Part 6 Rules

(1) The FCA may make rules (“Part 6 rules”) for the purposes of this Part.

(2) Provisions of Part 6 rules expressed to relate to the official list are referred to in this Part as “listing rules”.

(3) . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . .

(4) Provisions of Part 6 rules expressed to relate to transferable securities are referred to in this Part as “prospectus rules”.

(5) In relation to prospectus rules, the purposes of this Part include the purposes of the prospectus directive.

Prospectus rules, but are Part 6 rules.

The official list

(1) The FCA must maintain the official list.

(2) The FCA may admit to the official list such securities and other things as it considers appropriate.

(3) But—
(a) nothing may be admitted to the official list except in accordance with this Part; and

(b) the Treasury may by order provide that anything which falls within a description or category specified in the order may not be admitted to the official list.

(4) F10 . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . .

(5) In the following provisions of this Part—

F11 . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . .

“listing” means being included in the official list in accordance with this Part.

Commencement Information

I1 S. 74 wholly in force at 1.12.2001; s. 74 not in force at Royal Assent see s. 431(2); s. 74(4)(5) in force at 18.6.2001 by S.I. 2001/1820, art. 2, Sch.; s. 74 in force in so far as not already in force at 1.12.2001 by S.I. 2001/3538, art. 2(1)

Listing

75 Applications for listing.

(1) Admission to the official list may be granted only on an application made to the [F5FCA] in such manner as may be required by listing rules.

(2) No application for listing may be entertained by the [F5FCA] unless it is made by, or with the consent of, the issuer of the securities concerned.

(3) No application for listing may be entertained by the [F5FCA] in respect of securities which are to be issued by a body of a prescribed kind.

(4) The [F5FCA] may not grant an application for listing unless it is satisfied that—

   (a) the requirements of listing rules (so far as they apply to the application), and

   (b) any other requirements imposed by [F5the FCA] in relation to the application, are complied with.

(5) An application for listing may be refused if, for a reason relating to the issuer, the [F5FCA] considers that granting it would be detrimental to the interests of investors.
(6) An application for listing securities which are already officially listed in another EEA State may be refused if the issuer has failed to comply with any obligations to which he is subject as a result of that listing.

76 Decision on application.

(1) The FCA must notify the applicant of its decision on an application for listing—
(a) before the end of the period of six months beginning with the date on which the application is received; or
(b) if within that period the FCA has required the applicant to provide further information in connection with the application, before the end of the period of six months beginning with the date on which that information is provided.

(2) If the FCA fails to comply with subsection (1), it is to be taken to have decided to refuse the application.

(3) If the FCA decides to grant an application for listing, it must give the applicant written notice.

(4) If the FCA proposes to refuse an application for listing, it must give the applicant a warning notice.

(5) If the FCA decides to refuse an application for listing, it must give the applicant a decision notice.

(6) If the FCA decides to refuse an application for listing, the applicant may refer the matter to the Tribunal.

(7) If securities are admitted to the official list, their admission may not be called in question on the ground that any requirement or condition for their admission has not been complied with.

Textual Amendments

77 Discontinuance and suspension of listing.

(1) The [F5FCA] may, in accordance with listing rules, discontinue the listing of any securities if satisfied that there are special circumstances which preclude normal regular dealings in them.

(2) The [F5FCA] may, in accordance with listing rules, suspend the listing of any securities.

[F12(2A) The [F5FCA] may discontinue under subsection (1) or suspend under subsection (2) the listing of any securities on its own initiative or on the application of the issuer of those securities.]

(3) If securities are suspended under subsection (2) they are to be treated, for the purposes of [F13section 96 and paragraph 23(6) of Schedule 1ZA], as still being listed.

[F14(3A) If securities have been suspended by the Bank of England under section 19, 39B or 48L of the Banking Act 2009, the FCA may, following consultation with the Bank of England, cancel the suspension.]

(4) This section applies to securities whenever they were admitted to the official list.

(5) If the [F5FCA] discontinues or suspends the listing of any securities, [F15on its own initiative,] the issuer may refer the matter to the Tribunal.

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

C4 S. 76(1) modified (1.12.2001) by S.I. 2001/2957, arts. 1, 4(3); S.I. 2001/3538, art. 2(1)

Commencement Information

I3 S. 77 wholly in force at 1.12.2001; s. 77 not in force at Royal Assent see s. 431(2); s. 77(1)(2)(4) in force for specified purposes at 18.6.2001 by S.I. 2001/1820, art. 2, Sch.; s. 77 in force in so far as not already in force at 1.12.2001 by S.I. 2001/3538, art. 2(1)
Discontinuance or suspension: procedure.

(1) A discontinuance or suspension [F16 by the [F5 FCA] on its own initiative] takes effect—
   (a) immediately, if the notice under subsection (2) states that that is the case;
   (b) in any other case, on such date as may be specified in that notice.

(2) If [F17 on its own initiative] the [F5 FCA]—
   (a) proposes to discontinue or suspend the listing of securities, or
   (b) discontinues or suspends the listing of securities with immediate effect, it must give the issuer of the securities written notice.

(3) The notice must—
   (a) give details of the discontinuance or suspension;
   (b) state the [F5 FCA's] reasons for the discontinuance or suspension and for choosing the date on which it took effect or takes effect;
   (c) inform the issuer of the securities that he may make representations to the [F5 FCA] within such period as may be specified in the notice (whether or not he has referred the matter to the Tribunal);
   (d) inform him of the date on which the discontinuance or suspension took effect or will take effect; and
   (e) inform him of his right to refer the matter to the Tribunal.

(4) The [F5 FCA] may extend the period within which representations may be made to it.

(5) If, having considered any representations made by the issuer of the securities, the [F5 FCA] decides—
    (a) to discontinue or suspend the listing of the securities, or
    (b) if the discontinuance or suspension has taken effect, not to cancel it, the [F5 FCA] must give the issuer of the securities written notice.

(6) A notice given under subsection (5) must inform the issuer of the securities of his right to refer the matter to the Tribunal.

(7) If a notice informs a person of his right to refer a matter to the Tribunal, it must give an indication of the procedure on such a reference.

(8) If the [F5 FCA] decides—
    (a) not to discontinue or suspend the listing of the securities, or
    (b) if the discontinuance or suspension has taken effect, to cancel it, the [F5 FCA] must give the issuer of the securities written notice.

(9) The effect of cancelling a discontinuance is that the securities concerned are to be readmitted, without more, to the official list.

[F18 (10) If—
(a) the FCA has suspended the listing of securities on its own initiative, or securities have been suspended by the Bank of England under section 19, 39B or 48L of the Banking Act 2009, and
(b) the FCA proposes to refuse an application by the issuer of the securities for the cancellation of the suspension, the FCA must give the issuer a warning notice.]
(11) The [F5FCA] must, having considered any representations made in response to the warning notice—
   (a) if it decides to refuse the application, give the issuer of the securities a decision notice;
   (b) if it grants the application, give him written notice of its decision.

(12) If the [F5FCA] decides to refuse an application for the cancellation of the suspension of listed securities, the applicant may refer the matter to the Tribunal.

(13) “Discontinuance” means a discontinuance of listing under section 77(1).

(14) “Suspension” means a suspension of listing under section 77(2) [F19and in subsections (10) and (12), includes a suspension of listing under section 19, 39B or 48L of the Banking Act 2009].

[F2078A Discontinuance or suspension at the request of the issuer: procedure

(1) A discontinuance or suspension by the [F5FCA] on the application of the issuer of the securities takes effect—
   [F21(a) immediately, if the notification under subsection (2) so provides;
   (b) in any other case, on such date as may be provided for in that notification.]

(2) If the [F5FCA] discontinues or suspends the listing of securities on the application of the issuer of the securities it must [F22notify the issuer (whether in writing or otherwise)].

(3) The notification must—
   (a) notify the issuer of the date on which the discontinuance or suspension took effect or will take effect, and
   (b) notify the issuer of such other matters (if any) as are specified in listing rules.

(4) If the [F5FCA] proposes to refuse an application by the issuer of the securities for the discontinuance or suspension of the listing of the securities, it must give him a warning notice.

(5) The [F5FCA] must, having considered any representations made in response to the warning notice, if it decides to refuse the application, give the issuer of the securities a decision notice.
(6) If the [F5FCA] decides to refuse an application by the issuer of the securities for the discontinuance or suspension of the listing of the securities, the issuer may refer the matter to the Tribunal.

(7) If the [F5FCA] has suspended the listing of securities on the application of the issuer of the securities and proposes to refuse an application by the issuer for the cancellation of the suspension, it must give him a warning notice.

(8) The [F5FCA] must, having considered any representations made in response to the warning notice—
   (a) if it decides to refuse the application for the cancellation of the suspension, give the issuer of the securities a decision notice;
   (b) if it grants the application, give him written notice of its decision.

(9) If the [F5FCA] decides to refuse an application for the cancellation of the suspension of listed securities, the applicant may refer the matter to the Tribunal.

(10) “Discontinuance” means a discontinuance of listing under section 77(1).

(11) “Suspension” means a suspension of listing under section 77(2).]

Listing particulars

Listing particulars and other documents.

(1) Listing rules may provide that securities of a kind specified in the rules may not be admitted to the official list unless—
   (a) listing particulars have been submitted to, and approved by, the [F5FCA] and published;
   (b) in such cases as may be specified by listing rules, such document (other than listing particulars or a prospectus of a kind required by listing rules) as may be so specified has been published.

(2) “Listing particulars” means a document in such form and containing such information as may be specified in listing rules.
For the purposes of this Part, the persons responsible for listing particulars are to be determined in accordance with regulations made by the Treasury.

Listing rules made under subsection (1) may not specify securities of a kind for which an approved prospectus is required as a result of section 85.

Nothing in this section affects the FCA's general power to make listing rules.

General duty of disclosure in listing particulars.

(1) Listing particulars submitted to the FCA under section 79 must contain all such information as investors and their professional advisers would reasonably require, and reasonably expect to find there, for the purpose of making an informed assessment of—

(a) the assets and liabilities, financial position, profits and losses, and prospects of the issuer of the securities; and

(b) the rights attaching to the securities.

(2) That information is required in addition to any information required by—

(a) listing rules, or

(b) the FCA,

as a condition of the admission of the securities to the official list.

(3) Subsection (1) applies only to information—

(a) within the knowledge of any person responsible for the listing particulars; or

(b) which it would be reasonable for him to obtain by making enquiries.

