

Anti-social Behaviour Act 2003

2003 CHAPTER 38

PART 3

PARENTAL RESPONSIBILITIES

Parenting orders under the 1998 Act

18 Parenting orders under the 1998 Act

(1) Section 8 of the Crime and Disorder Act 1998 (c. 37) is amended as follows.

(2) For subsections (4) and (5) substitute—

“(4) A parenting order is an order which requires the parent—

- (a) to comply, for a period not exceeding twelve months, with such requirements as are specified in the order, and
- (b) subject to subsection (5) below, to attend, for a concurrent period not exceeding three months, such counselling or guidance programme as may be specified in directions given by the responsible officer.

(5) A parenting order may, but need not, include such a requirement as is mentioned in subsection (4)(b) above in any case where a parenting order under this section or any other enactment has been made in respect of the parent on a previous occasion.”

(3) After subsection (7) insert—

“(7A) A counselling or guidance programme which a parent is required to attend by virtue of subsection (4)(b) above may be or include a residential course but only if the court is satisfied—

- (a) that the attendance of the parent at a residential course is likely to be more effective than his attendance at a non-residential course in preventing any such repetition or, as the case may be, the commission of any such further offence, and

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2009.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Anti-social Behaviour Act 2003, Part 3. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) that any interference with family life which is likely to result from the attendance of the parent at a residential course is proportionate in all the circumstances.”

19 Parenting contracts in cases of [<sup>F2</sup>misbehaviour at] school or truancy

- (1) This section applies where a pupil has been excluded on disciplinary grounds from a relevant school for a fixed period or permanently.

[<sup>F3</sup>(1A) This section also applies where a local education authority or the governing body of a relevant school have reason to believe that a child who is a registered pupil at a relevant school has engaged in behaviour connected with the school which—

- (a) has caused, or is likely to cause—
 (i) significant disruption to the education of other pupils, or
 (ii) significant detriment to the welfare of the child himself or of other pupils or to the health or safety of any staff, or
 (b) forms part of a pattern of behaviour which (if continued) will give rise to a risk of future exclusion from the school on disciplinary grounds.

(1B) For the purposes of subsection (1A) the child's behaviour is connected with the school to the extent that it consists of—

- (a) conduct at the school, or
 (b) conduct elsewhere in circumstances in which it would be reasonable for the school to regulate his conduct.]

- (2) This section also applies where a child of compulsory school age has failed to attend regularly at —

- [<sup>F4</sup>(a) a relevant school at which he is a registered pupil,
 (b) any place at which education is provided for him in the circumstances mentioned in subsection (1) of section 444ZA of the Education Act 1996, and
 (c) any place at which he is required to attend in the circumstances mentioned in subsection (2) of that section.]

- (3) A local education authority or the governing body of a relevant school may enter into a parenting contract with a parent of the pupil or child.

(4) A parenting contract is a document which contains—

- (a) a statement by the parent that he agrees to comply with such requirements as may be specified in the document for such period as may be so specified, and

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2009.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Anti-social Behaviour Act 2003, Part 3. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) a statement by the local education authority or governing body that it agrees to provide support to the parent for the purpose of complying with those requirements.
- (5) The requirements mentioned in subsection (4) may include (in particular) a requirement to attend a counselling or guidance programme.
- (6) The purpose of the requirements mentioned in subsection (4)—
  - (a) in a case falling within subsection (1) [<sup>F5</sup>or (1A)], is to improve the behaviour of the pupil,
  - (b) in a case falling within subsection (2), is to ensure that the child attends regularly at the relevant school at which he is a registered pupil.
- (7) A parenting contract must be signed by the parent and signed on behalf of the local education authority or governing body.
- (8) A parenting contract does not create any obligations in respect of whose breach any liability arises in contract or in tort.
- (9) Local education authorities and governing bodies of relevant schools must, in carrying out their functions in relation to parenting contracts, have regard to any guidance which is issued by the appropriate person from time to time for that purpose.

20 Parenting orders in cases of exclusion [<sup>F6</sup>or potential exclusion] from school

- (1) [<sup>F7</sup>Subsection (2)] applies where—
  - (a) a pupil has been excluded on disciplinary grounds from a relevant school for a fixed period or permanently, and
  - (b) such conditions as may be prescribed in regulations made by the appropriate person are satisfied.
- (2) [<sup>F8</sup>A relevant body] may apply to a magistrates' court for a parenting order in respect of a parent of the pupil.

