Regulations for [F11Police Service of Northern Ireland].

(1) Subject to the provisions of this section, the [F12Department of Justice] may make regulations as to the government, administration and conditions of service of members of [F11the Police Service of Northern Ireland].

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), regulations under this section may make provision with respect to—

(a) the ranks to be held by members of [F11the Police Service of Northern Ireland];
(b) the qualifications for appointment and promotion of members of [F11the Police Service of Northern Ireland];
(c) periods of service on probation;
(d) voluntary retirement of members of [F11the Police Service of Northern Ireland];
(e) the conduct, efficiency and effectiveness of members of [F11the Police Service of Northern Ireland] and the maintenance of discipline;
(f) the suspension or dismissal of members of [F11the Police Service of Northern Ireland] from membership of [F11the Police Service of Northern Ireland] and from the office of constable;
(g) the maintenance of personal records of members of [F11the Police Service of Northern Ireland];
(h) the duties which are or are not to be performed by members of [F11the Police Service of Northern Ireland];
(i) the treatment as occasions of police duty of attendance at meetings of the Police Association and of any body recognised by the [F13Department of Justice] for the purposes of section 35;
(j) the hours of duty, leave, pay and allowances of members of [F11the Police Service of Northern Ireland];

(k) the pensions and gratuities in respect of service as a member of [F11the Police Service of Northern Ireland] (including provision for the recognition for the purposes of such pensions and gratuities of service otherwise than as a member of the police force and for the payment and receipt of transfer values or of other lump sums made for the purpose of creating or restoring rights to such pensions and gratuities); and

(l) the issue, use and return of equipment.

[F14(2A) Subsection (2)(k) is subject to sections 18 and 19 of the Public Service Pensions Act (Northern Ireland) 2014 (restrictions on benefits provided under existing schemes).]

(3) Without prejudice to the powers conferred by this section, regulations under this section shall—

(a) establish, or make provision for the establishment of, procedures for cases in which a member of [F11the Police Service of Northern Ireland] may be dealt with by dismissal, requirement to resign, reduction in rank, reduction in rate of pay, fine, reprimand or caution; and

(b) make provision for securing that any case in which a senior officer may be dismissed or dealt with in any of the other ways mentioned in paragraph (a) is decided by the [F15Board].

(4) Without prejudice to the powers conferred by this section, regulations under this section shall provide for appeals to an appeals tribunal by members of [F11the Police Service of Northern Ireland] who are dismissed, required to resign or reduced in rank—

(a) in a case where there is no right of appeal to any other person, by a decision taken in proceedings under regulations made in accordance with subsection (3); and

(b) in a case where there is a right of appeal to another person, by a decision of that person.

(5) In relation to any matter as to which provision may be made by regulations under this section, the regulations may, subject to subsection (3)(b)—

(a) authorise or require provision to be made by, or confer discretionary powers on, the [F16Department of Justice], the [F15Board], the Chief Constable or other persons; or

(b) authorise or require the delegation by any person of functions conferred on him by or under the regulations.

(6) Regulations under this section as to conditions of service shall secure that appointments for fixed terms are not made except[F17—

(a) as permitted by section 36A of the Police (Northern Ireland) Act 2000; or (b)] where the person appointed holds the rank of superintendent or a higher rank.

(7) Where regulations made in accordance with subsection (2)(a) vary the ranks held by members of [F11the Police Service of Northern Ireland], the regulations may make such amendments as appear to the [F16Department of Justice] to be necessary or expedient to any statutory provision (including this Act) containing a reference to any rank held by a member of [F11the Police Service of Northern Ireland].
(8) The Department of Justice shall consult both the Board and the Police Association before making any regulations under this section....

(9) Subsection (8) does not apply to—

(a) regulations made by virtue of subsection (2)(k), as to which the Department of Justice shall invite the views of the Police Advisory Board for England and Wales, or

(b) regulations made by virtue of subsection (2)(j) or (l), as to which section 25A applies.]

I3 S. 25 partly in force; s. 25 not in force at Royal Assent see s. 75(1); s. 25(1)-(3)(5)-(8) in force at 9.2.1999 by S.R. 1999/48, art. 3 (with art. 4)
25A Regulations about hours, leave, pay or equipment: consultation etc

(1) This section applies where the Department of Justice is proposing to make regulations under section 25 by virtue of subsection (2)(j) or (l) of that section.

(2) In the case of regulations concerning officers of or below the rank of chief superintendent, before making the regulations the Department of Justice shall (subject to subsection (5))—

(a) refer the matter to the Police Remuneration Review Body under section 64B(3) of the Police Act 1996, and

(b) consider that body's report on the matter.

(3) In the case of regulations concerning officers above the rank of chief superintendent, before making the regulations the Department of Justice shall (subject to subsection (5))—

(a) consider advice on the matter from the Senior Salaries Review Body, or

(b) where subsection (4) applies, refer the matter to the Police Remuneration Review Body under section 64B(3) of the Police Act 1996 and consider that body's report on the matter.

(4) This subsection applies where—

(a) the regulations would affect officers who are not above the rank of chief superintendent as well as those who are, and

(b) the Department of Justice thinks that it would be preferable for the matter to be considered by the same body.

(5) The duty to consider advice from the Senior Salaries Review Body or to refer the matter to the Police Remuneration Review Body does not apply if Department of Justice considers that—

(a) there is not enough time to do so because the need to make the regulations is so urgent, or

(b) it is unnecessary to do so by reason of the nature of the proposed regulations.

(6) In all cases, before making the regulations the Department of Justice shall supply a draft of them to, and consider any representations made by—

(a) the Board,

(b) the Police Association, and

(c) the Chief Constable of the Police Service of Northern Ireland.

(7) The Department of Justice may by order amend this section in consequence of a change in the name or functions of the body for the time being specified in subsection (3)(a).]

Amendments (Textual)

F22 S. 25A inserted (1.9.2014) by Anti-social Behaviour, Crime and Policing Act 2014 (c. 12), ss. 134(2), 185(1) (with ss. 21, 33, 42, 58, 75, 93); S.I. 2014/2125, art. 2(d)

(1) The [F24 Department of Justice] may make regulations as to the government, administration and conditions of service of reserve constables.
(2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), regulations under this section may make provision with respect to—
(a) the ranks to be held by reserve constables;
(b) the appointment and promotion of reserve constables;
(c) the retirement of reserve constables;
(d) the conduct, efficiency and effectiveness of reserve constables and the maintenance of discipline;
(e) the suspension or dismissal of reserve constables from their office;
(f) the remuneration and allowances of reserve constables; and
(g) the application to reserve constables, subject to such modifications as may be prescribed by the regulations, of any provision made under section 25 or any other statutory provision with respect to pensions or gratuities payable to or in respect of members of the Police Service of Northern Ireland.

(2A) Subsection (2)(g) is subject to sections 18 and 19 of the Public Service Pensions Act (Northern Ireland) 2014 (restrictions on benefits provided under existing schemes).

(3) Without prejudice to the powers conferred by this section, regulations under this section shall establish, or make provision for the establishment of, procedures for cases in which a reserve constable may be dealt with by dismissal, requirement to resign, reduction in rank, reduction in rate of pay, fine, reprimand or caution.

(4) Without prejudice to the powers conferred by this section, regulations under this section shall provide for appeals to an appeals tribunal by reserve constables who are dismissed, required to resign or reduced in rank—
(a) in a case where there is no right of appeal to any other person, by a decision taken in proceedings under regulations made in accordance with subsection (3); and
(b) in a case where there is a right of appeal to another person, by a decision of that person.

(5) In relation to any matter as to which provision may be made by regulations under this section, the regulations may—
(a) authorise or require provision to be made by, or confer discretionary powers on, the Department of Justice, the Board, the Chief Constable or other persons; or
(b) authorise or require the delegation by any person of functions conferred on him by or under the regulations.

(6) The Department of Justice shall consult both the Board and the Police Association before making any regulations under this section.

