1996 CHAPTER 57

PART I

SCHOOL INSPECTIONS

CHAPTER I

SCHOOL INSPECTORS AND INSPECTIONS CARRIED OUT BY THEM

Her Majesty's Inspectorate for England

1 Her Majesty's Inspectorate of Schools in England.

- (1) Her Majesty may by Order in Council appoint a person to the office of Her Majesty's Chief Inspector of Schools in England ("the Chief Inspector for England").
- (2) Her Majesty may by Order in Council appoint persons as Her Majesty's Inspectors of Schools in England.
- (3) Any person appointed as one of Her Majesty's Inspectors of Schools in England shall serve, in accordance with the terms and conditions on which he is appointed, as a member of the staff of the Chief Inspector for England.
- (4) The Chief Inspector for England shall hold and vacate office in accordance with the terms of his appointment, but—
 - (a) shall not be appointed for a term of more than five years;
 - (b) may at any time resign by giving written notice to the Secretary of State;
 - (c) may be removed from office by Her Majesty on the ground of incapacity or misconduct.
- (5) The previous appointment of a person as Chief Inspector for England shall not affect his eligibility for re-appointment.

Status: Point in time view as at 28/07/2000.

Changes to legislation: School Inspections Act 1996 (repealed), Chapter 1 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2023. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (6) Schedule 1 to this Act makes further provision with respect to the Chief Inspector for England and his staff.

2 Functions of the Chief Inspector for England.

- (1) The Chief Inspector for England shall have the general duty of keeping the Secretary of State informed about—
- (a) the quality of the education provided by schools in England;
 - (b) the educational standards achieved in those schools;
 - (c) whether the financial resources made available to those schools are managed efficiently; and
 - (d) the spiritual, moral, social and cultural development of pupils at those schools.
- (2) When asked to do so by the Secretary of State, the Chief Inspector for England shall—
- (a) give advice to the Secretary of State on such matters as may be specified in the Secretary of State's request;
 - (b) inspect and report on such school, or class of school, in England as may be so specified.
- (3) The Chief Inspector for England shall, in addition, have the following specific duties—
- (a) establishing and maintaining the register mentioned in section 7(1);
 - (b) giving guidance to inspectors registered in that register, and such other persons as he considers appropriate, in connection with inspections of schools in England under section 10 and the making of reports of such inspections;
 - (c) keeping under review the system of inspecting schools under that section (so far as it relates to schools in England) and, in particular, the standard of such inspections and of the reports made by registered inspectors;
 - (d) keeping under review the extent to which any requirement imposed by or under this Act, or any other enactment, on any registered inspector, local education authority, proprietor of a school or governing body in relation to inspections of schools in England is complied with;
 - (e) promoting efficiency in the conduct and reporting of inspections of schools in England by encouraging competition in the provision of services by registered inspectors.
- (4) The Chief Inspector for England may at any time give advice to the Secretary of State on any matter connected with schools, or a particular school, in England.
- (5) The Chief Inspector for England shall have such other functions in connection with schools in England, including functions with respect to the training of teachers for such schools, as may be assigned to him by the Secretary of State.
- (6) In exercising his functions the Chief Inspector for England shall have regard to such aspects of government policy as the Secretary of State may direct.
- (7) The Chief Inspector for England—
- (a) shall make an annual report to the Secretary of State, who shall lay a copy of it before each House of Parliament;
 - (b) may make such other reports to the Secretary of State, with respect to matters which fall within the scope of his functions, as he considers appropriate; and
 - (c) may arrange for any report made by him under this subsection to be published in such manner as he considers appropriate.

Status: Point in time view as at 28/07/2000.

Changes to legislation: School Inspections Act 1996 (repealed), Chapter I is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2023. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- [^{F1}(8) For the purposes of the exercise of any function conferred by or under this section the Chief Inspector for England shall have at all reasonable times, in relation to any school in England—
- (a) a right of entry to the premises of the school; and
 - (b) a right to inspect, and take copies of, any records kept by the school, and any other documents containing information relating to the school, which he requires for those purposes.
- (9) It shall be an offence wilfully to obstruct the Chief Inspector for England—
- (a) in the exercise of his functions in relation to the inspection of a school for the purposes of subsection (2)(b); or
 - (b) in the exercise of any right under subsection (8) for the purposes of the exercise of any other function.]

(10) A person guilty of an offence under subsection (9) shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 4 on the standard scale.

- (2) No person shall conduct an inspection of any school in Wales under section 10(2) unless he is registered as an inspector in a register kept by the Chief Inspector for Wales for the purposes of this Part.
- (3) The Chief Inspector shall not register a person under this section unless, having regard to any conditions that he proposes to impose under subsection (5)(c), it appears to him that that person—
- (a) is a fit and proper person for discharging the functions of a registered inspector; and
 - (b) will be capable of conducting inspections under this Part competently and effectively.
- [^{F7} and no person shall be so registered if he falls within a category of persons prescribed for the purposes of this subsection.]
- (4) An application for registration under this section—
- (a) shall be made in such manner, and be accompanied by such particulars, as the Chief Inspector may direct; and
 - (b) shall be accompanied by the prescribed fee.
- (5) On an application duly made under this section the Chief Inspector may—
- (a) register the applicant;
 - (b) refuse to register him; or
 - (c) register him subject to such conditions as the Chief Inspector considers it appropriate to impose.
- (6) Conditions imposed under subsection (5)(c) may be conditions applying generally in relation to all cases, or particular classes of case, or such conditions together with specific conditions applying in the particular case.
- (7) Where a person is registered subject to conditions imposed under subsection (5)(c), he shall be taken to be authorised to act as a registered inspector only so far as those conditions permit.
- (8) The period for which any registration is to have effect shall be determined by the Chief Inspector and shall be entered in the register kept by him.
- (9) Nothing in subsection (8) is to be taken as preventing a registered inspector from applying for a fresh registration to take effect immediately on the expiry of his current registration.
- (10) Subsections (1) and (2) have effect subject to section 12.
