

Terrorism Act 2000

2000 CHAPTER 11

PART VII

NORTHERN IRELAND

Scheduled offences

65 Scheduled offence: interpretation.

- (1) In this Part “scheduled offence” means, subject to any relevant note in Part I or III of Schedule 9, an offence specified in either of those Parts.
- (2) Part II of that Schedule shall have effect in respect of offences related to those specified in Part I.
- (3) The Secretary of State may by order—
  - (a) add an offence to Part I or II of Schedule 9;
  - (b) remove an offence from Part I or II of that Schedule;
  - (c) amend Part I or II of that Schedule in some other way.

66 Preliminary inquiry.

- (1) In proceedings before a magistrates’ court for a scheduled offence, if the prosecution requests the court to conduct a preliminary inquiry into the offence the court shall grant the request.
- (2) In subsection (1) “preliminary inquiry” means a preliminary inquiry under the <sup>MI</sup>Magistrates’ Courts (Northern Ireland) Order 1981.
- (3) Subsection (1)—
  - (a) shall apply notwithstanding anything in Article 31 of that Order,
  - (b) shall not apply in respect of an offence where the court considers that in the interests of justice a preliminary investigation should be conducted into the offence under that Order, and

Status: Point in time view as at 12/04/2010.

Changes to legislation: Terrorism Act 2000, Cross Heading: Scheduled offences is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 14 March 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (c) shall not apply in respect of an extra-territorial offence (as defined in section 1(3) of the <sup>M2</sup>Criminal Jurisdiction Act 1975)).
- (4) Where a person charged with a scheduled offence is also charged with a non-scheduled offence, the non-scheduled offence shall be treated as a scheduled offence for the purposes of this section.

67 Limitation of power to grant bail.

- (1) This section applies to a person who—
  - (a) has attained the age of fourteen, and
  - (b) is charged with a scheduled offence which is neither being tried summarily nor certified by the Director of Public Prosecutions for Northern Ireland as suitable for summary trial.
- (2) Subject to subsections (6) and (7), a person to whom this section applies shall not be admitted to bail except—
  - (a) by a judge of the High Court or the Court of Appeal, or
  - (b) by the judge of the court of trial on adjourning the trial of a person charged with a scheduled offence.
- (3) <sup>F1</sup> .....
- (4) <sup>F1</sup> .....
- (5) Without prejudice to any other power to impose conditions on admission to bail, a judge admitting a person to bail under this section may impose such conditions as he considers—
  - (a) likely to result in the person’s appearance at the time and place required, or
  - (b) necessary in the interests of justice or for the prevention of crime.
- (6) Subsection (7) applies where a person to whom this section applies is a serving member of—
  - (a) any of Her Majesty’s forces, or
  - (b) the Royal Ulster Constabulary or the Royal Ulster Constabulary Reserve.
- (7) Where this subsection applies to a person he may be admitted to bail on condition that he is held in military or police custody if the person granting bail is satisfied that suitable arrangements have been made; and—
  - (a) bail on that condition may be granted by a judge or a resident magistrate, and
  - (b) it shall be lawful for the person to be held in military or police custody in accordance with the conditions of his bail.

Textual Amendments

There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)*

68 Bail: legal aid.

- (1) Where it appears to a judge of the High Court or the Court of Appeal—
  - (a) that a person charged with a scheduled offence intends to apply to be admitted to bail,
  - (b) that it is desirable in the interests of justice that he should have legal aid, and
  - (c) that he has not sufficient means to enable him to obtain that aid,the judge may assign to him a solicitor and counsel, or counsel only, in the application for bail.
- (2) If on a question of granting a person free legal aid under this section there is a doubt—
  - (a) whether his means are sufficient to enable him to obtain legal aid, or
  - (b) whether it is desirable in the interests of justice that he should have free legal aid,the doubt shall be resolved in favour of granting him free legal aid.
- (3) Articles 32, 36 and 40 of the <sup>M3</sup>Legal Aid, Advice and Assistance (Northern Ireland) Order 1981 (statements, payments, rules and stamp duty) shall apply in relation to legal aid under this section as they apply in relation to legal aid under Part III of that Order as if legal aid under this section were given in pursuance of a criminal aid certificate under Article 29 of that Order.