(1) For the purposes of this section “relevant service” means—

(a) service in a police force in Great Britain, on which a member of [F30 Police Service of Northern Ireland] is engaged with the consent of the Chief Constable and the [F31] Department of Justice;

[F32] temporary service on which a member of the police force is engaged in accordance with arrangements made under paragraph 6(2) of Schedule 2 to the Police Reform Act 2002 (c. 30);]

[F34] (c) .................................................................

[F35] (ca) .................................................................

[F36] (cb) seconded service as a [F37 National Crime Agency officer] on which a member of the Police Service of Northern Ireland is engaged with the consent of the Chief Constable;]

[F38] (cc) .................................................................

(d) temporary service on which a member of [F30 Police Service of Northern Ireland] is engaged in accordance with arrangements under section 8 of this Act;

(e) temporary service as an inspector of constabulary under section 56 of the [M3 Police Act 1996 on which a member of [F30 Police Service of Northern Ireland] is engaged with the consent of the Chief Constable;

(f) temporary service under the Crown in connection with the provision by the Secretary of State of such organisations and services as are described in section 57 of the [M4 Police Act 1996 on which a member of [F30 Police Service of Northern Ireland] is engaged with the consent of the Chief Constable;

(g) service the expenses of which are payable under section 1(1) of the [M5 Police (Overseas Service) Act 1945, on which a member of [F30 Police Service of Northern Ireland] is engaged with the consent of the Chief Constable;
(h) service pursuant to an appointment under section 10 of the Overseas Development and Co-operation Act 1980, on which a member of the Police Service of Northern Ireland is engaged with the consent of the Chief Constable, or

(j) service in connection with the provision by the Secretary of State of assistance under the International Development Act 2001 on which a member of the Police Service of Northern Ireland is engaged with the consent of the Chief Constable.

(2) In this section “member of the Police Service of Northern Ireland” does not include the Chief Constable.

(3) Subject to subsections (4) to (7), a member of the Police Service of Northern Ireland engaged on relevant service shall be treated as if he were not a member of the Police Service of Northern Ireland during that service; but, except where a pension, allowance or gratuity becomes payable to him by virtue of regulations under section 25—

(a) he shall be entitled at the end of the period of relevant service to revert to the Police Service of Northern Ireland in the rank in which he was serving immediately before that period began; and

(b) he shall be treated as if he had been serving in the Police Service of Northern Ireland during the period of relevant service for the purpose of any scale prescribed by or under regulations made under section 25 fixing his rate of pay by reference to his length of service.

(4) A member of the Police Service of Northern Ireland may, when engaged on relevant service, be promoted in the Police Service of Northern Ireland, as if he were serving in it; and in any such case—

(a) the reference in paragraph (a) of subsection (3) to the rank in which he was serving immediately before the period of relevant service began shall be construed as a reference to the rank to which he is promoted; and

(b) for the purposes mentioned in paragraph (b) of that subsection he shall be treated as having served in that rank from the time of his promotion.

(5) A member of the Police Service of Northern Ireland who—

(a) while engaged on relevant service within subsection (1)(a), is dismissed from that service or is required to resign as an alternative to dismissal; or

(b) has completed a period of relevant service within subsection (1)(aa), (cc), (d), (e), (f), (h) or (j); or

(c) while engaged on relevant service within subsection (1)(g), is dismissed from that service by the disciplinary authority established by regulations made under section 1 of the Police (Overseas Service) Act 1945 or is required to resign as an alternative to dismissal, may be dealt with under regulations made in accordance with section 25(3) for anything done or omitted while he was engaged on that service as if that service had been service in the Police Service of Northern Ireland.

(6) For the purposes of subsection (5)(a), a certificate certifying that a person has been dismissed, or required to resign as an alternative to dismissal, shall be evidence of the fact so certified if it is given by or on behalf of the chief officer of the police force in which that person was engaged in relevant service.
(6A) Regulations made by virtue of section 25(3) or (4) in relation to a member of the PSNI who has completed a period of relevant service within subsection (1)(d) may provide for a relevant procedure to be treated for the purposes of the regulations as carried out in accordance with procedures for which provision is made by regulations made by virtue of section 25(3).

(6B) In subsection (6A) “relevant procedure” means an investigation, hearing or other procedure carried out in relation to the person concerned in a country or territory outside the United Kingdom in connection with the person’s relevant service.

(7) A member of the Police Service of Northern Ireland engaged on relevant service within subsection (1)(a)…(cb) or (cc)—

(a) shall continue to be a constable; and

(b) shall be treated for the purposes of sections 32, 33, 35 and 67 of this Act and sections 31A and 32 of the Police (Northern Ireland) Act 2000 as if he were a member of the Police Service of Northern Ireland.

(8) The Secretary of State shall be liable in respect of any unlawful conduct of a member of the Police Service of Northern Ireland engaged on relevant service within subsection (1)(e) or (f) in the performance or purported performance of his functions in like manner as a master is liable in respect of any unlawful conduct of his servants in the course of their employment, and shall, in the case of a tort, be treated for all purposes as a joint tortfeasor.

(9) The preceding provisions of this section apply to a police officer serving in the Police Service of Northern Ireland Reserve as they apply to a police officer serving in the Police Service of Northern Ireland, but with the substitution—

(a) for references to the Police Service of Northern Ireland of references to the Police Service of Northern Ireland Reserve;

(b) for the references in subsection (3) to section 25 of references to section 26; and

(c) for the reference in subsection (5) to section 25(3) of a reference to section 26(3).

30 Protection of members of the police force in executing warrants.

(1) No action shall be brought against a member of the police force in respect of any act done in execution of a warrant by reason of—
(a) any irregularity in the issuing of the warrant; or
(b) any lack of jurisdiction in the person who issued it.

(2) Where any such action is commenced, the judge may, on an application by the defendant supported by an affidavit of facts, order that the proceedings in such action be set aside with or without costs.

31 Property coming into the possession of the police.

(1) Where any property has come into the possession of the police in connection with their investigation of a suspected offence, a court of summary jurisdiction, on an application under this subsection, may—
(a) make an order for the delivery of the property to the person appearing to the court to be the owner of the property; or
(b) where the owner cannot be ascertained, make such order with respect to the property as the court thinks fit.

(2) An application under subsection (1) in relation to any property may be made—
(a) by a member of the police force; or
(b) by a person claiming an interest in the property.

(3) An order under subsection (1) does not affect the right of any person to take, within 6 months from the date of the order, legal proceedings against any person in possession of property delivered by virtue of the order for the recovery of the property; but, on the expiration of that period, the right shall cease.

(4) The [Department of Justice] may make regulations for the disposal of property which has come into the possession of the police (whether as mentioned in subsection (1) or otherwise), in cases where—
(a) the owner of the property has not been ascertained; and
(b) no order of a competent court has been made with respect to the property.

(5) Regulations under subsection (4) may—
(a) authorise the sale of property;
(b) authorise the application of any money which has come into the possession of the police as mentioned in that subsection and the proceeds of any such sale as is mentioned in paragraph (a)—
(i) to defray expenses incurred under the regulations;
(ii) to pay reasonable compensation to persons by whom property has been delivered to the police; and
(iii) for such other purposes as may be specified in or determined under the regulations;
(c) provide that where, in the case of property other than money—
(i) the property has remained in the possession of the police for at least a year;
(ii) the police would under the regulations have power to sell the property;
(iii) in the opinion of the [Board], the property can be used for police purposes; and
(iv) [F68 the Board] determines, in such manner as may be prescribed by the regulations, that the property is to be retained by, the [F68 Board] is to become the owner of the property on the making of the determination or at such later time as the regulations may specify;
(d) in relation to property which is in the possession of the police by virtue of Article 11 of the [M9 Criminal Justice (Northern Ireland) Order 1994, make (subject to subsection (6)) provision for disposal (including disposal by vesting in the [F68 Board]) in cases where no application under subsection (1) by a claimant of the property has been made within 6 months from the date on which the order was made or no such application has succeeded;
(e) provide for the publication of determinations under paragraph (c)(iv).

