

Planning (Listed Buildings and Conservation Areas) (Scotland) Act 1997

1997 CHAPTER 9

PART II

CONSERVATION AREAS

Control of demolition

67 Cases in which section 66 does not apply.

- (1) Section 66 does not apply to—
 - (a) listed buildings,
 - (b) ecclesiastical buildings which are for the time being used for ecclesiastical purposes,
 - (c) buildings for the time being included in the Schedule of monuments compiled and maintained under section 1 of the ^{M1}Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979, or
 - (d) buildings in relation to which a direction under subsection (2) is for the time being in force.
- (2) The Secretary of State may direct that section 66 shall not apply to any description of buildings specified in the direction.
- (3) A direction under subsection (2) may be given either to an individual planning authority or to planning authorities generally.
- (4) The Secretary of State may vary or revoke a direction under subsection (2) by a further direction under that subsection.
- (5) For the purposes of subsection (1)(b), a building used or available for use by a minister of religion wholly or mainly as a residence from which to perform the duties of his office shall be treated as not being an ecclesiastical building.

Changes to legislation: Planning (Listed Buildings and Conservation Areas) (Scotland) Act 1997, Section 67 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 August 2023. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. - (6) For the purposes of sections 6 to 8 as they apply by virtue of section 66(3) a building shall be taken to be used for the time being for ecclesiastical purposes if it would be so used but for the works in question.
- (7) The Secretary of State may by order provide for restricting or excluding the operation of subsection (1)(b) in such cases as may be specified in the order.
- (8) An order under subsection (7) may—
- (a) make provision for buildings generally, for descriptions of building or for particular buildings;
 - (b) make different provision for buildings in different areas, for buildings of different religious faiths or denominations or according to the use made of the building;
 - (c) make such provision in relation to a part of a building (including, in particular, an object or structure falling to be treated as part of the building by virtue of section 1(4)) as may be made in relation to a building and make different provision for different parts of the same building;
 - (d) make different provision with respect to works of different descriptions or according to the extent of the works;
 - (e) make such consequential adaptations or modifications of the operation of any other provision of this Act or the principal Act, or of any instrument made under either of those Acts, as appear to the Secretary of State to be appropriate.
- (9) Subsections (7) and (8) are without prejudice to the ^{M2}Church of Scotland Act 1921.
- (10) Any proceedings on or arising out of an application for conservation area consent made while section 66 applies to a building shall lapse when it ceases to apply to it, and any such consent granted with respect to the building shall also lapse.
- (11) The fact that that section has ceased to apply to a building shall not affect the liability of any person to be prosecuted and punished for an offence under section 8 or 39 committed with respect to the building while that section did apply to it.
