100 Penalties.

- (1) In determining its policy with respect to the amount of penalties to be imposed by it under this Part, the competent authority must take no account of the expenses which it incurs, or expects to incur, in discharging its functions under this Part.
- (2) The competent authority must prepare and operate a scheme for ensuring that the amounts paid to it by way of penalties imposed under this Part are applied for the benefit of issuers of securities admitted to the official list.
- (3) The scheme may, in particular, make different provision with respect to different classes of issuer.
- (4) Up to date details of the scheme must be set out in a document (“the scheme details”).
- (5) The scheme details must be published by the competent authority in the way appearing to it to be best calculated to bring them to the attention of the public.
- (6) Before making the scheme, the competent authority must publish a draft of the proposed scheme in the way appearing to it to be best calculated to bring it to the attention of the public.
- (7) The draft must be accompanied by notice that representations about the proposals may be made to the competent authority within a specified time.
- (8) Before making the scheme, the competent authority must have regard to any representations made to it under subsection (7).
- (9) If the competent authority makes the proposed scheme, it must publish an account, in general terms, of—
 - (a) the representations made to it in accordance with subsection (7); and
 - (b) its response to them.
- (10) If the scheme differs from the draft published under subsection (6) in a way which is, in the opinion of the competent authority, significant the competent authority must (in addition to complying with subsection (9)) publish details of the difference.
- (11) The competent authority must, without delay, give the Treasury a copy of any scheme details published by it.
- (12) The competent authority may charge a reasonable fee for providing a person with a copy of—
 - (a) a draft published under subsection (6);
 - (b) scheme details.
- (13) Subsections (6) to (10) and (12) apply also to a proposal to alter or replace the scheme.

- (b) a provision of transparency rules or any other provision made in accordance with the transparency obligations directive, in relation to an issuer whose home State is a member State other than the United Kingdom.
- (2) The competent authority may act in such a case only in respect of the infringement of a provision required by the relevant directive.
- Any reference to an applicable provision or applicable transparency obligation shall be read accordingly.
- (3) If the authority finds that there has been such an infringement, it must give a notice to that effect to the competent authority of the person's home State requesting it—
- (a) to take all appropriate measures for the purpose of ensuring that the person remedies the situation that has given rise to the notice, and
- (b) to inform the authority of the measures it proposes to take or has taken or the reasons for not taking such measures.
- (4) The authority may not act further unless satisfied—
- (a) that the competent authority of the person's home State has failed or refused to take measures for the purpose mentioned in subsection (3)(a), or
- (b) that the measures taken by that authority have proved inadequate for that purpose.
- This does not affect exercise of the powers under section 87K(2), 87L(2) or (3) or 89L(2) or (3) (powers to protect market).
- (5) If the authority is so satisfied, it must, after informing the competent authority of the person's home State, take all appropriate measures to protect investors.
- (6) In such a case the authority must inform the Commission of the measures at the earliest opportunity.]]
