Authorisations

92 Effect of authorisation under Part III.

No entry on or interference with property or with wireless telegraphy shall be unlawful if it is authorised by an authorisation having effect under this Part.

93 Authorisations to interfere with property etc.

- (1) Where subsection (2) applies, an authorising officer may authorise—
- (a) the taking of such action, in respect of such property in the relevant area, as he may specify,
  - <sup>F2</sup>(ab) the taking of such action falling within subsection (1A), in respect of property outside the relevant area, as he may specify, or]
  - (b) the taking of such action in the relevant area as he may specify, in respect of wireless telegraphy.

<sup>F3</sup>(1A) The action falling within this subsection is action for maintaining or retrieving any equipment, apparatus or device the placing or use of which in the relevant area has been authorised under this Part or Part II of the Regulation of Investigatory Powers Act 2000 or under any enactment contained in or made under an Act of the Scottish Parliament which makes provision equivalent to that made by Part II of that Act of 2000.

(1B) Subsection (1) applies where the authorising officer is a <sup>F4</sup>National Crime Agency officer] <sup>F5</sup>giving an authorisation on an application made by virtue of subsection (3)(b) (i), <sup>F6</sup>an officer of Revenue and Customs] <sup>F7</sup>, an immigration officer] <sup>F8</sup>or the chair of the Competition and Markets Authority] with the omission of—

- (a) the words “in the relevant area”, in each place where they occur; and
- (b) paragraph (ab).]

(2) This subsection applies where the authorising officer believes—

- (a) that it is necessary for the action specified to be taken <sup>F9</sup>for the purpose of preventing or detecting] serious crime, and
- <sup>F10</sup>(b) that the taking of the action is proportionate to what the action seeks to achieve.]

<sup>F11</sup>(2A) Subsection (2) applies where the authorising officer is the Chief Constable or the Deputy Chief Constable of the <sup>F12</sup>Police Service of Northern Ireland] as if the reference in subsection (2)(a) to preventing or detecting serious crime included a reference to the interests of national security.

<sup>F13</sup>(2AA) [ Where the authorising officer is the <sup>F14</sup>chair of the Competition and Markets Authority], the only purpose falling within subsection (2)(a) is the purpose of preventing or detecting an offence under section 188 of the Enterprise Act 2002.]

(2B) The matters to be taken into account in considering whether the requirements of subsection (2) are satisfied in the case of any authorisation shall include whether what it is thought necessary to achieve by the authorised action could reasonably be achieved by other means.]

(3) An authorising officer shall not give an authorisation under this section except on an application made—

Status: Point in time view as at 08/01/2018.

*Changes to legislation: Police Act 1997, Part III is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 23 March 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. - [<sup>F15</sup>(za) if the authorising officer is within subsection (5)(a) to (c)—
    - (i) by a member of the officer's police force; <sup>F16</sup> ...
    - (ii) in a case where the chief officer of police of that force (“the authorising force”) has made an agreement under [<sup>F17</sup>section 22A] of the Police Act 1996 with the chief officer of police of one or more other police forces, by a member of a collaborative force; [<sup>F18</sup>or
    - (iii) in a case where the chief officer of police of the authorising force has made an agreement under that section with the Director General of the National Crime Agency, by a National Crime Agency officer (but see subsection (3AA));]
  - [<sup>F19</sup>(zb) if the authorising officer is within subsection (5)(d), by a constable of the Police Service of Scotland;]
    - (a) if the authorising officer is within [<sup>F20</sup>subsection][<sup>F21</sup>(5)(e)], [<sup>F22</sup>(ea) or (ee)], by a member of his police force,
  - [<sup>F23</sup>(aa) if the authorising officer is within subsection (5)(eb) to (ed), by a member, as the case may be, of the [<sup>F24</sup>Royal Navy Police], the Royal Military Police or the Royal Air Force Police;]
  - [<sup>F25</sup>(b) if the authorising officer is within [<sup>F26</sup>subsection (5)(f)—
    - (i) by] a [<sup>F27</sup>National Crime Agency officer], [<sup>F28</sup>or
    - (ii) in a case where the Director General of the National Crime Agency has made an agreement under section 22A of the Police Act 1996 with the chief officer of police of one or more police forces, by a member of a collaborative force;]
  - (d) if the authorising officer is within subsection (5)(h), by [<sup>F29</sup>an officer of Revenue and Customs][<sup>F30</sup>, <sup>F31</sup> ...
  - [<sup>F32</sup>(da) if the authorising officer is within subsection (5)(ha), by an immigration officer;]
  - (e) if the authorising officer is within subsection (5)(i), by an officer of the [<sup>F33</sup>Competition and Markets Authority].]
  - [<sup>F34</sup>(ea) if the authorising officer is within subsection (5)(ia), by a staff officer of the Police Investigations and Review Commissioner.]
  - <sup>F35</sup>(f) .....
- [<sup>F36</sup>(3A) For the purposes of subsection (3)(za)(ii)—
  - (a) a police force is a collaborative force if—
    - (i) its chief officer of police is a party to the agreement mentioned in that provision; and
    - (ii) its members are permitted by the terms of the agreement to make applications for authorisations under this section to the authorising officer of the authorising force; and
  - (b) a reference to a police force is to the following—
    - (i) any police force maintained under section 2 of the Police Act 1996 (police forces in England and Wales outside London);
    - (ii) the metropolitan police force; and
    - (iii) the City of London police force.]
- [<sup>F37</sup>(3AA) A National Crime Agency officer may make an application by virtue of subsection (3)(za)(iii) only if permitted by the terms of the agreement mentioned in that provision to make applications for authorisations under this section to the authorising officer of the authorising force.

