

Financial Services and Markets Act 2000

2000 CHAPTER 8

PART V

PERFORMANCE OF REGULATED ACTIVITIES

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

C1 Pt. V (ss. 56-71) modified (1.12.2001) by S.I. 2001/3592, arts. 1(2), 114(3)(a), 128(3)(a) (with art. 23(2))

Prohibition orders

56 Prohibition orders.

[^{F1}(1) The FCA may make a prohibition order if it appears to it that an individual is not a fit and proper person to perform functions in relation to a regulated activity carried on by—

- (a) an authorised person,
- (b) a person who is an exempt person in relation to that activity, or
- (c) a person to whom, as a result of Part 20, the general prohibition does not apply in relation to that activity.

(1A) The PRA may make a prohibition order if it appears to it that an individual is not a fit and proper person to perform functions in relation to a regulated activity carried on by—

- (a) a PRA-authorised person, or
- (b) a person who is an exempt person in relation to a PRA-regulated activity carried on by the person.]

(2) [^{F2}A “prohibition order” is an order] prohibiting the individual from performing a specified function, any function falling within a specified description or any function.

(3) A prohibition order may relate to—

Status: Point in time view as at 16/12/2016.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000, Part V is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 16 April 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) a specified regulated activity, any regulated activity falling within a specified description or all regulated activities;
 - [^{F3}(b) all persons falling within subsection (3A) or a particular paragraph of that subsection or all persons within a specified class of person falling within a particular paragraph of that subsection.]
- [^{F4}(3A) A person falls within this subsection if the person is—
- (a) an authorised person,
 - (b) an exempt person, or
 - (c) a person to whom, as a result of Part 20, the general prohibition does not apply in relation to a regulated activity.]
- (4) An individual who performs or agrees to perform a function in breach of a prohibition order is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale.
- (5) In proceedings for an offence under subsection (4) it is a defence for the accused to show that he took all reasonable precautions and exercised all due diligence to avoid committing the offence.
- (6) [^{F5}A person falling within subsection (3A)] must take reasonable care to ensure that no function of his, in relation to the carrying on of a regulated activity, is performed by a person who is prohibited from performing that function by a prohibition order.
- (7) [^{F6}The regulator that has made a prohibition order] may, on the application of the individual named in [^{F7}the order], vary or revoke it.
- [^{F8}(7A) If—
- (a) the FCA proposes to vary or revoke a prohibition order, and
 - (b) as a result of the proposed variation or revocation, an individual—
 - (i) will no longer be prohibited from performing a function of interest to the PRA, or
 - (ii) will be prohibited from performing such a function, the FCA must consult the PRA before varying or revoking the order.
- (7B) A function is of interest to the PRA if it is performed in relation to a regulated activity carried on by—
- (a) a PRA-authorised person, or
 - (b) a person who is an exempt person in relation to a PRA-regulated activity carried on by the person.
- (7C) The PRA must consult the FCA before varying or revoking a prohibition order.]
- [^{F9}(8)
- (9) “Specified” means specified in the prohibition order.

Approval

59 Approval for particular arrangements.

- (1) An authorised person (“A”) must take reasonable care to ensure that no person performs a controlled function under an arrangement entered into by A in relation to the carrying on by A of a regulated activity, unless [^{F15}that person is acting in accordance with an approval given by the appropriate regulator under this section.]
- (2) An authorised person (“A”) must take reasonable care to ensure that no person performs a controlled function under an arrangement entered into by a contractor of A in relation to the carrying on by A of a regulated activity, unless [^{F16}that person is acting in accordance with an approval given by the appropriate regulator under this section.]

[^{F17}(3) “Controlled function”—

- (a) in relation to the carrying on of a regulated activity by a PRA-authorised person, means a function of a description specified in rules made by the FCA or the PRA, and
- (b) in relation to the carrying on of a regulated activity by any other authorised person, means a function of a description specified in rules made by the FCA.

(4) “The appropriate regulator”—

- (a) in relation to a controlled function which is of a description specified in rules made by the FCA, means the FCA, and
- (b) in relation to a controlled function which is of a description specified in rules made by the PRA, means the PRA with the consent of the FCA.

^{F18}(5)

Status: Point in time view as at 16/12/2016.

There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

[^{F19}(6) The PRA may specify a description of function under subsection (3)(a) only if, in relation to the carrying on of a regulated activity by a PRA-authorized person, it is satisfied that the function is a senior management function as defined in section 59ZA.]

[^{F20}(6A) If—

- (a) a function of a description specified in rules made by the FCA under subsection (3)(a) or (b) is a controlled function in relation to the carrying on of a regulated activity by a relevant authorised person, and
- (b) the FCA is satisfied that, in relation to the carrying on of a regulated activity by a relevant authorised person, the function is a senior management function as defined in section 59ZA, the FCA must designate the function in the rules as a senior management function.

(6B) If a function of a description specified in rules made by the PRA under subsection (3) (a) is a controlled function in relation to the carrying on of a regulated activity by a relevant authorised person, the PRA must designate the function in the rules as a senior management function.

(6C) For the meaning of “relevant authorised person”, see section 71A.]

^{F21}(7)

^{F21}(7A)

^{F21}(7B)]

[^{F22}(7C) A regulator may not exercise the power in subsection (3) so as to provide for a function to be a controlled function in relation to the carrying on of the regulated activity of managing an AIF by an AIFM which—

- (a) is also an AIF;
- (b) does not manage any AIF other than itself;
- (c) is a body corporate; and
- (d) is not a collective investment scheme.]

(8) Neither subsection (1) nor subsection (2) applies to an arrangement which allows a person to perform a function if the question of whether he is a fit and proper person to perform the function is reserved under any of the single market directives [^{F23}or the emission allowance auctioning regulation] to an authority in a country or territory outside the United Kingdom.

