11 Powers to wind up schemes.

- (1) Subject to the following provisions of this section, the Authority may by order direct or authorise an occupational pension scheme to be wound up if they are satisfied that—
- the scheme, or any part of it, ought to be replaced by a different scheme,
 - the scheme is no longer required, or
 - it is necessary in order to protect the interests of the generality of the members of the scheme that it be wound up.
- (2) The Authority may not make an order under this section on either of the grounds referred to in subsection (1)(a) or (b) unless they are satisfied that the winding up of the scheme—
- cannot be achieved otherwise than by means of such an order, or
 - can only be achieved in accordance with a procedure which—
 - is liable to be unduly complex or protracted, or
 - involves the obtaining of consents which cannot be obtained, or can only be obtained with undue delay or difficulty,
- and that it is reasonable in all the circumstances to make the order.

^{F45}(3)

- [^{F46}(3A) The Authority may, during an assessment period (within the meaning of section 132 of the Pensions Act 2004 (meaning of “assessment period” for the purposes of Part 2 of that Act)) in relation to an occupational pension scheme, by order direct the scheme to be wound up if they are satisfied that it is necessary to do so in order—
- to ensure that the scheme’s protected liabilities do not exceed its assets, or
 - if those liabilities do exceed its assets, to keep the excess to a minimum.
- (3B) In subsection (3A)—
- “protected liabilities” has the meaning given by section 131 of the Pensions Act 2004, and

- (b) references to the assets of the scheme are references to those assets excluding any assets representing the value of any rights in respect of money purchase benefits (within the meaning of that Act) under the scheme.]
- (4) An order under this section authorising a scheme to be wound up must include such directions with respect to the manner and timing of the winding up as the Authority think appropriate having regard to the purposes of the order.
- [^{F47}This subsection is subject to sections 28, 135 and 219 of the Pensions Act 2004 (winding up order made when freezing order has effect in relation to scheme, during assessment period under Part 2 of that Act etc).]
- (5) The winding up of a scheme in pursuance of an order of the Authority under this section is as effective in law as if it had been made under powers conferred by or under the scheme.
- (6) An order under this section may be made and complied with in relation to a scheme—
- (a) in spite of any enactment or rule of law, or any rule of the scheme, which would otherwise operate to prevent the winding up, or
- (b) except for the purpose of the Authority determining whether or not they are satisfied as mentioned in subsection (2), without regard to any such enactment, rule of law or rule of the scheme as would otherwise require, or might otherwise be taken to require, the implementation of any procedure or the obtaining of any consent, with a view to the winding up.
- [^{F48}(6A) Subsection (6) does not have effect to authorise the Authority to make an order as mentioned in paragraph (a) or (b) of that subsection, if their doing so would be unlawful as a result of section 6(1) of the Human Rights Act 1998 (unlawful for public authority to act in contravention of a Convention right).]
- (7) In the case of a public service pension scheme—
- (a) an order under subsection (1) directing or authorising the scheme to be wound up may only be made on the grounds referred to in paragraph (c), and
- (b) such an order may, as the Authority think appropriate, adapt, amend or repeal any enactment [^{F49}(including the Scottish Parliamentary Pensions Act 2009 (asp 1))] in which the scheme is contained or under which it is made.

