Extended time for appealing in certain cases where deproscription order made

- 10L (1) This paragraph applies where—
- a successful application for an order under paragraph 10G relies (wholly or partly) on the fact that an organisation is proscribed,
 - an application under section 4 of the Terrorism Act 2000 for a deproscription order in respect of the organisation is refused by the Secretary of State,
 - the property forfeited by the order under paragraph 10G was seized under this Part of this Schedule on or after the date of the refusal of that application,
 - an appeal against that refusal is allowed under section 5 of the Terrorism Act 2000,
 - a deproscription order is made accordingly, and
 - if the order is made in reliance on section 123(5) of the Terrorism Act 2000, a resolution is passed by each House of Parliament under section 123(5)(b) of that Act.
- (2) Where this paragraph applies, an appeal under paragraph 10K against the making of an order under paragraph 10G, and against the making (in addition) of any order under paragraph 10J(7), may be brought at any time before the end of the period of 30 days beginning with the date on which the deproscription order comes into force.
- (3) In this paragraph a “deproscription order” means an order under section 3(3)(b) or (8) of the Terrorism Act 2000.]