^{F24}(9)

(10) “Arrangement”—

- (a) means any kind of arrangement for the performance of a function of A which is entered into by A or any contractor of his with another person; and
- (b) includes, in particular, that other person’s appointment to an office, his becoming a partner or his employment (whether under a contract of service or otherwise).

[^{F26}59ZASenior management functions

- (1) This section has effect for determining whether a function is for the purposes of section 59(6) or (6A) a senior management function.
- (2) A function is a “senior management function”, in relation to the carrying on of a regulated activity by an authorised person, if—
 - (a) the function will require the person performing it to be responsible for managing one or more aspects of the authorised person's affairs, so far as relating to the activity, and
 - (b) those aspects involve, or might involve, a risk of serious consequences—
 - (i) for the authorised person, or
 - (ii) for business or other interests in the United Kingdom.
- (3) In subsection (2)(a) the reference to managing one or more aspects of an authorised person's affairs includes a reference to taking decisions, or participating in the taking of decisions, about how one or more aspects of those affairs should be carried on.]

[^{F27}59A Specifying functions as controlled functions: supplementary

- (1) The FCA must—
 - (a) keep under review the exercise of its power under section 59(3)(a) to specify any [^{F28}senior management] function as a controlled function, and
 - (b) exercise that power in a way that it considers will minimise the likelihood that approvals fall to be given by both the FCA and the PRA in respect of the performance by a person of [^{F28}senior management] functions in relation to the carrying on of a regulated activity by the same PRA-authorised person.
- (2) The FCA and the PRA must each consult the other before exercising any power under section 59(3)(a).
- (3) Any reference in this section to the exercise of a power includes its exercise by way of amendment or revocation of provision previously made in the exercise of the power.

[“Senior management function” has the meaning given by section 59ZA.]

[^{F59}62A Changes in responsibilities of senior managers

- (1) This section applies where—
- (a) an authorised person has made an application to the appropriate regulator for approval under section 59 for a person to perform a designated senior management function,
 - (b) the application contained, or was accompanied by, a statement of responsibilities under section 60(2A), and
 - (c) the application has been granted.
- (2) If, since the granting of the application, there has been any significant change in the aspects of the authorised person's affairs which the person is responsible for managing in performing the function, the authorised person must provide the appropriate regulator with a revised statement of responsibilities.
- (3) The appropriate regulator may require the authorised person—
- (a) to provide information which the person is required to give under this section in such form as the appropriate regulator may direct, or
 - (b) to verify such information in such a way as the appropriate regulator may direct.

Status: Point in time view as at 16/12/2016.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000, Part V is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 16 April 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

(4) In this section—

“the appropriate regulator” has the same meaning as in section 60 [^{F60}, except that the reference in section 60(9)(b) to subsection (3) is to be treated as a reference to subsection (2) of this section];

“designated senior management function” means a function designated as a senior management function under section 59(6A) or (6B).]

63 Withdrawal of approval.

[^{F61}(1) The FCA may withdraw an approval under section 59 given by the FCA or the PRA in relation to the performance by a person of a function if the FCA considers that the person is not a fit and proper person to perform the function.

(1A) The PRA may withdraw an approval under section 59 in relation to the performance by a person (“A”) of a function if—

- (a) the PRA gave the approval, or the FCA gave the approval and the function is a [^{F62}relevant senior management function] performed in relation to the carrying on by a PRA-authorized person of a regulated activity, and
- (b) the PRA considers that A is not a fit and proper person to perform the function.

[^{F63}(1B) In subsection (1A) “relevant senior management function” means a function which the PRA is satisfied is a senior management function as defined in section 59ZA (whether or not the function has been designated as such by the FCA).]

(1C) Before one regulator withdraws an approval given by the other regulator, it must consult the other regulator.]

(2) When considering whether to withdraw [^{F64}an approval, the FCA or the PRA may take into account any matter which could be taken into account in] considering an application made under section 60 in respect of the performance of the function to which the approval relates [^{F65}(on the assumption, if it is not the case, that the application was one falling to be considered by it)].

[^{F66}(2A) At least once a year each relevant authorised person must, in relation to every person in relation to whom an approval has been given on the application of the authorised person—

- (a) consider whether there are any grounds on which a regulator could withdraw the approval under this section, and
- (b) if the authorised person is of the opinion that there are such grounds, notify the regulator of those grounds.

(For the meaning of “relevant authorised person”, see section 71A.)]

(3) If [^{F67}a regulator] proposes to withdraw [^{F68}an approval], it must give each of the interested parties a warning notice.

Status: Point in time view as at 16/12/2016.

- (4) If [^{F67}a regulator] decides to withdraw [^{F68}an approval], it must give each of the interested parties a decision notice.
- (5) If [^{F67}a regulator] decides to withdraw [^{F68}an approval], each of the interested parties may refer the matter to the Tribunal.
- (6) “The interested parties”, in relation to an approval, are—
- (a) the person on whose application it was given (“A”);
 - (b) the person in respect of whom it was given (“B”); and
 - (c) the person by whom B’s services are retained, if not A.

[^{F69}63ZAVariation of senior manager's approval at request of relevant authorised person

- (1) Where an [^{F70}approval under section 59 has effect] subject to conditions, the authorised person concerned may apply to the appropriate regulator to vary the approval by—
- varying a condition,
 - removing a condition, or
 - imposing a new condition.

- [Where an approval under section 59 has effect for a limited period, the authorised ^{F71}(1A) person concerned may apply to the appropriate regulator to vary the approval by—
- varying the period for which the approval is to have effect, or
 - removing the limit on the period for which the approval is to have effect.]

