COMMENTARY ON SECTIONS

PART 4: Clubs

Section 68 – The relevant licensing authority

126. For the purposes of this Part, the “relevant licensing authority” is the authority in whose area a club’s premises are situated (or mainly situated). (If the premises straddle two or more areas equally, applicants can nominate one of the authorities in question to act as the relevant licensing authority.) The effect of this section is to determine the authority to which an application for a club premises certificate may be made by a qualifying club.