[<sup>F9</sup>(2A) A relevant body may also apply to a magistrates' court for a parenting order in respect of a pupil at a relevant school if—

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2009.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Anti-social Behaviour Act 2003, Part 3. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) it appears to the body making the application that the pupil has engaged in behaviour which would warrant the exclusion of the pupil from the school on disciplinary grounds for a fixed period or permanently, and
  - (b) such conditions as may be prescribed in regulations made by the appropriate person are satisfied.
- (2B) For the purposes of subsection (2A), there are to be disregarded—
- (a) any practice restricting the use of exclusion at a particular school, or at schools of a particular description, and
  - (b) any grounds that might exist for not excluding the pupil, to the extent that those grounds relate to his education or welfare after exclusion.]
- [<sup>F10</sup>(3) If an application is made under subsection (2) or (2A), the court may make a parenting order in respect of a pupil if it is satisfied—
- (a) in the case of an application under subsection (2A), that the pupil has engaged in behaviour of the kind mentioned in that subsection, and
  - (b) in any case, that the making of the order would be desirable in the interests of improving the behaviour of the pupil.]
- (4) A parenting order is an order which requires the parent—
- (a) to comply, for a period not exceeding twelve months, with such requirements as are specified in the order, and
  - (b) subject to subsection (5), to attend, for a concurrent period not exceeding three months, such counselling or guidance programme as may be specified in directions given by the responsible officer.
- (5) A parenting order under this section may, but need not, include a requirement mentioned in subsection (4)(b) in any case where a parenting order under this section or any other enactment has been made in respect of the parent on a previous occasion.
- (6) A counselling or guidance programme which a parent is required to attend by virtue of subsection (4)(b) may be or include a residential course but only if the court is satisfied that the following two conditions are fulfilled.
- (7) The first condition is that the attendance of the parent at a residential course is likely to be more effective than his attendance at a non-residential course in improving the behaviour of the pupil.
- (8) The second condition is that any interference with family life which is likely to result from the attendance of the parent at a residential course is proportionate in all the circumstances.
- [<sup>F11</sup>(9) In this section “a relevant body” means—
- (a) a local education authority,
  - (b) the governing body of any relevant school in England at which the pupil to whom the application relates is a pupil or from which he has been excluded.]

21 Parenting orders: supplemental

- (1) In deciding whether to make a parenting order under section 20, a court must take into account (amongst other things)—
- (a) any refusal by the parent to enter into a parenting contract under section 19 in respect of the pupil in a case falling within subsection (1)<sup>F12</sup> or (1A) of that section, or
  - (b) if the parent has entered into such a parenting contract, any failure by the parent to comply with the requirements specified in the contract.

<sup>F13</sup>(1A) In deciding whether to make a parenting order under section 20, a court must also take into account any failure by the parent without reasonable excuse to attend a reintegration interview under section 102 of the Education and Inspections Act 2006 (reintegration interview in case of fixed period exclusion) when requested to do so in accordance with regulations under that section.]

- (2) Before making a parenting order under section 20 in the case of a pupil under the age of 16, a court must obtain and consider information about the pupil's family circumstances and the likely effect of the order on those circumstances.
- (3) Subsections (3) to (7) of section 9 of the Crime and Disorder Act 1998 (c. 37) (supplemental provisions about parenting orders) are to apply in relation to a parenting order under section 20 as they apply in relation to a parenting order under section 8 of that Act.

- (5) Local education authorities,<sup>F15</sup> governing bodies] head teachers and responsible officers must, in carrying out their functions in relation to parenting orders, have regard to any guidance which is issued by the appropriate person from time to time for that purpose.

[<sup>F16</sup>22A Parenting contracts and parenting orders: further provisions

- (1) The appropriate person may by regulations make further provision about the exercise by local education authorities and the governing bodies of relevant schools of their functions relating to—
  - (a) parenting contracts under section 19, and
  - (b) parenting orders under section 20.
- (2) The provision that may be made under subsection (1) includes—
  - (a) provision limiting the power of a local education authority to enter into a parenting contract, or apply for a parenting order, in prescribed cases where—
    - (i) the school by reference to which the contract is entered into or the application is made is not in the area of the authority, or
    - (ii) the child by reference to whom the contract is entered into or the application is made does not reside in that area;