- (2) “The appropriate regulator”—
- in the case of an application for variation of an approval in a way described in subsection (1)(a) or (b), means

[whichever of the FCA or the PRA imposed the condition concerned
^{F72}(i) [^{F73}, or

(ii) if the condition has been varied before (under this section or section 63ZB), whichever of the FCA or the PRA last varied it];

- in the case of an application for variation of an approval in the way described in subsection (1)(c), means the regulator who gave the approval.

- [in the case of an application for variation of an approval in a way described ^{F74}(c) in subsection (1A), means—

- whichever of the FCA or the PRA imposed the limit on the period for which the approval has effect, or
- if the limit has been varied before (under this section or section 63ZB), whichever of the FCA or the PRA last varied it.]

- (3) The PRA must consult the FCA before determining an application under this section, unless the application relates to the variation or removal of a condition [^{F75}, or a limit on the period for which an approval has effect, which was imposed (or last varied)] by the PRA in exercise of its power under section 63ZB.

- (4) The regulator to which an application is made under this section must, before the end of the period for consideration, determine whether—
- to grant the application; or
 - to give a warning notice under section 62(2).

- (5) “The period for consideration” means the period of 3 months beginning with the date on which the regulator receives the application.

- (6) The FCA may refuse an application under this section if it appears to the FCA that it is desirable to do so in order to advance one or more of its operational objectives.

- (7) The PRA may refuse an application under this section if it appears to the PRA that it is desirable to do so in order to advance any of its objectives.

- [An application may not be made under this section for the variation or removal of a ^{F76}(7A) condition, or a limit on the period for which an approval has effect, where the condition or limit has effect by virtue of section 66.]

- (8) The following provisions apply to an application made under this section for variation of an approval as they apply to an application for approval made under section 60—

63ZB Variation of senior manager's approval on initiative of regulator

- (1) The FCA may vary an approval under section 59 given by the FCA or the PRA for the performance of a designated senior management function in relation to the carrying on of a regulated activity by a relevant authorised person if the FCA considers that it is desirable to do so in order to advance one or more of its operational objectives.
- (2) The PRA may vary an approval under section 59 for the performance of a designated senior management function in relation to the carrying on of a regulated activity by a relevant authorised person if—
 - (a) either—
 - (i) the PRA gave the approval, or
 - (ii) the FCA gave the approval and the relevant authorised person is a PRA-authorised person, and
 - (b) the PRA considers that it is desirable to do so in order to advance any of its objectives.
- (3) A regulator may vary an approval by—
 - (a) imposing a condition,
 - (b) varying a condition,
 - (c) removing a condition, ^{F78} ...
 - (d) ^{F79} where the approval has effect for an unlimited period,] limiting the period for which the approval is to have effect ^{F80}, or

63ZC Exercise of power under section 63ZB: procedure

- (1) This section applies to an exercise, by either regulator, of the power to vary an approval under section 63ZB.
- (2) A variation takes effect—
 - (a) immediately, if the notice given under subsection (4) states that that is the case,
 - (b) on such date as is specified in the notice, or
 - (c) if no date is specified in the notice, when the matter to which the notice relates is no longer open to review.
- (3) A variation may be expressed to take effect immediately (or on a specified date) only if the regulator concerned, having regard to the ground on which it is exercising the power to vary, reasonably considers that it is necessary for the variation to take effect immediately (or on that date).
- (4) If either regulator proposes to vary an approval or varies an approval with immediate effect, it must give each of the interested parties written notice.
- (5) The notice must—
 - (a) give details of the variation,
 - (b) state the regulator's reasons for the variation,
 - (c) inform the interested parties that each of them may make representations to the regulator within such period as may be specified in the notice (whether or not any of the interested parties has referred the matter to the Tribunal),

Status: Point in time view as at 16/12/2016.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000, Part V is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 16 April 2024. - (d) inform the interested parties of when the variation takes effect, and
 - (e) inform the interested parties of the right of each of them to refer the matter to the Tribunal.
- (6) “The interested parties”, in relation to an approval, are—
- (a) the person on whose application it was given (“A”),
 - (b) the person in respect of whom it was given (“B”), and
 - (c) the person by whom B's services are retained, if not A.
- (7) The regulator giving the notice may extend the period allowed under the notice for making representations.
- (8) If having considered the representations made by the interested parties, the regulator decides—
- (a) to vary the approval, or
 - (b) if the variation has taken effect, not to rescind it,
- it must give each of the interested parties written notice.
- (9) If having considered the representations made by the interested parties, the regulator decides—
- (a) not to vary the approval,
 - (b) to vary the approval in a different way, or
 - (c) if the variation has taken effect, to rescind it,
- it must give each of the interested parties written notice.
- (10) A notice under subsection (8) must inform the interested parties of the right of each of them to refer the matter to the Tribunal.
- (11) A notice under subsection (9)(b) must comply with subsection (5).
- (12) If a notice informs the interested parties of the right to refer a matter to the Tribunal, it must give an indication of the procedure on such a reference.
- (13) For the purposes of subsection (2)(c), whether a matter is open to review is to be determined in accordance with section 391(8).
- (14) “Approval” means an approval under section 59.]

