2 Power to alter meaning.

- (1) The Secretary of State may by order, for the purposes of section 1(1)(b), designate any class of object which he considers to be of outstanding historical, archaeological or cultural importance.
- (2) The Secretary of State may by order, for the purposes of section 1(2), designate any class of object which (apart from the order) would be treasure.
- (3) An order under this section shall be made by statutory instrument.
- (4) No order is to be made under this section unless a draft of the order has been laid before Parliament and approved by a resolution of each House.

3 Supplementary.

- (1) This section supplements section 1.
- (2) “Coin” includes any metal token which was, or can reasonably be assumed to have been, used or intended for use as or instead of money.
- (3) “Precious metal” means gold or silver.
- (4) When an object is found, it is part of the same find as another object if—
 - (a) they are found together,
 - (b) the other object was found earlier in the same place where they had been left together,
 - (c) the other object was found earlier in a different place, but they had been left together and had become separated before being found.
- (5) If the circumstances in which objects are found can reasonably be taken to indicate that they were together at some time before being found, the objects are to be presumed to have been left together, unless shown not to have been.
- (6) An object which can reasonably be taken to be at least a particular age is to be presumed to be at least that age, unless shown not to be.
- (7) An object is not treasure if it is wreck within the meaning of Part IX of the ^{M1}Merchant Shipping Act 1995.
