- 1 This Schedule applies where an access agreement provides, or is treated as providing, for the Office of Rail Regulation to undertake reviews of the terms of that agreement as to –
     (a) the amounts payable under the agreement by one of the parties to the other; and
     (b) the times at which, and the manner in which, those amounts are payable.

Scope of review

- 1A (1) Where the Office of Rail Regulation undertakes such a review, it must, at the same time, review the conditions of every linked licence both—
- (a) in relation to the matters mentioned in paragraph 1(a) and (b); and
  - (b) in relation to the matters about which that Office is provided with information under paragraph 1D.
- (2) A review by that Office of both—
- (a) the terms of an access agreement as to the matters mentioned in paragraph 1(a) and (b), and
  - (b) the conditions of a linked licence,
- is referred to in this Schedule as an access charges review.
- (3) An access charges review must include a consideration of—
- (a) the time at which the next access charges review is to be undertaken in relation to both the access agreement in question and every linked licence; and
  - (b) the circumstances in which it would be appropriate to undertake such a review before that time.
- (4) In this Schedule ‘linked licence’, in relation to an access agreement, means a licence of which the holder is—
- (a) the facility owner, or installation owner, who is a party to the agreement; or
  - (b) a person other than that owner who has an estate or interest in the railway facility or network installation to which the agreement relates or who has a right over it.

Response to request to carry out review

- 1B Where—
- (a) the Secretary of State or the Scottish Ministers suggest to the Office of Rail Regulation that an access charges review should be carried out in any case, but

  - (c) any conditions which that Office requires to be satisfied in the period ending with that date if it is to proceed with the review.
- (4) The period set out under sub-paragraph (3)(a) must be the one which—
- (a) begins with the time as from which the Office of Rail Regulation expects that any changes resulting from the review would fall to be implemented; and
  - (b) ends with the time as from which it thinks it likely (in the absence of special circumstances making an earlier review appropriate) that any changes resulting from the next access charges review in relation to the same agreement and licence would fall to be implemented.
- (5) The date set out under sub-paragraph (3)(b) must be not less than the following period after the date of the notice—
- (a) in a case which the Office of Rail Regulation is satisfied is a case of urgency, four weeks; and

- (a) the Secretary of State, in the case of a review notice of which was given to him under paragraph 1C; and
  - (b) the Scottish Ministers, in the case of a review notice of which was given to them under that paragraph.

- (a) the predecessor ceases to carry on that trade or that part of that trade; and
  - (b) a person who is not a national authority (“the successor”) begins to carry on that trade or that part of it.
- (2) For the purpose of computing, in relation to the time when the scheme comes into force and subsequent times, the relevant trading profits or losses of the predecessor and the successor –
- (a) the trade or part is to be treated as having been a separate trade at the time of its commencement and as having been carried on by the successor at all times since its commencement as a separate trade; and
  - (b) the trade carried on by the successor after the time when the scheme comes into force is to be treated as the same trade as that which it is treated, by virtue of paragraph (a), as having carried on as a separate trade before that time.
