

Lieutenancies Act 1997

1997 CHAPTER 23

An Act to consolidate certain enactments relating to the lieutenancies in Great Britain. [19th March 1997]

Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Extent Information

E1 Acts amending, repealing or revoking provisions are coextensive with the enactments they affect see s. 9\(3\).

1 Lieutenancies in Great Britain.

- (1) A lord-lieutenant shall be appointed by Her Majesty for each county in England, each county in Wales and each area in Scotland (other than the cities of Aberdeen, Dundee, Edinburgh and Glasgow).
- (2) The Lord Provost of each of the cities of Aberdeen, Dundee, Edinburgh and Glasgow is, by virtue of his office, lord-lieutenant for that city.
- (3) Her Majesty may appoint lieutenants (in addition to the lord-lieutenant) for any county or area.
- (4) Schedule 1 to this Act (which identifies the areas which are counties in England and Wales and areas in Scotland for the purposes of the lieutenancies) shall have effect; and in this Act “county” and “area” shall be construed accordingly.

2 Deputy lieutenants.

- (1) The lord-lieutenant of a county or area shall appoint such persons as he thinks fit to be his deputy lieutenants.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2019.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Lieutenancies Act 1997. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) A person may only be appointed as a deputy lieutenant of a county or area if—
 - (a) he is shown to have rendered appropriate service; and
 - (b) he has a place of residence in, or within 7 miles from the boundary of, that county or area.
- (3) In subsection (2) “appropriate service” means either worthy service as a member of, or in a civil capacity in connection with, Her Majesty’s naval, military or air forces or such other service as makes a person suitable for appointment as a deputy lieutenant.
- (4) The lord-lieutenant of a county or area shall notify to Her Majesty the name of any person whom he proposes to appoint as a deputy lieutenant; and a commission as deputy lieutenant shall not be granted to that person until the lord-lieutenant has been informed by the [^{F1}Lord President of the Council] that Her Majesty does not disapprove of the granting of the commission.
- (5) A commission as deputy lieutenant of a county or area is not vacated by reason that the person who granted it dies or otherwise ceases to hold office as lord-lieutenant.
- (6) A commission as deputy lieutenant of a county or area may be revoked by the lord-lieutenant of that county or area; and the lord-lieutenant shall revoke the commission forthwith on being informed of Her Majesty’s pleasure that it be revoked.
- (7) The clerk of the lieutenancy of a county or area shall arrange for the publication in the London Gazette or, as the case may be, the Edinburgh Gazette of the names of the persons appointed deputy lieutenants for that county or area, with the dates of their commissions.

Textual Amendments

3 Vice lord-lieutenants.

- (1) The lord-lieutenant of a county or area may, with Her Majesty’s approval, appoint a lieutenant or deputy lieutenant of that county or area as his vice lord-lieutenant.
- (2) If a lord-lieutenant who has appointed a vice lord-lieutenant dies or otherwise ceases to hold office, the commission of the vice lord-lieutenant is vacated on the appointment of a new lord-lieutenant for the county or area concerned.
- (3) A commission as vice lord-lieutenant of a county or area may, with the approval of Her Majesty, be revoked by the lord-lieutenant who granted it; and the lord-lieutenant

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2019.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Lieutenancies Act 1997. (See end of Document for details)

shall revoke the commission forthwith on being informed of Her Majesty's pleasure that it be revoked.

- (4) Without prejudice to Her Majesty's power to make other provision under section 4, if—
- (a) the lord-lieutenant of a county or area is absent from the county or area, sick or otherwise unable to act; or
 - (b) there is a vacancy in the office of lord-lieutenant for a county or area,
- the vice lord-lieutenant of that county or area shall stand for all purposes in the lord-lieutenant's place and, accordingly, may do anything which may be done by the lord-lieutenant.