(4) In determining what information subsection (1) requires to be included in listing particulars, regard must be had (in particular) to—

(a) the nature of the securities and their issuer;

(b) the nature of the persons likely to consider acquiring them;
(c) the fact that certain matters may reasonably be expected to be within the knowledge of professional advisers of a kind which persons likely to acquire the securities may reasonably be expected to consult; and

(d) any information available to investors or their professional advisers as a result of requirements imposed on the issuer of the securities by a recognised investment exchange, by listing rules or by or under any other enactment.

Textual Amendments

F5 Words in ss. 73A-84 substituted (24.1.2013 for specified purposes, 1.4.2013 in so far as not already in force) by Financial Services Act 2012 (c. 21), ss.16(2)(3)(a), 122(3) (with Sch. 20); S.I. 2013/113, art. 2(1)(c), Sch. Pt. 3; S.I. 2013/423, art. 3, Sch.

81 Supplementary listing particulars.

(1) If at any time after the preparation of listing particulars which have been submitted to the [F5 FCA] under section 79 and before the commencement of dealings in the securities concerned following their admission to the official list—

(a) there is a significant change affecting any matter contained in those particulars the inclusion of which was required by—

(i) section 80,
(ii) listing rules, or
(iii) the [F5 FCA], or

(b) a significant new matter arises, the inclusion of information in respect of which would have been so required if it had arisen when the particulars were prepared, the issuer must, in accordance with listing rules, submit supplementary listing particulars of the change or new matter to the [F5 FCA], for its approval and, if they are approved, publish them.

(2) “Significant” means significant for the purpose of making an informed assessment of the kind mentioned in section 80(1).

(3) If the issuer of the securities is not aware of the change or new matter in question, he is not under a duty to comply with subsection (1) unless he is notified of the change or new matter by a person responsible for the listing particulars.

(4) But it is the duty of any person responsible for those particulars who is aware of such a change or new matter to give notice of it to the issuer.

(5) Subsection (1) applies also as respects matters contained in any supplementary listing particulars previously published under this section in respect of the securities in question.

Textual Amendments

F5 Words in ss. 73A-84 substituted (24.1.2013 for specified purposes, 1.4.2013 in so far as not already in force) by Financial Services Act 2012 (c. 21), ss.16(2)(3)(a), 122(3) (with Sch. 20); S.I. 2013/113, art. 2(1)(c), Sch. Pt. 3; S.I. 2013/423, art. 3, Sch.
Exemptions from disclosure.

(1) The [F5 FCA] may authorise the omission from listing particulars of any information, the inclusion of which would otherwise be required by section 80 or 81, on the ground—
   (a) that its disclosure would be contrary to the public interest;
   (b) that its disclosure would be seriously detrimental to the issuer; or
   (c) in the case of securities of a kind specified in listing rules, that its disclosure is unnecessary for persons of the kind who may be expected normally to buy or deal in securities of that kind.

(2) But—
   (a) no authority may be granted under subsection (1)(b) in respect of essential information; and
   (b) no authority granted under subsection (1)(b) extends to any such information.

(3) The Secretary of State or the Treasury may issue a certificate to the effect that the disclosure of any information (including information that would otherwise have to be included in listing particulars for which they are themselves responsible) would be contrary to the public interest.

(4) The [F5 FCA] is entitled to act on any such certificate in exercising its powers under subsection (1)(a).

(5) This section does not affect any powers of the [F5 FCA] under listing rules made as a result of section 101(2).

(6) “Essential information” means information which a person considering acquiring securities of the kind in question would be likely to need in order not to be misled about any facts which it is essential for him to know in order to make an informed assessment.

(7) “Listing particulars” includes supplementary listing particulars.

Matters which may be dealt with by prospectus rules

(1) Prospectus rules may make provision as to—
   (a) the required form and content of a prospectus (including a summary);
   (b) the cases in which a summary need not be included in a prospectus;
   (c) the languages which may be used in a prospectus (including a summary);
   (d) the determination of the persons responsible for a prospectus;
   (e) the manner in which applications to the [F5 FCA] for the approval of a prospectus are to be made.

(2) Prospectus rules may also make provision as to—
   (a) the period of validity of a prospectus;
   (b) the disclosure of the maximum price or of the criteria or conditions according to which the final offer price is to be determined, if that information is not contained in a prospectus;
   (c) the disclosure of the amount of the transferable securities which are to be offered to the public or of the criteria or conditions according to which that amount is to be determined, if that information is not contained in a prospectus;
   (d) the required form and content of other summary documents (including the languages which may be used in such a document);
   (e) the ways in which a prospectus that has been approved by the [F5 FCA] may be made available to the public;
(f) the disclosure, publication or other communication of such information as the [F5FCA] may reasonably stipulate;

(g) the principles to be observed in relation to advertisements in connection with an offer of transferable securities to the public or admission of transferable securities to trading on a regulated market and the enforcement of those principles;

(h) the suspension of trading in transferable securities where continued trading would be detrimental to the interests of investors;

(i) elections under section 87 or under Article 2.1(m)(iii) of the prospectus directive as applied for the purposes of this Part by section 102C.

(3) . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . .

(4) Prospectus rules may make provision for the purpose of dealing with matters arising out of or related to any provision of the prospectus directive.

(5) In relation to cases where the home State in relation to an issuer of transferable securities is an EEA State other than the United Kingdom, prospectus rules may make provision for the recognition of elections made in relation to such securities under the law of that State in accordance with Article 1.3 or 2.1(m)(iii) of the prospectus directive.

(6) In relation to a document relating to transferable securities issued by an issuer incorporated in a non-EEA State and drawn up in accordance with the law of that State, prospectus rules may make provision as to the approval of that document as a prospectus.

(7) Nothing in this section affects the [F5FCA’s] general power to make prospectus rules.

(1) It is unlawful for transferable securities to which this subsection applies to be offered to the public in the United Kingdom unless an approved prospectus has been made available to the public before the offer is made.

(2) It is unlawful to request the admission of transferable securities to which this subsection applies to trading on a regulated market situated or operating in the United Kingdom unless an approved prospectus has been made available to the public before the request is made.

(3) A person who contravenes subsection (1) or (2) is guilty of an offence and liable—

(a) on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 months or a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum or both;
(b) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 2 years or a fine or both.

(4) A contravention of subsection (1) or (2) is actionable, at the suit of a person who suffers loss as a result of the contravention, subject to the defences and other incidents applying to actions for breach of statutory duty.

(5) Subsection (1) applies to all transferable securities other than—
   (a) those listed in Schedule 11A;
   (b) such other transferable securities as may be specified in prospectus rules.

(6) Subsection (2) applies to all transferable securities other than—
   (a) those listed in Part 1 of Schedule 11A;
   (b) such other transferable securities as may be specified in prospectus rules.

(7) “Approved prospectus” means, in relation to transferable securities to which this section applies, a prospectus approved by the competent authority of the home State in relation to the issuer of the securities.

[F3186 Exempt offers to the public

(1) A person does not contravene section 85(1) if—
   (a) the offer is made to or directed at qualified investors only;
   (b) the offer is made to or directed at fewer than [F35 150 persons], other than qualified investors, per EEA State;
   (c) the minimum consideration which may be paid by any person for transferable securities acquired by him pursuant to the offer is at least [F33 100,000 euros] (or an equivalent amount);
   (d) the transferable securities being offered are denominated in amounts of at least [F33 100,000 euros] (or equivalent amounts); F34...
   (e) the total consideration for the transferable securities being offered [F35 in the EEA States] cannot exceed [F368,000,000] euros (or an equivalent amount). [F37; or]
   [F37(f) the offer falls within subsection (1A).]

[F38(1A) An offer (“the current offer”) falls within this subsection if the transferable securities are being sold or placed through a financial intermediary where—
   (a) the transferable securities have previously been the subject of one or more offers to the public;
   (b) in respect of one or more of those previous offers any of paragraphs (a) to (e) of subsection (1) applied;
   (c) a prospectus is available for the securities which has been approved by the [F39 FCA][F40 or the competent authority of another EEA State][F41] and meets either of the conditions in subsection (1B)]; and
(d) the issuer or other person who was responsible for drawing up the prospectus has given written consent to the use of the prospectus for the purpose of the current offer.

\[^{F42}(1B)\] The conditions referred to in subsection (1A)(c) are—

(a) that the prospectus was approved by the FCA or the competent authority of another EEA State no earlier than 12 months before the date the current offer is made, and is supplemented by every supplementary prospectus which was required to be submitted under section 87G; or

(b) in the case of non-equity transferable securities falling within Article 5(4)(b) of the prospectus directive, that the securities concerned have not ceased to be issued in a continuous or repeated manner.

(2) Where—

(a) a person who is not a qualified investor ("the client") has engaged a qualified investor falling within point (1) of Section I of Annex II to the markets in financial instruments directive to act as his agent, and

(b) the terms on which the qualified investor is engaged enable him to make decisions concerning the acceptance of offers of transferable securities on the client's behalf without reference to the client, an offer made to or directed at the qualified investor is not to be regarded for the purposes of subsection (1) as also having been made to or directed at the client.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (1)(b), the making of an offer of transferable securities to—

(a) trustees of a trust,

(b) members of a partnership in their capacity as such, or

(c) two or more persons jointly,

is to be treated as the making of an offer to a single person.

(4) In determining whether subsection (1)(e) is satisfied in relation to an offer ("offer A"), offer A is to be taken together with any other offer of transferable securities of the same class made by the same person which—

(a) was open at any time within the period of 12 months ending with the date on which offer A is first made; and

(b) had previously satisfied subsection (1)(e).

(5) For the purposes of this section, an amount (in relation to an amount denominated in euros) is an "equivalent amount" if it is an amount of equal value denominated wholly or partly in another currency or unit of account.

(6) The equivalent is to be calculated at the latest practicable date before (but in any event not more than 3 working days before) the date on which the offer is first made.

\[^{F45}(7)\] "Qualified investor", in relation to an offer of transferable securities, means—

(a) a person described in points (1) to (4) of Section I of Annex II to the markets in financial instruments directive, other than a person who, before the making of the offer, has agreed in writing with the relevant firm (or each of the relevant firms) to be treated as a non-professional client in accordance with the final paragraph of Section I of Annex II to that directive;

(b) a person who has made a request to one or more relevant firms to be treated as a professional client in accordance with Section II of Annex II to that directive and has not subsequently, but before the making of the offer, agreed in writing
[F46] with that relevant firm (or each of those relevant firms) to be treated as a non-professional client in accordance with the final paragraph of Section I of Annex II to that directive;

(c) a person who is an eligible counterparty in accordance with [F46]Article 30 of that directive and has not, before the making of the offer, agreed in writing with the relevant firm (or each of the relevant firms) to be treated as a non-professional client in accordance with the final paragraph of Section I of Annex II to that directive; or

[F47] (d) a person whom—

(i) any relevant firm was authorised to continue to treat as a professional client immediately before 3 January 2018 by virtue of Article 71.6 (transitional provisions) of Directive 2004/39/EC on markets in financial instruments; and

(ii) the firm may continue to treat as a professional client from 3 January 2018 by virtue of Section II.2 of Annex II to the markets in financial instruments directive.]