63ZE Statement of policy: procedure

- (1) Before issuing a statement of policy under section 63ZD, a regulator (“the issuing regulator”) must—
 - (a) consult the other regulator, and
 - (b) publish a draft of the proposed statement in the way appearing to the issuing regulator to be best calculated to bring it to the attention of the public.
- (2) The duty of the FCA to consult the PRA under subsection (1)(a) applies only in so far as the statement of policy applies to persons whose approval under section 59 relates to the performance of a function designated by the FCA as a senior management function under section 59(6A) in relation to the carrying on by PRA-authorized persons of regulated activities.
- (3) The draft must be accompanied by notice that representations about the proposal may be made to the issuing regulator within a specified time.
- (4) Before issuing the proposed statement, the issuing regulator must have regard to any representations made to it in accordance with subsection (3).
- (5) If the issuing regulator issues the proposed statement it must publish an account, in general terms, of—
 - (a) the representations made to it in accordance with subsection (3), and
 - (b) its response to them.
- (6) If the statement differs from the draft published under subsection (1) in a way which is in the opinion of the issuing regulator significant, the issuing regulator—
 - (a) must before issuing it carry out any consultation required by subsection (1)(a), and
 - (b) must (in addition to complying with subsection (5)) publish details of the difference.
- (7) The issuing regulator may charge a reasonable fee for providing a person with a draft published under subsection (1)(b).

63A Power to impose penalties

- (1) If the [^{F84}appropriate regulator] is satisfied that—
- (a) a person (“P”) has at any time performed a controlled function without approval, and
 - (b) at that time P knew, or could reasonably be expected to have known, that P was performing a controlled function without approval,
- it may impose a penalty on P of such amount as it considers appropriate.
- (2) For the purposes of this section P performs a controlled function without approval at any time if at that time—
- (a) P performs a controlled function under an arrangement entered into by an authorised person (“A”), or by a contractor of A, in relation to the carrying on by A of a regulated activity; and
 - [^{F85}(b) P, when performing the function, is not acting in accordance with an approval given under section 59.]
- (3) The [^{F84}appropriate regulator] may not impose a penalty under this section after the end of the limitation period unless, before the end of that period, it has given a warning notice to the person concerned under section 63B(1).
- (4) “The limitation period” means the [^{F86}relevant period] beginning with the first day on which the [^{F84}appropriate regulator] knew that the person concerned had performed a controlled function without approval.
- (5) For this purpose the [^{F84}appropriate regulator] is to be treated as knowing that a person has performed a controlled function without approval if it has information from which that can reasonably be inferred.

[The appropriate regulator”—

- ^{F87}(5A) (a) in relation to a controlled function which is of a description specified in rules made by the FCA, means the FCA, and
- (b) in relation to a controlled function which is of a description specified in rules made by the PRA, means the PRA.]

63D Statement of policy: procedure

- (1) Before [^{F104}a regulator issues] a statement under section 63C, the [^{F105}regulator] must publish a draft of the proposed statement in the way appearing to the [^{F105}regulator] to be best calculated to bring it to the attention of the public.
- (2) The draft must be accompanied by notice that representations about the proposal may be made to the [^{F106}regulator] within a specified time.
- (3) Before issuing the proposed statement, the [^{F107}regulator] must have regard to any representations made to it in accordance with subsection (2).
- (4) If the [^{F108}regulator] issues the proposed statement it must publish an account, in general terms, of—
 - (a) the representations made to it in accordance with subsection (2); and
 - (b) its response to them.
- (5) If the statement differs from the draft published under subsection (1) in a way which is, in the opinion of the [^{F109}regulator], significant, the [^{F109}regulator] must (in addition to complying with subsection (4)) publish details of the difference.
- (6) [^{F110}A regulator] may charge a reasonable fee for providing a person with a copy of a draft published [^{F111}by it] under subsection (1).
- (7) This section also applies to a proposal to alter or replace a statement.]

63E Certification of employees by relevant authorised persons

- (1) A relevant authorised person (“A”) must take reasonable care to ensure that no employee of A performs a specified function under an arrangement entered into by A in relation to the carrying on by A of a regulated activity, unless the employee has a valid certificate issued by A under section 63F.
- (2) “Specified function”—
 - (a) in relation to the carrying on of a regulated activity by a PRA-authorised person, means a function of a description specified in rules made by the FCA or the PRA, and
 - (b) in relation to the carrying on of a regulated activity by any other authorised person, means a function of a description specified in rules made by the FCA.
- (3) The FCA may specify a description of function under subsection (2)(a) or (b) only if, in relation to the carrying on of a regulated activity by a relevant authorised person of a particular description—
 - (a) the function is not a controlled function in relation to the carrying on of that activity by a relevant authorised person of that description, but
 - (b) the FCA is satisfied that the function is nevertheless a significant-harm function.
- (4) The PRA may specify a description of function under subsection (2)(a) only if, in relation to the carrying on of a regulated activity by a relevant PRA-authorised person of a particular description—
 - (a) the function is not a controlled function in relation to the carrying on of that activity by a relevant PRA-authorised person of that description, but
 - (b) the PRA is satisfied that the function is nevertheless a significant-harm function.
- (5) A function is a “significant-harm function”, in relation to the carrying on of a regulated activity by an authorised person, if—
 - (a) the function will require the person performing it to be involved in one or more aspects of the authorised person's affairs, so far as relating to the activity, and

- (b) those aspects involve, or might involve, a risk of significant harm to the authorised person or any of its customers.
- (6) Each regulator must—
 - (a) keep under review the exercise of its power under subsection (2) to specify any significant-harm function as a specified function, and
 - (b) exercise that power in a way that it considers will minimise the risk of employees of relevant authorised persons performing significant-harm functions which they are not fit and proper persons to perform.
- (7) Subsection (1) does not apply to an arrangement which allows an employee to perform a function if the question of whether the employee is a fit and proper person to perform the function is reserved under any of the single market directives or the emission allowance auctioning regulation to an authority in a country or territory outside the United Kingdom.
- (8) In this section—
 - “controlled function” has the meaning given by section 59(3);
 - “customer”, in relation to an authorised person, means a person who is using, or who is or may be contemplating using, any of the services provided by the authorised person;
 - “relevant PRA-authorised person” means a PRA-authorised person that is a relevant authorised person.
- (9) In this section any reference to an employee of a person (“A”) includes a reference to a person who—
 - (a) personally provides, or is under an obligation personally to provide, services to A under an arrangement made between A and the person providing the services or another person, and
 - (b) is subject to (or to the right of) supervision, direction or control by A as to the manner in which those services are provided.
- (10) For the meaning of “relevant authorised person”, see section 71A.

