Introduction

Chapter 3: Enforcement

Undertakings and orders

Section 160: Order-making power where final undertakings not fulfilled: Part 4

363. This section allows the CC to replace final undertakings with an order where the parties are not complying with the undertakings. Any order made under this section is limited to the remedies set out in Schedule 8 or any closely-related remedy. (See note on Schedule 8 under Part 3 for more detail.) The Secretary of State may exercise this power in cases raising a public interest consideration.