[F48] (8) In subsection (7) “relevant firm” means an investment firm or credit institution acting in connection with the offer.

(9) Investment firms and credit institutions which are authorised persons must communicate their classification of their clients as being or not being qualified investors on request to an issuer subject to complying with

[F49] (a) the data protection legislation, or

(b) any directly applicable EU legislation which is not part of the data protection legislation but which relates to data protection.

(10) In subsections (8) and (9), “credit institution” means—

(a) a credit institution authorised under the [F50]capital requirements directive; or

(b) an institution which would satisfy the requirements for authorisation as a credit institution under that directive if it had its registered office (or if it does not have one, its head office) in an EEA State.

Election to have prospectus

(1) A person who proposes—
   (a) to issue transferable securities to which this section applies,
   (b) to offer to the public transferable securities to which this section applies, or
   (c) to request the admission to a regulated market of transferable securities to which this section applies, may elect, in accordance with prospectus rules, to have a prospectus in relation to the securities.

(2) If a person makes such an election, the provisions of this Part and of prospectus rules apply in relation to those transferable securities as if, in relation to an offer of the securities to the public or the admission of the securities to trading on a regulated market, they were transferable securities for which an approved prospectus would be required as a result of section 85.

(3) Listing rules made under section 79 do not apply to securities which are the subject of an election.

(4) The transferable securities to which this section applies are those which fall within any of the following paragraphs of Schedule 11A—
   (a) paragraph 2,
   (b) paragraph 4,
(c) paragraph 8, or
(d) paragraph 9,
where the United Kingdom is the home State in relation to the issuer of the securities.

87A Criteria for approval of prospectus by F55FCA

(1) The F54FCA may not approve a prospectus unless it is satisfied that—
   (a) the United Kingdom is the home State in relation to the issuer of the transferable securities to which it relates,
   (b) the prospectus contains the necessary information, and
   (c) all of the other requirements imposed by or in accordance with this Part or the prospectus directive have been complied with (so far as those requirements apply to a prospectus for the transferable securities in question).

(2) The necessary information is the information necessary to enable investors to make an informed assessment of—
   (a) the assets and liabilities, financial position, profits and losses, and prospects of the issuer of the transferable securities and of any guarantor; and
   (b) the rights attaching to the transferable securities.

 [If, in the case of transferable securities to which section 87 applies, the prospectus states that the guarantor is a specified EEA State, the prospectus is not required to include other information about the guarantor.]

(3) The necessary information must be presented in a form which is comprehensible and easy to analyse.

(4) The necessary information must be prepared having regard to the particular nature of the transferable securities and their issuer.

(5) The prospectus must include a summary (unless the transferable securities in question are ones in relation to which prospectus rules provide that a summary is not required).
(6) The summary must convey concisely, in non-technical language and in an appropriate structure, the key information relevant to the securities which are the subject of the prospectus and, when read with the rest of the prospectus, must be an aid to investors considering whether to invest in the securities.

(a) inform, in writing, the competent authority and any competent authority of any EEA State which the applicant has requested be supplied with a certificate of approval under section 87I; and

(b) make that information available, in writing, to prospective investors.

(7) Where the prospectus for which approval is sought does not include the final offer price or the amount of transferable securities to be offered to the public, the applicant must, as soon as that element is finalised—

(a) inform, in writing, the FCA and any competent authority of any EEA State which the applicant has requested be supplied with a certificate of approval under section 87I; and

(b) make that information available, in writing, to prospective investors.

(8) “Prospectus” (except in subsection (5)) includes a supplementary prospectus.

the key information means the information which is essential to enable investors to understand the transferable securities to which the prospectus relates and to decide whether to consider the offer further.

(10) The key information must include —

(a) the essential characteristics of, and risks associated with, the issuer and any guarantor, including their assets, liabilities and financial positions;

(b) the essential characteristics of, and risks associated with, investment in the transferable securities, including any rights attaching to the securities;

(c) the general terms of the offer, including an estimate of the expenses charged to an investor by the issuer and the person offering the securities to the public, if not the issuer;

(d) details of the admission to trading; and

(e) the reasons for the offer and proposed use of the proceeds.

87B  Exemptions from disclosure

(1) The [^F61]FCA may authorise the omission from a prospectus of any information, the inclusion of which would otherwise be required, on the ground—
   (a) that its disclosure would be contrary to the public interest;
   (b) that its disclosure would be seriously detrimental to the issuer, provided that the omission would be unlikely to mislead the public with regard to any facts or circumstances which are essential for an informed assessment of the kind mentioned in section 87A(2); or
   (c) that the information is only of minor importance for a specific offer to the public or admission to trading on a regulated market and unlikely to influence an informed assessment of the kind mentioned in section 87A(2).

(2) The Secretary of State or the Treasury may issue a certificate to the effect that the disclosure of any information would be contrary to the public interest.

(3) The [^F61]FCA is entitled to act on any such certificate in exercising its powers under subsection (1)(a).

(4) This section does not affect any powers of the [^F61]FCA under prospectus rules.

(5) “Prospectus” includes a supplementary prospectus.

87C  Consideration of application for approval

(1) The [^F61]FCA must notify the applicant of its decision on an application for approval of a prospectus before the end of the period for consideration.

(2) The period for consideration—
   (a) begins with the first working day after the date on which the application is received; but
   (b) if the [^F61]FCA gives a notice under subsection (4), is to be treated as beginning with the first working day after the date on which the notice is complied with.

(3) The period for consideration is—
   (a) except in the case of a new issuer, 10 working days; or
   (b) in that case, 20 working days.
(4) The [F61FCA] may by notice in writing require a person who has applied for approval of a prospectus to provide—
   (a) specified documents or documents of a specified description, or
   (b) specified information or information of a specified description.

(5) No notice under subsection (4) may be given after the end of the period, beginning with the first working day after the date on which the application is received, of—
   (a) except in the case of a new issuer, 10 working days; or
   (b) in that case, 20 working days.

(6) Subsection (4) applies only to information and documents reasonably required in connection with the exercise by the [F61FCA] of its functions in relation to the application.

(7) The [F61FCA] may require any information provided under this section to be provided in such form as it may reasonably require.

(8) The [F61FCA] may require—
   (a) any information provided, whether in a document or otherwise, to be verified in such manner, or
   (b) any document produced to be authenticated in such manner, as it may reasonably require.

(9) The [F61FCA] must notify the applicant of its decision on an application for approval of a supplementary prospectus before the end of the period of 7 working days beginning with the date on which the application is received; and subsections (4) and (6) to (8) apply to such an application as they apply to an application for approval of a prospectus.

(10) The [F61FCA's] failure to comply with subsection (1) or (9) does not constitute approval of the application in question.

(11) “New issuer” means an issuer of transferable securities which—
   (a) does not have transferable securities admitted to trading on any regulated market; and
   (b) has not previously offered transferable securities to the public.

Transfer of application for approval of a prospectus

87E Transfer by [F64 FCA] of application for approval

(1) The [F64 FCA] may transfer an application for the approval of a prospectus or a supplementary prospectus to the competent authority of another EEA State (“the transferee authority”).

(2) Before doing so, the [F64 FCA] must obtain the agreement of the transferee authority [F67] and notify ESMA.

(3) The [F64 FCA] must inform the applicant of the transfer within 3 working days beginning with the first working day after the date of the transfer.

(4) On making a transfer under subsection (1), the [F64 FCA] ceases to have functions under this Part in relation to the application transferred.

Transfer to [F8FCA] of application for approval

(1) [F66] Where the FCA agrees to the transfer to it of an application for the approval of a prospectus made to the competent authority of another EEA State—

(a) the United Kingdom is to be treated for the purposes of this Part as the home State in relation to the issuer of the transferable securities to which the prospectus relates, and

(b) this Part applies to the application as if it had been made to the [F70FCA] but with the modification in subsection (2).

(2) Section 87C applies as if the date of the transfer were the date on which the application was received by the [F71FCA].

Final terms

Final terms issued in relation to a prospectus must only contain information that relates to the securities note and must not be used to supplement the prospectus.
Communication of final terms by FCA

(1) Where the FCA in its capacity as the competent authority of the home State receives final terms issued in relation to a prospectus it must communicate those final terms as follows—

(a) where an offer of transferable securities to the public is to be made in another EEA State, to the competent authority of that EEA State, where possible before that offer begins or as soon as practicable following the making of that offer;

(b) where transferable securities are to be admitted to trading on a regulated market in another EEA State, to the competent authority of that EEA State, where possible before that admission occurs or as soon as practicable following the admission of those transferable securities to trading on a regulated market.

(2) The FCA must communicate all final terms in relation to a prospectus it receives in its capacity as the competent authority of the home State to ESMA.

Supplementary prospectus

87G Supplementary prospectus

(1) Subsection (2) applies if, during the relevant period, there arises or is noted a significant new factor, material mistake or inaccuracy relating to the information included in a prospectus approved by the FCA.

(2) The person on whose application the prospectus was approved must, in accordance with prospectus rules, submit a supplementary prospectus containing details of the new factor, mistake or inaccuracy to the FCA for its approval.

(3) The relevant period begins when the prospectus is approved and ends—

(a) with the closure of the offer of the transferable securities to which the prospectus relates; or

(b) when trading in those securities on a regulated market begins.

(3A) But where the prospectus relates both to an offer of transferable securities to the public and the admission of those securities to trading on a regulated market, subsection (3) does not apply and the relevant period begins when the prospectus is approved and ends with the later of—

(a) the closure of the offer to the public to which the prospectus relates, or

(b) the time when trading in those securities on a regulated market begins.

(4) “Significant” means significant for the purposes of making an informed assessment of the kind mentioned in section 87A(2).
(5) Any person responsible for the prospectus who is aware of any new factor, mistake or inaccuracy which may require the submission of a supplementary prospectus in accordance with subsection (2) must give notice of it to—
   (a) the issuer of the transferable securities to which the prospectus relates, and
   (b) the person on whose application the prospectus was approved.

(6) A supplementary prospectus must provide sufficient information to correct any mistake or inaccuracy which gave rise to the need for it.

(7) Subsection (1) applies also to information contained in any supplementary prospectus published under this section.