63F Issuing of certificates

- (1) A relevant authorised person may issue a certificate to a person under this section only if the authorised person is satisfied that the person is a fit and proper person to perform the function to which the certificate relates.
- (2) In deciding whether the person is a fit and proper person to perform the function, the relevant authorised person must have regard, in particular, to whether the person—
 - (a) has obtained a qualification,
 - (b) has undergone, or is undergoing, training,
 - (c) possesses a level of competence, or
 - (d) has the personal characteristics, required by general rules made by the appropriate regulator in relation to employees performing functions of that kind.
- (3) In subsection (2) “the appropriate regulator” means—
 - (a) in relation to employees of PRA-authorised persons, the FCA or the PRA, and
 - (b) in relation to employees of any other authorised person, the FCA.

- (4) A certificate issued by a relevant authorised person to a person under this section must—
 - (a) state that the authorised person is satisfied that the person is a fit and proper person to perform the function to which the certificate relates, and
 - (b) set out the aspects of the affairs of the authorised person in which the person will be involved in performing the function.
- (5) A certificate issued under this section is valid for a period of 12 months beginning with the day on which it is issued.
- (6) If, after having considered whether a person is a fit and proper person to perform a specified function, a relevant authorised person decides not to issue a certificate to the person under this section, the authorised person must give the person a notice in writing stating—
 - (a) what steps (if any) the authorised person proposes to take in relation to the person as a result of the decision, and
 - (b) the reasons for proposing to take those steps.
- (7) A relevant authorised person must maintain a record of every employee who has a valid certificate issued by it under this section.
- (8) Expressions used in this section and in section 63E have the same meaning in this section as they have in that section.]

[^{F155} 66A Misconduct: action by the FCA

- (1) For the purposes of action by the FCA under section 66, a person is guilty of misconduct if any of conditions A to C is met in relation to the person.
- (2) Condition A is that—
- (a) the person has at any time failed to comply with rules made by the FCA under section 64A, and
 - (b) at that time the person was—
 - (i) an approved person, ^{F156}...
 - (ii) an employee of a relevant authorised person [^{F157}, or
 - (iii) a director of an authorised person].
- (3) Condition B is that—
- (a) the person has at any time been knowingly concerned in a contravention of a relevant requirement by an authorised person, and
 - (b) at that time the person was—
 - (i) an approved person in relation to the authorised person, ^{F158}...
 - (ii) in the case of a relevant authorised person, an employee of the authorised person [^{F159}, or
 - (iii) a director of the authorised person].
- (4) In this section “relevant requirement” means a requirement—
- (a) imposed by or under this Act, ^{F160}...
 - [^{F161}(aa) ^{F162}...;]
 - [^{F163}(ab) imposed by the Undertakings for Collective Investment in Transferable Securities Regulations 2011, or]
 - (b) imposed by any qualifying EU provision specified, or of a description specified, for the purposes of this subsection by the Treasury by order.
- (5) Condition C is that—
- (a) the person has at any time been a senior manager in relation to a relevant authorised person,

Status: Point in time view as at 16/12/2016.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000, Part V is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 16 April 2024. - (b) there has at that time been (or continued to be) a contravention of a relevant requirement by the authorised person, ^{F164} ...
- (c) the senior manager was at that time responsible for the management of any of the authorised person's activities in relation to which the contravention occurred [^{F165}, and
- (d) the senior manager did not take such steps as a person in the senior manager's position could reasonably be expected to take to avoid the contravention occurring (or continuing).]

^{F166}(6)

(7) For the purposes of subsection (5)—

“senior manager”, in relation to a relevant authorised person, means a person who has approval under section 59 to perform a designated senior management function in relation to the carrying on by the authorised person of a regulated activity;

“designated senior management function” means a function designated as a senior management function under section 59(6A) or (6B).

(8) In this section—

“approved person”—

(a) means a person in relation to whom an approval is given under section 59, and

(b) in relation to an authorised person, means a person in relation to whom such approval is given on the application of the authorised person;

^{F167}“director”, in relation to an authorised person, has the same meaning as in section 64A;]

“employee”, in relation to a person, has the same meaning as in section 64A.

(9) For the meaning of “relevant authorised person”, see section 71A.

66B Misconduct: action by the PRA

- (1) For the purposes of action by the PRA under section 66, a person is guilty of misconduct if any of conditions A to C is met in relation to the person.
- (2) Condition A is that—
- (a) the person has at any time failed to comply with rules made by the PRA under section 64A, and
 - (b) at that time the person was—
 - (i) an approved person, ^{F168}...
 - (ii) an employee of a relevant PRA-authorised person [^{F169}, or
 - (iii) a director of a PRA-authorised person].
- (3) Condition B is that—
- (a) the person has at any time been knowingly concerned in a contravention of a relevant requirement by a PRA-authorised person, and
 - (b) at that time the person was—
 - (i) an approved person in respect of the performance of a relevant senior management function in relation to the carrying on by the PRA-authorised person of a regulated activity, ^{F170}...
 - (ii) in the case of a relevant PRA-authorised person, an employee of the authorised person [^{F171}, or
 - (iii) a director of the PRA-authorised person].
- (4) In this section “relevant requirement” means a requirement—
- (a) imposed by or under this Act, or
 - (b) imposed by any qualifying EU provision specified, or of a description specified, for the purposes of this subsection by the Treasury by order.
- (5) Condition C is that—
- (a) the person has at any time been a senior manager in relation to a relevant PRA-authorised person,
 - (b) there has at that time been (or continued to be) a contravention of a relevant requirement by the authorised person, ^{F172}...
 - (c) the senior manager was at that time responsible for the management of any of the authorised person's activities in relation to which the contravention occurred [^{F173}, and
 - (d) the senior manager did not take such steps as a person in the senior manager's position could reasonably be expected to take to avoid the contravention occurring (or continuing).]