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2009.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Anti-social Behaviour Act 2003, Part 3. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) provision as to which governing body may apply for a parenting order in cases where a pupil has been admitted to a relevant school after being permanently excluded from another;
  - (c) provision requiring one local education authority or governing body to consult with another before taking any prescribed step;
  - (d) provision authorising or requiring the provision of information by one local education authority or governing body to another;
  - (e) provision as to how the costs associated with parenting contracts entered into by local education authorities or governing bodies of relevant schools or the costs associated with the requirements of parenting orders under section 20 (including in each case the costs of providing counselling or guidance programmes) are to be met.
- (3) In subsection (2), “prescribed” means prescribed by regulations made by the appropriate person under subsection (1).]

23 Penalty notices for parents in cases of truancy

- (1) After section 444 of the Education Act 1996 (c. 56) (failure to secure regular attendance at school of registered pupil) insert—

“444A Penalty notice in respect of failure to secure regular attendance at school of registered pupil

- (1) Where an authorised officer has reason to believe—
- (a) that a person has committed an offence under section 444(1), and
  - (b) that the school to which the offence relates is a relevant school in England,
- he may give the person a penalty notice in respect of the offence.
- (2) A penalty notice is a notice offering a person the opportunity of discharging any liability to conviction for the offence under section 444(1) to which the notice relates by payment of a penalty in accordance with the notice.
- (3) Where a person is given a penalty notice, proceedings for the offence to which the notice relates (or an offence under section 444(1A) arising out of the same circumstances) may not be instituted before the end of such period as may be prescribed.
- (4) Where a person is given a penalty notice, he cannot be convicted of the offence to which the notice relates (or an offence under section 444(1A) arising out of the same circumstances) if he pays a penalty in accordance with the notice.
- (5) Penalties under this section shall be payable to local education authorities in England.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2009.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Anti-social Behaviour Act 2003, Part 3. (See end of Document for details)

- (6) Sums received by a local education authority under this section may be used by the authority for the purposes of any of its functions which may be specified in regulations.

444B Penalty notices: supplemental

- (1) Regulations may make—
- (a) provision as to the form and content of penalty notices,
  - (b) provision as to the monetary amount of any penalty and the time by which it is to be paid,
  - (c) provision for determining the local education authority to which a penalty is payable,
  - (d) provision as to the methods by which penalties may be paid,
  - (e) provision as to the records which are to be kept in relation to penalty notices,
  - (f) provision as to the persons who may be authorised by a local education authority or a head teacher to give penalty notices,
  - (g) provision limiting the circumstances in which authorised officers of a prescribed description may give penalty notices,
  - (h) provision for or in connection with the withdrawal, in prescribed circumstances, of a penalty notice, including—
    - (i) repayment of any amount paid by way of penalty under a penalty notice which is withdrawn, and
    - (ii) prohibition of the institution or continuation of proceedings for the offence to which the withdrawn notice relates (and any offence under section 444(1A) arising out of the same circumstances),
  - (i) provision for a certificate—
    - (i) purporting to be signed by or on behalf of a prescribed person, and
    - (ii) stating that payment of any amount paid by way of penalty was or, as the case may be, was not received on or before a date specified in the certificate, to be received in evidence of the matters so stated,
  - (j) provision as to the action to be taken if a penalty is not paid in accordance with a penalty notice,
  - (k) provision for or in connection with the preparation of codes of conduct in relation to the giving of penalty notices,
  - (l) such other provision in relation to penalties or penalty notices as the Secretary of State thinks necessary or expedient.
- (2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1) or section 569(4), regulations under subsection (1)(b) may make provision for penalties of different amounts to be payable in different cases or circumstances (including provision for the penalty payable under a penalty notice to differ according to the time by which it is paid).
- (3) Local education authorities, head teachers and authorised officers shall, in carrying out their functions in relation to penalty notices, have regard to any

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Anti-social Behaviour Act 2003, Part 3. (See end of Document for details)

“head teacher” includes acting head teacher, teacher in charge and acting teacher in charge,

“local education authority” has the same meaning as in the 1996 Act,

“parent”, in relation to a pupil or child, is to be construed in accordance with section 576 of the 1996 Act, but does not include a person who is not an individual,

“pupil” is to be construed in accordance with section 3(1) and (1A) of the 1996 Act,

“registered pupil” has the meaning given by section 434(5) of the 1996 Act, [F20 “relevant school” means— ]

- (a) a community, foundation or voluntary school,
- (b) a community or foundation special school,
- (c) a maintained nursery school as defined in section 22(9) of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998,
- (d) a pupil referral unit as defined in section 19(2) of the 1996 Act,
- (e) an Academy,
- (f) a city technology college, or
- (g) a city college for the technology of the arts,

“responsible officer”, in relation to a parenting order, means one of the following who is specified in the order, namely—

- (a) an officer of a local education authority, and
- (b) a head teacher or a person nominated by a head teacher, but a person falling within paragraph (b) may not be specified in the order without his consent,

“the 1996 Act” means the Education Act 1996 (c. 56).