(1) A prospectus approved by the competent authority of an EEA State other than the United Kingdom is not an approved prospectus for the purposes of section 85 unless that authority has [F76 notified ESMA and] provided the [F77 FCA] with—
   (a) a certificate of approval;
   (b) a copy of the prospectus as approved; and
   (c) if requested by the [F77 FCA], a translation of the summary of the prospectus.

(2) A document is not a certificate of approval unless it states that the prospectus—
   (a) has been drawn up in accordance with the prospectus directive; and
   (b) has been approved, in accordance with that directive, by the competent authority providing the certificate.

(3) A document is not a certificate of approval unless it states whether (and, if so, why) the competent authority providing it authorised, in accordance with the prospectus directive, the omission from the prospectus of information which would otherwise have been required to be included.

[F] The [F79 FCA] must publish on its website a list of certificates of approval provided to [F78 FCA] it in accordance with this section.

(3B) The list referred to in subsection (3A) must—
   (a) be kept up-to-date,
   (b) retain items on it for a period of at least 12 months, and
   (c) include hyperlinks to any certificate of approval and prospectus published on the website of—

87I Provision of information to host Member State

(1) The [F80]FCA must, if requested to do so, supply the competent authority of a specified EEA State with—
   (a) a certificate of approval;
   (b) a copy of the specified prospectus (as approved by the [F81]FCA); and
   (c) a translation of the summary of the specified prospectus (if the request states that one has been requested by the [F82]... competent authority).

[F83] If the [F84]FCA supplies a certificate of approval to the competent authority of the specified EEA State, it must also supply a copy of that certificate [F85] to—
   (a) the person who made the request under this section; and
   (b) ESMA]

(2) Only the following may make a request under this section—
   (a) the issuer of the transferable securities to which the specified prospectus relates;
   (b) a person who wishes to offer the transferrable securities to which the specified prospectus relates to the public in an EEA State other than (or as well as) the United Kingdom;
   (c) a person requesting the admission of the transferrable securities to which the specified prospectus relates to a regulated market situated or operating in an EEA State other than (or as well as) the United Kingdom.

(3) A certificate of approval must state that the prospectus—
   (a) has been drawn up in accordance with this Part and the prospectus directive; and
   (b) has been approved, in accordance with those provisions, by the [F86]FCA.
(4) A certificate of approval must state whether (and, if so, why) the [F86FCA] authorised, in accordance with section 87B, the omission from the prospectus of information which would otherwise have been required to be included.

(5) The [F86FCA] must comply with a request under this section—
   (a) if the prospectus has been approved before the request is made, within 3 working days beginning with [F87] the date the request is received; or
   (b) if the request is submitted with an application for the approval of the prospectus, on the first working day after the date on which it approves the prospectus.

(6) “Prospectus” includes a supplementary prospectus.

(7) “Specified” means specified in a request made for the purposes of this section.

F88 Words in ss. 87J-87O and cross-heading substituted (24.1.2013 for specified purposes, 1.4.2013 in so far as not already in force) by Financial Services Act 2012 (c. 21), ss. 16(2)(3)(c), 122(3) (with Sch. 20); S.I. 2013/113, art. 2(1)(c), Sch. Pt. 3; S.I. 2013/423, art. 3, Sch.

87J Requirements imposed as condition of approval
(1) As a condition of approving a prospectus, the [F88:FCA] may by notice in writing—

(a) require the inclusion in the prospectus of such supplementary information necessary for investor protection as the [F88:FCA] may specify;
(b) require a person controlling, or controlled by, the applicant to provide specified information or documents;
(c) require an auditor or manager of the applicant to provide specified information or documents;
(d) require a financial intermediary commissioned to assist either in carrying out the offer to the public of the transferable securities to which the prospectus relates or in requesting their admission to trading on a regulated market, to provide specified information or documents.

(2) “Specified” means specified in the notice.

(3) “Prospectus” includes a supplementary prospectus.

87K Power to suspend or prohibit offer to the public

(1) This section applies where a person (“the offeror”) has made an offer of transferable securities to the public [F89] ("the offer").

(2) If the [F88:FCA] has reasonable grounds for suspecting that an applicable provision has been infringed, it may—

(a) require the offeror to suspend the offer for a period not exceeding 10 working days;
(b) require a person not to advertise the offer, or to take such steps as the FCA may specify to suspend any existing advertisement of the offer, for a period not exceeding 10 working days.

(3) If the [F88:FCA] has reasonable grounds for suspecting that it is likely that an applicable provision will be infringed, it may require the offeror to withdraw the offer.

(4) If the [F88:FCA] finds that an applicable provision has been infringed, it may require the offeror to withdraw the offer.

(5) “An applicable provision” means—

(a) a provision of this Part,
(b) a provision contained in prospectus rules,
(c) any other provision made in accordance with the prospectus directive, applicable in relation to the offer.

87L. Power to suspend or prohibit admission to trading on a regulated market

(1) This section applies where a person has requested the admission of transferable securities to trading on a regulated market.

(2) If the FCA has reasonable grounds for suspecting that an applicable provision has been infringed and the securities have not yet been admitted to trading on the regulated market in question, it may—
   (a) require the person requesting admission to suspend the request for a period not exceeding 10 working days;
   (b) require a person not to advertise the securities to which it relates, or to take such steps as the FCA may specify to suspend any existing advertisement in connection with those securities, for a period not exceeding 10 working days.

(3) If the FCA has reasonable grounds for suspecting that an applicable provision has been infringed and the securities have been admitted to trading on the regulated market in question, it may—
   (a) require the market operator to suspend trading in the securities for a period not exceeding 10 working days;
   (b) require a person not to advertise the securities, or to take such steps as the authority may specify to suspend any existing advertisement in connection with those securities, for a period not exceeding 10 working days.

(4) If the FCA finds that an applicable provision has been infringed, it may require the market operator to prohibit trading in the securities on the regulated market in question.

(5) “An applicable provision” means—
   (a) a provision of this Part,
   (b) a provision contained in prospectus rules,
   (c) any other provision made in accordance with the prospectus directive, applicable in relation to the admission of the transferable securities to trading on the regulated market in question.

Textual Amendments

F90 Words in s. 87L(1) omitted (17.12.2014) by virtue of The Payments to Governments and Miscellaneous Provisions Regulations 2014 (S.I. 2014/3293), regs. 1(2), 2(4)

87M Public censure of issuer

(1) If the FCA finds that—
   (a) an issuer of transferable securities,
   (b) a person offering transferable securities to the public, or
   (c) a person requesting the admission of transferable securities to trading on a regulated market, is failing or has failed to comply with his obligations under an applicable provision, it may publish a statement to that effect.

(2) If the [F88FCA] proposes to publish a statement, it must give the person a warning notice setting out the terms of the proposed statement.

(3) If, after considering any representations made in response to the warning notice, the [F88FCA] decides to make the proposed statement, it must give the person a decision notice setting out the terms of the statement.

(4) “An applicable provision” means—
   (a) a provision of this Part,
   (b) a provision contained in prospectus rules,
   (c) any other provision made in accordance with the prospectus directive, applicable to a prospectus in relation to the transferable securities in question.

(5) “Prospectus” includes a supplementary prospectus.

87N Right to refer matters to the Tribunal

(1) A person to whom a decision notice is given under section 87M may refer the matter to the Tribunal.

(2) A person to whom a notice is given under section 87O may refer the matter to the Tribunal.

87O Procedure under sections 87K and 87L

(1) A requirement under section 87K or 87L takes effect—
   (a) immediately, if the notice under subsection (2) states that that is the case;
   (b) in any other case, on such date as may be specified in that notice.

(2) If the [F88FCA]—
   (a) proposes to exercise the powers in section 87K or 87L in relation to a person, or
   (b) exercises any of those powers in relation to a person with immediate effect, it must give that person written notice.

(3) The notice must—
   (a) give details of the [F88FCA's] action or proposed action;
   (b) state the [F88FCA's] reasons for taking the action in question and choosing the date on which it took effect or takes effect;
   (c) inform the recipient that he may make representations to the [F88FCA] within such period as may be specified by the notice (whether or not he has referred the matter to the Tribunal);
   (d) inform him of the date on which the action took effect or takes effect; and
   (e) inform him of his right to refer the matter to the Tribunal.

(4) The [F88FCA] may extend the period within which representations may be made to it.
(5) If, having considered any representations made to it, the FCA decides to maintain, vary or revoke its earlier decision, it must give written notice to that effect to the person mentioned in subsection (2).

(6) A notice given under subsection (5) must inform that person, where relevant, of his right to refer the matter to the Tribunal.

(7) If a notice informs a person of his right to refer a matter to the Tribunal, it must give an indication of the procedure on such a reference.

(8) If a notice under this section relates to the exercise of the power conferred by section 87L(3), the notice must also be given to the person at whose request the transferable securities were admitted to trading on the regulated market.

87P Exercise of powers at request of competent authority of another EEA State

(1) This section applies if—

(a) the competent authority of an EEA State other than the United Kingdom has approved a prospectus,

(b) the transferable securities to which the prospectus relates have been offered to the public in the United Kingdom or their admission to trading on a regulated market has been requested, and

(c) that competent authority makes a request that the FCA assist it in the performance of its functions under the law of that State in connection with the prospectus directive.

(2) For the purpose of complying with the request mentioned in subsection (1)(c), the powers conferred by sections 87K and 87L may be exercised as if the prospectus were one which had been approved by the FCA.

(3) Section 87N does not apply to an exercise of those powers as a result of this section.

(4) Section 87O does apply to such an exercise of those powers but with the omission of subsections (3)(e), (6) and (7).]

Rights of investors

87Q Right of investor to withdraw
(1) Where a person agrees to buy or subscribe for transferable securities in circumstances where the final offer price or the amount of transferable securities to be offered to the public is not included in the prospectus, he may withdraw his acceptance before the end of the withdrawal period.

(2) The withdrawal period—
   (a) begins with the investor's acceptance; and
   (b) ends at the end of the second working day after the date on which the [F93 FCA] is informed of the information in accordance with section 87A(7).

(3) Subsection (1) does not apply if the prospectus contains—
   (a) in the case of the amount of transferable securities to be offered to the public, the criteria or conditions (or both) according to which that element will be determined, or
   (b) in the case of price, the criteria or conditions (or both) according to which that element will be determined or the maximum price.

[F94 (4) ] A person (“P”) may withdraw P’s acceptance of an offer of transferable securities to the public before the specified time where the conditions in subsection (5) are satisfied.

[F95 (5) ] The conditions are that—
   (a) a prospectus which relates to an offer of transferable securities to the public has been published;
   (b) a supplementary prospectus has been published;
   (c) prior to the publication of the supplementary prospectus, P agreed to buy or subscribe for transferable securities to which the offer relates; and
   (d) the significant new factor, material mistake or inaccuracy referred to in section 87G(1) which caused the supplementary prospectus to be published arose before delivery of the securities.