(6) Regulations under subsection (4) may not provide for the vesting in the [F68 Board] of property in relation to which an order has been made under Article 12 of the [M10 Criminal Justice (Northern Ireland) Order 1994.

(7) Except as provided by subsection (8), property shall not be sold unless it has remained in the possession of the police for at least a year.

(8) Property may be sold at any time if—
(a) the property is perishable; or
(b) custody of the property would involve unreasonable expense or inconvenience, but the proceeds of sale shall not be disposed of unless they have remained in the possession of the police for at least a year.

(9) Where property is in the possession of the police by virtue of Article 11 of the [M11 Criminal Justice (Northern Ireland) Order 1994—
(a) no application shall be made under subsection (1) by any claimant after the expiration of 6 months from the date on which the order in respect of the property was made under that Article;
(b) no such application shall succeed unless the claimant satisfies the court either
(i) that he had not consented to the offender having possession of the property; or
(ii) where an order is made under paragraph (1)(a) of that Article, that he did not know, and had no reason to suspect, that the property was likely to be used for the purpose mentioned in that sub-paragraph.

PART IV

POLICE REPRESENTATIVE INSTITUTIONS

32 Police Association for Northern Ireland.

(1) There shall continue to be a Police Association for Northern Ireland for the purpose of representing members of the police force in all matters affecting their welfare and efficiency, except for—
   (a) questions of promotion affecting individuals; and
   (b) (subject to subsection (2)) questions of discipline affecting individuals.

(2) The Police Association may represent a member of the police force at any proceedings brought under regulations made in accordance with section 25(3) or 26(3) or on an appeal from any such proceedings.

(3) Except on such an appeal or as provided by regulations made as mentioned in subsection (2), a member of the police force may only be represented under subsection (2) by another member of the police force.

(4) The Police Association shall be entirely independent of, and subject to subsection (5) unassociated with, any body or person outside the police services of the United Kingdom, but may employ persons outside those services in an administrative or advisory capacity.

(5) The [F69Department of Justice]—
   (a) may authorise the Police Association or a section thereof to be associated with a person or body outside the police services of the United Kingdom in such cases and manner, and subject to such conditions and restrictions, as [F70the Department of Justice] may specify; and
   (b) may vary or withdraw an authorisation previously given;

and anything for the time being so authorised shall not be precluded by subsection (4).

35 Membership of trade unions.

(1) Subject to the following provisions of this section, a member of the police force shall not be a member of any trade union, or of any association having for its objects, or one of its objects, to control or influence the pay, pensions or conditions of service of any police force.

(2) Where a person was a member of a trade union before becoming a member of the police force he may, with the consent of the Chief Constable, continue to be a member of that union during the time of his service in the police force.

(3) In this section “trade union” has the meaning assigned to it by Article 3(1) of the Industrial Relations (Northern Ireland) Order 1992; and if any question arises whether any body is a trade union or an association to which this section applies, the question shall be determined by the Certification Officer for Northern Ireland.

(4) Nothing in this section applies to membership of the Police Association or of any body recognised by the Department of Justice for the purposes of this section as representing members of the police force who are not members of the Police Association.
40 Power to require use by police of specified facilities, equipment or services.

(1) The Department of Justice may by regulations make provision for requiring the police force to use specified facilities, equipment or services, or facilities, equipment or services of a specified description, if the Department of Justice considers that it would be in the interests of the efficiency or effectiveness of the police force for it to do so.

(2) Before making any regulations under this section, the Department of Justice shall consult—
   (a) the Board;
   (b) the Chief Constable; and
   (c) the Police Association.
41 Appointment of inspectors of constabulary.

(1) The [Department of Justice] may appoint from among Her Majesty’s Inspectors of Constabulary appointed under section 54 of the [Police Act 1996] such number of inspectors of constabulary for Northern Ireland as [the Department of Justice] may determine.

(2) The inspectors shall at least once in every year inspect and report to the [Department of Justice] on the efficiency and effectiveness of—
   (a) the Police Service of Northern Ireland;
   (b) the Police Service of Northern Ireland Reserve;
   (c) the police support staff; and
   (d) traffic wardens.

[3A The appropriate authority] may at any time require the inspectors to carry out an inspection under this section of the Police Service of Northern Ireland; and a requirement under this subsection may include a requirement for the inspection to be confined to a particular part of the Service, to particular matters or to particular activities of the Service.

(3B) Where the inspectors carry out an inspection under subsection (3A), they shall send a report on that inspection to the [appropriate authority].

[3C In subsections (3A) and (3B) “the appropriate authority” means, in relation to any inspection—
   (a) the Secretary of State, if the inspection relates (in whole or in part other than incidentally) to an excepted matter or reserved matter or to a matter in respect of which a function is conferred or imposed on the Secretary of State by or under a statutory provision;
   (b) otherwise, the Department of Justice;]
and in paragraph (a) “excepted matter” and “reserved matter” have the meanings given by section 4 of the Northern Ireland Act 1998.

[\(4\)] The inspectors shall—

(a) if the [Department of Justice] so directs, carry out an inspection of the Board’s compliance with the requirements of section 28 of the Police (Northern Ireland) Act 2000;

(b) carry out such other duties for the purpose of furthering the efficiency and effectiveness of the police, the police support staff and traffic wardens as the [Department of Justice] may from time to time direct;

(c) make such reports as the [Department of Justice] may from time to time direct.

(5) Any expenditure incurred for the purposes of or in connection with an inspection under this section shall be defrayed by the [Department of Justice].

Powers of Secretary of State in relation to reports and other duties of inspectors of constabulary

(1) For the purposes of subsections (2) to (8) information is “protected information” if the inclusion of the information in a report of the inspectors under section 41 would be against the interests of national security.

(2) If it appears to the Secretary of State that—
   (a) the inspectors are required to prepare a report under section 41 (other than a report on an inspection required by the Secretary of State under section 41(3A)), and
   (b) the report might contain (or once completed might contain) protected information, the Secretary of State may require the inspectors to refer the report to the Secretary of State (or, if the report is not completed when the requirement is imposed, to refer the report once it is completed).

(3) The Secretary of State must, within—
   (a) the period of 30 days after the date on which the inspectors refer the report to the Secretary of State, or
   (b) such longer period as may be agreed between the Secretary of State and the Department of Justice, notify the inspectors whether, in the opinion of the Secretary of State, the report contains any protected information.

(4) If—
   (a) it appears to the inspectors that a report under section 41 (other than a report on an inspection required by the Secretary of State under section 41(3A)) might contain protected information, and
   (b) the inspectors have not been required to refer the report to the Secretary of State under subsection (2), the inspectors must refer the report to the Secretary of State.

(5) The Secretary of State must, within—
   (a) the period of 30 days after the date on which the inspectors refer the report to the Secretary of State, or
   (b) such longer period as may be agreed between the Secretary of State and the Department of Justice, notify the inspectors whether, in the opinion of the Secretary of State, the report contains any protected information.

(6) Where the Secretary of State has required that a report be referred to the Secretary of State under subsection (2), or the inspectors are required under subsection (4) to refer a report to the Secretary of State, the inspectors must not disclose the report to anyone apart from the Secretary of State, except—
   (a) in accordance with subsection (7),
   (b) after being notified by the Secretary of State that, in the opinion of the Secretary of State, the report does not contain any protected information, or
   (c) after the period mentioned in subsection (3) or (5) has expired without any notification being given by the Secretary of State.
(7) Where the Secretary of State notifies the inspectors under subsection (3) or (5) that, in the opinion of the Secretary of State, a report contains protected information—

(a) the Secretary of State may direct the inspectors to exclude from the report any information that, in the opinion of the Secretary of State, is protected information,

(b) the inspectors must exclude that information from the report,

(c) the Secretary of State must inform the Department of Justice that the Secretary of State has given a direction under paragraph (a), and

(d) the Secretary of State must lay before Parliament a statement that the Secretary of State has given a direction under paragraph (a).

