

*These notes refer to the Mental Capacity Act 2005
(c.9) which received Royal Assent on 7 April 2005*

MENTAL CAPACITY ACT 2005

EXPLANATORY NOTES

COMMENTARY ON SECTIONS

Part 1: Persons Who Lack Capacity

Excluded decisions

Section 27: Family relationships etc.

93. This lists certain decisions that can never be made under the Act on behalf of a person who lacks capacity. For example, in relation to adoption, if a birth parent lacks capacity to consent to an adoption order the rules as to dispensing with consent in the adoption legislation will apply. There will be no question of an attorney consenting or of the Court of Protection making an order or appointing a deputy to provide the requisite consent.