[F33E Pupils' choices of local curriculum courses]

(1) A registered pupil of a maintained school has the right to elect to follow, during the period described in subsection (2) (“the entitlement period”), a course or courses of study included within the relevant local curriculum for that pupil. But this is subject to regulations made under subsection (3).

(2) The entitlement period—
   (a) begins on the first day of the academic year subsequent to the pupil having ceased to be of compulsory school age; and
   (b) ends on the day on which he or she attains the age of nineteen.

(3) Regulations may make provision as to the making of elections under this section, including in particular provision—
   (a) specifying the maximum number of courses of study of a particular type that a pupil has the right to elect to follow;
   (b) identifying points to be allotted to courses of study and preventing a pupil from having the right to elect to follow a combination of courses of study if their aggregate points exceed a specified amount;
   (c) as to the period during which elections are to be made.

(4) For the purposes of this section the “relevant local curriculum”, in relation to a pupil, means—
   (a) where it has been determined under section 33D that a pupil's “relevant school or institution” is a school—
      (i) where the Welsh Ministers have formed under section 33A a single local curriculum for the area of the local authority by which the school is maintained, that local curriculum; or
      (ii) where the Welsh Ministers have formed under section 33A more than one local curriculum for the area of the local authority by which the school is maintained, the local curriculum in respect of which the school is designated under section 33C(2);
   (b) where it has been determined under section 33D that a pupil's “relevant school or institution” is an institution—
      (i) where the Welsh Ministers have formed under section 33A a single local curriculum for the local authority area in which the institution is situated, that local curriculum; or
      (ii) where the Welsh Ministers have formed under section 33A more than one local curriculum for the local authority area in which the institution is situated, the local curriculum in respect of which the institution is designated under section 33C(2).]
[F6.33E] Students' local curriculum entitlements

(1) During the entitlement period, a student who has made an election under section 33E(1) is entitled to follow the elected course of study unless—
   (a) the governing body of the student's relevant school or institution was not at the beginning of the entitlement period, or subsequently ceases to be, responsible for providing (or making arrangements for the provision of) the majority of the student's education; or
   (b) before the beginning of the entitlement period, the head teacher or principal of the student's relevant school or institution has decided under section 33G that the student is not entitled to follow the course of study.

(2) Where a person is entitled to follow a course of study, it is for the head teacher or principal of the relevant school or institution to decide upon which date during the entitlement period the course is to begin.

[F7.33G] Head teacher's or principal's decision as to entitlement

(1) If the head teacher or principal of a student's relevant school or institution is satisfied that any of the grounds in subsection (2) apply, the head teacher or principal may decide that the student is not entitled to follow a course of study which the student has elected to follow under section 33E.

(2) The grounds referred to in subsection (1) are that—
   (a) as a result of the student's level of educational attainment, the course of study is not suitable for him or her;
   (b) as a result of other elections made by the student under section 33E(1), it is not reasonably practicable for him or her to follow the course of study;
   (c) the amount of time likely to be spent travelling to the place at which the course is likely to be delivered would be detrimental to the student's education;
   (d) disproportionate expenditure would be incurred if the student were to follow the course of study;
   (e) the student's or another person's health or safety would be placed unacceptably at risk if the student were to follow the course of study.
(3) Regulations may make provision connected with the making of decisions under subsection (1), including in particular provision—
   (a) as to the time or date by which decisions are to be made;
   (b) as to the procedure to be followed in connection with the making of decisions;
   (c) for appeals against decisions to be made to the school or institution's governing body or another person specified in the regulations;
   (d) as to the time or date by which appeals are to be determined;
   (e) as to the procedure to be followed in connection with the determination of an appeal.

(4) A head teacher or principal and governing body or other person charged with determining appeals under regulations made under subsection (3) must have regard to any guidance given from time to time by the Welsh Ministers as to the exercise of their functions under this section.
