<sup>F1</sup><sub>F1</sub> Refusal of recognition on ground of excessive regulatory provision

- <sup>F1</sup><sub>F1</sub> 290A
- (1) The Authority must not make a recognition order if it appears to the Authority that an existing or proposed regulatory provision of the applicant in connection with—
    - (a) the applicant's business as an investment exchange, or
    - (b) the provision by the applicant of clearing services,imposes or will impose an excessive requirement on the persons affected (directly or indirectly) by it.
  - (2) The reference in section 290(1) (making of recognition order) to satisfying the applicable recognition requirements shall be read accordingly.
  - (3) Expressions used in subsection (1) above that are defined for the purposes of section 300A (power of Authority to disallow excessive regulatory provision) have the same meaning as in that section.
  - (4) The provisions of section 300A(3) and (4) (determination whether regulatory provision excessive) apply for the purposes of this section as for the purposes of section 300A.
  - (5) Section 298 has effect in relation to a decision under this section to refuse a recognition order—
    - (a) as it has effect in relation to a decision to revoke such an order, and
    - (b) as if references to a recognised body were references to the applicant.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/12/2001. This version of this cross heading contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

292 Overseas investment exchanges and overseas clearing houses.

- (1) An application under section 287 or 288 by an overseas applicant must contain the address of a place in the United Kingdom for the service on the applicant of notices or other documents required or authorised to be served on it under this Act.
- (2) If it appears to the Authority that an overseas applicant satisfies the requirements of subsection (3) it may make a recognition order declaring the applicant to be—
  - (a) a recognised investment exchange;
  - (b) a recognised clearing house.
- (3) The requirements are that—
  - (a) investors are afforded protection equivalent to that which they would be afforded if the body concerned were required to comply with recognition requirements;
  - (b) there are adequate procedures for dealing with a person who is unable, or likely to become unable, to meet his obligations in respect of one or more market contracts connected with the investment exchange or clearing house;

Status: Point in time view as at 01/12/2001. This version of this cross heading contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)*

- (c) the applicant is able and willing to co-operate with the Authority by the sharing of information and in other ways;
  - (d) adequate arrangements exist for co-operation between the Authority and those responsible for the supervision of the applicant in the country or territory in which the applicant's head office is situated.
- (4) In considering whether it is satisfied as to the requirements mentioned in subsection (3) (a) and (b), the Authority is to have regard to—
- (a) the relevant law and practice of the country or territory in which the applicant's head office is situated;
  - (b) the rules and practices of the applicant.
- (5) In relation to an overseas applicant and a body or association declared to be a recognised investment exchange or recognised clearing house by a recognition order made by virtue of subsection (2)—
- (a) the reference in section 313(2) to recognition requirements is to be read as a reference to matters corresponding to the matters in respect of which provision is made in the recognition requirements;
  - (b) sections 296(1) and 297(2) have effect as if the requirements mentioned in section 296(1)(a) and section 297(2)(a) were those of subsection (3)(a), (b), and (c) of this section;
  - (c) section 297(2) has effect as if the grounds on which a recognition order may be revoked under that provision included the ground that in the opinion of the Authority arrangements of the kind mentioned in subsection (3)(d) no longer exist.