26 Parenting orders in respect of criminal conduct and anti-social behaviour [<sup>F23</sup>: youth offending teams]

- (1) This section applies where a child or young person has been referred to a youth offending team.
- (2) A member of the youth offending team may apply to a magistrates' court for a parenting order in respect of a parent of the child or young person.
- (3) If such an application is made, the court may make a parenting order in respect of a parent of the child or young person if it is satisfied—
  - (a) that the child or young person has engaged in criminal conduct or anti-social behaviour, and
  - (b) that making the order would be desirable in the interests of preventing the child or young person from engaging in further criminal conduct or further anti-social behaviour.
- (4) A parenting order is an order which requires the parent—
  - (a) to comply, for a period not exceeding twelve months, with such requirements as are specified in the order, and
  - (b) subject to subsection (5), to attend, for a concurrent period not exceeding three months, such counselling or guidance programme as may be specified in directions given by the responsible officer.
- (5) A parenting order under this section may, but need not, include a requirement mentioned in subsection (4)(b) in any case where a parenting order under this section or any other enactment has been made in respect of the parent on a previous occasion.
- (6) A counselling or guidance programme which a parent is required to attend by virtue of subsection (4)(b) may be or include a residential course but only if the court is satisfied that the following two conditions are fulfilled.
- (7) The first condition is that the attendance of the parent at a residential course is likely to be more effective than his attendance at a non-residential course in preventing the child or young person from engaging in further criminal conduct or further anti-social behaviour.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2009.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Anti-social Behaviour Act 2003, Part 3. (See end of Document for details)

(8) The second condition is that any interference with family life which is likely to result from the attendance of the parent at a residential course is proportionate in all the circumstances.

[<sup>F24</sup>(9) A person is eligible to be the responsible officer in relation to a parenting order under this section only if he is a member of a youth offending team.]

26B Parenting orders in respect of anti-social behaviour: registered social landlords

- (1) A registered social landlord may apply for a parenting order in respect of a parent of a child or young person if—
  - (a) the registered social landlord has reason to believe that the child or young person has engaged in anti-social behaviour, and
  - (b) the behaviour in question directly or indirectly relates to or affects the housing management functions of the registered social landlord.

An application for such an order may be made to a magistrates' court or, where section 26C so allows, to a county court.

- (2) If such an application is made, the court may make a parenting order in respect of a parent of the child or young person if it is satisfied—
  - (a) that the child or young person has engaged in anti-social behaviour, and
  - (b) that making the order would be desirable in the interests of preventing the child or young person from engaging in further anti-social behaviour.
- (3) A parenting order is an order which requires the parent—
  - (a) to comply, for a period not exceeding twelve months, with such requirements as are specified in the order, and
  - (b) subject to subsection (4), to attend, for a concurrent period not exceeding three months, such counselling or guidance programme as may be specified in directions given by the responsible officer.
- (4) A parenting order under this section may, but need not, include a requirement mentioned in subsection (3)(b) in any case where a parenting order under this section or any other enactment has been made in respect of the parent on a previous occasion.

27 Parenting orders: supplemental

- (1) In deciding whether to make a parenting order under [<sup>F29</sup>section 26, 26A or 26B], a court must take into account (amongst other things)—
- (a) any refusal by the parent to enter into a parenting contract under [<sup>F30</sup>section 25, 25A or 25B] in respect of the child or young person, or
  - (b) if the parent has entered into such a parenting contract, any failure by the parent to comply with the requirements specified in the contract.
- (2) Before making a parenting order under [<sup>F29</sup>section 26, 26A or 26B] in the case of a child or a young person under the age of 16, a court must obtain and consider information about the child or young person's family circumstances and the likely effect of the order on those circumstances.
- (3) Subsections (3) to (7) of section 9 of the 1998 Act (supplemental provisions about parenting orders) are to apply [<sup>F31</sup>in relation to—
- (a) a parenting order under section 26,
  - (b) a parenting order under section 26A, or
  - (c) a parenting order under section 26B,
- as they apply ] in relation to a parenting order under section 8 of that Act.
- [<sup>F32</sup>(3A) Proceedings for an offence under section 9(7) of the 1998 Act (parenting orders: breach of requirement etc.) as applied by subsection (3)(b) above may be brought by any of the following local authorities—

