilities for those purposes;

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Local Government etc. (Scotland) Act 1994, Part IV. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) promote, by advertisement or otherwise, facilities provided by that local authority (whether such facilities are owned by the authority or otherwise);
 - (c) organise, or assist others in the organisation of, and promote, by advertisement or otherwise, conferences, trade fairs and exhibitions;
 - (d) participate in the area tourist board whose area includes the area of that authority.
- (2) Subject to subsection (3) below, a local authority shall not have power to—
 - (a) encourage persons, by advertisement or otherwise (and whether inside or outside the United Kingdom)—
 - (i) to visit their area for purposes relating to leisure; or
 - (ii) to hold conferences, trade fairs or exhibitions within their area;
 - (b) provide information about accommodation and facilities and services relating to leisure in their area or provide a booking service for such accommodation, to persons visiting their area;
 - (c) carry on such other activities relating to those mentioned in paragraphs (a) and (b) above as the Secretary of State may by regulations specify.
- (3) A local authority shall have power to do any of the things mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (c) of subsection (2) above—
 - (a) in so far as it is necessary to do any of those things for the purposes of carrying on the activities mentioned in paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (1) above; or
 - (b) where the Secretary of State has given his prior consent (subject to such conditions as he considers necessary or expedient) in writing.
- (4) A local authority shall not, for the purposes of carrying on activities relating to tourism other than—
 - (a) those such as are mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (d) of subsection (1) above; or
 - (b) by virtue of subsection (3) above, those such as are mentioned in subsection (2) above,form, acquire or join with any person or body corporate.
- (5) Without prejudice to subsection (1) above, a local authority may contribute towards expenses incurred by any person—
 - (a) doing anything mentioned in paragraph (a) of that subsection; or
 - (b) organising and holding a conference, trade fair or exhibition.
- (6) A local authority may appoint officers for the purposes of enabling the authority to carry out any of their powers under this section; and section 65 of this Act shall apply in relation to any officers appointed under this subsection subject to the following modifications—
 - (a) references to “another local authority” shall be construed as if they were references to an area tourist board; and
 - (b) in subsection (2), the words from “but” to the end shall be omitted.
- (7) A statutory instrument containing regulations under subsection (2)(c) above shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Local Government etc. (Scotland) Act 1994, Part IV. (See end of Document for details)

(8) In this section—

- (a) “area tourist board” means a board established by virtue of an order made or, as the case may be, approved under section 172, 173 or 174 of the Local Government etc. (Scotland) Act 1994;
- (b) “participate” means participation in any one or more of the following ways—
 - (i) a local authority or any person representative of a local authority being a member of the area tourist board whose area includes the area of that authority;
 - (ii) provision by a local authority to such a board of financial assistance for the purposes of the board’s carrying out activities relating to tourism;
 - (iii) provision by a local authority to such a board of staff; and
- (c) section 171A(3) of this Act shall apply to this section with the substitution for any references to a person of references to an area tourist board.”.
