Best value inspections

F45 Inspections

(1) The Secretary of State may appoint a person to carry out an inspection of a specified best value authority's compliance with the requirements of this Part in relation to specified functions.

(2) The Secretary of State may appoint assistant inspectors for the purposes of the inspection.

(3) The appointment of an assistant inspector must be made on the recommendation of the inspector, unless the Secretary of State thinks that the urgency of the inspection makes it necessary to dispense with this requirement.

(4) In carrying out an inspection, the inspector and any assistant inspector must—

(a) have regard to any guidance issued by the Secretary of State generally in relation to inspections, and

(b) comply with any directions issued by the Secretary of State in relation to that inspection.]
11 Inspectors’ powers and duties.

(1) An inspector has a right of access at all reasonable times—
   (a) to any premises of the best value authority concerned, and
   (b) to any document relating to the authority which appears to him to be necessary for the purposes of the inspection.

[F47(1A) The right conferred by subsection (1)(b) includes power to inspect, copy or take away the document.]

(2) An inspector—
   (a) may require a person holding or accountable for any such document to give him such information and explanation as he thinks necessary, and
   (b) may require that person to attend before him in person to give the information or explanation or to produce the document.

[F48(2A) In relation to a document kept in electronic form, the power in subsection (2)(b) to require a person to produce a document includes power to require it to be produced in a form in which it is legible and can be taken away.

(2B) In connection with inspecting such a document, an inspector—
   (a) may obtain access to, and inspect and check the operation of, any computer and associated apparatus or material which he considers is or has been used in connection with the document;
   (b) may require a person within subsection (2C) to afford him such reasonable assistance as he may require for that purpose.

(2C) A person is within this subsection if he is—
   (a) the person by whom or on whose behalf the computer is or has been used; or
(b) a person having charge of, or otherwise concerned with the operation of, the computer, apparatus or material.

(3) A best value authority shall provide an inspector with every facility and all information which he may reasonably require for the purposes of the inspection.

(4) An inspector shall—
   (a) give three clear days’ notice of any requirement under this section, and
   (b) ..., if so required, produce documents identifying himself.

(5) A person who without reasonable excuse obstructs the exercise of any power conferred by this section or fails to comply with a requirement of an inspector under this section is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale.

(6) Any expenses incurred by an inspector in connection with proceedings for an offence under subsection (5) alleged to have been committed in relation to an inspection of a best value authority are, so far as not recovered from any other source, recoverable from the authority.

[FS1] (7) In this section “inspector” means—
   (a) an inspector or assistant inspector appointed under section 10(1) or (2).

Reports of inspections under section 10A

(1) Where the Auditor General for Wales has carried out an inspection of an authority under section 10A he shall issue a report.

(2) A report—
(a) shall mention any matter in respect of which the Auditor General for Wales believes as a result of an inspection that the authority is failing to comply with the requirements of this Part, and
(b) may, if it mentions a matter under paragraph (a), recommend that the Secretary of State give a direction under section 15.

(3) The Auditor General for Wales—
(a) shall send a copy of a report to the authority concerned, and
(b) may publish a report and any information in respect of a report.

(4) If a report recommends that the Secretary of State give a direction under section 15, the Auditor General for Wales shall as soon as reasonably practicable—
(a) arrange for the recommendation to be published, and send a copy of the report to the Secretary of State.

(4A) If a report relates to any extent to the administration of housing benefit or council tax benefit and the Auditor General for Wales thinks fit to do so, he shall as soon as reasonably practicable send a copy of the report to the Secretary of State.

(5) If a report states that the Auditor General for Wales believes as a result of an inspection that a Welsh best value authority is failing to comply with the requirements of this Part, the next performance plan prepared by the authority under section 6 must record—
(a) that fact, and
(b) any action taken by the authority as a result of the report.
14 Inspections: housing benefit and council tax benefit.

(1) The following shall be substituted for section 139A(1) and (2) of the Social Security Administration Act 1992 (reports on administration of housing benefit and council tax benefit)—

“(1) The Secretary of State may authorise persons to consider and report to him on the administration by authorities of housing benefit and council tax benefit.

(2) The Secretary of State may ask persons authorised under subsection (1) to consider in particular—

(a) authorities’ performance in the prevention and detection of fraud relating to housing benefit and council tax benefit;

(b) authorities’ compliance with the requirements of Part I of the Local Government Act 1999 (best value).

