

Gender Recognition Act 2004

2004 CHAPTER 7

Consequences of issue of gender recognition certificate etc.

10 Registration

(1) Where there is a UK birth register entry in relation to a person to whom a full gender recognition certificate is issued, the Secretary of State must send a copy of the certificate to the appropriate Registrar General.

[^{F1}(1A) Where a full gender recognition certificate is issued to a person who is a party to—

- (a) a marriage under the law of England and Wales, or
- (b) a civil partnership under that law,

the Secretary of State must send a copy of the certificate to the Registrar General for England and Wales.]

(2) In this Act “UK birth register entry”, in relation to a person to whom a full gender recognition certificate is issued, means—

- (a) an entry of which a certified copy is kept by a Registrar General, or
- (b) an entry in a register so kept, containing a record of the person’s birth or adoption (or, if there would otherwise be more than one, the most recent).

(3) “The appropriate Registrar General” means whichever of—

- (a) the Registrar General for England and Wales,
- (b) the Registrar General for Scotland, or
- (c) the Registrar General for Northern Ireland, keeps a certified copy of the person’s UK birth register entry or the register containing that entry.

(4) Schedule 3 (provisions about registration) has effect.