(8) When the inspectors provide to anyone a report from which information has been excluded under subsection (7), they must at the same time provide the report to the Secretary of State.

(9) For the purposes of subsections (10) to (14) information is “protected information” if it is information that, in the interests of national security, ought not to be disclosed by the inspectors.

(10) If it appears to the Secretary of State that any requirement imposed on the inspectors by the Department of Justice under section 41 may require them to disclose, otherwise than in a report, information that is or includes protected information, the Secretary of State may require the inspectors to refer the matter to the Secretary of State.

(11) If it appears to the inspectors that any requirement imposed on them by the Department of Justice under section 41 may require them to disclose, otherwise than in a report, information that is or includes protected information, they must refer the matter to the Secretary of State.

(12) The Secretary of State must, within—

(a) the period of 30 days after the date on which the inspectors refer a matter to the Secretary of State under subsection (10) or (11), or notify the inspectors whether, in the opinion of the Secretary of State, the information in question is or includes protected information.

(b) such longer period as may be agreed between the Secretary of State and the Department of Justice,

(13) Where the inspectors are required under subsection (10) or (11) to refer a matter to the Secretary of State, they must not disclose the information in question to anyone apart from the Secretary of State, except—

(a) in accordance with subsection (14),

(b) after being notified by the Secretary of State that, in the opinion of the Secretary of State, the information in question is not or does not include protected information, or

(c) after the period mentioned in subsection (12) has expired without any notification being given by the Secretary of State.

(14) Where the Secretary of State notifies the inspectors under subsection (12) that, in the opinion of the Secretary of State, the information in question is or includes protected information—

(a) the Secretary of State may set aside or modify the requirement imposed by the Department of Justice as the Secretary of State thinks appropriate so that the inspectors are not required to disclose any information that, in the opinion of the Secretary of State, is protected information;
(b) the inspectors must proceed accordingly;
(c) the Secretary of State must inform the Department of Justice that the Secretary of State has taken action under paragraph (a); and
(d) the Secretary of State must lay before Parliament a statement that the Secretary of State has taken action under paragraph (a).

Amendments (Textual)

F100 S. 41A inserted (12.4.2010) by The Northern Ireland Act 1998 (Devolution of Policing and Justice Functions) Order 2010 (S.I. 2010/976), art. 1(2), Sch. 3 para. 22 (with arts. 28-31)

42 Publication of reports of inspectors of constabulary.

(1) Subject to subsection (2), the Department of Justice shall arrange for any report received by it under section 41(2) and any report of an inspection under section 41(4)(a) to be published in such manner as appears to it to be appropriate.

(2) The Department of Justice may exclude from publication under subsection (1) any part of a report if, in its opinion, the publication of that part—
(a) would be prejudicial to public order; or
(b) might jeopardise the safety of any person.

(3) The Department of Justice shall send a copy of the published report to—
(a) the Board; and
(b) the Chief Constable.

(4) The Board shall invite the Chief Constable to submit comments on the published report to the Board before such date as it may specify.

(5) The Board shall prepare comments on the published report and shall arrange for—
(a) its comments;
(b) any comments submitted by the Chief Constable in accordance with subsection (4); and
(c) any response which the Board has to the comments submitted by the Chief Constable, to be published in such manner as appears to the Board to be appropriate.

(6) The Board shall send a copy of any document published under subsection (5) to the Department of Justice.

(6A) In relation to a report received by the Secretary of State under section 41(3B)—
(a) subsections (1) to (6) above apply as if references to the Department of Justice were references to the Secretary of State;
(b) under subsection (2) above, the Secretary of State may also exclude from publication under subsection (1) any part of the report if, in the Secretary of State’s opinion, the publication of that part would be against the interests of national security.
43 Criminal statistics.

(1) The Chief Constable shall, at such times and in such form as the Department of Justice may direct, transmit to the Department of Justice such particulars with respect to offences, offenders, criminal proceedings and the state of crime in Northern Ireland as the Department of Justice may require.

(2) The Department of Justice shall cause an abstract of the information transmitted under this section to be prepared and published in such manner as it thinks appropriate.

51 The Police Ombudsman for Northern Ireland.

(1) For the purposes of this Part there shall be a Police Ombudsman for Northern Ireland.

(2) The person for the time being holding the office of Police Ombudsman for Northern Ireland shall by that name be a corporation sole.

(3) Schedule 3 shall have effect in relation to the Police Ombudsman for Northern Ireland (in this Part referred to as “the Ombudsman”).

(4) The Ombudsman shall exercise his powers under this Part in such manner and to such extent as appears to him to be best calculated to secure—
   (a) the efficiency, effectiveness and independence of the police complaints system; and
   (b) the confidence of the public and of members of the police force in that system.

(5) The Independent Commission for Police Complaints for Northern Ireland is hereby abolished.

52 Complaints – receipt and initial classification of complaints.

(1) For the purposes of this Part, all complaints about the police force shall either—
   (a) be made to the Ombudsman; or
   (b) if made to a member of the police force, the Board, the Director or the Department of Justice, be referred immediately to the Ombudsman.

(2) Where a complaint—
   (a) is made to the Chief Constable; and
   (b) appears to the Chief Constable to be a complaint to which subsection (4) applies, the Chief Constable shall take such steps as appear to him to be desirable for the purpose of preserving evidence relating to the conduct complained of.

(3) The Ombudsman shall—
   (a) record and consider each complaint made or referred to him under subsection (1); and
   (b) determine whether it is a complaint to which subsection (4) applies.
(4) Subject to subsection (5), this subsection applies to a complaint about the conduct of a member of the police force which is made by, or on behalf of, a member of the public.

(5) Subsection (4) does not apply to a complaint in so far as it relates to the direction and control of the police force by the Chief Constable.

(6) Where the Ombudsman determines that a complaint made or referred to him under paragraph (1) is not a complaint to which subsection (4) applies, he shall refer the complaint to the Chief Constable, the Board, the Director or the Department of Justice as he thinks fit and shall notify the complainant accordingly.

(7) A complaint referred under subsection (6) shall be dealt with according to the discretion of the Chief Constable, the Board, the Director or the Department of Justice (as the case may be).

(8) Subject to subsection (9), where the Ombudsman determines that a complaint made or referred to him under subsection (1) is a complaint to which subsection (4) applies, the complaint shall be dealt with in accordance with the following provisions of this Part; and accordingly references in those provisions to a complaint shall be construed as references to a complaint in relation to which the Ombudsman has made such a determination.

(9) If any conduct to which a complaint wholly or partly relates is or has been the subject of disciplinary or criminal proceedings, none of the following provisions of this Part shall have effect in relation to the complaint in so far as it relates to that conduct.

(10) In the case of a complaint made otherwise than as mentioned in subsection (2)(a), the Chief Constable shall, if so requested by the Ombudsman, take such steps as appear to the Chief Constable to be desirable for the purpose of preserving evidence relating to the conduct complained of.

53 Complaints – informal resolution.

(1) The Ombudsman shall consider whether the complaint is suitable for informal resolution and may for that purpose make such investigations as he thinks fit.
(2) A complaint is not suitable for informal resolution unless—
   (a) the complainant gives his consent; and
   (b) it is not a serious complaint.

(3) If it appears to the Ombudsman that the complaint is suitable for informal resolution, he shall refer the complaint to the appropriate disciplinary authority.

(4) Where a complaint is referred under subsection (3), the appropriate disciplinary authority shall seek to resolve it informally and may appoint a member of the police force to do so on behalf of the authority.

(5) The Chief Constable shall, at the request of the Board, provide a member of the police force to be appointed by the Board under subsection (4).