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Anti-social Behaviour Act 2003, Part 3. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) the local authority that applied for the order, if the child or young person, or the person alleged to be in breach, resides or appears to reside in that authority's area;
- (b) the local authority of the child or young person, if that child or young person does not reside or appear to reside in the area of the local authority that applied for the order;
- (c) the local authority of the person alleged to be in breach, if that person does not reside or appear to reside in the area of the local authority that applied for the order.

(3B) For the purposes of subsection (3A)(b) and (c)—

- (a) an individual's local authority is the local authority in whose area the individual resides or appears to reside; but
- (b) if the place where an individual resides or appears to reside is within the area of a county council and within the area of a district council, a reference to that individual's local authority is to be read as a reference to either of those authorities.]

- (a) members of youth offending teams,
- (b) local authorities in England,
- (c) registered social landlords on the register maintained by the Housing Corporation, and
- (d) responsible officers in relation to parenting orders made on the application of local authorities in England or of registered social landlords on that register, must have regard to any guidance which is issued by the Secretary of State from time to time for that purpose.

(4A) In carrying out their functions in relation to parenting orders—

- (a) local authorities in Wales,
- (b) registered social landlords on the register maintained by the National Assembly for Wales, and
- (c) responsible officers in relation to parenting orders made on the application of local authorities in Wales or of registered social landlords on that register,

[<sup>F37</sup>28A Contracting out of local authority functions

(1) An order made by—

- (a) the Secretary of State as regards local authorities in England, or
- (b) the National Assembly for Wales as regards local authorities in Wales, may provide that a local authority may make arrangements with a person who is specified in the order, or is of a description so specified, for the exercise of any function it has under or by virtue of section 25A or 26A.

(2) The order may provide—

- (a) that the power of the local authority to make the arrangements is subject to such conditions as are specified in the order;
- (b) that the arrangements must be subject to such conditions as are so specified;
- (c) that the arrangements may be made subject to such other conditions as the local authority thinks appropriate.

(3) The order may provide that the arrangements may authorise the exercise of the function—

- (a) either wholly or to such extent as may be specified in the order or arrangements;
- (b) either generally or in such cases or areas as may be so specified.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2009.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Anti-social Behaviour Act 2003, Part 3. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) An order under this section may provide that the person with whom arrangements are made in pursuance of the order is to be treated as if he were a public body for the purposes of section 1 of the Local Authorities (Goods and Services) Act 1970.
- (5) The Secretary of State or (as the case may be) the National Assembly for Wales must not make an order under this section without first consulting—
  - (a) such representatives of local government as appear to be appropriate;
  - (b) such other persons as appear to be appropriate.
- (6) Any arrangements made by a local authority in pursuance of an order under this section do not prevent the local authority from exercising the function to which the arrangements relate.
- (7) The following provisions of the Deregulation and Contracting Out Act 1994 apply for the purposes of arrangements made in pursuance of an order under this section as they apply for the purposes of an authorisation to exercise functions by virtue of an order under section 70(2) of that Act—
  - (a) section 72 (effect of contracting out);
  - (b) section 73 (termination of contracting out);
  - (c) section 75 and Schedule 15 (provision relating to disclosure of information);
  - (d) paragraph 3 of Schedule 16 (authorised persons to be treated as officers of local authority).
- (8) For the purposes of subsection (7), any reference in the provisions specified in paragraphs (a) to (d) to a person authorised to exercise a function is to be construed as a reference to a person with whom an arrangement is made for the exercise of the function in pursuance of an order under this section.
- (9) Local authorities in England and any person with whom they make arrangements in pursuance of an order under this section must have regard to any guidance issued by the Secretary of State for the purposes of this section.
- (10) Local authorities in Wales and any person with whom they make arrangements in pursuance of an order under this section must have regard to any guidance issued by the National Assembly for Wales for the purposes of this section.]
