(3) The Police Authority shall secure that the Northern Ireland Police Service is efficient and effective.

(4) In carrying out its duty under subsection (3), the Police Authority shall keep itself informed as to—
PART I

(e) any code of practice issued by the Secretary of State under section 38.

3.—(1) The Police Authority, with the approval of the Secretary of State, shall appoint a chief executive officer who shall be secretary to the Authority and carry out such other functions as may be assigned to him by the Authority.

(2) The terms and conditions of service of the chief executive officer of the Police Authority shall be such as the Authority may, with the approval of the Secretary of State, determine.

(3) The Police Authority may, with the approval of the Secretary of State as to numbers and terms and conditions of service, employ persons to assist the police force or otherwise to enable the Authority to discharge its functions.

(4) The Police Authority may make arrangements for administrative, secretarial or other assistance to be provided for the Authority by persons employed in the civil service.

(7) On being given reasonable notice by a district council of a meeting of that council at which questions on the discharge of the Authority’s functions are to be put, the Police Authority shall nominate one or more of its members to attend the meeting to answer those questions.

the Police Authority or the Secretary of State as he thinks fit and shall notify the complainant accordingly.

(7) A complaint referred under subsection (6) shall be dealt with suitable for informal resolution and may for that purpose make such investigations as he thinks fit.

(2) A complaint is not suitable for informal resolution unless—the appropriate disciplinary authority shall notify the Ombudsman accordingly and refer the complaint to him.

(2) The Chief Constable shall refer to the Ombudsman any matter which appears to the Chief Constable to indicate that conduct of a member of the police force may have resulted in the death of some other person.