(2A) A person may be authorised under subsection (1)—

(a) on such terms and for such period as the Secretary of State thinks fit;

(b) to act generally or in relation to a specified authority or authorities;

(c) to report on administration generally or on specified matters.”

(2) In section 139C(1) of that Act (reports) for the words from “in particular” to the end there shall be substituted “in particular—

(a) in the prevention and detection of fraud relating to benefit, or

(b) for the purposes of complying with the requirements of Part I of the Local Government Act 1999 (best value).”

15 Secretary of State’s powers.

(1) This section applies in relation to a best value authority if the Secretary of State is satisfied that it is failing to comply with the requirements of this Part.

(2) Where this section applies in relation to an authority the Secretary of State may

In the case of any best value authority, direct it to carry out a review of its exercise of specified functions.

(3) Where this section applies in relation to an authority the Secretary of State may direct a local inquiry to be held into the exercise by the authority of specified functions.
(4) Subsections (2) to (5) of section 250 of the Local Government Act 1972 (inquiries) shall apply in relation to an inquiry which the Secretary of State directs to be held under this section as they apply in relation to an inquiry which a Minister causes to be held under that section.

(5) Where this section applies in relation to an authority the Secretary of State may direct the authority to take any action which he considers necessary or expedient to secure its compliance with the requirements of this Part.

(6) Where this section applies in relation to an authority the Secretary of State may direct—

(a) that a specified function of the authority shall be exercised by the Secretary of State or a person nominated by him for a period specified in the direction or for so long as the Secretary of State considers appropriate, and

(b) that the authority shall comply with any instructions of the Secretary of State or his nominee in relation to the exercise of that function and shall provide such assistance as the Secretary of State or his nominee may require for the purpose of exercising the function.

(6A) So far as is appropriate in consequence of a direction given under subsection (6)(a), a reference (however expressed) in an enactment, instrument or other document to a best value authority is to be read as a reference to the person by whom the function is exercisable.

(6B) Subsection (6C) applies if a direction given under subsection (6)(a) expires or is revoked without being replaced.

(6C) So far as is appropriate in consequence of the expiry or revocation, a reference (however expressed) in an instrument or other document to the person by whom the function was exercisable is to be read as a reference to the best value authority to which the direction was given.

(7) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision which—

(a) relates to an enactment which confers a function on him in respect of a function of a best value authority, and

(b) he considers necessary or expedient for the purposes of cases in which he makes a direction under subsection (6)(a).

(8) Regulations under subsection (7) may, in relation to the cases mentioned in subsection (7)(b)—

(a) disapply or modify an enactment of the kind mentioned in subsection (7)(a); and

(b) have an effect similar to the effect of an enactment of that kind.

(9) Subject to subsection (11), before giving a direction under this section the Secretary of State shall give the authority concerned an opportunity to make representations about—

(a) the report (if any) as a result of which the direction is proposed, and

(b) the direction proposed.

(10) . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . .

(11) The Secretary of State may give a direction without complying with subsection (9) if he considers the direction sufficiently urgent.
(12) Where the Secretary of State gives a direction without complying with subsection (9) ... he shall inform—
   (a) the authority concerned, and
   (b) such persons appearing to him to represent best value authorities as he considers appropriate, of the direction and of the reason why it was given without complying with subsection (9) or (10).

(13) A direction given under this section shall be enforceable by order of mandamus on the application of the Secretary of State.

Exercise of functions by best value authorities

16 Power [F88 of Secretary of State] to modify enactments and confer new powers.

(1) If the Secretary of State thinks that an enactment prevents or obstructs compliance by best value authorities with the requirements of this Part he may by order make provision modifying or excluding the application of the enactment [F88] in relation to—
   (a) all best value authorities,
   (b) particular best value authorities, or
   (c) particular descriptions of best value authority.

(2) The Secretary of State may by order make provision [F88] conferring on—
   (a) all best value authorities,
   (b) particular best value authorities, or
   (c) particular descriptions of best value authority.
which he considers necessary or expedient to permit or facilitate compliance with the requirements of this Part.

(3) An order under this section may—

(a) impose conditions on the exercise of any power conferred by the order (including conditions about consultation or approval);

(b) amend an enactment;

(c) include consequential, incidental and transitional provision;

(d) make different provision for different cases.

[F86(3A) The power under subsection (3)(d) includes, in particular, power to make different provision in relation to different authorities or descriptions of authority.]

[F87(3B) In exercising a power under this section, the Secretary of State must not make provision which has effect in relation to Wales unless he has consulted the Welsh Ministers.