(6) The specified time is—
   (a) the end of the second working day after the day on which the supplementary prospectus was published; or
   (b) such later time as may be specified in the supplementary prospectus.

88 Sponsors.

(1) Listing rules may require a person to make arrangements with a sponsor for the performance by the sponsor of such services in relation to him as may be specified in the rules.

(2) “Sponsor” means a person approved by the F93FCA for the purposes of the rules.

(3) Listing rules made by virtue of subsection (1) may—
   (a) provide for the F93FCA to maintain a list of sponsors;
   (b) specify services which must be performed by a sponsor;
   (c) impose requirements on a sponsor in relation to the provision of services or specified services;
   (d) specify the circumstances in which a person is qualified for being approved as a sponsor.
   (e) provide for limitations or other restrictions to be imposed on the services to which an approval relates (whether or not the approval has already been granted);
   (f) provide for the approval of a sponsor to be suspended on the application of the sponsor.

(4) If the F93FCA proposes—
   (a) to refuse a person’s application under sponsor rules,
   (aa) to impose limitations or other restrictions on the services to which a person’s approval relates, or
   (b) to cancel a person’s approval as a sponsor otherwise than at his request, it must give him a warning notice.

(5) If, after considering any representations made in response to the warning notice, the F93FCA decides—
   (a) to grant the application under sponsor rules,
   (aa) not to impose limitations or other restrictions on the services to which a person's approval relates, or
   (b) not to cancel the approval, it must give the person concerned, and any person to whom a copy of the warning notice was given, written notice of its decision.

(6) If, after considering any representations made in response to the warning notice, the F93FCA decides—
   (a) to refuse to grant the application under sponsor rules,
   (aa) to impose limitations or other restrictions on the services to which a person's approval relates, or
   (b) to cancel the approval,
it must give the person concerned a decision notice.

(7) A person to whom a decision notice is given under this section may refer the matter to the Tribunal.

F105 In this section any reference to an application under sponsor rules means—
(a) an application for approval as a sponsor,
(b) an application for the suspension of an approval as a sponsor,
(c) an application for the withdrawal of the suspension of an approval as a sponsor, or
(d) an application for the withdrawal or variation of a limitation or other restriction on the services to which a sponsor's approval relates.]

Disciplinary powers: contravention of s.88(3)(c) or (e)

(1) The FCA may take action against a sponsor under this section if it considers that the sponsor has contravened a requirement or restriction imposed on the sponsor by rules made as a result of section 88(3)(c) or (e).

(2) If the FCA is entitled to take action under this section against a sponsor, it may do one or more of the following—
   (a) impose a penalty on the sponsor of such amount as it considers appropriate;
   (b) suspend, for such period as it considers appropriate, the sponsor's approval;
   (c) impose, for such period as it considers appropriate, such limitations or other restrictions in relation to the performance of services to which the sponsor's approval relates as it considers appropriate;
   (d) publish a statement to the effect that the sponsor has contravened a requirement or restriction imposed on the sponsor by rules made as a result of section 88(3)(c) or (e).

(3) The period for which a suspension or restriction is to have effect may not exceed 12 months.

(4) A suspension may relate only to the performance in specified circumstances of a service to which the approval relates.

(5) A restriction may, in particular, be imposed so as to require the sponsor to take, or refrain from taking, specified action.

(6) The FCA may—
   (a) withdraw a suspension or restriction; or
   (b) vary a suspension or restriction so as to reduce the period for which it has effect or otherwise to limit its effect.

(7) The FCA may not take action against a sponsor under this section after the end of the limitation period unless, before the end of that period, it has given a warning notice to the sponsor under section 88B(1).

(8) “The limitation period” means the period of 3 years beginning with the first day on which the FCA knew that the sponsor had contravened the requirement or restriction.

(9) For this purpose the FCA is to be treated as knowing that a sponsor has contravened a requirement or restriction if it has information from which that can reasonably be inferred.
88B  Action under s.88A: procedure and right to refer to Tribunal

(1) If the FCA proposes to take action against a sponsor under section 88A, it must give the sponsor a warning notice.

(2) A warning notice about a proposal to impose a penalty must state the amount of the penalty.

(3) A warning notice about a proposal—
   (a) to suspend an approval, or
   (b) to impose a restriction in relation to the performance of a service, must state the period for which the suspension or restriction is to have effect.

(4) A warning notice about a proposal to publish a statement must set out the terms of the statement.

(5) If the FCA decides to take action against a sponsor under section 88A, it must give the sponsor a decision notice.

(6) A decision notice about the imposition of a penalty must state the amount of the penalty.

(7) A decision notice about—
   (a) the suspension of an approval, or
   (b) the imposition of a restriction in relation to the performance of a service, must state the period for which the suspension or restriction is to have effect.

(8) A decision notice about the publication of a statement must set out the terms of the statement.

(9) If the FCA decides to take action against a sponsor under section 88A, the sponsor may refer the matter to the Tribunal.
88C  Action under s.88A: statement of policy

(1) The FCA must prepare and issue a statement of its policy with respect to—
   (a) the imposition of penalties, suspensions or restrictions under section 88A,
   (b) the amount of penalties under that section, and
   (c) the period for which suspensions or restrictions under that section are to have effect.

(2) The FCA's policy in determining what the amount of a penalty should be, or what the period for which a suspension or restriction is to have effect should be, must include having regard to—
   (a) the seriousness of the contravention in question in relation to the nature of the requirement concerned,
   (b) the extent to which that contravention was deliberate or reckless, and
   (c) whether the sponsor concerned is an individual.

(3) The FCA may at any time alter or replace a statement issued under this section.

(4) If a statement issued under this section is altered or replaced, the FCA must issue the altered or replacement statement.

(5) In exercising, or deciding whether to exercise, its power under section 88A in the case of any particular contravention, the FCA must have regard to any statement of policy published under this section and in force at a time when the contravention in question occurred.

(6) A statement issued under this section must be published by the FCA in the way appearing to the FCA to be best calculated to bring it to the attention of the public.

(7) The FCA may charge a reasonable fee for providing a person with a copy of the statement.

(8) The FCA must, without delay, give the Treasury a copy of any statement which it publishes under this section.

Part VI – Official Listing

(4) If the FCA issues the proposed statement it must publish an account, in general terms, of—
   (a) the representations made to it in accordance with subsection (2), and
   (b) its response to them.

(5) If the statement differs from the draft published under subsection (1) in a way which is, in the opinion of the FCA, significant, the FCA must (in addition to complying with subsection (4)) publish details of the difference.

(6) The FCA may charge a reasonable fee for providing a person with a copy of a draft published under subsection (1).

(7) This section also applies to a proposal to alter or replace a statement.

88E Powers exercisable to advance operational objectives

(1) The FCA may take action against a sponsor under this section if it considers that it is desirable to do so in order to advance one or more of its operational objectives.

(2) If the FCA is entitled to take action under this section against a sponsor, it may—
   (a) suspend, for such period as it considers appropriate, the sponsor's approval, or
   (b) impose, for such period as it considers appropriate, such limitations or other restrictions in relation to the performance of services to which the sponsor's approval relates as it considers appropriate.

(3) A suspension may relate only to the performance in specified circumstances of a service to which the approval relates.

(4) A restriction may, in particular, be imposed so as to require the sponsor to take, or refrain from taking, specified action.

(5) The FCA may—
   (a) withdraw a suspension or restriction, or
   (b) vary a suspension or restriction so as to reduce the period for which it has effect or otherwise to limit its effect.

(6) A person against whom the FCA takes action under this section may refer the matter to the Tribunal.

Pt. 3; S.I. 2013/423, art. 3, Sch.; S.I. 2013/651, art. 2(a)
89A  Transparency rules

(1) The Financial Conduct Authority may make rules for the purposes of the transparency obligations directive.

(2) The rules may include provision for dealing with any matters arising out of or related to any provision of the transparency obligations directive.

(3) The Financial Conduct Authority may also make rules—

(a) for the purpose of ensuring that voteholder information in respect of voting shares traded on a UK market other than a regulated market is made public or notified to the Financial Conduct Authority;

(b) ... ........................................

(4) Rules under this section may, in particular, make provision—

(a) specifying how the proportion of—

(i) the total voting rights in respect of shares in an issuer, or
(ii) the total voting rights in respect of a particular class of shares in an issuer,

held by a person is to be determined;

(b) specifying the circumstances in which, for the purposes of any determination of the voting rights held by a person (“P”) in respect of voting shares in an issuer, any voting rights held by another person in respect of voting shares in the issuer are to be regarded as held by P;

(c) specifying the nature of the information which must be included in any notification;

(d) about the form of any notification;

(e) requiring any notification to be given within a specified period;

(f) specifying the manner in which any information is to be made public and the period within which it must be made public;

(g) specifying circumstances in which any of the requirements imposed by rules under this section does not apply.

(5) Rules under this section are referred to in this Part as “transparency rules”.

(6) Nothing in sections 89B to 89G affects the generality of the power to make rules under this section.
89B Provision of voteholder information

(1) Transparency rules may make provision for voteholder information in respect of voting shares to be notified, in circumstances specified in the rules—
   (a) to the issuer, or
   (b) to the public, or to both.

(2) Transparency rules may make provision for voteholder information notified to the issuer to be notified at the same time to the FCA.

(3) In this Part “voteholder information” in respect of voting shares means information relating to the proportion of voting rights held by a person in respect of the shares.

(4) Transparency rules may require notification of voteholder information relating to a person—
   (a) initially, not later than such date as may be specified in the rules for the purposes of the first indent of Article 30.2 of the transparency obligations directive, and
   (b) subsequently, in accordance with the following provisions.

(5) Transparency rules under subsection (4)(b) may require notification of voteholder information relating to a person only where there is a notifiable change in the proportion of—
   (a) the total voting rights in respect of shares in the issuer, or
   (b) the total voting rights in respect of a particular class of share in the issuer, held by the person.

(6) For this purpose there is a “notifiable change” in the proportion of voting rights held by a person when the proportion changes—
   (a) from being a proportion less than a designated proportion to a proportion equal to or greater than that designated proportion,
   (b) from being a proportion equal to a designated proportion to a proportion greater or less than that designated proportion, or
   (c) from being a proportion greater than a designated proportion to a proportion equal to or less than that designated proportion.

(7) In subsection (6) “designated” means designated by the rules.
89C Provision of information by issuers of transferable securities

(1) Transparency rules may make provision requiring the issuer of transferable securities, in circumstances specified in the rules—

(a) to make public information to which this section applies, or
(b) to notify to the [F108FCA] information to which this section applies, or to do both.

