Local development plans

15 Form and content of local development plans

(1) A local development plan is a plan in which is set out, for land in the part of the district to which it relates—

- (a) a spatial strategy, being a detailed statement of the planning authority's policies and proposals as to the development and use of the land [^{F7}taking account of the matters mentioned in subsection (5)],
- (b) such other matters as may be prescribed, and
- (c) any other matter which the planning authority consider it appropriate to include.

[^{F8}(1A) The local development plan must also include targets for meeting the housing needs of people living in the part of the district to which it relates.]

^{F9}(2)

[^{F10}(2A) A local development plan is to include a statement of the planning authority's policies and proposals as to the provision of public conveniences.

(2B) A local development plan is to include a statement of the planning authority's policies and proposals as to the provision of water refill locations.]

(3) Where a local development plan contains policies or proposals for, or views as to, the occurrence of development on land owned by the planning authority, there is to be appended to the plan a schedule, in such form as may be prescribed, which identifies the land, states that it is so owned and refers to the policies, proposals or views in question.

(4) A local development plan is, for the purpose of explaining or illustrating the proposals in the plan, to contain or be accompanied by—

- (a) such maps, diagrams, illustrations and descriptive matter as may be prescribed, and
- (b) such other diagrams, illustrations and descriptive matter (if any) as the planning authority think appropriate.

Status: Point in time view as at 19/05/2023.

There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (5) The matters referred to in subsection [F11(1)(a)] are—
- (a) the principal physical, [F12cultural,] economic, social[F13, built heritage] and environmental characteristics of the district,
 - (b) the principal purposes for which the land is used,
 - (c) the size, composition[F14, health] and distribution of the population of the district,
 - F15 the housing needs of the population of the area, including, in particular, the needs of persons undertaking further and higher education, older people and disabled people,
 - (cb) the availability of land in the district for housing, including for older people and disabled people,
 - (cc) the desirability of allocating land for the purposes of resettlement,
 - (cd) the health needs of the population of the district and the likely effects of development and use of land on those health needs,
 - (ce) the education needs of the population of the district and the likely effects of development and use of land on those education needs,
 - (cf) the extent to which there are rural areas within the district in relation to which there has been a substantial decline in population,
 - (cg) the capacity of education services in the district,
 - (ch) the desirability of maintaining an appropriate number and range of cultural venues and facilities (including in particular, but not limited to, live music venues) in the district,]
 - (d) the infrastructure of the district (including communications, transport and drainage systems[F16, systems for the supply of water and energy, and health care and education facilities]),
 - (e) how that infrastructure is used, F17 ...
 - (f) any change which the planning authority think may occur in relation to any of the matters mentioned in paragraphs (a) to[F18(eb)].

[F19(5A) In subsection (5)(d), references to systems for the supply of energy include in particular land available for the development and use of facilities for renewable sources of energy.]

- (3) The Scottish Ministers, provided that 4 weeks have elapsed since they received the report, may—
 - (a) direct the authority to take such further steps with regard to—
 - (i) consultation, or
 - (ii) involving the public at large,as are specified in the direction, or
 - (b) direct the appointed person to proceed to an examination under subsection (3) of section 19.
- (4) In giving a direction under paragraph (a) of subsection (3) the Scottish Ministers are to have regard to the appointed person's recommendations under paragraph (a) of subsection (1) and to any representations made under subsection (2).
- (5) Where such a direction is given—
 - (a) the appointed person is not to proceed to an examination under subsection (3) of section 19, and
 - (b) after the further steps specified in the direction have been taken the authority—
 - (i) may modify the proposed local development plan so as to take account of any representations made to them in consequence of their taking those steps (and of any minor drafting or technical matters), and
 - (ii) are to submit it (whether or not modified) to the Scottish Ministers together with a note of any representations so made and of whether those representations are taken account of in the plan (and if so to what extent) and a report as to the extent to which the authority's actions with regard to consultation and involving the public at large have conformed with (or have gone beyond the requirements of) the specification of further steps.
- (6) But if the authority consider that modifications are requisite and are such as would change the underlying aims or strategy of the proposed plan they are not to modify it (or submit it unmodified to the Scottish Ministers) but are to prepare and publish under section 18(1) a new proposed local development plan.
- ^{F54}(7)
- ^{F54}(8)
- (9) Section 19 and this section apply in relation to a proposed local development plan [^{F55}submitted under subsection (5)(b)(ii)] as they apply in relation to such a plan submitted under section 18(4)(a).
- (10) Except that for the purposes of the application provided for in subsection (9), section 19 is to be construed as if—
 - (a) in subsection (2), for the words “subsection (3) ^{F56}... of section 18” there were substituted “section 19A(5)(b)(i)”, and
 - (b) in subsection (4), for the words “the participation statement of the authority which was current when the proposed plan was published under section 18(1) (a)” there were substituted “the further steps specified in the direction under section 19A(3)(a)”.
