

Health Act 2006

2006 CHAPTER 28

PART 6

MISCELLANEOUS

Local Health Boards and Welsh health authorities

75 Amendments relating to Local Health Boards and abolition of Welsh health authorities

- (1) The Secretary of State or the Assembly may by order make such amendments of any enactment as he or it considers appropriate—
 - (a) in order to reflect the fact that (by virtue of relevant directions) transferred functions may be exercised by Local Health Boards, or
 - (b) otherwise in consequence of, or in connection with, the abolition of Welsh health authorities effected under section 27(5) of the Government of Wales Act 1998 (c. 38).
- (2) Where a transferred function which became exercisable by a Local Health Board by virtue of relevant directions ceases to be so exercisable, the Secretary of State or the Assembly may by order—
 - (a) substitute for any reference to a Local Health Board in any enactment relating to the function a reference to the Assembly, and
 - (b) make such amendments of any enactment as he or it considers appropriate in consequence of any such substitution.
- (3) No order may be made under subsection (1)(a) in relation to a transferred function on or after the date on which subsection (4) applies to the function.
- (4) This subsection applies to a transferred function on the date when either of the following comes into force in relation to the function—
 - (a) an order made under subsection (1)(b) which amends an enactment so as to provide for the function to be exercisable only by the Assembly, or
 - (b) an order made under subsection (2).