95 Authorisations: form and duration etc.

- (1) An authorisation shall be in writing, except that in an urgent case an authorisation (other than one given by virtue of section 94) may be given orally.
- (2) An authorisation shall, unless renewed under subsection (3), cease to have effect—
  - (a) if given orally or by virtue of section 94, at the end of the period of 72 hours beginning with the time when it took effect;
  - (b) in any other case, at the end of the period of three months beginning with the day on which it took effect.
- (3) If at any time before an authorisation would cease to have effect the authorising officer who gave the authorisation, or in whose absence it was given, considers it necessary for the authorisation to continue to have effect for the purpose for which it was issued, he may, in writing, renew it for a period of three months beginning with the day on which it would cease to have effect.
- (4) A person shall cancel an authorisation given by him if satisfied that <sup>[F93]</sup>the authorisation is one in relation to which the requirements of paragraphs (a) and (b) of section 93(2) are no longer satisfied.]
- (5) An authorising officer shall cancel an authorisation given in his absence if satisfied that <sup>[F93]</sup>the authorisation is one in relation to which the requirements of paragraphs (a) and (b) of section 93(2) are no longer satisfied].
- (6) If the authorising officer who gave the authorisation is within paragraph (b) <sup>[F94]</sup><sup>[F95]</sup>, (d), (e)] <sup>[F96]</sup>or (f)] of section 93(5), the power conferred on that person by subsections (3) and (4) above shall also be exercisable by each of the other persons within the paragraph concerned.

Authorisations requiring approval

97 Authorisations requiring approval.

- (1) An authorisation to which this section applies shall not take effect until—
    - (a) it has been approved in accordance with this section by [<sup>F102</sup>a Judicial Commissioner], and
    - (b) the person who gave the authorisation has been notified under subsection (4).
  - (2) Subject to subsection (3), this section applies to an authorisation if, at the time it is given, the person who gives it believes—
    - (a) that any of the property specified in the authorisation—
      - (i) is used wholly or mainly as a dwelling or as a bedroom in a hotel, or
      - (ii) constitutes office premises, or
    - (b) that the action authorised by it is likely to result in any person acquiring knowledge of—
      - (i) matters subject to legal privilege,
      - (ii) confidential personal information, or
      - (iii) confidential journalistic material.
  - (3) This section does not apply to an authorisation where the person who gives it believes that the case is one of urgency.
  - (4) Where [<sup>F103</sup>a Judicial Commissioner] receives a notice under section 96 which specifies that this section applies to the authorisation, he shall as soon as is reasonably practicable—
    - (a) decide whether to approve the authorisation or refuse approval, and
    - (b) give written notice of his decision to the person who gave the authorisation.
  - (5) [<sup>F104</sup>A Judicial Commissioner] shall approve an authorisation if, and only if, he is satisfied that there are reasonable grounds for believing the matters specified in section 93(2).
  - (6) Where [<sup>F105</sup>a Judicial Commissioner] refuses to approve an authorisation, he shall, as soon as is reasonably practicable, make a report of his findings to the authorising officer who gave it or in whose absence it was given <sup>F106</sup> . . .
- [<sup>F107</sup>(6A) The reference in subsection (6) to the authorising officer who gave the authorisation or in whose absence it was given shall be construed, in the case of an authorisation given by or in the absence of a person within paragraph (b) [<sup>F108</sup>or (e)] of section 93(5), as a reference to the Commissioner of Police [<sup>F109</sup>or, as the case may be, Chief Constable] mentioned in the paragraph concerned.]