(2) In the case of every issuer, this section applies to—

(a) information required by Article 4 of the transparency obligations directive; [F111]
(b) information required by Article 6 of that directive;[F111 and]
(c) information relating to the rights attached to the transferable securities, including information about the terms and conditions of those securities which could indirectly affect those rights; [F113]

(3) In the case of an issuer of debt securities, this section also applies to information required by Article 5 of the transparency obligations directive.

(4) In the case of an issuer of shares, this section also applies to—

(a) information required by Article 5 of the transparency obligations directive; [F115]
(b) voteholder information—
(i) notified to the issuer, or
(ii) relating to the proportion of voting rights held by the issuer in respect of shares in the issuer;
(d) information relating to the issuer’s capital; and
(e) information relating to the total number of voting rights in respect of shares or shares of a particular class.

F108 89D Notification of voting rights held by issuer

(1) Transparency rules may require notification of voteholder information relating to the proportion of voting rights held by an issuer in respect of voting shares in the issuer—
(a) initially, not later than such date as may be specified in the rules for the purposes of the second indent of Article 30.2 of the transparency obligations directive, and

(b) subsequently, in accordance with the following provisions.

(2) Transparency rules under subsection (1)(b) may require notification of voteholder information relating to the proportion of voting rights held by an issuer in respect of voting shares in the issuer only where there is a notifiable change in the proportion of—

(a) the total voting rights in respect of shares in the issuer, or

(b) the total voting rights in respect of a particular class of share in the issuer, held by the issuer.

(3) For this purpose there is a “notifiable change” in the proportion of voting rights held by a person when the proportion changes—

(a) from being a proportion less than a designated proportion to a proportion equal to or greater than that designated proportion,

(b) from being a proportion equal to a designated proportion to a proportion greater or less than that designated proportion, or

(c) from being a proportion greater than a designated proportion to a proportion equal to or less than that designated proportion.

(4) In subsection (3) “designated” means designated by the rules.
(iii) if he holds, directly or indirectly, a financial instrument which satisfies the conditions set out in Article 13(1)(a) or (b) of the transparency obligations directive...

(c) .............................................................

(2) .............................................................

(3) For the purposes of sections 89A to 89G two or more persons may, at the same time, each be regarded as holding the same voting rights.

(4) In those sections—

“UK market” means a market that is situated or operating in the United Kingdom;

“voting shares” means shares of an issuer to which voting rights are attached.

\[F123\]Power of \[F108 FCA\] to call for information

Textual Amendments

F123 Ss. 89H-89J and cross-heading inserted (8.11.2006) by Companies Act 2006 (c. 46), ss. 1267, 1300(1)

89H  \[F108 FCA's\] power to call for information

(1) The \[F108 FCA\] may by notice in writing given to a person to whom this section applies require him—

(a) to provide specified information or information of a specified description, or
(b) to produce specified documents or documents of a specified description.

(2) This section applies to—

(a) an issuer in respect of whom transparency rules have effect;
(b) a voteholder;
(c) an auditor of—
   (i) an issuer to whom this section applies, or
   (ii) a voteholder;
(d) a person who controls a voteholder;
(e) a person controlled by a voteholder;
(f) a director or other similar officer of an issuer to whom this section applies;
(g) a director or other similar officer of a voteholder or, where the affairs of a voteholder are managed by its members, a member of the voteholder.

(3) This section applies only to information and documents reasonably required in connection with the exercise by the \[F108 FCA\] of functions conferred on it by or under sections 89A to 89G (transparency rules).

(4) Information or documents required under this section must be provided or produced—

(a) before the end of such reasonable period as may be specified, and
(b) at such place as may be specified.

(5) If a person claims a lien on a document, its production under this section does not affect the lien.

89I  Requirements in connection with call for information

(1) The \[F108 FCA\] may require any information provided under section 89H to be provided in such form as it may reasonably require.

(2) The \[F108 FCA\] may require—
(a) any information provided, whether in a document or otherwise, to be verified in such manner as it may reasonably require;

(b) any document produced to be authenticated in such manner as it may reasonably require.

(3) If a document is produced in response to a requirement imposed under section 89H, the FCA may—

(a) take copies of or extracts from the document; or

(b) require the person producing the document, or any relevant person, to provide an explanation of the document.

(4) In subsection (3)(b) “relevant person”, in relation to a person who is required to produce a document, means a person who—

(a) has been or is a director or controller of that person;

(b) has been or is an auditor of that person;

(c) has been or is an actuary, accountant or lawyer appointed or instructed by that person; or

(d) has been or is an employee of that person.

(5) If a person who is required under section 89H to produce a document fails to do so, the FCA may require him to state, to the best of his knowledge and belief, where the document is.

89J Power to call for information: supplementary provisions

(1) The FCA may require an issuer to make public any information provided to the FCA under section 89H.

(2) If the issuer fails to comply with a requirement under subsection (1), the FCA may, after seeking representations from the issuer, make the information public.

(3) In sections 89H and 89I (power of FCA to call for information)—

“control” and “controlled” have the meaning given by subsection (4) below;

“specified” means specified in the notice;

“voteholder” means a person who—

(a) holds voting rights in respect of any voting shares for the purposes of sections 89A to 89G (transparency rules), ...;

(b) ...

(4) For the purposes of those sections a person (“A”) controls another person (“B”) if—

(a) A holds a majority of the voting rights in B,

(b) A is a member of B and has the right to appoint or remove a majority of the members of the board of directors (or, if there is no such board, the equivalent management body) of B,

(c) A is a member of B and controls alone, pursuant to an agreement with other shareholders or members, a majority of the voting rights in B, or

(d) A has the right to exercise, or actually exercises, dominant influence or control over B.

(5) For the purposes of subsection (4)(b)—

(a) any rights of a person controlled by A, and

(b) any rights of a person acting on behalf of A or a person controlled by A,
are treated as held by A.]

89K  Public censure of issuer

(1) If the \[^{\text{F108}}\text{FCA}\] finds that an issuer of securities admitted to trading on a regulated market is failing or has failed to comply with an applicable transparency obligation, it may publish a statement to that effect.

(2) If the \[^{\text{F108}}\text{FCA}\] proposes to publish a statement, it must give the issuer a warning notice setting out the terms of the proposed statement.

(3) If, after considering any representations made in response to the warning notice, the \[^{\text{F108}}\text{FCA}\] decides to make the proposed statement, it must give the issuer a decision notice setting out the terms of the statement.

(4) A notice under this section must inform the issuer of his right to refer the matter to the Tribunal (see section 89N) and give an indication of the procedure on such a reference.

(5) In this section “transparency obligation” means an obligation under—

(a) a provision of transparency rules, or

(b) any other provision made in accordance with the transparency obligations directive.

(6) In relation to an issuer whose home State is a member State other than the United Kingdom, any reference to an applicable transparency obligation must be read subject to section 100A(2).

(1) This section applies to securities admitted to trading on a regulated market.

(2) If the \[^{\text{F108}}\text{FCA}\] has reasonable grounds for suspecting that an applicable transparency obligation has been infringed by an issuer, it may—
(a) suspend trading in the securities for a period not exceeding 10 days,
(b) prohibit trading in the securities, or
(c) make a request to the operator of the market on which the issuer's securities are traded—
   (i) to suspend trading in the securities for a period not exceeding 10 days, or
   (ii) to prohibit trading in the securities.

(3) If the [F108 FCA] has reasonable grounds for suspecting that a provision required by the transparency obligations directive has been infringed by a voteholder of an issuer, it may—
   (a) prohibit trading in the securities, or
   (b) make a request to the operator of the market on which the issuer's securities are traded to prohibit trading in the securities.

(4) If the [F108 FCA] finds that an applicable transparency obligation has been infringed, it may require the market operator to prohibit trading in the securities.

(5) In this section “transparency obligation” means an obligation under—
   (a) a provision contained in transparency rules, or
   (b) any other provision made in accordance with the transparency obligations directive.

(6) In relation to an issuer whose home State is a member State other than the United Kingdom, any reference to an applicable transparency obligation must be read subject to section 100A(2).

89M Procedure under section 89L

(1) A requirement under section 89L takes effect—
   (a) immediately, if the notice under subsection (2) states that that is the case;
   (b) in any other case, on such date as may be specified in the notice.

(2) If the [F108 FCA]—
   (a) proposes to exercise the powers in section 89L in relation to a person, or
   (b) exercises any of those powers in relation to a person with immediate effect, it must give that person written notice.

(3) The notice must—
   (a) give details of the [F108 FCA's] action or proposed action;
   (b) state the [F108 FCA's] reasons for taking the action in question and choosing the date on which it took effect or takes effect;
   (c) inform the recipient that he may make representations to the [F108 FCA] within such period as may be specified by the notice (whether or not he had referred the matter to the Tribunal);
(d) inform him of the date on which the action took effect or takes effect;
(e) inform him of his right to refer the matter to the Tribunal (see section 89N) and give an indication of the procedure on such a reference.

(4) The [F108FCA] may extend the period within which representations may be made to it.

(5) If, having considered any representations made to it, the [F108FCA] decides to maintain, vary or revoke its earlier decision, it must give written notice to that effect to the person mentioned in subsection (2).

F10889N  Right to refer matters to the Tribunal

A person—
   (a) to whom a decision notice is given under section 89K (public censure), or
   (b) to whom a notice is given under section 89M (procedure in connection with suspension or prohibition of trading), may refer the matter to the Tribunal.

F12689NA  Voting rights suspension orders

(1) The court may, on the application of the FCA and in accordance with this section, make a voting rights suspension order in respect of a person who is a voteholder in relation to shares in a particular company which are admitted to trading on a regulated market and identified in the application.

(2) A voting rights suspension order is an order which suspends the person’s exercise of voting rights attaching to the shares to which the order relates.

(3) The court may make a voting rights suspension order in respect of a person only if it is satisfied—
   (a) that the person has contravened one or more relevant transparency provisions in respect of any of the shares identified in the application or any other shares in the same company which are admitted to trading on a regulated market, and
   (b) that the contravention is serious enough to make it appropriate to make the order.

(4) For the purposes of subsection (3)(b), the court may, in particular, have regard to—
   (a) whether the contravention was deliberate or repeated;
   (b) the time taken for the contravention to be remedied;
(c) whether the voteholder ignored warnings or requests for compliance from the FCA;
(d) the size of the holding of shares to which the contravention relates;
(e) any impact of the contravention on the integrity of the UK financial system;
(f) the effect of the contravention on any company merger or takeover.

(5) A voting rights suspension order may be made in relation to some or all of the shares to which the application relates.