^{F174}(6)

(7) For the purposes of subsection (5)—

“senior manager”, in relation to a relevant PRA-authorized person, means a person who has approval under section 59 to perform a designated senior management function in relation to the carrying on by the authorised person of a regulated activity;

“designated senior management function” means a function designated as a senior management function under section 59(6A) or (6B).

(8) In this section—

“approved person”—

(a) means a person in relation to whom—

(i) the PRA has given its approval under section 59, or

(ii) the FCA has given its approval under section 59 in respect of the performance by the person of a relevant senior management function in relation to the carrying on by a PRA-authorized person of a regulated activity, and

(b) in relation to an authorised person, means a person in relation to whom approval under section 59 is given on the application of the authorised person;

[^{F175}“director”, in relation to an authorised person, has the same meaning as in section 64A;]

“employee”, in relation to a person, has the same meaning as in section 64A;

“relevant PRA-authorized person” means a PRA-authorized person that is a relevant authorised person;

“relevant senior management function” means a function which the PRA is satisfied is a senior management function as defined in section 59ZA (whether or not the function has been designated as such by the FCA).

(9) For the meaning of “relevant authorised person”, see section 71A.]

71A Meaning of “relevant authorised person”

- (1) In this Part “relevant authorised person” means a UK institution which—
 - (a) meets condition A or B, and
 - (b) is not an insurer.

Status: Point in time view as at 16/12/2016.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000, Part V is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 16 April 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) Condition A is that the institution has permission under Part 4A to carry on the regulated activity of accepting deposits.
- (3) Condition B is that—
- (a) the institution is an investment firm,
 - (b) it has permission under Part 4A to carry on the regulated activity of dealing in investments as principal, and
 - (c) when carried on by it, that activity is a PRA-regulated activity.
- (4) The Treasury may by order provide that authorised persons falling within any of the following descriptions are “relevant authorised persons” for the purposes of this Part—
- (a) non-UK institutions (or non-UK institutions of a specified description) that are credit institutions;
 - (b) non-UK institutions that are investment firms of a specified description.
- “Specified” means specified in the order.
- (5) If the Treasury propose to make an order under subsection (4) they must consult—
- (a) the FCA,
 - (b) the PRA,
 - (c) any organisations that appear to them to be representative of interests substantially affected by the proposals, and
 - (d) any other persons that they consider appropriate.
- (6) In this section—
- (a) “UK institution” means an institution which is incorporated in, or formed under the law of any part of, the United Kingdom;
 - (b) “non-UK institution” means an institution that is not a UK institution;
 - (c) “credit institution” means any credit institution as defined in Article 4.1(1) of Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council;
 - (d) “insurer” means an institution which is authorised under this Act to carry on the regulated activity of effecting or carrying out contracts of insurance as principal.

[^{F223} Removal of directors and senior executives and appointment of temporary manager

Textual Amendments

F223 Ss. 71B-71I and cross-heading inserted (16.12.2016) by The Bank Recovery and Resolution Order 2016 \(S.I. 2016/1239\), arts. 1(2), 32

71B. Removal of directors and senior executives

- (1) If the appropriate regulator is satisfied that the conditions in section 71D(1) and (2) are met in relation to a relevant firm, the appropriate regulator may require the firm to remove—
- (a) any person who is a director of the firm;
 - (b) any person who is a senior executive of the firm.

Status: Point in time view as at 16/12/2016.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000, Part V is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 16 April 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) If the appropriate regulator imposes a requirement under subsection (1), the regulator may also require the relevant firm—
- (a) to replace a director or senior executive who has been removed, and
 - (b) to take any step needed to give effect to the replacement, including, where necessary, calling a general meeting of the firm’s shareholders or members.

71C. Temporary manager

- (1) If the appropriate regulator is satisfied—
- (a) in the case of a relevant firm, that the conditions in section 71D(1), (2) and (4) are met in relation to that firm, or
 - (b) in the case of a parent undertaking which is not a relevant firm, that the conditions in section 71D(1) and (4) are met in relation to that parent undertaking,
- the appropriate regulator may appoint a person to act (or one or more persons to act jointly) as a temporary manager of that firm or that parent undertaking.
- (2) Where the appropriate regulator makes an appointment under subsection (1) in relation to a parent undertaking which is not a relevant firm, the regulator may also require the undertaking to remove—
- (a) all of its directors;
 - (b) all of its senior executives.
- (3) A temporary manager may be appointed under subsection (1)—
- (a) to replace the directors of a relevant firm or a parent undertaking where they have been removed in compliance with a requirement imposed under section 71B or subsection (2), or
 - (b) to work with the directors of a relevant firm or a parent undertaking.
- (4) A temporary manager has the functions specified in the instrument of appointment (see section 71F).
- (5) The functions which may be specified include (amongst other things)—
- (a) ascertaining the financial position of the relevant firm or the parent undertaking;
 - (b) managing the business or part of the business of the relevant firm or the parent undertaking in order to preserve or restore the financial position of the firm or the parent undertaking;
 - (c) taking measures to restore the prudent management of the relevant firm or the parent undertaking;
 - (d) any function of the directors.
- (6) The temporary manager may, with the consent of the appropriate regulator—
- (a) require the directors to call a general meeting of the shareholders or members of the relevant firm or the parent undertaking, or
 - (b) in the case where all of the directors have been removed in compliance with a requirement imposed under section 71B or subsection (2), call a general meeting of the shareholders or members of the relevant firm or the parent undertaking.