(6) If, after attempts have been made to resolve a complaint informally, it appears to the appropriate disciplinary authority—
   (a) that informal resolution of the complaint is impossible; or
   (b) that the complaint is for any other reason not suitable for informal resolution, the appropriate disciplinary authority shall notify the Ombudsman accordingly and refer the complaint to him.

(7) Subject to subsection (8), no statement made by any person for the purpose of the informal resolution of a complaint shall be admissible in any subsequent criminal, civil or disciplinary proceedings.

(8) A statement is not rendered inadmissible by subsection (7) if it consists of or includes an admission relating to a matter which does not fall to be resolved informally.

54 Complaints – formal investigation.

(1) If—
   (a) it appears to the Ombudsman that a complaint is not suitable for informal resolution; or
   (b) a complaint is referred to the Ombudsman under section 53(6), the complaint shall be formally investigated as provided in subsection (2) or (3).

(2) Where the complaint is a serious complaint, the Ombudsman shall formally investigate it in accordance with section 56.

(3) In the case of any other complaint, the Ombudsman may as he thinks fit—
   (a) formally investigate the complaint in accordance with section 56; or
   (b) refer the complaint to the Chief Constable for formal investigation by a police officer in accordance with section 57.
Consideration of other matters by the Ombudsman.

(1) The Board, the Department of Justice... or the Secretary of State may refer to the Ombudsman any matter which—

(a) appears to the Board... or the Secretary of State to indicate that a member of the police force may have—

(i) committed a criminal offence; or
(ii) behaved in a manner which would justify disciplinary proceedings; and

(b) is not the subject of a complaint,

if, after consultation with the Ombudsman and the Chief Constable, it appears to the Board... or the Secretary of State that it is desirable in the public interest that the Ombudsman should investigate the matter.

(1A) The Secretary of State may refer a matter to the Ombudsman under subsection (1) only if it appears to the Secretary of State that the matter relates (in whole or in part) to an excepted matter or reserved matter (within the meaning given by section 4 of the Northern Ireland Act 1998).

(2) The Chief Constable shall refer to the Ombudsman any matter which appears to the Chief Constable to indicate that conduct of a member of the police force may have resulted in the death of some other person.

(3) Where any matter is referred to the Ombudsman under subsection (1) or (2), he shall formally investigate the matter in accordance with section 56.

(4) The Chief Constable may refer to the Ombudsman any matter which—

(a) appears to the Chief Constable to indicate that a member of the police force may have—

(i) committed a criminal offence; or
(ii) behaved in a manner which would justify disciplinary proceedings; and

(b) is not the subject of a complaint,

if it appears to the Chief Constable that it is desirable in the public interest that the Ombudsman should investigate the matter.

(4A) The Director shall refer to the Ombudsman any matter which—

(a) appears to the Director to indicate that a police officer—

(i) may have committed a criminal offence; or
(ii) may, in the course of a criminal investigation, have behaved in a manner which would justify disciplinary proceedings; and

(b) is not the subject of a complaint,

unless it appears to the Director that the Ombudsman is already aware of the matter.

(4B) In subsection (4A) “criminal investigation” has the same meaning as in Part 2 of the Criminal Procedure and Investigations Act 1996 (c. 25).

(5) Where any matter is referred to the Ombudsman under subsection (4)[ or (4A)], he shall formally investigate the matter in accordance with section 56 if it appears to him that it is desirable in the public interest that he should do so.

(6) The Ombudsman may of his own motion formally investigate in accordance with section 56 any matter which—
(a) appears to the Ombudsman to indicate that a member of the police force may have—
   (i) committed a criminal offence; or
   (ii) behaved in a manner which would justify disciplinary proceedings; and
(b) is not the subject of a complaint,
if it appears to the Ombudsman that it is desirable in the public interest that he should do so.

(7) The Ombudsman shall notify—
   (a) the [F139Board][F147, the Department of Justice][F148... or the Secretary of State, in the case of a matter referred under subsection (1);
   (b) the Chief Constable, in the case of a matter referred under subsection (2) or (4), of the outcome of any criminal or disciplinary proceedings brought against a member of the police force in respect of, or in connection with, the matter so referred.

57 Formal investigation by a police officer.

(1) Where a complaint is referred to the Chief Constable under section 54(3)(b), he shall appoint a police officer to investigate it formally on behalf of the Ombudsman.

(2) A member of the police force may not be appointed to investigate a complaint formally if he has previously been appointed to act in relation to it under section 53(4).
(3) The Ombudsman may require—
   (a) that no appointment of a person to conduct an investigation under this section shall be made unless the Ombudsman has given notice to the Chief Constable that he approves the person whom the Chief Constable proposes to appoint; or
   (b) if such an appointment has already been made and the Ombudsman is not satisfied with the person appointed, that—
      (i) the Chief Constable shall, as soon as is reasonably practicable, select another police officer and notify the Ombudsman that he proposes to appoint that person; and
      (ii) the appointment shall not be made unless the Ombudsman gives notice to the Chief Constable that he approves that person.

(4) The Ombudsman may supervise the investigation of any complaint under this section if he considers that it is desirable in the public interest for him to do so.

(5) Where the Ombudsman decides to supervise an investigation under this section he shall notify the Chief Constable to that effect.

(6) A member of a police force in Great Britain who is appointed to conduct an investigation under this section shall, for the purpose of conducting that investigation, have all the powers and privileges of a constable throughout Northern Ireland and the adjacent United Kingdom territorial waters; and subsection (3) of [F152 section 32 of the Police (Northern Ireland) Act 2000] applies for the purposes of this subsection as it applies for the purposes of subsection (2) of that section.

(7) The Ombudsman may impose requirements as to the conduct of an investigation which the Ombudsman is supervising; and it shall be the duty of a police officer to comply with any requirement imposed on him by virtue of this subsection.

(8) At the end of an investigation under this section the police officer appointed to conduct the investigation shall submit a report on the investigation to the Ombudsman.

Steps to be taken after investigation – mediation.

(1) If the Ombudsman—
   (a) determines that a report made under section 56(6) or 57(8) does not indicate that a criminal offence may have been committed by a member of the police force, and
   (b) considers that the complaint is not a serious one, he may determine that the complaint is suitable for resolution through mediation.

(2) If he does so, he must inform the complainant and the member of the police force concerned.

(3) If the complainant and the member of the police force concerned agree to attempt to resolve the complaint through mediation, the Ombudsman shall act as mediator.

(4) Anything communicated to the Ombudsman while acting as mediator is not admissible in evidence in any subsequent criminal, civil or disciplinary proceedings.

(5) But that does not make inadmissible anything communicated to the Ombudsman if it consists of or includes an admission relating to a matter which does not fall to be resolved through mediation.

(6) If a complaint is resolved through mediation under this section, no further proceedings under this Act shall be taken against the member of the police force concerned in respect of the subject matter of the complaint.

59 Steps to be taken after investigation – disciplinary proceedings.

(1) Subsection (1B) applies if—
   (a) the Director decides not to initiate criminal proceedings in relation to the subject matter of a report under section 56(6) or 57(8) sent to him under section 58(2); or
   (b) criminal proceedings initiated by the Director in relation to the subject matter of such a report have been concluded.
(1A) Subsection (1B) also applies if the Ombudsman determines that a report under section 56(6) or 57(8) does not indicate that a criminal offence may have been committed by a member of the police force and—

(a) he determines that the complaint is not suitable for resolution through mediation under section 58A; or

(b) he determines that the complaint is suitable for resolution through mediation under that section but—

(i) the complainant or the member of the police force concerned does not agree to attempt to resolve it in that way; or

(ii) attempts to resolve the complaint in that way have been unsuccessful.

(1B) The Ombudsman shall consider the question of disciplinary proceedings.

(2) The Ombudsman shall send the appropriate disciplinary authority a memorandum containing—

(a) his recommendation as to whether or not disciplinary proceedings should be brought in respect of the conduct which is the subject of the investigation;

(b) a written statement of his reasons for making that recommendation; and

(c) where he recommends that disciplinary proceedings should be brought, such particulars in relation to the disciplinary proceedings which he recommends as he thinks appropriate.