(6) A voting rights suspension order may be made for a specified period or an indefinite period.

(7) A voting rights suspension order takes effect—
   (a) on the date specified in the order, or
   (b) if no date is specified, at the time it is made.

(8) Where a voting rights suspension order has been made, the FCA, the person to whom it applies or the company which issued the shares to which it relates, may apply to the court for—
   (a) a variation of the order so as to alter the period for which it has effect or the shares in relation to which it has effect, or
   (b) the discharge of the order.

(9) The FCA must consult the PRA before making an application to the court under this section in relation to—
   (a) a person who is a PRA-authorised person, or
   (b) shares issued by a PRA-authorised person.

(10) The jurisdiction conferred by this section is exercisable—
    (a) in England and Wales and Northern Ireland, by the High Court, and
    (b) in Scotland, by the Court of Session.

(11) In this section—
    “relevant transparency provision” means—
    (a) a provision of the transparency rules which implements Article 9, 10, 12, 13 or 13a of the transparency obligations directive, or
    (b) a provision otherwise made in accordance with that directive which implements any of those Articles;
    “voteholder” has the meaning given by section 89J(3).]
89O Corporate governance rules

(1) The [F108FCA] may make rules (“corporate governance rules”)—
   (a) for the purpose of implementing, enabling the implementation of or dealing with matters arising out of or related to, any [F128EU] obligation relating to the corporate governance of issuers who have requested or approved admission of their securities to trading on a regulated market;
   (b) about corporate governance in relation to such issuers for the purpose of implementing, or dealing with matters arising out of or related to, any [F128EU] obligation.

(2) “Corporate governance”, in relation to an issuer, includes—
   (a) the nature, constitution or functions of the organs of the issuer;
   (b) the manner in which organs of the issuer conduct themselves;
   (c) the requirements imposed on organs of the issuer;
   (d) the relationship between the different organs of the issuer;
   (e) the relationship between the organs of the issuer and the members of the issuer or holders of the issuer's securities.

(3) The burdens and restrictions imposed by rules under this section on foreign-traded issuers must not be greater than the burdens and restrictions imposed on UK-traded issuers by—
    (a) rules under this section, and
    (b) listing rules.

(4) For this purpose—
    “foreign-traded issuer” means an issuer who has requested or approved admission of the issuer's securities to trading on a regulated market situated or operating outside the United Kingdom;
    “UK-traded issuer” means an issuer who has requested or approved
    admission of the issuer's securities to trading on a regulated market situated or operating in the United Kingdom.

(5) This section is without prejudice to any other power conferred by this Part to make
    Part 6 rules.

Textual Amendments

F108 Words in ss. 89A-97 substituted (24.1.2013 for specified purposes, 1.4.2013 in so far as not already in force) by Financial Services Act 2012 (c. 21), ss.16(2)(3)(g), 122(3) (with Sch. 20); S.I. 2013/113, art. 2(1)(c), Sch. Pt. 3; S.I. 2013/423, art. 3, Sch.

F128 Words in s. 89O(1)(a)(b) substituted (22.4.2011 with application in accordance with art. 3 of the amending S.I.) by virtue of The Treaty of Lisbon (Changes in Terminology) Order 2011 (S.I. 2011/1043), art. 6(1)(3)(4)
Primary information providers

(1) Part 6 rules may require issuers of financial instruments to use primary information providers for the purpose of giving information of a specified description to a market of a specified description.

(2) “Primary information provider” means a person approved by the FCA for the purposes of this section.

(3) “Specified” means specified in the Part 6 rules.

(4) Part 6 rules made by virtue of subsection (1) may—
   (a) provide for the FCA to maintain a list of providers;
   (b) impose requirements on a provider in relation to the giving of information or of information of a specified description;
   (c) specify the circumstances in which a person is qualified for being approved as a provider;
   (d) provide for limitations or other restrictions to be imposed on the giving of information to which an approval relates (whether or not the approval has already been granted);
   (e) provide for the approval of a provider to be suspended on the application of the provider.

(5) If the FCA proposes—
   (a) to refuse a person's application under information provider rules,
   (b) to impose limitations or other restrictions on the giving of information to which a person's approval relates, or
   (c) to cancel a person's approval as a provider otherwise than at the person's request, it must give the person a warning notice.

(6) If the FCA decides—
   (a) to grant the application under information provider rules,
   (b) not to impose limitations or other restrictions on the giving of information to which a person's approval relates, or
   (c) not to cancel the approval, it must give the person concerned written notice of its decision.

(7) If the FCA decides—
   (a) to refuse to grant the application under information provider rules,
   (b) to impose limitations or other restrictions on the giving of information to which a person's approval relates, or
   (c) to cancel the approval,
it must give the person concerned a decision notice.

(8) A person to whom a decision notice is given under this section may refer the matter to the Tribunal.

(9) In this section any reference to an application under information provider rules means—
   (a) an application for approval as a provider,
   (b) an application for the suspension of an approval as a provider,
   (c) an application for the withdrawal of the suspension of an approval as a provider, or
   (d) an application for the withdrawal or variation of a limitation or other restriction on the giving of information to which a provider's approval relates.

89Q Disciplinary powers: contravention of s.89P(4)(b) or (d)

(1) The FCA may take action against a provider under this section if it considers that the provider has contravened a requirement or restriction imposed on the provider by rules made as a result of section 89P(4)(b) or (d).

(2) If the FCA is entitled to take action under this section against a provider, it may do one or more of the following—
   (a) impose a penalty on the provider of such amount as it considers appropriate;
   (b) suspend, for such period as it considers appropriate, the provider's approval;
   (c) impose, for such period as it considers appropriate, such limitations or other restrictions in relation to the giving by the provider of information as it considers appropriate;
   (d) publish a statement to the effect that the provider has contravened a requirement or restriction imposed on the provider by rules made as a result of section 89P(4)(b) or (d).

(3) The period for which a suspension or restriction is to have effect may not exceed 12 months.

(4) A suspension may relate only to the giving of information in specified circumstances.

(5) A restriction may, in particular, be imposed so as to require the provider to take, or refrain from taking, specified action.

(6) The FCA may—
   (a) withdraw a suspension or restriction, or
   (b) vary a suspension or restriction so as to reduce the period for which it has effect or otherwise to limit its effect.

(7) The FCA may not take action against a provider under this section after the end of the limitation period unless, before the end of that period, it has given a warning notice to the provider under section 89R(1).

(8) “The limitation period” means the period of 3 years beginning with the first day on which the FCA knew that the provider had contravened the requirement or restriction.

(9) For this purpose the FCA is to be treated as knowing that a provider has contravened a requirement or restriction if it has information from which that can reasonably be inferred.
89R  Action under s.89Q: procedure and right to refer to Tribunal

(1) If the FCA proposes to take action against a provider under section 89Q, it must give the provider a warning notice.

(2) A warning notice about a proposal to impose a penalty must state the amount of the penalty.

(3) A warning notice about a proposal—
   (a) to suspend an approval, or
   (b) to impose a restriction in relation to the giving of information, must state the period for which the suspension or restriction is to have effect.

(4) A warning notice about a proposal to publish a statement must set out the terms of the statement.

(5) If the FCA decides to take action against a provider under section 89Q, it must give the provider a decision notice.

(6) A decision notice about the imposition of a penalty must state the amount of the penalty.

(7) A decision notice about—
   (a) the suspension of an approval, or
   (b) the imposition of a restriction in relation to the giving of information, must state the period for which the suspension or restriction is to have effect.

(8) A decision notice about the publication of a statement must set out the terms of the statement.

(9) If the FCA decides to take action against a provider under section 89Q, the provider may refer the matter to the Tribunal.

89S  Action under s.89Q: statement of policy

(1) The FCA must prepare and issue a statement of its policy with respect to—
   (a) the imposition of penalties, suspensions or restrictions under section 89Q,
   (b) the amount of penalties under that section,
   (c) the period for which suspensions or restrictions under that section are to have effect, and
   (d) the matters in relation to which suspensions or restrictions under that section are to have effect.

(2) The FCA's policy in determining what the amount of a penalty should be, or what the period for which a suspension or restriction is to have effect should be, must include having regard to—
   (a) the seriousness of the contravention in question in relation to the nature of the requirement concerned,
   (b) the extent to which that contravention was deliberate or reckless, and
   (c) whether the provider concerned is an individual.

(3) The FCA may at any time alter or replace a statement issued under this section.
(4) If a statement issued under this section is altered or replaced, the FCA must issue the altered or replacement statement.

(5) In exercising, or deciding whether to exercise, its power under section 89Q in the case of any particular contravention, the FCA must have regard to any statement of policy published under this section and in force at a time when the contravention in question occurred.

(6) A statement issued under this section must be published by the FCA in the way appearing to the FCA to be best calculated to bring it to the attention of the public.

(7) The FCA may charge a reasonable fee for providing a person with a copy of the statement.

(8) The FCA must, without delay, give the Treasury a copy of any statement which it publishes under this section.

89T Statement of policy under s.89S: procedure

(1) Before issuing a statement under section 89S, the FCA must publish a draft of the proposed statement in the way appearing to the FCA to be best calculated to bring it to the attention of the public.

(2) The draft must be accompanied by notice that representations about the proposal may be made to the FCA within a specified time.

(3) Before issuing the proposed statement, the FCA must have regard to any representations made to it in accordance with subsection (2).

(4) If the FCA issues the proposed statement it must publish an account, in general terms, of—

   (a) the representations made to it in accordance with subsection (2); and

   (b) its response to them.

(5) If the statement differs from the draft published under subsection (1) in a way which is, in the opinion of the FCA, significant, the FCA must (in addition to complying with subsection (4)) publish details of the difference.

(6) The FCA may charge a reasonable fee for providing a person with a copy of a draft published under subsection (1).

(7) This section also applies to a proposal to alter or replace a statement.

89U Powers exercisable to advance operational objectives

(1) The FCA may take action against a provider under this section if it considers that it is desirable to do so in order to advance one or more of its operational objectives.

(2) If the FCA is entitled to take action under this section against a provider, it may—

   (a) suspend, for such period as it considers appropriate, the provider's approval, or

   (b) impose, for such period as it considers appropriate, such limitations or other restrictions in relation to the giving by the provider of information as it considers appropriate.

(3) A suspension may relate only to the giving of information in specified circumstances.
(4) A restriction may, in particular, be imposed so as to require the provider to take, or refrain from taking, specified action.

(5) The FCA may—
   (a) withdraw a suspension or restriction, or
   (b) vary a suspension or restriction so as to reduce the period for which it has effect or otherwise to limit its effect.

