SCHEDULES

SCHEDULE 24

Section 143

RESTRICTION OF DEDUCTIONS FOR EMPLOYEE BENEFIT CONTRIBUTIONS

Restriction of deductions

- 1 (1) This Schedule applies where—
- (a) a calculation is required to be made for [^{F1}corporation tax purposes] of a person's profits for any period, and
 - (b) a deduction would (but for this Schedule) be allowed for that period in respect of employee benefit contributions made, or to be made, by that person (“the employer”).
- But it does not apply to a deduction of a kind mentioned in paragraph 8.
- (2) For the purposes of this Schedule an employer makes an “employee benefit contribution” if—
- (a) [^{F2}the employer] pays money or transfers an asset to another person (“the third party”), and
 - (b) the third party is entitled or required, under the terms of an employee benefit scheme, to hold or use the money or asset for or in connection with the provision of benefits to [^{F3}or in respect of present or former] employees of the employer.
- (3) The deduction in respect of employee benefit contributions mentioned in sub-paragraph (1) is allowed only to the extent that—
- (a) during the period in question or within nine months from the end of it—
 - (i) qualifying benefits are provided out of the contributions, or
 - (ii) qualifying expenses are paid out of the contributions,
 - or
 - (b) where the making of the contributions is itself the provision of qualifying benefits, the contributions are made during that period or within those nine months.
- (4) An amount disallowed under sub-paragraph (3) is allowed as a deduction for a subsequent period to the extent that—
- (a) qualifying benefits are provided out of the employee benefit contributions in question before the end of that subsequent period, or
 - (b) where the making of the contributions is itself the provision of qualifying benefits, the contributions are made before the end of that subsequent period.

“Provision of qualifying benefits”

- 2 (1) For the purposes of this Schedule qualifying benefits are provided where there is a payment of money or transfer of assets, otherwise than by way of loan, that—
- (a) gives rise both to an employment income tax charge and to an NIC charge, or would do if the conditions in sub-paragraph (3) were met, ^{F4}...
 - (b) is made in connection with the termination of the recipient’s employment with the employer, [^{F5}or
 - (c) is made under an employer-financed retirement benefits scheme.]
- (2) In sub-paragraph (1)(a)—
- “employment income tax charge” means a charge to tax under the Income Tax (Earnings and Pensions) Act 2003 (c. 1) (whether on the recipient or on someone else);
- “NIC charge” means a liability to pay national insurance contributions under section 6 (Class 1 contributions), 10 (Class 1A contributions) or 10A (Class 1B contributions) of the Contributions and Benefits Act.
- (3) The conditions mentioned in sub-paragraph (1)(a) are—
- (a) that the duties of the employment in respect of which the payment or transfer was made were performed in the United Kingdom, and
 - (b) that the person in respect of whose employment the payment or transfer was made fulfilled at all relevant times the conditions as to residence or presence in Great Britain or Northern Ireland prescribed under section 1(6)(a) of the Contributions and Benefits Act.
- (4) In this paragraph “the Contributions and Benefits Act” means—
- (a) the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992 (c. 4), or
 - (b) the Social Security Contributions and Benefits (Northern Ireland) Act 1992 (c. 7).
- (5) Where the provision of a qualifying benefit takes the form of the payment of money [^{F6}otherwise than under an employer-financed retirement benefits scheme], the benefit is treated for the purposes of this Schedule as provided at the time when the money is treated as received for the purposes of Chapter 4 of Part 2 of the Income Tax (Earnings and Pensions) Act 2003, applying the rules in section 18 of that Act (receipt of money earnings).

“Qualifying expenses”

- 3 In this Schedule “qualifying expenses”—
- (a) does not include expenses that, if incurred by the employer, would not be deductible in calculating for [^{F7}corporation tax purposes] the employer’s profits for any period, but
 - (b) subject to that, includes any expenses of the third party (other than the provision of benefits to employees of the employer) in operating the employee benefit scheme in question.

