Powers to gather information

165 [F<sup>1</sup>Regulators] power to require information [F<sup>2</sup>: authorised persons etc].

- (1) [F<sup>3</sup>Either regulator] may, by notice in writing given to an authorised person, require him—
  - (a) to provide specified information or information of a specified description; or
  - (b) to produce specified documents or documents of a specified description.
- (2) The information or documents must be provided or produced—
  - (a) before the end of such reasonable period as may be specified; and
  - (b) at such place as may be specified.
- (3) An officer who has written authorisation from the [F<sup>4</sup>regulator] to do so may require an authorised person without delay—
  - (a) to provide the officer with specified information or information of a specified description; or
  - (b) to produce to him specified documents or documents of a specified description.
- (4) This section applies only to information and documents reasonably required in connection with the exercise by [F<sup>5</sup>either regulator] of functions conferred on it by or under this Act.
- (5) [F<sup>6</sup>The regulator in question] may require any information provided under this section to be provided in such form as it may reasonably require.
- (6) [F<sup>7</sup>The regulator in question] may require—
  - (a) any information provided, whether in a document or otherwise, to be verified in such manner, or
  - (b) any document produced to be authenticated in such manner, as it may reasonably require.
- (7) The powers conferred by subsections (1) and (3) may also be [F<sup>8</sup>exercised—
  - (a) by either regulator, to impose requirements on a person who is connected with an authorised person;
  - (b) by the FCA, to impose requirements on an operator, trustee or depositary of a scheme recognised under section <sup>F9</sup>... 272 who is not an authorised person;
  - (c) by the FCA, to impose requirements on a recognised investment exchange;
  - (d) by the FCA, to impose requirements on a person who is connected with a recognised investment exchange.]
- (8) “Authorised person” includes a person who was at any time an authorised person but who has ceased to be an authorised person.

- (1) The [<sup>F17</sup>PRA] may, by notice in writing given to a person to whom this section applies, require the person—
- (a) to provide specified information or information of a specified description; or
  - (b) to produce specified documents or documents of a specified description.
- (2) This section applies to—
- (a) a person who has a legal or beneficial interest in any of the assets of a relevant investment fund;
  - (b) a person who is responsible for the management of a relevant investment fund;
  - (c) a person (a “service provider”) who provides any service to an authorised person;
  - (d) a person prescribed by an order made by the Treasury or any person of a description prescribed by such an order (and see also section 165C);
  - (e) a person who is connected with a person to whom this section applies as a result of any of the above paragraphs.

Status: Point in time view as at 26/07/2013.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000, Part XI is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 15 April 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) This section applies only to information and documents that the [F<sup>17</sup>PRA] considers are, or might be, relevant to the stability of one or more aspects of the UK financial system.
- (4) A notice may be given to a service provider, or to a person who is connected with a service provider, only if the [F<sup>17</sup>PRA] considers that—
- (a) the service or the way in which it (or any part of it) is provided, or
  - (b) any failure to provide the service (or any part of it),
- poses, or would be likely to pose, a serious threat to the stability of the UK financial system.
- (5) Information or documents required under this section must be provided or produced—
- (a) before the end of such reasonable period as may be specified; and
  - (b) at such place as may be specified.
- (6) The [F<sup>17</sup>PRA] may require any information provided under this section to be provided in such form as it may reasonably require.
- (7) The [F<sup>17</sup>PRA] may require—
- (a) any information provided, whether in a document or otherwise, to be verified in such manner as it may reasonably require; or
  - (b) any document produced to be authenticated in such manner as it may reasonably require.
- (8) In this section—
- “management” includes any of the activities listed in Annex II to the UCITS directive;
  - “relevant investment fund” means an investment fund whose assets consist of or include financial instruments which—
    - (a) are traded in the United Kingdom; or
    - (b) were issued by a body incorporated in the United Kingdom;
  - “service” includes facility;
  - “specified” means specified in the notice.
- (9) For the purposes of the definition of “relevant investment fund”—
- (a) arrangements may constitute an investment fund even if there is only one person participating in the arrangements; and
  - (b) the reference to financial instruments has the meaning given by Article 4.1(17) of the markets in financial instruments directive.
- (10) For the purposes of this section a person is connected with another person (“A”) if the person is or has at any relevant time been—
- (a) a member of A's group;
  - (b) a controller of A;
  - (c) any other member of a partnership of which A is a member; or
  - (d) in relation to A, a person mentioned in Part 1 of Schedule 15 (reading references in that Part to the authorised person as references to A).