- [<sup>F110</sup>(6B) The reference in subsection (6) to the authorising officer who gave the authorisation or in whose absence it was given shall be construed—
- (a) in the case of an authorisation given by a person within paragraph (f) of section 93(5), as a reference to that person, and
  - (b) in the case of an authorisation given in the absence of such a person, as a reference to a [<sup>F111</sup>National Crime Agency officer] who is designated for the purposes of this section by the Director General of that Agency.]
- (7) This section shall apply in relation to a renewal of an authorisation as it applies in relation to an authorisation (the references in subsection (2)(a) and (b) to the authorisation being construed as references to the authorisation renewed).
- (8) In this section—
- “office premises” has the meaning given in section 1(2) of the <sup>M5</sup>Offices, Shops and Railway Premises Act 1963;
  - “hotel” means premises used for the reception of guests who desire to sleep in the premises.

which are made in connection with the giving of legal advice to the client.

- (3) This subsection applies to communications—
- (a) between a professional legal adviser and his client or any person representing his client, or
  - (b) between a professional legal adviser or his client or any such representative and any other person,
- which are made in connection with or in contemplation of legal proceedings and for the purposes of such proceedings.
- (4) This subsection applies to items enclosed with or referred to in communications of the kind mentioned in subsection (2) or (3) and made—
- (a) in connection with the giving of legal advice, or
  - (b) in connection with or in contemplation of legal proceedings and for the purposes of such proceedings.
- (5) For the purposes of section 97—
- (a) communications and items are not matters subject to legal privilege when they are in the possession of a person who is not entitled to possession of them, and
  - (b) communications and items held, or oral communications made, with the intention of furthering a criminal purpose are not matters subject to legal privilege.

99 Confidential personal information.

- (1) In section 97 “confidential personal information” means—
- (a) personal information which a person has acquired or created in the course of any trade, business, profession or other occupation or for the purposes of any paid or unpaid office, and which he holds in confidence, and
  - (b) communications as a result of which personal information—
    - (i) is acquired or created as mentioned in paragraph (a), and
    - (ii) is held in confidence.
- (2) For the purposes of this section “personal information” means information concerning an individual (whether living or dead) who can be identified from it and relating—
- (a) to his physical or mental health, or
  - (b) to spiritual counselling or assistance given or to be given to him.
- (3) A person holds information in confidence for the purposes of this section if he holds it subject—
- (a) to an express or implied undertaking to hold it in confidence, or
  - (b) to a restriction on disclosure or an obligation of secrecy contained in any enactment (including an enactment contained in an Act passed after this Act).

100 Confidential journalistic material.

108 Interpretation of Part III.

(1) In this Part—

[<sup>F142</sup>“Assistant Commissioner of Police of the Metropolis” includes the Deputy Commissioner of Police of the Metropolis;]

“authorisation” means an authorisation under section 93;

“authorising officer” has the meaning given by section 93(5);

“criminal proceedings” includes [<sup>F143</sup>proceedings (whether or not before a court) in respect of a service offence within the meaning of the Armed Forces Act 2006;]

“designated deputy” has the meaning given in section 94(4);

[<sup>F145</sup>“the Investigatory Powers Commissioner” and “Judicial Commissioner” have the same meanings as in the Investigatory Powers Act 2016 (see section 263(1) of that Act);]

“United Kingdom waters” has the meaning given in section 30(5) of the <sup>M6</sup>Police Act 1996; and “wireless telegraphy” has the same meaning as in [<sup>F146</sup>the Wireless Telegraphy Act 2006] and, in relation to wireless telegraphy, “interfere” has the same meaning as in that Act.

[<sup>F147</sup>(1A) A reference in this Part to a staff officer of the Police Investigations and Review Commissioner is to any person who—

(a) is a member of the Commissioner's staff appointed under paragraph 7A of schedule 4 to the Police, Public Order and Criminal Justice (Scotland) Act 2006, or

(b) is a member of the Commissioner's staff appointed under paragraph 7 of that schedule to whom paragraph 7B(2) of that schedule applies.]

(2) Where, under this Part, notice of any matter is required to be given in writing, the notice may be transmitted by electronic means.

(3) For the purposes of this Part, an authorisation (or renewal) given—

(a) by the designated deputy of an authorising officer, or

(b) by a person on whom an authorising officer's powers are conferred by section 94, shall be treated as an authorisation (or renewal) given in the absence of the authorising officer concerned; and references to the authorising officer in whose absence an authorisation (or renewal) was given shall be construed accordingly.
