

Television Licences (Disclosure of Information) Act 2000

2000 CHAPTER 15

2 Use to which information may be put.

- (1) Information provided under section 1 may be used only in connection with television licences for which no fee is payable or reduced-fee licences.
- (2) “Reduced-fee licences” means television licences—
 - (a) for which a reduced fee is payable; and
 - (b) which fall within a prescribed category.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Television Licences (Disclosure of Information) Act 2000, Section 2.