(6) A person against whom the FCA takes action under this section may refer the matter to the Tribunal.

89V Action under s.89U: procedure

(1) Action against a provider under section 89U takes effect—
   (a) immediately, if the notice given under subsection (2) so provides, or
   (b) on such later date as may be specified in the notice.

(2) If the FCA—
   (a) proposes to take action against a provider under that section, or
   (b) takes action against a provider under that section with immediate effect, it must give the provider written notice.

(3) The notice must—
   (a) give details of the action,
   (b) state the FCA's reasons for taking the action and for its determination as to when the action takes effect,
   (c) inform the provider that the provider may make representations to the FCA within such period as may be specified in the notice (whether or not the matter has been referred to the Tribunal),
   (d) inform the provider of when the action takes effect,
   (e) inform the provider of the right to refer the matter to the Tribunal, and
   (f) give an indication of the procedure on such a reference.

(4) The FCA may extend the period allowed under the notice for making representations.

(5) If the FCA decides—
   (a) to take the action in the way proposed, or
   (b) if the action has taken effect, not to rescind it,
   the FCA must give the provider written notice.

(6) If the FCA decides—
   (a) not to take the action in the way proposed,
   (b) to take action under section 89U that differs from the action originally proposed, or
   (c) to rescind action which has taken effect,
   the FCA must give the provider written notice.

(7) A notice under subsection (5) must—
   (a) inform the provider of the right to refer the matter to the Tribunal, and
   (b) give an indication of the procedure on such a reference.
(8) A notice under subsection (6)(b) must comply with subsection (3).

Storage of regulated information

(1) The FCA must ensure that there is at least one mechanism for the central storage of regulated information meeting the requirements of Article 21(2) of the transparency obligations directive and any directly applicable EU regulation made under Article 21(4) of that directive.

(2) In this section, “regulated information” has the meaning given by Article 2(1)(k) of the transparency obligations directive.

Compensation for false or misleading statements etc

Textual Amendments
F131 S. 90 cross-heading substituted (8.11.2006) by Companies Act 2006 (c. 46), ss. 1272, 1300(1)(a), Sch. 15 para. 4

Compensation for statements in listing particulars or prospectus

(1) Any person responsible for listing particulars is liable to pay compensation to a person who has—
(a) acquired securities to which the particulars apply; and
(b) suffered loss in respect of them as a result of—
   (i) any untrue or misleading statement in the particulars; or
   (ii) the omission from the particulars of any matter required to be included by section 80 or 81.

(2) Subsection (1) is subject to exemptions provided by Schedule 10.

(3) If listing particulars are required to include information about the absence of a particular matter, the omission from the particulars of that information is to be treated as a statement in the listing particulars that there is no such matter.

(4) Any person who fails to comply with section 81 is liable to pay compensation to any person who has—
(a) acquired securities of the kind in question; and
(b) suffered loss in respect of them as a result of the failure.

(5) Subsection (4) is subject to exemptions provided by Schedule 10.

(6) This section does not affect any liability which may be incurred apart from this section.

(7) References in this section to the acquisition by a person of securities include references to his contracting to acquire them or any interest in them.
(8) No person shall, by reason of being a promoter of a company or otherwise, incur any liability for failing to disclose information which he would not be required to disclose in listing particulars in respect of a company’s securities—
   (a) if he were responsible for those particulars; or
   (b) if he is responsible for them, which he is entitled to omit by virtue of section 82.

(9) The reference in subsection (8) to a person incurring liability includes a reference to any other person being entitled as against that person to be granted any civil remedy or to rescind or repudiate an agreement.

(10) “Listing particulars”, in subsection (1) and Schedule 10, includes supplementary listing particulars.

[F133] (11) This section applies in relation to a prospectus as it applies to listing particulars, with the following modifications—
   (a) references in this section or in Schedule 10 to listing particulars, supplementary listing particulars or sections 80, 81 or 82 are to be read, respectively, as references to a prospectus, supplementary prospectus and sections 87A, 87G and 87B;
   (b) references in Schedule 10 to admission to the official list are to be read as references to admission to trading on a regulated market;
   (c) in relation to a prospectus, “securities” means “transferable securities”.

[F134] (12) A person is not to be subject to civil liability solely on the basis of a summary in a prospectus unless the summary, when read with the rest of the prospectus—
   (a) is misleading, inaccurate or inconsistent; or
   (b) does not provide key information (as defined in section 87A(9) and (10)), and in this subsection a summary includes any translation of it.]

[F135] 90ZA Liability for key investor information

(1) A person is not to be subject to civil liability solely on the basis of the key investor information produced in relation to a collective investment scheme or a sub-fund of such a scheme in accordance with rules or other provisions implementing Chapter IX of the UCITS directive, or of any translation of that information, unless the key investor information is misleading, inaccurate or inconsistent with the relevant parts of the prospectus published for that collective investment scheme or sub-fund in accordance with rules made by [F108 the FCA] under section 248 [F136 or 261J] of this Act.
(2) In this section, a reference to a sub-fund of a collective investment scheme is a reference to a part of the property of the collective investment scheme which forms a separate pool where—

(a) the collective investment scheme provides arrangements for separate pooling of the contributions of the participants and the profits and income out of which payments are made to them; and

(b) the participants are entitled to exchange rights in one pool for rights in another.

Penalties

91 [F139 Penalties for breach of Part 6 rules]

[F140] If the FCA considers that—
(a) an issuer of listed securities, or
(b) an applicant for listing, has contravened any provision of listing rules, it may impose on him a penalty of such amount as it considers appropriate.

[F142] If the FCA considers that—
(a) an issuer of transferable securities,
(b) a person offering transferable securities to the public or requesting their admission to trading on a regulated market,
(c) an applicant for the approval of a prospectus in relation to transferable securities,
(d) a person on whom a requirement has been imposed under section 87K or 87L, or
(e) any other person to whom a provision of the prospectus directive applies, has contravened a provision of this Part or of prospectus rules, or a provision otherwise made in accordance with the prospectus directive or a requirement imposed on him under such a provision, it may impose on him a penalty of such amount as it considers appropriate.]

[F144] If the FCA considers—
(a) that a person has contravened—
(i) a provision of transparency rules or a provision otherwise made in accordance with the transparency obligations directive, or
(ii) a provision of corporate governance rules, or
(b) that a person on whom a requirement has been imposed under section 89L (power to suspend or prohibit trading of securities in case of infringement of applicable transparency obligation), has contravened that requirement, it may impose on the person a penalty of such amount as it considers appropriate.]

(2) If, in the case of a contravention by a person referred to in subsection (1) or (1A) or (1B)(a)(ii) or (b)[F149 (“P”)], the FCA considers that another person (“A”) was knowingly concerned in the contravention, it may impose upon him a penalty of such amount as it considers appropriate.

[F152] If—
(a) a person has contravened a provision mentioned in subsection (1B)(a)(i), and
(b) the FCA considers that another person (“A”), who was at the material time a relevant officer of the person, was knowingly concerned in the contravention, the FCA may impose upon A a penalty of such amount as it considers appropriate.

(2B) In subsection (2A) “relevant officer” of a person means—
(a) a director or other similar officer of the person, or
(b) if the affairs of the person are managed by its members, a member of the person.

(3) If the FCA is entitled to impose a penalty on a person under this section in respect of a particular matter it may, instead of imposing a penalty on him in respect of that matter, publish a statement censuring him.

(4) Nothing in this section prevents the FCA from taking any other steps which it has power to take under this Part.

(5) A penalty under this section is payable to the FCA.

(6) The FCA may not take action against a person under this section after the end of the period of 3 years beginning with the first day on which it knew of the contravention unless proceedings against that person, in respect of the contravention, were begun before the end of that period.

(7) For the purposes of subsection (6)—
   (a) the FCA is to be treated as knowing of a contravention if it has information from which the contravention can reasonably be inferred; and
   (b) proceedings against a person in respect of a contravention are to be treated as begun when a warning notice is given to him under section 92.

93 Statement of policy.
   (1) The [\textsuperscript{F108}FCA] must prepare and issue a statement (“its policy statement”) of its policy with respect to—
      (a) the imposition of penalties under section 91; and
      (b) the amount of penalties under that section.

   (2) The [\textsuperscript{F108}FCA’s] policy in determining what the amount of a penalty should be must include having regard to—
      (a) the seriousness of the contravention in question in relation to the nature of the requirement contravened;
(b) the extent to which that contravention was deliberate or reckless; and
(c) whether the person on whom the penalty is to be imposed is an individual.

(3) The FCA may at any time alter or replace its policy statement.

(4) If its policy statement is altered or replaced, the FCA must issue the altered or replacement statement.

(5) In exercising, or deciding whether to exercise, its power under section 91 in the case of any particular contravention, the FCA must have regard to any policy statement published under this section and in force at the time when the contravention in question occurred.

(6) The FCA must publish a statement issued under this section in the way appearing to the FCA to be best calculated to bring it to the attention of the public.

(7) The FCA may charge a reasonable fee for providing a person with a copy of the statement.

(8) The FCA must, without delay, give the Treasury a copy of any policy statement which it publishes under this section.

Exercise of powers where UK is host member state

(1) This section applies to the exercise by the [F168] FCA of any power under this Part exercisable in case of infringement of—

(a) a provision of prospectus rules or any other provision made in accordance with the prospectus directive, or

(b) a provision of transparency rules or any other provision made in accordance with the transparency obligations directive, in relation to an issuer whose home State is a member State other than the United Kingdom.

(2) The [F169] FCA may act in such a case only in respect of the infringement of a provision required by the relevant directive.

Any reference to an applicable provision or applicable transparency obligation shall be read accordingly.

(3) If [F171] the FCA finds that there has been such an infringement, it must—

(a) give a notice to that effect to the competent authority of the person’s home State requesting it—

(i) to take all appropriate measures for the purpose of ensuring that the person remedies the situation that has given rise to the notice, and

(ii) to inform [F171] the FCA of the measures it proposes to take or has taken or the reasons for not taking such measures, and

(b) notify ESMA.

(4) [F172] The FCA may not act further unless satisfied—

(a) that the competent authority of the person’s home State has failed or refused to take measures for the purpose mentioned in subsection (3)(a), or

(b) that the measures taken by that authority have proved inadequate for that purpose.

This does not affect exercise of the powers under section 87K(2), 87L(2) or (3) or 89L(2) or (3) (powers to protect market).
(5) If [F173]the FCA] is so satisfied, it must, after informing the competent authority of the person's home State [F174]and ESMA], take all appropriate measures to protect investors.

(6) In such a case [F175]the FCA] must inform the Commission [F176]and ESMA] of the measures at the earliest opportunity.[
