[^{F1}Application for order varying lease]

- 3 (1) Any party to a lease of a dwelling may apply to [^{F2}the appropriate tribunal] for an order varying the lease in such manner as is specified in the application on the grounds that—
- (a) any administration charge specified in the lease is unreasonable, ^{F3}...
 - (b) any formula specified in the lease in accordance with which any administration charge is calculated is unreasonable. [^{F4}, or
 - (c) an administration charge specified in the lease is not payable because of paragraph 2A.]
- (2) If the grounds on which the application was made are established to the satisfaction of the tribunal, it may make an order varying the lease in such manner as is specified in the order.
- (3) The variation specified in the order may be—
- (a) the variation specified in the application, or
 - (b) such other variation as the tribunal thinks fit.
- (4) The tribunal may, instead of making an order varying the lease in such manner as is specified in the order, make an order directing the parties to the lease to vary it in such manner as is so specified.
- (5) The tribunal may by order direct that a memorandum of any variation of a lease effected by virtue of this paragraph be endorsed on such documents as are specified in the order.
- (6) Any such variation of a lease shall be binding not only on the parties to the lease for the time being but also on other persons (including any predecessors in title), whether or not they were parties to the proceedings in which the order was made.