165B Safeguards etc in relation to exercise of power under section 165A

- (1) If the [F18PRA] proposes to impose a requirement on a person under section 165A, it must give the person a notice in writing warning the person that the [F18PRA] is proposing to impose the requirement.
- (2) The notice under subsection (1) must—
  - (a) give the [F19PRA's] reasons for proposing to impose the requirement; and
  - (b) specify a reasonable period within which the person may make representations to the [F18PRA].
- (3) The [F18PRA] must then decide, within a reasonable period, whether to impose the requirement.
- (4) Subsections (1) to (3) do not apply in any case where the [F18PRA] is satisfied that it is necessary for the information or documents to be provided or produced without delay.
- (5) If the [F18PRA] imposes a requirement on a person under section 165A, the notice under that section must give the [F19PRA's] reasons for imposing the requirement.
- (6) The [F18PRA] must prepare a statement of its policy with respect to the exercise of the power conferred by section 165A.
- (7) The statement requires the approval of the Treasury.
- (8) If the Treasury approve the statement, the [F18PRA] must publish it.
- (9) The power conferred by section 165A may not be exercised before the statement has been published.

pose, or would be likely to pose, a serious threat to the stability of the UK financial system.

- (1B) Condition B is that the provision implements all or part of a recommendation made by the Financial Policy Committee of the Bank of England under section 9P of the Bank of England Act 1998.]
- (2) Subject as follows, an order under section 165A(2)(d) may not be made unless a draft of the order has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament.
- (3) Subsection (2) does not apply in any case where the Treasury are satisfied that it is necessary to make an order under section 165A(2)(d) without laying a draft for approval.
- (4) In that case, the order—
- (a) must be laid before Parliament after being made; and
  - (b) ceases to have effect at the end of the relevant period unless before the end of that period it is approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.
- (5) If an order ceases to have effect as a result of subsection (4)(b) that does not affect—
- (a) anything done under it; or
  - (b) the power to make a new one.
- (6) “Relevant period” means a period of 28 days beginning with the day on which the order is made.
- (7) In calculating the relevant period no account is to be taken of any time during which Parliament is dissolved or prorogued or during which both Houses are adjourned for more than four days.
- (8) If a statutory instrument containing an order under section 165A(2)(d) would, apart from this subsection, be treated as a hybrid instrument for the purposes of the Standing Orders of either House of Parliament, it is to proceed in that House as if it were not a hybrid instrument.]

- (d) a person who has at any relevant time been a person falling within paragraph (a), (b) or (c), who is, or was at the relevant time, carrying on a business.
- (3) The regulator mentioned in subsection (1) may either—
- (a) by notice in writing given to the person concerned, require the person concerned to provide the regulator with a report on the matter concerned, or
  - (b) itself appoint a person to provide the regulator with a report on the matter concerned.
- (4) When acting under subsection (3)(a), the regulator may require the report to be in such form as may be specified in the notice.
- (5) The regulator must give notice of an appointment under subsection (3)(b) to the person concerned.
- (6) The person appointed to make a report—
- (a) must be a person appearing to the regulator to have the skills necessary to make a report on the matter concerned, and
  - (b) where the appointment is to be made by the person concerned, must be a person nominated or approved by the regulator.
- (7) It is the duty of—
- (a) the person concerned, and
  - (b) any person who is providing (or who has at any time provided) services to the person concerned in relation to the matter concerned,
- to give the person appointed to prepare a report all such assistance as the appointed person may reasonably require.
- (8) The obligation imposed by subsection (7) is enforceable, on the application of the regulator in question, by an injunction or, in Scotland, by an order for specific performance under section 45 of the Court of Session Act 1988.
- (9) A regulator may make rules providing for expenses incurred by it in relation to an appointment under subsection (3)(b) to be payable as a fee by the person concerned.
- (10) The powers conferred by this section may also be exercised by the FCA in relation to a person to whom subsection (11) applies, (and references to the person concerned are to be read accordingly).
- (11) This subsection applies to—
- (a) a recognised investment exchange (“A”),
  - (b) any other member of A's group,
  - (c) a partnership of which A is a member, or

