2003 CHAPTER 43

PART 2

STANDARDS

CHAPTER 3

NHS HEALTH CARE: FUNCTIONS OF CHAI

Healthcare provided by and for NHS bodies

48 Introductory

- (1) The CHAI has the general function of encouraging improvement in the provision of health care by and for NHS bodies.
- (2) In exercising its functions under subsection (1) and sections 49 to 56 in relation to such provision, the CHAI shall be concerned in particular with—
 - (a) the availability of, and access to, the health care;
 - (b) the quality and effectiveness of the health care;
 - (c) the economy and efficiency of the provision of the health care;
 - (d) the availability and quality of information provided to the public about the health care;
 - (e) the need to safeguard and promote the rights and welfare of children; and
 - (f) the effectiveness of measures taken for the purpose of paragraph (e) by the body in question and any person who provides, or is to provide, health care for that body.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2004.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Health and Social Care (Community Health and Standards) Act 2003, Chapter 3. (See end of Document for details)

50 Annual reviews

- (1) In each financial year the CHAI must conduct a review of the provision of health care by and for—
 - (a) each English NHS body, and
 - (b) each cross-border SHA,
 and must award a performance rating to each such body.
- (2) The CHAI is to exercise its function under subsection (1) by reference to criteria from time to time devised by it and approved by the Secretary of State.
- (3) The CHAI must publish the criteria devised and approved from time to time under subsection (2).
- (4) In exercising its functions under this section in relation to any health care the CHAI must take into account the standards set out in statements published under section 46.
- (5) For the purposes of this section the CHAI may, subject to this Part, conduct an inspection of—
 - (a) the body being reviewed; and
 - (b) any person who provides, or is to provide, health care for that body (wherever the health care is or is to be provided).
- (6) The Secretary of State may, after consulting the CHAI, by regulations make provision as to the procedure to be followed in respect of the making of representations to the CHAI before the award of a performance rating under this section.

52 Reviews and investigations: England

- (1) The CHAI has the function of conducting other reviews of, and investigations into, the provision of health care by and for English NHS bodies and cross-border SHAs.
- (2) The CHAI may in particular under this section conduct—
 - (a) a review of the overall provision of health care by and for English NHS bodies and cross-border SHAs;
 - (b) a review of the overall provision of a particular kind of health care by and for English NHS bodies and cross-border SHAs;

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2004.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Health and Social Care (Community Health and Standards) Act 2003, Chapter 3. (See end of Document for details)

- (c) a review of, or investigation into, the provision of any health care by or for a particular English NHS body or cross-border SHA.
- (3) The CHAI has the function of conducting reviews of the arrangements made by English NHS bodies and cross-border SHAs for the purpose of discharging their duty under section 45.
- (4) If the Secretary of State so requests, the CHAI must conduct—
- (a) a review under subsection (2)(a);
 - (b) a review under subsection (2)(b) of the overall provision of a kind of health care specified in the request;
 - (c) a review or investigation under subsection (2)(c), or a review under subsection (3), in relation to the provision of such health care by or for such body as may be specified in the request.
- (5) In exercising its functions under this section in relation to any health care the CHAI must take into account the standards set out in statements published under section 46.
- (6) For the purposes of this section the CHAI may carry out an inspection of—
- (a) any English NHS body or cross-border SHA; and
 - (b) any person who provides, or is to provide, health care for such a body (wherever the health care is or is to be provided).
- (7) Where the CHAI conducts a review or investigation under this section it must publish a report.
- (8) The Secretary of State may, after consulting the CHAI, by regulations make provision as to the procedure to be followed in respect of the making of representations to the CHAI before the publication of a report under this section.
- (9) The Secretary of State may by regulations require an NHS body to publish a statement as to the action it proposes to take as a result of any review or investigation conducted under this section in relation to it.
- (10) Regulations under subsection (9) may make provision—
- (a) as to the matters with which a statement under the regulations must deal;
 - (b) as to the time by which any such statement must be published;
 - (c) requiring an NHS body, before publishing any such statement, to obtain the consent of any person specified in the regulations;
 - (d) requiring the NHS body publishing any such statement to send a copy of it to any person so specified.

53 Failings

- (1) This section applies where the CHAI conducts—
- (a) a review under section 50 or 51; or
 - (b) a review or investigation under section 52.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2004.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Health and Social Care (Community Health and Standards) Act 2003, Chapter 3. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) The CHAI must make a report to the Secretary of State if it is of the view that—
 - (a) there are significant failings in relation to the provision of health care by or for an English NHS body or cross-border SHA;
 - (b) there are significant failings in the running of an English NHS body or cross-border SHA; or
 - (c) there are significant failings in the running of any body, or the practice of any individual, providing health care for an English NHS body or cross-border SHA.
- (3) A report made to the Secretary of State under subsection (2) may include a recommendation that, with a view to remedying the failings in question, the Secretary of State take special measures in relation to—
 - (a) in a case falling within paragraph (a) or (b) of subsection (2), the English NHS body or cross-border SHA in question;
 - (b) in a case falling within paragraph (c) of that subsection, any person, other than a Welsh NHS body, referred to in that paragraph.
- (4) The CHAI must also report to the Assembly where it is of the view that—
 - (a) there are significant failings in relation to the provision of health care by or for a Welsh NHS body;
 - (b) there are significant failings in the running of a Welsh NHS body; or
 - (c) there are significant failings in the running of any body, or the practice of any individual, providing health care for a Welsh NHS body.
- (5) A report made to the Assembly under subsection (4) may include a recommendation that, with a view to remedying the failings in question, the Assembly take special measures in relation to—
 - (a) in a case falling within paragraph (a) or (b) of subsection (4), the Welsh NHS body in question; and
 - (b) in a case falling within paragraph (c) of that subsection, any person, other than an English NHS body or cross-border SHA, referred to in that paragraph.
- (6) The CHAI must also make a report to the regulator where it is of the view that—
 - (a) there are significant failings in relation to the provision of health care by or for an NHS foundation trust;
 - (b) there are significant failings in the running of an NHS foundation trust; or
 - (c) there are significant failings in the running of any body, or the practice of any individual, providing health care for an NHS foundation trust.
- (7) A report made to the regulator under subsection (6) may include a recommendation that, with a view to remedying the failings in question, the regulator take special measures in relation to the NHS foundation trust in question.
- (8) A report under this section must give the CHAI's reasons for its view and for any recommendation made.
- (9) The Secretary of State may, after consulting the CHAI, by regulations make provision as to the procedure to be followed in respect of the making of representations to the CHAI before the publication of a report under this section.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2004.