(2A) In a case mentioned in subsection (1A)(b), the Ombudsman shall, in considering the recommendation to be made in his memorandum, take into account the conduct of the member of the police force concerned in relation to the proposed resolution of the complaint through mediation.

(3) No disciplinary proceedings shall be brought by the appropriate disciplinary authority before it receives the memorandum of the Ombudsman under subsection (2).

(4) The Board shall advise the Ombudsman of what action it has taken in response to a recommendation contained in a memorandum sent to it under subsection (2); and nothing in the following provisions of this section has effect in relation to senior officers.

(5) If—

(a) a memorandum sent to the Chief Constable under subsection (2) contains a recommendation that disciplinary proceedings should be brought; but

(b) the Chief Constable is unwilling to bring such disciplinary proceedings, the Ombudsman may, after consultation with the Chief Constable, direct him to bring disciplinary proceedings.

(6) Subject to subsection (7)—

(a) it shall be the duty of the Chief Constable to comply with a direction under subsection (5);

(b) the Chief Constable may not discontinue disciplinary proceedings which he has brought in accordance with—

(i) a recommendation contained in a memorandum under subsection (2); or

(ii) a direction under subsection (5).

(7) The Ombudsman may give the Chief Constable leave—
(a) not to bring disciplinary proceedings which subsection (6)(a) would otherwise oblige him to bring; or
(b) to discontinue disciplinary proceedings with which subsection (6)(b) would otherwise require him to proceed.

(8) Regulations made in accordance with section 25(3) or 26(3) may establish, or make provision for the establishment of, a special procedure for any case in which disciplinary proceedings are brought—
(a) where a memorandum under subsection (2) recommending the bringing of those proceedings contains a statement to the effect that, by reason of exceptional circumstances affecting the case, the Ombudsman considers that such special procedures are appropriate; or
(b) in compliance with a direction under subsection (5).

(9) The Chief Constable shall advise the Ombudsman of what action he has taken in response to—
(a) a recommendation contained in a memorandum under subsection (2);
(b) a direction under subsection (5).

Immigration and customs enforcement functions

(1) The Ombudsman and the Secretary of State may enter into an agreement to establish, in relation to the exercise of specified enforcement functions by relevant officials, procedures which correspond to or are similar to any of those established by virtue of this Part.

(2) Where no such procedures are in force in relation to a particular kind of relevant official, the Secretary of State may by order establish such procedures in relation to the exercise of specified enforcement functions by that kind of relevant official.

(3) “Relevant officials” means—

(a) immigration officers and other officials of the Secretary of State exercising functions relating to immigration or asylum;

(b) designated customs officials, and officials of the Secretary of State, exercising customs functions (within the meaning of Part 1 of the Borders, Citizenship and Immigration Act 2009);

(c) the Director of Border Revenue exercising customs revenue functions (within the meaning of that Part of that Act), and persons exercising such functions of the Director;

(d) persons providing services pursuant to arrangements relating to the discharge of a function within paragraph (a), (b), or (c).

(4) “Enforcement functions” includes, in particular—

(a) powers of entry,

(b) powers to search persons or property,

(c) powers to seize or detain property,

(d) powers to arrest persons,

(e) powers to detain persons, and

(f) powers to examine persons or otherwise to obtain information (including powers to take fingerprints or to acquire other personal data).

(5) “Specified” means specified in an agreement under subsection (1) or an order under subsection (2).

(6) “Immigration officer” means a person appointed under paragraph 1(1) of Schedule 2 to the Immigration Act 1971.
Part VII – Police complaints and disciplinary proceedings

An agreement under section 60ZB may at any time be varied or terminated—
(a) by the Secretary of State, or
(b) by the Ombudsman, with the consent of the Secretary of State.

Before making an order under section 60ZB the Secretary of State must consult the Ombudsman and such persons as the Secretary of State thinks appropriate.

An agreement or order under section 60ZB may provide for payment by the Secretary of State to or in respect of the Ombudsman.

An agreement or order under section 60ZB must relate only to the exercise of enforcement functions—
(a) wholly in Northern Ireland, or
(b) partly in Northern Ireland and partly in another part of the United Kingdom.

An agreement or order under section 60ZB must relate only to the exercise of enforcement functions on or after the day on which the agreement or order is made.

An agreement or order under section 60ZB must not provide for procedures in relation to so much of any complaint or matter as relates to functions conferred by or under Part 8 of the Immigration and Asylum Act 1999 (detained persons & removal centres etc.).

The Ombudsman may investigate a current practice or policy of the police if—
(a) the practice or policy comes to his attention under this Part, and
(b) he has reason to believe that it would be in the public interest to investigate the practice or policy.

But subsection (1) does not authorise the Ombudsman to investigate a practice or policy to the extent that the practice or policy is concerned with conduct of a kind mentioned in section 65(5) of the Regulation of Investigatory Powers Act 2000 (conduct which may be within jurisdiction of tribunal established under section 65 of that Act).

If the Ombudsman decides to conduct an investigation under this section he shall immediately inform the Chief Constable, the Board and the Department of Justice of—his decision to conduct the investigation,
(b) his reasons for making that decision, and
(c) the practice or policy into which the investigation is to be conducted.

Where it appears to the Ombudsman that an investigation may relate wholly or in part to—

(a) a matter in respect of which a function is conferred or imposed on the Secretary of State by or under a statutory provision, or
(b) an excepted matter or reserved matter (within the meaning given by section 4 of the Northern Ireland Act 1998), the Ombudsman shall also immediately inform the Secretary of State of the matters mentioned in subsection (3)(a) to (c).]

(4) When an investigation under this section has been completed the Ombudsman shall report on it to the Chief Constable and the Board.

(5) The Ombudsman shall send a copy of his report to the Secretary of State, if the investigation relates wholly or in part to—

(a) a matter in respect of which a function is conferred or imposed on the Secretary of State by or under a statutory provision, or
(b) an excepted matter (within the meaning given by section 4 of the Northern Ireland Act 1998).

The Ombudsman shall send a copy of his report to the Department of Justice, if the investigation relates wholly or in part to a matter in respect of which a function is conferred or imposed on the Department of Justice by or under a statutory provision.

61 Reports.

(1) The Ombudsman shall, at the request of the appropriate authority, report to the appropriate authority on such matters relating generally to the functions of the Ombudsman as the appropriate authority may specify, and the Ombudsman may for that purpose carry out research into any such matters.

(2) The Ombudsman may make a report to the appropriate authority on any matters coming to the Ombudsman’s attention under this Part to which the Ombudsman considers that the appropriate authority’s attention should be drawn in the public interest.

In subsections (1) and (2) “the appropriate authority” means, in relation to any matter
(a) the Secretary of State, if the matter relates (in whole or in part other than incidentally) to an excepted matter or reserved matter or to a function conferred or imposed on the Secretary of State by or under a statutory provision;

(b) otherwise, the Department of Justice;

and in paragraph (a) “excepted matter” and “reserved matter” have the meanings given by section 4 of the Northern Ireland Act 1998.

The Ombudsman shall, not later than 3 months after the end of each financial year, make to the [F176 Department of Justice] a report on the discharge of the Ombudsman’s functions during that year.

The Ombudsman shall—

(a) keep under review the working of this Part; and

(b) at least once every five years, make a report on it to the [F176 Department of Justice].

The Ombudsman shall send a copy of any report under this section to—

(a) the [F177 Board] and the Chief Constable; and

(b) at least once every five years, make a report on it to the [F176 Department of Justice].

The Department of Justice shall—

(a) lay before the Northern Ireland Assembly a copy of every report received by the Department under this section; and

(b) cause every such report to be published.

Section 41(3) of the Interpretation Act (Northern Ireland) 1954 applies for the purposes of subsection (5A)(a) in relation to the laying of a report under this section as if it applies in relation to the laying of a statutory document under an enactment.

