

Gambling Act 2005

2005 CHAPTER 19

PART 11

LOTTERIES

General

VALID FROM 01/09/2007

265 Territorial application

- (1) This Part applies to anything done in relation to a lottery—
 - (a) in Great Britain, or
 - (b) by the provision of, or by means of, remote gambling equipment situated in Great Britain.
- (2) But this Part does not apply in relation to a lottery if—
 - (a) no person in Great Britain does anything by virtue of which he becomes a participant in the lottery, and
 - (b) no person in Great Britain possesses tickets for the lottery with a view to selling or supplying them to a person in Great Britain who thereby becomes a participant in the lottery.
- (3) It is a defence for a person charged with an offence under section 258 or 259 to show that he reasonably believed that this Part did not and would not apply to the lottery, by reason of subsection (2) above.