Assistance to overseas regulators

169 Investigations etc. in support of overseas regulator.

- (1) At the request of an overseas regulator, [<sup>F48</sup>a regulator] may—
  - (a) exercise the power conferred by section 165; or
  - (b) appoint one or more competent persons to investigate any matter.
- (2) An investigator has the same powers as an investigator appointed under section 168(3) (as a result of subsection (1) of that section).
- (3) If the request has been made by a competent authority in pursuance of any [<sup>F49</sup>EU] obligation the [<sup>F50</sup>regulator] must, in deciding whether or not to exercise its investigative power, consider whether its exercise is necessary to comply with any such obligation.

Status: Point in time view as at 26/07/2013.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000, Part XI is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 15 April 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) In deciding whether or not to exercise its investigative power, the [F51regulator] may take into account in particular—
- (a) whether in the country or territory of the overseas regulator concerned, corresponding assistance would be given to a United Kingdom regulatory authority;
  - (b) whether the case concerns the breach of a law, or other requirement, which has no close parallel in the United Kingdom or involves the assertion of a jurisdiction not recognised by the United Kingdom;
  - (c) the seriousness of the case and its importance to persons in the United Kingdom;
  - (d) whether it is otherwise appropriate in the public interest to give the assistance sought.
- (5) The [F52regulator] may decide that it will not exercise its investigative power unless the overseas regulator undertakes to make such contribution towards the cost of its exercise as the [F52regulator] considers appropriate.
- (6) Subsections (4) and (5) do not apply if the [F53regulator] considers that the exercise of its investigative power is necessary to comply with [F49an EU] obligation.
- (7) If [F54a regulator] has appointed an investigator in response to a request from an overseas regulator, it may direct the investigator to permit a representative of that regulator to attend, and take part in, any interview conducted for the purposes of the investigation.
- (8) A direction under subsection (7) is not to be given unless the [F55regulator] is satisfied that any information obtained by an overseas regulator as a result of the interview will be subject to safeguards equivalent to those contained in Part XXIII.
- (9) [F56Each regulator] must prepare a statement of its policy with respect to the conduct of interviews in relation to which a direction under subsection (7) has been given.
- (10) The statement requires the approval of the Treasury.
- (11) If the Treasury approve the statement, the [F57regulator] must publish it.
- (12) No direction may be given under subsection (7) before the statement has been published.
- (13) “Overseas regulator” has the same meaning as in section 195.
- (14) “Investigative power” means one of the powers mentioned in subsection (1).
- (15) “Investigator” means a person appointed under subsection (1)(b).

- (1) At the request of an overseas regulator, the [<sup>F59</sup>PRA] may exercise a corresponding section 165A power.
- (2) An “overseas regulator” means an authority in a country or territory outside the United Kingdom which exercises functions with respect to the stability of the financial system operating in that country or territory.
- (3) A “corresponding section 165A power” means a power corresponding to the one conferred by section 165A, but reading references in that section to the stability of the UK financial system as references to the stability of the financial system operating in the country or territory of the overseas regulator.
- (4) The following provisions apply in relation to the exercise of the corresponding section 165A power—
  - (a) section 165B(1) to (5); and
  - (b) section 169(3), (4)(a) and (d), (5) and (6).

Conduct of investigations

170 Investigations: general.

- (1) This section applies if an investigating authority appoints one or more competent persons (“investigators”) under section 167 or 168(3) or (5) to conduct an investigation on its behalf.
- (2) The investigating authority must give written notice of the appointment of an investigator to the person who is the subject of the investigation (“the person under investigation”).
- (3) Subsections (2) and (9) do not apply if—
  - (a) the investigator is appointed as a result of section 168(1) or (4) and the investigating authority believes that the notice required by subsection (2) or (9) would be likely to result in the investigation being frustrated; or
  - (b) the investigator is appointed as a result of subsection (2) of section 168.
- (4) A notice under subsection (2) must—
  - (a) specify the provisions under which, and as a result of which, the investigator was appointed; and
  - (b) state the reason for his appointment.
- (5) Nothing prevents the investigating authority from appointing a person who is a member of its staff as an investigator.
- (6) An investigator must make a report of his investigation to the investigating authority.
- (7) The investigating authority may, by a direction to an investigator, control—
  - (a) the scope of the investigation;
  - (b) the period during which the investigation is to be conducted;
  - (c) the conduct of the investigation; and
  - (d) the reporting of the investigation.
- (8) A direction may, in particular—
  - (a) confine the investigation to particular matters;
  - (b) extend the investigation to additional matters;
  - (c) require the investigator to discontinue the investigation or to take only such steps as are specified in the direction;

Status: Point in time view as at 26/07/2013.

*Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000, Part XI is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 15 April 2024. - (d) require the investigator to make such interim reports as are so specified.
- (9) If there is a change in the scope or conduct of the investigation and, in the opinion of the investigating authority, the person subject to investigation is likely to be significantly prejudiced by not being made aware of it, that person must be given written notice of the change.
- (10) “Investigating authority”, in relation to an investigator, means—
- [<sup>F60</sup>(a) the FCA, if the FCA appointed the investigator;
  - (aa) the PRA, if the PRA appointed the investigator;
  - (b) the Secretary of State, if the Secretary of State appointed the investigator.]

171 Powers of persons appointed under section 167.

- (1) An investigator may require the person who is the subject of the investigation (“the person under investigation”) or any person connected with the person under investigation—
- (a) to attend before the investigator at a specified time and place and answer questions; or
  - (b) otherwise to provide such information as the investigator may require.
- (2) An investigator may also require any person to produce at a specified time and place any specified documents or documents of a specified description.
- (3) A requirement under subsection (1) or (2) may be imposed only so far as the investigator concerned reasonably considers the question, provision of information or production of the document to be relevant to the purposes of the investigation.
- [<sup>F61</sup>(3A) Where the investigation relates to a recognised investment exchange, an investigator has the additional powers conferred by sections 172 and 173 (and for this purpose references in those sections to an investigator are to be read accordingly).]
- (4) For the purposes of this section and section 172, a person is connected with the person under investigation (“A”) if he is or has at any relevant time been—
- (a) a member of A’s group;
  - (b) a controller of A;
  - (c) a partnership of which A is a member; or
  - (d) in relation to A, a person mentioned in Part I or II of Schedule 15.
- (5) “Investigator” means a person conducting an investigation under section 167.

172 Additional power of persons appointed as a result of section 168(1) or (4).

- (1) An investigator has the powers conferred by section 171.
- (2) An investigator may also require a person who is neither the subject of the investigation (“the person under investigation”) nor a person connected with the person under investigation—
  - (a) to attend before the investigator at a specified time and place and answer questions; or
  - (b) otherwise to provide such information as the investigator may require for the purposes of the investigation.
- (3) A requirement may only be imposed under subsection (2) if the investigator is satisfied that the requirement is necessary or expedient for the purposes of the investigation.
- (4) “Investigator” means a person appointed as a result of subsection (1) or (4) of section 168.
- (5) “Specified” means specified in a notice in writing.

173 Powers of persons appointed as a result of section 168(2).

- (1) Subsections (2) to (4) apply if an investigator considers that any person (“A”) is or may be able to give information which is or may be relevant to the investigation.
- (2) The investigator may require A—
  - (a) to attend before him at a specified time and place and answer questions; or
  - (b) otherwise to provide such information as he may require for the purposes of the investigation.
- (3) The investigator may also require A to produce at a specified time and place any specified documents or documents of a specified description which appear to the investigator to relate to any matter relevant to the investigation.
- (4) The investigator may also otherwise require A to give him all assistance in connection with the investigation which A is reasonably able to give.

174 Admissibility of statements made to investigators.

- (1) A statement made to an investigator by a person in compliance with an information requirement is admissible in evidence in any proceedings, so long as it also complies with any requirements governing the admissibility of evidence in the circumstances in question.
- (2) But in criminal proceedings in which that person is charged with an offence to which this subsection applies or in proceedings in relation to action to be taken against that person under section 123—
- (a) no evidence relating to the statement may be adduced, and
  - (b) no question relating to it may be asked,
- by or on behalf of the prosecution or (as the case may be) [<sup>F63</sup>a regulator], unless evidence relating to it is adduced, or a question relating to it is asked, in the proceedings by or on behalf of that person.
- (3) Subsection (2) applies to any offence other than one—
- (a) under section 177(4) or 398;
  - (b) under section 5 of the <sup>M2</sup>Perjury Act 1911 (false statements made otherwise than on oath);
  - (c) under section 44(2) of the <sup>M3</sup>Criminal Law (Consolidation)(Scotland) Act 1995 (false statements made otherwise than on oath); or