34 Power of investment and delegation.

- (1) The trustees of a trust scheme have, subject to ^{F92}section 36(1) and to] any restriction imposed by the scheme, the same power to make an investment of any kind as if they were absolutely entitled to the assets of the scheme.
- (2) Any discretion of the trustees of a trust scheme to make any decision about investments—
 - (a) may be delegated by or on behalf of the trustees to a fund manager to whom subsection (3) applies to be exercised in accordance with section 36, but
 - (b) may not otherwise be delegated except under section 25 of the ^{M7}Trustee Act 1925 (delegation of trusts ^{F93}during absence abroad]^{F93}for period not exceeding twelve months] or subsection (5) below.
- ^{F94}(3) This subsection applies to a fund manager who, in relation to the investments, may take the decisions in question without contravening the prohibition imposed by section 19 of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (prohibition on carrying on regulated activities unless authorised or exempt).]
- (4) The trustees are not responsible for the act or default of any fund manager in the exercise of any discretion delegated to him under subsection (2)(a) if they have taken all such steps as are reasonable to satisfy themselves or the person who made the delegation on their behalf has taken all such steps as are reasonable to satisfy himself—
 - (a) that the fund manager has the appropriate knowledge and experience for managing the investments of the scheme, and
 - (b) that he is carrying out his work competently and complying with section 36.
- (5) Subject to any restriction imposed by a trust scheme—
 - (a) the trustees may authorise two or more of their number to exercise on their behalf any discretion to make any decision about investments, and
 - (b) any such discretion may, where giving effect to the decision would not constitute ^{F95}the carrying on, in the United Kingdom, of a regulated activity (within the meaning of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000)], be delegated by or on behalf of the trustees to a fund manager to whom subsection (3) does not apply to be exercised in accordance with section 36; but in either case the trustees are liable for any acts or defaults in the exercise of the discretion if they would be so liable if they were the acts or defaults of the trustees as a whole.
- (6) Section 33 does not prevent the exclusion or restriction of any liability of the trustees of a trust scheme for the acts or defaults of a fund manager in the exercise of a discretion delegated to him under subsection (5)(b) where the trustees have taken all such steps as are reasonable to satisfy themselves, or the person who made the delegation on their behalf has taken all such steps as are reasonable to satisfy himself—
 - (a) that the fund manager has the appropriate knowledge and experience for managing the investments of the scheme, and
 - (b) that he is carrying out his work competently and complying with section 36; and subsection (2) of section 33 applies for the purposes of this subsection as it applies for the purposes of that section.
- (7) The provisions of this section override any restriction inconsistent with the provisions imposed by any rule of law or by or under any enactment, other than an enactment contained in, or made under, this Part or the ^{M8}Pension Schemes Act 1993.

67A The subsisting rights provisions: interpretation

(1) In the subsisting rights provisions, each of the following expressions has the meaning given to it by the following provisions of this section—

- “regulated modification”
- “protected modification”
- “detrimental modification”
- “affected member”
- “subsisting right”
- “scheme rules”.

(2) “Regulated modification” means a modification which is—

- (a) a protected modification, or
- (b) a detrimental modification, or is both.

(3) “Protected modification” means a modification of an occupational pension scheme which—

- (a) on taking effect would or might result in any subsisting right of—
 - (i) a member of the scheme, or
 - (ii) a survivor of a member of the scheme,

which is not a right or entitlement to money purchase benefits becoming, or being replaced with, a right or entitlement to money purchase benefits under the scheme rules,

- (b) would or might result in a reduction in the prevailing rate of any pension in payment under the scheme rules, or
- (c) is of a prescribed description.

For the purposes of paragraph (a), the reference in the definition of “money purchase benefits” in section 181(1) of the Pension Schemes Act 1993 to the widow or widower of a member of an occupational pension scheme is to be read as including any other survivor of the member.

(4) “Detrimental modification” means a modification of an occupational pension scheme which on taking effect would or might adversely affect any subsisting right of—

- (ii) a survivor of a member of the scheme, and, on taking effect, the modification would or might affect any of his subsisting rights as mentioned in that paragraph,

- (b) in relation to a protected modification within paragraph (c) of that subsection, if he is of a prescribed description, and
- (c) in relation to a detrimental modification which is not a protected modification if, at the time the modification takes effect, he is—
 - (i) a member of the scheme, or

- (b) in relation to the survivor of a member of an occupational pension scheme, at any time, any entitlement to benefits, or right to future benefits, which he has at that time under the scheme rules in respect of the member.

For this purpose, “right” includes a pension credit right.

(7) At any time when the pensionable service of a member of an occupational pension scheme is continuing, his subsisting rights are to be determined as if he had opted, immediately before that time, to terminate that service.

(8) “Scheme rules”, in relation to a scheme, means—
