

Data Protection Act 1998

1998 CHAPTER 29

PART VI

MISCELLANEOUS AND GENERAL

Records obtained under data subject's right of access

56 Prohibition of requirement as to production of certain records.

- (1) A person must not, in connection with—
 - (a) the recruitment of another person as an employee,
 - (b) the continued employment of another person, or
 - (c) any contract for the provision of services to him by another person,require that other person or a third party to supply him with a relevant record or to produce a relevant record to him.
- (2) A person concerned with the provision (for payment or not) of goods, facilities or services to the public or a section of the public must not, as a condition of providing or offering to provide any goods, facilities or services to another person, require that other person or a third party to supply him with a relevant record or to produce a relevant record to him.
- (3) Subsections (1) and (2) do not apply to a person who shows—
 - (a) that the imposition of the requirement was required or authorised by or under any enactment, by any rule of law or by the order of a court, or
 - (b) that in the particular circumstances the imposition of the requirement was justified as being in the public interest.
- (4) Having regard to the provisions of Part V of the ^{M1}Police Act 1997 (certificates of criminal records etc.), the imposition of the requirement referred to in subsection (1) or (2) is not to be regarded as being justified as being in the public interest on the ground that it would assist in the prevention or detection of crime.
- (5) A person who contravenes subsection (1) or (2) is guilty of an offence.