- (1) If [<sup>F64</sup>either regulator] or an investigator has power under this Part to require a person to produce a document but it appears that the document is in the possession of a third person, that power may be exercised in relation to the third person.
- (2) If a document is produced in response to a requirement imposed under this Part, the person to whom it is produced may—
  - (a) take copies or extracts from the document; or
  - (b) require the person producing the document, or any relevant person, to provide an explanation of the document.
- [<sup>F65</sup>(2A) A document so produced may be retained for so long as the person to whom it is produced considers that it is necessary to retain it (rather than copies of it) for the purposes for which the document was requested.
- (2B) If the person to whom a document is so produced has reasonable grounds for believing—
  - (a) that the document may have to be produced for the purposes of any legal proceedings, and
  - (b) that it might otherwise be unavailable for those purposes,it may be retained until the proceedings are concluded.]
- (3) If a person who is required under this Part to produce a document fails to do so, the [<sup>F66</sup>regulator] or an investigator may require him to state, to the best of his knowledge and belief, where the document is.
- (4) A lawyer may be required under this Part to furnish the name and address of his client.
- (5) No person may be required under this Part to disclose information or produce a document in respect of which he owes an obligation of confidence by virtue of carrying on the business of banking unless—
  - (a) he is the person under investigation or a member of that person's group;
  - (b) the person to whom the obligation of confidence is owed is the person under investigation or a member of that person's group;
  - (c) the person to whom the obligation of confidence is owed consents to the disclosure or production; or
  - (d) the imposing on him of a requirement with respect to such information or document has been specifically authorised by the investigating authority.
- (6) If a person claims a lien on a document, its production under this Part does not affect the lien.
- (7) "Relevant person", in relation to a person who is required to produce a document, means a person who—
  - (a) has been or is or is proposed to be a director or controller of that person;
  - (b) has been or is an auditor of that person;
  - (c) has been or is an actuary, accountant or lawyer appointed or instructed by that person; or
  - (d) has been or is an employee of that person.
- (8) "Investigator" means a person appointed under section 167 or 168(3) or (5).

176 Entry of premises under warrant.

- (1) A justice of the peace may issue a warrant under this section if satisfied on information on oath given by or on behalf of the Secretary of State, [<sup>F67</sup>either regulator] or an investigator that there are reasonable grounds for believing that the first, second or third set of conditions is satisfied.
- (2) The first set of conditions is—
  - (a) that a person on whom an information requirement has been imposed has failed (wholly or in part) to comply with it; and
  - (b) that on the premises specified in the warrant—
    - (i) there are documents which have been required; or
    - (ii) there is information which has been required.
- (3) The second set of conditions is—
  - (a) that the premises specified in the warrant are premises of an authorised person or an appointed representative;
  - (b) that there are on the premises documents or information in relation to which an information requirement could be imposed; and
  - (c) that if such a requirement were to be imposed—
    - (i) it would not be complied with; or
    - (ii) the documents or information to which it related would be removed, tampered with or destroyed.
- (4) The third set of conditions is—
  - (a) that an offence mentioned in section 168 for which the maximum sentence on conviction on indictment is two years or more has been (or is being) committed by any person;

[<sup>F75</sup>176A Retention of documents taken under section 176

- (1) Any document of which possession is taken under section 176 (“a seized document”) may be retained so long as it is necessary to retain it (rather than copies of it) in the circumstances.
- (2) A person claiming to be the owner of a seized document may apply to a magistrates’ court or (in Scotland) the sheriff for an order for the delivery of the document to the person appearing to the court or sheriff to be the owner.
- (3) If on an application under subsection (2) the court or (in Scotland) the sheriff cannot ascertain who is the owner of the seized document the court or sheriff (as the case may be) may make such order as the court or sheriff thinks fit.
- (4) An order under subsection (2) or (3) does not affect the right of any person to take legal proceedings against any person in possession of a seized document for the recovery of the document.
- (5) Any right to bring proceedings (as described in subsection (4)) may only be exercised within 6 months of the date of the order made under subsection (2) or (3).]