The Secretary of State shall—

(a) lay before both Houses of Parliament a copy of every report received by him under this section; and

(b) cause every such report to be published.

The Ombudsman shall send to the [F177 Board] any statistical or other general information which the Ombudsman considers should be brought to the attention of the [F177 Board] in connection with its functions under section 2(4)(a).
Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Police (Northern Ireland) Act 1998 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 22 February 2018. 62 Statements by Ombudsman about exercise of his functions.

The Ombudsman may, in relation to any exercise of his functions under this Part, publish a statement as to his actions, his decisions and determinations and the reasons for his decisions and determinations.

63 Restriction on disclosure of information.

(1) No information received by a person to whom this subsection applies in connection with any of the functions of the Ombudsman under this Part shall be disclosed by any person who is or has been a person to whom this subsection applies except—
(a) to a person to whom this subsection applies;
(b) to the Department of Justice or the Secretary of State;

c) to other persons in or in connection with the exercise of any function of the Ombudsman;

d) for the purposes of any criminal, civil or disciplinary proceedings; or

e) in the form of a summary or other general statement made by the Ombudsman which—

(i) does not identify the person from whom the information was received; and

(ii) does not, except to such extent as the Ombudsman thinks necessary in the public interest, identify any person to whom the information relates.

(2) Subsection (1) applies to—

(a) the Ombudsman; and

(b) an officer of the Ombudsman.

(2A) Subsection (1) does not prevent the Ombudsman, to such extent as he thinks it necessary to do so in the public interest, from disclosing in a report of an investigation under section 60A—

(a) the identity of an individual, or

(b) information from which the identity of an individual may be established.

(3) Any person who discloses information in contravention of this section shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale.

(4) Nothing in subsection (1)(b) permits the disclosure to the Department of Justice of information—

(a) which has been supplied to the Ombudsman under section 66(1) of the Police (Northern Ireland) Act 2000 for the purposes of or in connection with an investigation under section 60A of this Act, and

(b) in relation to which the Ombudsman has been informed under section 66(3) of the Police (Northern Ireland) Act 2000 that the information is, in the opinion of the Chief Constable or the Board, information which ought not to be disclosed on the ground mentioned in section 76A(1)(a) of that Act.

   (c) procedures for giving a member of the police force, whose conduct is the subject of a complaint which falls to be resolved informally or through mediation, an opportunity to comment orally or in writing on the complaint;
   (d) for cases in which any provision of this Part is not to apply where—
      (i) a complaint, other than a complaint which falls to be resolved informally or through mediation, is withdrawn;
      (ii) the complainant indicates that he does not wish any further steps to be taken; or
      (iii) the complainant fails to indicate, in response to a request from the Ombudsman to do so, whether he wishes any further steps to be taken;
   (e) for enabling the Ombudsman to dispense with any requirement of this Part;
   (f) for enabling the Ombudsman to relinquish the supervision of the investigation of any complaint under section 57;
   (g) procedures for an investigation begun under section 56 or section 57 to be continued, where the Ombudsman so directs, as if it had originally been begun under the other of those sections;
   (h) procedures for the making of complaints and the reference of complaints and other matters under this Part;
   (i) that the Ombudsman shall be supplied with such information or documents of such description as may be prescribed at such time or in such circumstances as may be prescribed;
   (j) that any action, determination or decision of a prescribed description taken by the Ombudsman shall be notified to prescribed persons within a prescribed time and that, in connection with such a notification, the Ombudsman shall have power to supply the person notified with any relevant information;
   (k) for authorising or requiring the Ombudsman to provide to the appropriate disciplinary authority information relevant to the exercise by that authority of any power of suspension under regulations made by virtue of section 25(2)(f) or 26(2)(e).
   (l) that the Chief Constable shall have power to delegate any functions conferred on him by or by virtue of this Part;
   (m) for enabling the Ombudsman to pay to a complainant—
      (i) sums in respect of expenses incurred by him; and
(ii) allowances by way of compensation for the loss of his time, in accordance with such scales and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed;

(n) for enabling the Ombudsman, in such cases as may be prescribed, to make a recommendation to the Chief Constable for the payment by the Chief Constable to the complainant of compensation of such amount as the Ombudsman considers appropriate (but not exceeding such amount as may be prescribed).

[(2A) The Department of Justice may by regulations provide that, subject to such exceptions as may be prescribed—

(a) this Part shall not apply to a complaint about the conduct of a police officer which took place more than the prescribed period before the date on which the complaint is made or referred to the Ombudsman under section 52(1);

(b) the Ombudsman shall not investigate any matter referred to him under section 55(1), (2), (4) or (4A) if the actions, behaviour or conduct to which the matter relates took place more than the prescribed period before the date on which the reference is made;

(c) the Ombudsman shall not at any time commence a formal investigation under section 55(6) of any matter if the actions or behaviour to which the matter relates took place more than the prescribed period before that time;

(d) . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . .]

(3) Regulations under this section may authorise the Department of Justice to make provision for any purposes specified in the regulations.

(4) Before making any regulations under this section, the Department of Justice shall consult—

(a) the Ombudsman;

(b) the Board; and

(c) the Police Association.

PART VIII

MISCELLANEOUS AND GENERAL

Offences

66 Assaults on, and obstruction of, constables, etc.

(1) Any person who assaults, resists, obstructs or impedes a constable in the execution of his duty, or a person assisting a constable in the execution of his duty, shall be guilty of an offence.
(1A) Any person who assaults, resists, obstructs or impedes a designated person in the execution of his duty, or a person assisting a designated person in the execution of his duty, shall be guilty of an offence.

(2) A person guilty of an offence under subsection (1) or (1A) shall be liable—
   (a) on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months or to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum, or to both;
   (b) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 2 years or to a fine, or to both.

(3A) In subsection (1A) the references to the execution of the duty of a designated person are to—
   (a) the exercise of a power conferred on him by his designation;
   (b) the performance of a duty imposed on him by his designation.

(3B) In this section “designated person” means a person designated under section 30, 30A or 31 of the Police (Northern Ireland) Act 2003.

(4) This section also applies to a constable who is a member of a police force in Great Britain when he is executing a warrant, or otherwise acting in Northern Ireland, by virtue of any statutory provision conferring powers on him in Northern Ireland.

(5) In this section references to a person assisting a constable in the execution of his duty include references to any person who is neither a constable nor in the company of a constable but who—
   (a) is a member of an international joint investigation team that is led by a member of the Police Service of Northern Ireland; and
   (b) is carrying out his functions as a member of that team.

(6) In this section “international joint investigation team” means any investigation team formed in accordance with—
   (a) any framework decision on joint investigation teams adopted under Article 34 of the Treaty on European Union;
   (b) the Convention on Mutual Assistance in Criminal Matters between the Member States of the European Union, and the Protocol to that Convention, established in accordance with that Article of that Treaty; or
   (c) any international agreement to which the United Kingdom is a party and which is specified for the purposes of this section in an order made by the Department of Justice.

67 Impersonation, etc.

(1) Any person who with intent to deceive impersonates a member of the police force, or makes any statement or does any act calculated falsely to suggest that he is such a member, shall be guilty of an offence.

[\text{F214} (1A)] Any person who, with intent to deceive—

(a) impersonates a designated person; or

(b) makes any statement or does any act calculated falsely to suggest that he is a designated person; or

(c) makes any statement or does any act calculated falsely to suggest that he has powers as a designated person that exceed the powers he actually has, shall be guilty of an offence.

(2) Any person who, not being a constable, wears any article of police uniform in circumstances where it gives him an appearance so nearly resembling that of a member of the police force as to be calculated to deceive shall be guilty of an offence.

(3) A person guilty of an offence under subsection (1)[\text{F215}, (1A)] or (2) shall be liable—

(a) on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 months or to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum, or to both;

(b) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or to a fine, or to both.