4 Absence, etc. of lord-lieutenant.

- (1) If—
- (a) the lord-lieutenant of a county or area is absent from the United Kingdom, sick or otherwise unable to act; or
 - (b) there is a vacancy in the office of lord-lieutenant of a county or area,
- Her Majesty may authorise any three deputy lieutenants or lieutenants of that county or area to act as its lord-lieutenant.
- (2) During the period for which they are authorised to act, the persons authorised under this section shall stand for all purposes in the lord-lieutenant's place and, accordingly, may do anything which may be done by the lord-lieutenant.

5 Appointment of clerks of lieutenancies.

- (1) There shall be a clerk of the lieutenancy for each county or area, appointed by the lord-lieutenant.
- (2) The lord-lieutenant of a county or area may revoke the appointment of the clerk of the lieutenancy.

6 Functions of lord-lieutenant, lieutenants and deputy lieutenants.

The lord-lieutenant, lieutenants (if any) and deputy lieutenants of a county or area shall have such functions and privileges (whether provided for under any enactment or otherwise) as are for the time being exercisable by or vested in the lord-lieutenant, lieutenants and deputy lieutenants respectively of that county or area.

7 Commissioners of lieutenancy for the City of London.

- (1) Her Majesty may issue commissions of lieutenancy in respect of the City of London to such persons as She thinks fit to be the Commissioners of Lieutenancy for the City of London (in this section referred to as "the commissioners").
- (2) For the purposes of the application of sections 5 and 6 to the City of London, the commissioners shall be treated as if they were the lord-lieutenant of a county.
- (3) Nothing in this Act affects the raising and levying of the Trophy Tax in the City or any other functions or privileges of the commissioners (whether provided for under any enactment or otherwise).

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2019.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Lieutenancies Act 1997. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) The proceeds of the Trophy Tax may be applied by the commissioners (if they see fit to do so) for any of the purposes of a territorial and volunteer reserve association established under Part XI of the ^{M1}Reserve Forces Act 1996 for an area including the City of London.
- (5) For the purposes of the law relating to, or to matters connected with, the lieutenancies the City of London includes the Inner Temple and the Middle Temple.

- 9 Any deputy lieutenant who, immediately before the date on which an Order in Council under paragraph 8 is made, holds office for an area affected by the Order shall (without prejudice to any power of removal or directing removal from any office) continue to hold office on and after that date as deputy lieutenant for the area in which he resides or for such other area as may be specified in the Order.

SCHEDULE 2

Section 8(3).

TRANSITIONAL AND SAVING PROVISIONS

General

- 1 The substitution of this Act for the enactments repealed or revoked by this Act does not affect the continuity of the law.
- 2 Anything done (including subordinate legislation made) or having effect as done under a provision reproduced in this Act has effect as if done under the corresponding provision of this Act.
- 3 References (express or implied) in this Act or any other enactment, instrument or document to a provision of this Act shall, so far as the context permits, be construed as including, in relation to times, circumstances and purposes before the commencement of this Act, a reference to corresponding earlier provisions.
- 4 A reference (express or implied) in any enactment, instrument or document to a provision reproduced in this Act shall be construed, so far as is required for continuing its effect, as being or, as the case may require, including a reference to the corresponding provision of this Act.
- 5 Any document made, served or issued on or after the commencement of this Act which contains a reference to any provision reproduced by this Act shall be

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2019.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Lieutenancies Act 1997. (See end of Document for details) construed, except so far as a contrary intention appears, as referring or, as the case may require, including a reference to the corresponding provision of this Act.

Continuation in office of current office-holders

- 6 Nothing in this Act prevents the continuation in office of a lord-lieutenant, lieutenant or deputy lieutenant of a county or area who is in office immediately before the commencement of this Act.

This paragraph is without prejudice to any power of removal or directing removal from any office.

- 7 The repeal by this Act of paragraphs 13(2) and 14(2) of Schedule 8 to the ^{M7}Reserve Forces Act 1980 does not affect the operation of any Order in Council or order having effect as made under either of those paragraphs in relation to any person to whom that paragraph applied immediately before the commencement of this Act.