Status: Point in time view as at 16/12/2016.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000, Part V is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 16 April 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (7) The temporary manager may propose business for consideration at the general meeting.
- (8) If the temporary manager is being appointed to work with the directors, the appropriate regulator—
- (a) may require the directors not to exercise specified functions during the period of appointment;
 - (b) may require the directors to consult the temporary manager, or obtain the consent of the temporary manager, before taking specified decisions or specified action.
- “Specified” means specified in the requirement.

71D. Sections 71B and 71C: conditions

- (1) The condition in this subsection is met in relation to a relevant firm or a parent undertaking if—
- (a) there is a deterioration in the financial situation of the relevant firm or the parent undertaking which is a significant deterioration, or
 - (b) there is a serious infringement by the relevant firm or the parent undertaking of—
 - (i) a relevant requirement, or
 - (ii) its memorandum or articles of association or other constituent instrument.
- (2) The condition in this subsection is met in relation to a relevant firm if it is not reasonably likely that the deterioration would be reversed or the infringement would be brought to an end by any measure of a kind described in Article 27(1) of the recovery and resolution directive which could be taken by the appropriate regulator under the provisions listed in subsection (3).
- (3) The provisions mentioned in subsection (2) are—
- (a) section 55J (variation or cancellation on initiative of regulator),
 - (b) section 55L (imposition of requirements by FCA),
 - (c) section 55M (imposition of requirements by PRA),
 - (d) section 55PB (requirements relating to general meetings),
 - (e) section 56 (prohibition orders),
 - (f) section 63 (withdrawal of approval),
 - (g) section 63ZA (variation of senior manager’s approval at request of authorised person),
 - (h) section 63ZB (variation of senior manager’s approval on initiative of regulator),
 - (i) section 63A (power to impose penalties),
 - (j) section 66 (disciplinary powers),
 - (k) Part 12A (powers exercisable in relation to parent undertakings), or
 - (l) Part 14 (disciplinary measures).
- (4) The condition in this subsection is met if the following action would not be sufficient to reverse the deterioration or bring the infringement to an end—
- (a) in the case of a relevant firm, the imposition of one or more requirements under section 71B (removal and replacement of directors and senior executives); or

- (b) in the case of a parent undertaking which is not a relevant firm, the exercise of any of the appropriate regulator's powers under Part 12A.
- (5) For the purposes of this section—
- (a) “relevant requirement” has the meaning given in section 204A;
 - (b) a deterioration in the financial situation of the relevant firm or the parent undertaking is significant if—
 - (i) in the case of a relevant firm, or a parent undertaking which is an authorised person, it no longer satisfies, or is likely to fail to satisfy, the threshold conditions relating to its financial resources which apply to it under Schedule 6;
 - (ii) in the case of a parent undertaking which is not an authorised person, the deterioration threatens the viability of the parent undertaking.

71E. Temporary manager: further provisions in relation to the appointment

- (1) Before appointing a person to act as a temporary manager, the appropriate regulator must be satisfied that the person—
 - (a) has the qualifications, ability and knowledge to carry out the functions to be given to the temporary manager, and
 - (b) would not be subject to any conflict of interest as a result of the appointment.
- (2) A person may not be appointed to act as a temporary manager for a period longer than one year, but is eligible for re-appointment (or further re-appointment) if subsection 71C(1) continues to apply in relation to the relevant firm or parent undertaking.
- (3) The appropriate regulator may vary the terms of the appointment of a temporary manager, or remove the temporary manager, at any time.
- (4) A temporary manager is not liable for damages in respect of anything done in good faith for the purposes of or in connection with the functions of the appointment (subject to section 8 of the Human Rights Act 1998).

71F. Temporary manager: instrument of appointment

- (1) The power in section 71C(1) is to be exercised by an instrument of appointment.
- (2) The instrument of appointment must—
 - (a) specify the functions of the temporary manager,
 - (b) specify the date on which the appointment of the temporary manager has effect,
 - (c) specify the period for which the temporary manager is appointed, and
 - (d) make provision for the resignation and replacement of the person who is appointed as the temporary manager.
- (3) The instrument of appointment may—
 - (a) require the temporary manager to consult the appropriate regulator or other specified person before exercising specified functions,
 - (b) specify particular matters on which the appropriate regulator or other specified person must be consulted, and

Status: Point in time view as at 16/12/2016.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000, Part V is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 16 April 2024. - (c) provide that the temporary manager is not to exercise specified functions without the consent of the appropriate regulator or other specified person.
- (4) The instrument of appointment may require the temporary manager to make reports to the appropriate regulator, at specified times or intervals, on—
 - (a) the financial position of the relevant firm or the parent undertaking,
 - (b) the actions taken by the temporary manager during the course of the temporary manager’s appointment,
 - (c) any other specified matters.
- (5) In subsections (3) and (4), “specified” means specified in the instrument of appointment.
- (6) The instrument of appointment may provide for the payment of remuneration and allowances to a temporary manager.
- (7) Provision under subsection (6) may provide that the amounts are—
 - (a) to be paid by the appropriate regulator, or
 - (b) to be determined by the appropriate regulator and paid by the relevant firm or the parent undertaking.
- (8) If a temporary manager—
 - (a) is appointed to replace the directors of the relevant firm or the parent undertaking, or
 - (b) is appointed to work with the directors of the relevant firm or the parent undertaking and has the power to represent that firm or parent undertaking, the appropriate regulator must publish the instrument of appointment on its website.