(4) Any person who, not being a member of the police force, has in his possession any article of police uniform shall, unless he proves that he obtained possession of that article lawfully and has possession of it for a lawful purpose, be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale.

(5) In this section “article of police uniform” means any article of uniform or any distinctive badge or mark or document of identification usually issued to members of the police force or anything having the appearance of such an article, badge, mark or document.

[\text{F216} (6)] In this section “designated person” means a person designated under section 30[\text{F217}, 30A] or 31 of the Police (Northern Ireland) Act 2003.
58 Causing disaffection.

(1) Any person who—
   (a) causes, or does any act calculated to cause, disaffection among the members of the police force; or
   (b) induces, or does any act calculated to induce, any member of the police force to withhold his services, shall be guilty of an offence.

(2) A person guilty of an offence under subsection (1) shall be liable—
   (a) on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 months or to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum, or to both;
   (b) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 2 years or to a fine, or to both.

Amendments (Textual)

F239 Words in Sch. 3 para. 5(2) substituted (4.11.2001) by 2000 c. 32, s. 78(1), Sch. 6 para. 23(7)(a); S.R. 2001/396, art. 2, Sch.

6 (1) The Chief Constable may, on the application of the Ombudsman, provide members of the police force or other assistance for the purpose of enabling the Ombudsman to meet any special demand on his resources.

(2) If it appears to the Department of Justice—

   (a) that it is expedient that members of the police force or other assistance should be provided for the purpose of enabling the Ombudsman to meet any special demand on his resources; and

   (b) that satisfactory arrangements under sub-paragraph (1) cannot be made, or cannot be made in time, the Department of Justice may direct the Chief Constable to provide such members of the police force or other assistance for that purpose as may be specified in the direction.

(3) Directions given under sub-paragraph (2) may be amended or revoked by the Department of Justice.

(4) Before giving, amending or revoking any directions under this paragraph, the Department of Justice shall consult the Chief Constable and the Ombudsman.
7 (1) In this paragraph “relevant service” means—
   (a) temporary service with the Ombudsman on which a member of the police force is engaged in accordance with arrangements under paragraph 5; and
   (b) service by a member of the police force providing assistance to the Ombudsman under paragraph 6.

(2) A member of the police force on relevant service shall—
   (a) notwithstanding section 33 of the Police (Northern Ireland) Act 2000,[F243] be under the direction and control of the Ombudsman; but
   (b) have the same powers and privileges and be treated in all other respects as if he were not on relevant service.

(3) The Ombudsman shall be liable in respect of any unlawful conduct of members of the police force on relevant service in the performance or purported performance of their functions in like manner as a master is liable in respect of any unlawful conduct of his servants in the course of their employment, and shall, in the case of a tort, be treated for all purposes as a joint tortfeasor.

(4) The Ombudsman may, in such cases and to such extent as appear to him to be appropriate, pay—
   (a) any damages or costs awarded against a member of the police force in proceedings for any unlawful conduct of that member while on relevant service;
   (b) any costs incurred and not recovered by a member of the police force in such proceedings; and
   (c) any sum required in connection with the settlement of a claim that has or might have given rise to such proceedings.

(5) The Ombudsman may make arrangements for the legal representation of any member of the police force in any proceedings mentioned in sub-paragraph (4).
Assistance by members of a police force in Great Britain

8 (1) The Ombudsman may enter into arrangements with the chief officer of a police force in Great Britain for members of that police force to be engaged for a period of temporary service with the Ombudsman.

(2) Arrangements under this paragraph with the chief officer of a police force in Great Britain shall provide for the payment by the Ombudsman to the local policing body maintaining that police force of such contribution as may be determined by or in accordance with the arrangements.

(3) In the following provisions of this paragraph “relevant service” means temporary service with the Ombudsman on which a member of a police force in Great Britain is engaged in accordance with arrangements under this paragraph.

(4) Notwithstanding anything in any other statutory provision, a member of a police force in Great Britain shall, while engaged on relevant service—
   (a) be under the direction and control of the Ombudsman; and
   (b) have all the powers and privileges of a constable throughout Northern Ireland and the adjacent United Kingdom territorial waters; and subsection (3) of section 32 of [Police (Northern Ireland) Act 2000] applies for the purposes of this sub-paragraph as it applies for the purposes of subsection (2) of that section.

(5) The Ombudsman shall be liable in respect of torts committed by members of a police force in Great Britain on relevant service in the performance or purported performance of their functions in like manner as a master is liable in respect of torts committed by his servants in the course of their employment, and shall in respect of any such tort be treated for all purposes as a joint tortfeasor.

(6) The Ombudsman may, in such cases and to such extent as appear to him to be appropriate, pay—
   (a) any damages or costs awarded against a member of a police force in Great Britain in proceedings for a tort committed by that member while on relevant service;
   (b) any costs incurred and not recovered by such a member in such proceedings; and
   (c) any sum required in connection with the settlement of a claim that has or might have given rise to such proceedings.

(7) The Ombudsman may make arrangements for the legal representation of any member of the police force in Great Britain in any proceedings mentioned in sub-paragraph (6).

(8) In the application of this paragraph to England and Wales, any expression used in this paragraph and in the Police Act 1996 has the same meaning in this paragraph as in that Act.

(9) In the application of this paragraph to Scotland, the reference to “police authority” is to the Scottish Police Authority.
Exercise of functions

9  Any functions of the Ombudsman under this Act may be performed by any officer of the Ombudsman authorised for the purpose by the Ombudsman.

Evidence

10  A document purporting to be duly signed by, or on behalf of, the Ombudsman shall be received in evidence and, unless the contrary is proved, be taken to be so signed.

Finance

11  The [F249 Department of Justice] shall pay to the Ombudsman such sums as appear to the [F249 Department of Justice] to be appropriate for defraying the expenses of the Ombudsman under this Act.

SCHEDULE 5 – Transitional provisions and savings

PART I

GENERAL

Saving for pensions, etc. under repealed provisions

1 Where any statutory provision relating to or affecting pensions or other gratuities or allowances is repealed by this Act and not re-enacted, that repeal does not affect the future operation of that provision as respects pensions, gratuities or allowances in respect of any service completed before the date on which the repeal takes effect.

Statutory references to Royal Irish Constabulary, etc.

2 Any reference in any statutory provision passed or made before 1st June 1922 to a person holding a particular rank in the Royal Irish Constabulary shall be construed as a reference to a member of the [Police Service of Northern Ireland] of the corresponding rank.

Power to make other transitional or saving provisions

3 The Secretary of State may by order make such other transitional or saving provisions as appear to him to be necessary or expedient in connection with the coming into operation of any provision of this Act.
PART II

6  (1) Subject to sub-paragraphs (5) and (6), this paragraph applies to any person who immediately before the transfer date is employed by the Commission.

(2) A contract of employment between a person to whom this paragraph applies and the Commission shall have effect from the transfer date as if originally made between that person and the Ombudsman.

(3) Without prejudice to sub-paragraph (2)—

(a) all the Commission’s rights, powers, duties and liabilities under or in connection with a contract to which that sub-paragraph applies shall by virtue of this paragraph be transferred to the Ombudsman on the transfer date; and

(b) anything done before that date by or in relation to the Commission in respect of that contract or the employee shall be deemed from that date to have been done by or in relation to the Ombudsman.

(4) Sub-paragraphs (2) and (3) are without prejudice to any right of an employee to terminate his contract of employment if a substantial change is made to his detriment.
in his working conditions, but no such right shall arise by reason only of the change in employer effected by this paragraph.

(5) This paragraph does not apply to a person if his contract of employment terminates on the day immediately before the transfer date.

(6) Where a person—
   (a) has, prior to the transfer date, entered into a contract of employment with the Commission which is to come into effect on or after that date; and
   (b) would, if the contract had come into effect before that date, have been a person to whom this paragraph applies, he shall be treated as if he were a person to whom this paragraph applies.