(3C) In exercising a power under this section, the Secretary of State—

(a) must not make provision amending, or modifying or excluding the application of, Measures or Acts of the National Assembly for Wales without the consent of the National Assembly for Wales;

(b) must not make provision amending, or modifying or excluding the application of, subordinate legislation made by the Welsh Ministers (or the National Assembly for Wales established under the Government of Wales Act 1998) without the consent of the Welsh Ministers.

(3D) Subsection (3C) does not apply to the extent that the Secretary of State is making incidental or consequential provision.]

(4) [F88Subject to subsection (4A),] no order shall be made under this section unless a draft has been laid before, and approved by resolution of, each House of Parliament.

[F89(4A) An order under this section which is made only for the purpose of amending an earlier order under this section—

(a) so as to extend the earlier order, or any provision of the earlier order, to a particular authority or to authorities of a particular description, or

(b) so that the earlier order, or any provision of the earlier order, ceases to apply to a particular authority or to authorities of a particular description, shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.]

(5) In exercising a power conferred under subsection (2) a best value authority shall have regard to any guidance issued by the Secretary of State.

Orders under section 16: procedure.

(1) Before the Secretary of State makes an order under section 16 he shall consult such authorities or persons as appear to him to be representative of interests affected by his proposals.

(2) If, following consultation under subsection (1), the Secretary of State proposes to make an order under section 16 he shall lay before each House of Parliament a document explaining his proposals and, in particular—
   (a) setting them out in the form of a draft order, and
   (b) giving details of consultation under subsection (1) above.

(3) Where a document relating to proposals is laid before Parliament under subsection (2), no draft of an order under section 16 to give effect to the proposals (with or without modification) shall be laid before Parliament until after the expiry of the period of sixty days beginning with the day on which the document was laid.

(4) In calculating the period mentioned in subsection (3) no account shall be taken of any time during which—
   (a) Parliament is dissolved or prorogued, or
   (b) either House is adjourned for more than four days.

(5) In preparing a draft order under section 16 the Secretary of State shall consider any representations made during the period mentioned in subsection (3) above.

(6) A draft order laid before Parliament in accordance with section 16(4) must be accompanied by a statement of the Secretary of State giving details of—
(a) any representations considered in accordance with subsection (5) above, and
(b) any changes made to the proposals contained in the document laid before Parliament under subsection (2) above.

[F92(7) Nothing in this section applies to an order under section 16 which is made only for the purpose mentioned in section 16(4A).]

17A Power of Welsh Ministers to modify enactments and confer new powers

[F93(1) If the Welsh Ministers think that an enactment prevents or obstructs compliance by Welsh best value authorities with the requirements of this Part they may by order make provision modifying or excluding the application of the enactment in relation to—
(a) all Welsh best value authorities,
(b) particular Welsh best value authorities, or
(c) particular descriptions of Welsh best value authority.

(2) The Welsh Ministers may by order make provision conferring on—
(a) all Welsh best value authorities,
(b) particular Welsh best value authorities, or
(c) particular descriptions of Welsh best value authority,

any power which they consider necessary or expedient to permit or facilitate compliance with the requirements of this Part.

(3) An order under this section may—
(a) impose conditions on the exercise of any power conferred by the order (including conditions about consultation or approval);
(b) amend an enactment;
(c) include consequential, incidental and transitional provision;
(d) make different provision for different cases.

(4) The power under subsection (3)(d) includes, in particular, power to make different provision in relation to different authorities or descriptions of authority.

(5) An order under this section may not make a provision which, if it were a provision of a Measure of the National Assembly for Wales, would be outside the Assembly’s legislative competence.

(6) For the purposes of subsection (5), section 94(4) of the Government of Wales Act 2006 has effect as if paragraph (a) (matters within legislative competence) were omitted.

(7) Subject to subsection (8), no order shall be made under this section unless a draft has been laid before, and approved by resolution of, the National Assembly for Wales.

(8) An order under this section which is made only for the purpose of amending an earlier order under this section—
(a) so as to extend the earlier order, or any provision of the earlier order, to a particular authority or to authorities of a particular description,
(b) so that the earlier order, or any provision of the earlier order, ceases to apply to a particular authority or to authorities of a particular description, shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of the National Assembly for Wales.

(9) In exercising a power conferred under subsection (2) a Welsh best value authority shall have regard to any guidance issued by the Welsh Ministers.