72 Time limits for preliminary proceedings.

- (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision, in respect of a specified preliminary stage of proceedings for a scheduled offence, as to the maximum period—
  - (a) to be allowed to the prosecution to complete the stage;
  - (b) during which the accused may, while awaiting completion of the stage, be in the custody of a magistrates’ court or the Crown Court in relation to the offence.
- (2) The regulations may, in particular—
  - (a) provide for a specified law about bail to apply in relation to cases to which custody or overall time limits apply (subject to any modifications which the Secretary of State considers it necessary to specify in the regulations);
  - (b) provide for time limits to cease to have effect in cases where the [<sup>F5</sup> Advocate General for Northern Ireland ] certifies after the institution of proceedings that an offence is not to be treated as a scheduled offence;
  - (c) make such provision with respect to the procedure to be followed in criminal proceedings as the Secretary of State considers appropriate in consequence of another provision of the regulations;
  - (d) make provision which has effect in relation to a non-scheduled offence where separate counts of an indictment allege a scheduled offence and a non-scheduled offence;
  - (e) enable the Crown Court in specified circumstances to extend or further extend a time limit at any time before it expires.
- (3) Subject to subsection (4), where an overall time limit expires before the completion of the stage of proceedings to which the limit applies, the accused shall be treated for all purposes as having been acquitted of the offence to which the proceedings relate.
- (4) Regulations under this section which provide for a custody time limit in relation to a preliminary stage shall have no effect where—
  - (a) a person escapes from the custody of a magistrates’ court or the Crown Court before the expiry of the custody time limit,
  - (b) a person who has been released on bail in consequence of the expiry of a custody time limit fails to surrender himself into the custody of the court at the appointed time, or

75 Mode of trial on indictment.

- (1) A trial on indictment of a scheduled offence shall be conducted by the court without a jury.
- (2) The court trying a scheduled offence on indictment under this section shall have all the powers, authorities and jurisdiction which the court would have had if it had been sitting with a jury (including power to determine any question and to make any finding which would, apart from this section, be required to be determined or made by a jury).
- (3) A reference in an enactment to a jury, the verdict of a jury or the finding of a jury shall, in relation to a trial under this section, be construed as a reference to the court, the verdict of the court or the finding of the court.
- (4) Where separate counts of an indictment allege a scheduled offence and a non-scheduled offence, the trial on indictment shall be conducted as if all the offences alleged in the indictment were scheduled offences.
- (5) Subsection (4) is without prejudice to section 5 of the <sup>M11</sup>Indictments Act (Northern Ireland) 1945 (orders for amendment of indictment, separate trial and postponement of trial).

Status: Point in time view as at 12/04/2010.

*Changes to legislation: Terrorism Act 2000, Cross Heading: Scheduled offences is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 14 March 2024. - (6) Without prejudice to subsection (2), where the court trying a scheduled offence on indictment—
  - (a) is not satisfied that the accused is guilty of the offence, but
  - (b) is satisfied that he is guilty of a non-scheduled offence of which a jury could have found him guilty on a trial for the scheduled offence, the court may convict him of the non-scheduled offence.
- (7) Where the court trying a scheduled offence convicts the accused of that or some other offence, it shall give a judgment stating the reasons for the conviction at or as soon as is reasonably practicable after the time of conviction.
- (8) A person convicted of an offence on a trial under this section without a jury may, notwithstanding anything in sections 1 and 10(1) of the <sup>M12</sup>Criminal Appeal (Northern Ireland) Act 1980, appeal to the Court of Appeal under Part I of that Act—
  - (a) against his conviction, on any ground, without the leave of the Court of Appeal or a certificate of the judge of the court of trial;
  - (b) against sentence passed on conviction, without that leave, unless the sentence is fixed by law.
- (9) Where a person is convicted of an offence on a trial under this section, the time for giving notice of appeal under section 16(1) of that Act shall run from the date of judgment if later than the date from which it would run under that subsection.

77 Possession: onus of proof.

- (1) This section applies to a trial on indictment for a scheduled offence where the accused is charged with possessing an article in such circumstances as to constitute an offence under any of the enactments listed in subsection (3).
- (2) If it is proved that the article—
  - (a) was on any premises at the same time as the accused, or
  - (b) was on premises of which the accused was the occupier or which he habitually used otherwise than as a member of the public, the court may assume that the accused possessed (and, if relevant, knowingly possessed) the article, unless he proves that he did not know of its presence on the premises or that he had no control over it.

80 Conviction during remission.

- (1) This section applies where—
  - (a) a person is sentenced to imprisonment or a term of detention in a young offenders centre for a period exceeding one year,
  - (b) he is discharged from prison or the centre in pursuance of prison rules, and
  - (c) before his sentence or term would have expired (but for the discharge) he commits, and is convicted on indictment of, a scheduled offence.
- (2) If the court before which he is convicted of the scheduled offence sentences him to imprisonment or a term of detention it shall in addition order him to be returned to prison or a young offenders centre for the period between the date of the order and the date on which the sentence or term mentioned in subsection (1) would have expired but for his discharge.
- (3) No order shall be made under subsection (2) if the sentence imposed by the court is—
  - (a) a suspended sentence,