71G. Right to refer matters to the Tribunal

- (1) A relevant firm which is aggrieved by—
 - (a) the imposition of a requirement on that firm under section 71B, or
 - (b) the appointment, or the terms of the appointment, of a person to act as a temporary manager of that firm under section 71C(1),
 may refer the matter to the Tribunal.
- (2) A parent undertaking which is aggrieved by—
 - (a) the imposition of a requirement on that parent undertaking under section 71C(2), or
 - (b) the appointment, or the terms of the appointment, of a person to act as a temporary manager of that parent undertaking under section 71C(1),
 may refer the matter to the Tribunal.
- (3) A director (or a former director) of a relevant firm or a parent undertaking who is aggrieved by the imposition of a requirement on that director under section 71C(8) may refer the matter to the Tribunal.
- (4) A director or senior executive (or a former director or senior executive) of a relevant firm or a parent undertaking who is aggrieved by the imposition of a requirement on that firm or parent undertaking under section 71B or 71C(2) may refer the matter to the Tribunal.

71H. Removal of directors and senior executives and appointment of temporary manager: procedure

- (1) A requirement under section 71B or 71C(2) or (8) or the appointment of a temporary manager under section 71C(1) may be expressed to take effect immediately or on a specified date only if the appropriate regulator, having regard to the grounds for imposing the requirement or making the appointment, reasonably considers that it is necessary for the requirement or the appointment to take effect immediately or on that date.
- (2) If either regulator proposes to impose a requirement on a relevant firm under section 71B or a parent undertaking under section 71C(2), or imposes such a requirement with immediate effect, it must give written notice—
 - (a) to that firm or parent undertaking, and
 - (b) to each of the directors or senior executives to whom the requirement relates (“the interested parties”).
- (3) If either regulator—
 - (a) proposes to appoint a person to act as a temporary manager under section 71C or to vary the terms on which such a person is appointed, or
 - (b) makes such an appointment or variation with immediate effect,the regulator must give written notice to the relevant firm or the parent undertaking concerned.
- (4) If either regulator proposes to impose a requirement on the directors under section 71C(8), or imposes such a requirement with immediate effect, the regulator must give written notice to each director.
- (5) A notice given under subsection (2) must—
 - (a) give details of the requirement,
 - (b) identify each of the directors or senior executives to whom the requirement relates,
 - (c) give the regulator’s reasons for imposing the requirement—
 - (i) in the case of a notice given to the relevant firm or the parent undertaking, in relation to each interested party;
 - (ii) in the case of a notice given to an interested party, in relation to that interested party,
 - (d) inform the relevant firm or the parent undertaking and the interested parties that each of them may make representations to the regulator within such period as may be specified in the notice (whether or not the matter has been referred to the Tribunal),
 - (e) state when the requirement takes effect, and
 - (f) inform the relevant firm or the parent undertaking and each of the interested parties of their right to refer the matter to the Tribunal.
- (6) A notice given under subsection (3) must—
 - (a) state when the appointment or variation takes effect, and be accompanied by the instrument, or revised instrument, of appointment,
 - (b) give the regulator’s reasons for making the appointment or variation,
 - (c) inform the relevant firm or the parent undertaking that it may make representations to the regulator within such period as may be specified in the notice (whether or not the matter has been referred to the Tribunal), and

Status: Point in time view as at 16/12/2016.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000, Part V is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 16 April 2024. - (d) inform the relevant firm or the parent undertaking of its right to refer the matter to the Tribunal.
- (7) A notice given under subsection (4) must—
- (a) give details of the requirement,
 - (b) give the regulator’s reasons for imposing the requirement,
 - (c) state when the requirement takes effect,
 - (d) inform the director that the director may make representations to the regulator within such period as may be specified in the notice (whether or not the matter has been referred to the Tribunal), and
 - (e) inform the director of the director’s right to refer the matter to the Tribunal.
- (8) The regulator may extend the period allowed by the notice given under subsection (2), (3) or (4) for making representations.
- (9) If, having considered any representations made by a person to whom notice (the “original notice”) has been given under subsection (2), (3) or (4), the regulator decides—
- (a) to impose the requirement, make the appointment or vary the terms of an appointment in accordance with the original notice, or
 - (b) not to rescind the imposition of any such requirement or the making of any such appointment or variation which has already taken effect,
- the regulator must give written notice to each person to whom the original notice was given.
- (10) A notice under subsection (9) must inform the person to whom it is given of the right of that person to refer the matter to the Tribunal and give an indication of the procedure on such a reference.
- (11) If, having considered any representations made by a person to whom notice (the “original notice”) has been given under subsection (2), (3) or (4), the regulator decides—
- (a) to impose a requirement, make an appointment or vary the terms of an appointment in a way that is different from the requirement, appointment or variation described in the original notice,
 - (b) not to impose the requirement, make the appointment or vary the terms of an appointment in accordance with the original notice, or
 - (c) to rescind the imposition of any such requirement, or the making of any such appointment or variation that has already taken effect,
- the regulator must give written notice to each person to whom the original notice was given.
- (12) A notice under subsection (11)(a) about the imposition of a requirement under section 71B or 71C(2) must comply with subsection (5).
- (13) A notice under subsection (11)(a) about the appointment of a person as a temporary manager or the variation of the terms of the appointment of a person as a temporary manager must comply with subsection (6).
- (14) A notice under subsection (11)(a) about the imposition of a requirement under section 71C(8) must comply with subsection (7).
- (15) In this section, any reference to “appointment” includes “re-appointment”.