Textual Amendments

- F7 Words in Sch. 24 para. 3(a) substituted (6.4.2005) by Income Tax \(Trading and Other Income\) Act 2005 \(c. 5\), s. 883(1), Sch. 1 para. 624\(3\) (with Sch. 2)

Payment “out of” employee benefit contributions

- 4 (1) For the purposes of paragraph 1(3)(a) any qualifying benefits provided or qualifying expenses paid by the third party after the receipt by him of employee benefit contributions are regarded as being provided or paid out of those contributions, up to the total amount of the contributions as reduced by the amount of any benefits or expenses previously provided or paid as mentioned in paragraph 1(3)(a).
- (2) For the purposes of paragraph 1(4)(a) any qualifying benefits provided by the third party after the receipt by him of employee benefit contributions are regarded as being provided out of those contributions, up to the total amount of the contributions as reduced by the amount of any benefits or expenses previously provided or paid as mentioned in paragraph 1(3)(a) or (4)(a).
- (3) In applying sub-paragraphs (1) and (2) above no account shall be taken of any other amount received or paid by the third party.

Transfer of asset to employee

- 5 (1) This paragraph applies where the provision of a qualifying benefit takes the form of the transfer of an asset.
- (2) The amount provided shall be taken for the purposes of this Schedule to be the total of—
- (a) the amount (if any) expended on the asset by the third party, and
 - (b) in a case where the asset was transferred to the third party by the employer, the amount of the deduction that would be allowed as mentioned in paragraph 1(1) in respect of the transfer.
- (3) But where the amount given by sub-paragraph (2) above is more than the amount that is charged to tax under the Income Tax (Earnings and Pensions) Act 2003 (c. 1) in respect of the transfer, or would be so charged if the condition in paragraph 2(3) (a) were met, the deduction allowable under paragraph 1(3) or (4) is limited to that lower amount.

Status: Point in time view as at 06/04/2006.

Changes to legislation: Finance Act 2003, SCHEDULE 24 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 17 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

Provisional calculation of profits

- 6 Where the calculation referred to in paragraph 1(1) is made before the end of the nine-month period mentioned in paragraph 1(3)—
- (a) for the purposes of making the calculation, paragraph 1(3) shall be read as if the reference to that nine-month period were a reference to the period ending at the time when the calculation is made, but
 - (b) after the end of the nine-month period the calculation shall if necessary be adjusted to take account of any benefits provided, expenses paid or contributions made within that period but after the time of the calculation.

[^{F8}Life assurance business

Textual Amendments

F8 Sch. 24 para. 7 substituted (with effect in accordance with art. 1(2) of the amending S.I.) by The Finance Act 2004, Sections 38 to 40 and 45 and Schedule 6 \(Consequential Amendment of Enactments\) Order 2004 \(S.I. 2004/2310\), art. 1\(2\), Sch. para. 71\(2\)

- 7 (1) In the case of a company in relation to which section 76 of the Taxes Act 1988 applies (expenses of companies carrying on life assurance business) the effect of section 86 of the Finance Act 1989 (spreading of relief for acquisition expenses) shall be ignored in determining for the purposes of paragraph 1(1) whether a deduction would (apart from this Schedule) be made.
- (2) But paragraph 1(4) above has effect subject to section 86 of the Finance Act 1989 where, in accordance with sub-paragraph (1) above, an amount is allowed as a deduction for a particular period under paragraph 1(4).
- (3) In construing that section, the employee benefit contributions shall be treated as expenses payable for that period which fall to be included at Step 1 in section 76(7) of the Taxes Act 1988.
- (4) In the application of this Schedule to a company in relation to which section 76 of the Taxes Act 1988 applies—
- (a) any reference to a deduction in respect of employee benefit contributions shall be taken as a reference to an amount being brought into account under that section as expenses payable, and
 - (b) references to deduction shall be construed accordingly.]

Deductions to which Schedule does not apply

- 8 This Schedule does not apply to any deduction that is allowable—
- (a) in respect of anything given as consideration for goods or services provided in the course of a trade or profession,
 - [^{F9}(b) in respect of contributions under a registered pension scheme or a section 615(3) scheme,
 - (c) in respect of contributions under a qualifying overseas pension scheme in respect of an individual who is a relevant migrant member of the pension scheme in relation to the contributions,]
 - (d) in respect of contributions under an accident benefit scheme,
 - (e) under Schedule 4AA to that Act (approved share incentive plans),

Status: Point in time view as at 06/04/2006.

Changes to legislation: Finance Act 2003, SCHEDULE 24 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 17 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (f) under section 67 of the Finance Act 1989 (c. 26) (qualifying share ownership trusts), or
- (g) under Schedule 23 to this Act (relief for employee share acquisition).
