

Protection from Harassment Act 1997

1997 CHAPTER 40

England and Wales

[^{F1}5A Restraining orders on acquittal

- (1) A court before which a person (“ the defendant ”) is acquitted of an offence may, if it considers it necessary to do so to protect a person from harassment by the defendant, make an order prohibiting the defendant from doing anything described in the order.
- [^{F2}(2) The order may have effect for a specified period or until further order.
- (2A) In proceedings under this section both the prosecution and the defence may lead, as further evidence, any evidence that would be admissible in proceedings for an injunction under section 3.
- (2B) The prosecutor, the defendant or any other person mentioned in the order may apply to the court that made the order for it to be varied or discharged by a further order.
- (2C) Any person mentioned in the order is entitled to be heard on the hearing of an application under subsection (2B).
- (2D) It is an offence for the defendant, without reasonable excuse, to do anything that the defendant is prohibited from doing by an order under this section.
- (2E) A person guilty of an offence under this section is liable—
- on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years, or a fine, or both, or
 - on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months, or a fine, or both.
- (2F) A court dealing with a person for an offence under this section may vary or discharge the order in question by a further order.]
- (3) Where the Court of Appeal allow an appeal against conviction they may remit the case to the Crown Court to consider whether to proceed under this section.
- (4) Where—
